16. Time of loss. Any loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the end of the insurance period, unless the entire cotton crop on the insurance unit was destroyed or substantially destroyed earlier, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of such damage, as determined by the Corporation.

17. Proof of loss. If a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation a form entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss," containing such information regarding the manner and extent of the loss as may be required by the Corporation. The statement in proof of loss shall be submitted not later than sixty days after the time of loss, unless the time for submitting the claim is extended in writing by the Corporation. It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the contract that the insured establish the actual production of cotton on the insurance unit, the amount of any loss for which claim is made, and that such loss has been directly caused by one or more of the hazards insured against by the contract during the insurance period for the crop year for which the loss is claimed, and that the insured further establish that the loss has not arisen from or been caused by, either directly or indirectly, any of the causes of loss not insured against by the contract. The cotton stalks on any acreage with respect to which a loss is claimed, shall not be destroyed until the Corporation makes an inspection.

18. Insurance unit. Losses shall be determined separately for each insurance unit except as provided in section 19 (b). An insurance unit consists of all insurable acreage in the county (a) in which the insured has 100 percent interest, plus any acreage owned by him and worked for him by sharecroppers, or (b) which is owned by the insured and rented to one tenant, or (c) which is owned by one person and operated by the insured as a tenant, or (d) which is owned by one person and worked by the insured as a sharecropper. Land rented for cash or for a fixed commodity payment shall be considered as owned by the lessee.

For any crop year of the contract, acreage shall be considered to be located in the county if a coverage is shown therefor on the county actuarial table.

19. Amount of loss. (a) The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by multiplying the planted acreage for such unit (exclusive of any acreage to which insurance did not attach) by the applicable coverage per acre and subtracting therefrom the total production for the planted acreage and multiplying the remainder by the insured interest. However, if the planted acreage on the insurance unit exceeds the insured acreage on the insurance unit, the amount of loss so determined shall be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the insured acreage to the planted acreage, or if the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report is less than the premium computed for the planted acreage the amount of loss determined for the planted acreage may be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report to the premium computed for the planted acreage, if the Corporation so elects. The total production for an insurance unit shall include:

(1) All harvested cotton (not subsequently destroyed by a cause insured against before being housed or removed from the field);

(2) The amount by which the appraised production of lint cotton exceeds the amount of insurance, for any acreage released by the Corporation because of damage occurring in the second stage of production;

(3) The appraised production of lint cotton for any acreage which is released by the Corporation because of damage occurring in the third stage of production, as determined by the Corporation, and the appraised production of lint cotton for any other acreage which is not harvested, except acreage which is released because of damage occurring in the first or second stage of production;

(4) The appraised unharvested production of lint cotton on acreage which reaches the fourth stage of production;

(5) The appraised production of lint cotton for any portion of the insured cotton acreage that is put to another use without the consent of the Corporation, but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre applicable to such acreage in the fourth stage of production;

(6) The appraised number of pounds of lint cotton by which production on any acreage has been reduced solely because of any cause not insured against, but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre applicable to such acreage in the fourth stage of production minus any quantity of lint cotton harvested from such acreage and the lint cotton equivalent of any quantity of cotton not harvested from such acreage and remaining in the field; and

(7) The appraised number of pounds of lint cotton by which production on any acreage has been reduced because of any cause not insured against, where damage on such acreage has resulted from a cause insured against and a cause not insured against.

(b) If the production from two or more insurance units is commingled and the insured fails to establish and maintain records satisfactory to the Corporation of acreage or the production from each, the insurance with respect to such units may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured. However, if all the acreage from which production is commingled is insured, the total coverage for the insurance units from which the production is commingled may be considered as the total coverage for the combination, if the Corporation so elects, in which case any loss for such combination shall be determined as outlined in paragraph (a) of this section. Where the insured fails to establish and maintain separate records, satisfactory to the Corporation, of uninsured acreage and production therefrom and for one or more insurance units or portions thereof, any production from such acreage which is commingled with production from the insured acreage shall be considered to have been produced on the insured acreage, or the insurance with respect to such unit(s) under the contract may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured.

(c) The cash amount of the indemnity shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the loss in pounds by the fixed price.

20. Payment of indemnity. (a) Indemnities shall be paid only by check. The amount of indemnity for which the Corporation may be liable will be payable within thirty days after satisfactory proof of loss is approved by the Corporation, but if payment is delayed for any reason, the Corporation shall not be liable for interest or damages on account of such delay.

(b) Indemnities shall be subject to all provisions of the contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any indemnity the unpaid amount of any earned premium plus any interest due or any other obligation of the insured to the Corporation.

(c) Any indemnity payable under the contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits under the provisions of the contract, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy, directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(d) If a check issued in payment of an indemnity is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the payee, and if such payee or other person entitled to the indemnity makes no claim for payment within two years after the issuance of the check, such claim shall not thereafter be payable, except with the consent of the Corporation.

21. Payment to transferee. (a) If the insured transfers all or a part of his insured interest in a cotton crop before the beginning of harvest or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, he shall immediately notify the Corporation thereof in writing at the county office. The transferee under such a transfer will be entitled to the benefits of the contract with respect to the interest so transferred, provided the transferee immediately following the transfer makes suitable arrangements with the Corporation for the payment of any premium with respect to the interest so transferred, whereupon the transferee and the transferor shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of such premium. Any transfer shall be subject to any collateral assignment made by the original insured in accordance with section 25. However, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place.

(b) An involuntary transfer of an insured interest in a cotton crop solely because of the existence of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or other process shall not entitle any holder of any such interest to any benefits under the contract.

(c) Any deduction to be made from an indemnity payable to the transferee shall not exceed the annual premium plus any interest due on the land involved in the transfer for the crop year in which the transfer is made, plus the unpaid amount of any other obligation of the transferee to the Corporation.

(d) If, as a result of any transfer, diverse interests appear with respect to any insurance unit, any indemnity payable with respect to such unit may be paid jointly to all persons having the insured interest in the crop at the time harvest is commenced or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, or to one of such persons on behalf of all such persons, and payment in any such manner shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's liability with respect to such unit under the contract.

(e) If a transfer is effected in accordance with paragraph (a) above, the contract of the transferor shall cover the interest so transferred only to the end of the insurance period for the crop year during which the transfer is made.

22. Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid. In any case where the insured has transferred his interest in all or a part of the cotton crop on any insurance unit, or has ceased to act as a fiduciary, or has died, has been judicially declared incompetent or has disappeared, payment in accordance with the provisions of the contract will be made only after the facts have been established to the satisfaction of the Corporation. The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment will be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of an indemnity under this section shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

23. Other insurance. (a) If the insured has or acquires any other insurance against substantially all the risks that are insured against by the Corporation under the contract, regardless of whether such other insurance is valid or collectible, the liability of the Corporation shall not be greater than its share would be if the amount of its obligations were divided equally between the Corporation and such other insurer.

(b) In any case where an indemnity is paid to the insured by another Government agency because of damage to the cotton crop, the Corporation reserves the right to determine its liability under the contract taking into consideration the amount paid by such other agency.

24. Subrogation. The Corporation may require from the insured an assignment of all rights of recovery against any person(s) for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation, and the insured shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights.

25. Collateral assignment. The original insured may assign his right to an indemnity under the contract by executing a form entitled "Collateral Assignment" and upon approval thereof by the Corporation the interest of the assignee will be recognized, including the right of the assignee to submit a "Statement in Proof of Loss" if the insured refuses to submit or disappears without having submitted such statement.

26. Records and access to farm. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to determine any loss that may have occurred under the contract, the insured shall keep, or cause to be kept, for one year after the time of loss, records of the harvesting, storage, shipment, sale, or other disposition, of all cotton produced on each insurance unit covered by the contract, and on any uninsured acreage in the county in which he has an interest. Such records shall be made available for examination by the Corporation, and as often as may be reasonably required, any person(s) designated by the Corporation shall have access to the farm(s).

27. Voidance of contract. The contract may be voided and the premium forfeited to the Corporation without the Corporation's waiving any right or remedy, including its right to collect the amount of the note executed by the insured, whether before or after maturity, if (a) at any time the insured has concealed any material fact or made any false or fraudulent statements relating to the contract, the subject thereof, or his interest in the cotton crop covered thereby, or (b) the insured shall neglect to use all reasonable means to produce, care for or save the cotton crop covered thereby, whether before or after damage has occurred, or (c) the insured fails to give any notice, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract, including the note, at the time and in the manner prescribed.

28. Modification of contract. No notice to any representative of the Corporation or the knowledge possessed by any such representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or change in any part of the contract, or to estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract; nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provision or condition of the contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers thereunder or by any requirement, act, or proceeding on the part of the Corporation or of its representatives relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for.

29. General. (a) In addition to the terms and provisions in the application and policy, the Cotton Crop Insurance Regulations for Continuous Contracts for The 1949 and Succeeding Crop Years (7 CFR, Part 419, § 419.1–419.17) shall govern with respect to (1) death, incompetence, or disappearance of the insured, (2) fiduciaries, (3) prohibition against assignment or transfer of claims for refunds, (4) rounding of fractional units, (5) creditors, (6) minimum participation requirements and (7) changes from or to partial insurance protection.

(b) Copies of the regulations and forms referred to in this policy are available at the county office.

30. Meaning of terms. For the purpose of the cotton crop insurance program, the terms:

(a) "Contract" means the accepted application for insurance and this policy.

(b) "Cotton crop" means only American Upland cotton and does not include cotton planted primarily for experimental purposes.

(c) "County" means the area commonly designated as such, and includes a parish in Louisiana.

(d) "County Actuarial Table" means the form and related material (including the crop insurance maps) approved by the Corporation for listing the coverage per acre and the premium rates per acre, applicable in the county.

(e) "County Office" means the office of the County Agricultural Conservation Association in the county or other office specified by the Corporation.

(f) "Crop year" means the period beginning with the day following the applicable closing date for the filing of applications for insurance for any year and within which the cotton crop is planted and normally harvested, and shall be designated by reference to the calendar year in which the crop is planted.

(g) "First cultivation" means the first tillage of the cotton after it is up, which must be performed with an implement (other than a spike tooth or section harrow, rotary hoe, or stalk cutter) designed for use on individual cotton rows for the purpose of working the ground close to the plants.

(h) "Harvest" means the removal of seed cotton from the open cotton boll or the severance of the open cotton boll from the stalk by either manual or mechanical means. For the purpose of determining the stage of production, any acreage which has been harvested one time, as determined by the Corporation, shall be considered as harvested unless such acreage is determined by the Corporation to have been destroyed or substantially destroyed in an earlier stage.

(i) "Laying by" means the completion of the final cultivation, consistent with good farming practice, that would be necessary to carry the crop to harvest.

(j) "New ground acreage" in all states except Arizona, California, and New Mexico, means acreage on which it was necessary to remove or deaden timber and remove undergrowth to carry out established cultural practices. Pasture land, other than woodland pasture, cleared of underbrush and brought into cultivation will not be considered new ground acreage. In Arizona, California, and New Mexico, "new ground acreage" means any acreage which has not been planted to a crop in any one of the previous three crop years, except that acreage in tame hay or rotation pasture during the previous crop year shall not be considered new ground acreage.

(k) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity and, wherever applicable, a state, a political subdivision of a state, or any agency thereof.

(l) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the supervision of the operator and with workstock and equipment not furnished by himself and is entitled to receive a share of the cotton crop produced thereon or of the proceeds therefrom.

(m) "State Director" means the representative of the Corporation responsible for the executive direction of the Federal crop insurance program in the state.

(n) "Tenant" means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person and works the cotton crop with workstock and equipment furnished by himself, and is entitled under a written or oral lease or agreement to receive a share of the crop or proceeds therefrom produced on such land.

31. Irrigated acreage. (a) In addition to the provisions of section 3, where insurance is written on an irrigated basis the following provisions shall apply:

(1) In areas where a part of the cotton is normally irrigated and a part is not normally irrigated, the acreage of cotton which shall be insured on an irrigated basis in any year shall not exceed the smaller of (i) that acreage which could be irrigated in a normal year with the facilities available or (ii) that acreage on which one preplanting irrigation of at least three acre-inches is carried out.

(2) Insurance shall not attach with respect to acreage planted to cotton the first year after being leveled.

(b) In addition to the causes of loss insured against shown on the first page of this policy the contract shall cover loss in production due to failure of the water supply from natural causes that could not be foreseen and prevented by the insured, including (1) lowering of the water level in pump wells adequate at the beginning of the growing season to the extent that either deepening the well or drilling a new well would be necessary to obtain an adequate supply of water, (2) failure of public power used for pumping or failure of an irrigation district or water company to deliver water where such failure is not within the control of the insured, and (3) the collapse of casing in wells.

(c) In addition to the causes of loss not insured against shown in section 10, the contract shall not cover loss in production caused by (1) failure properly to apply adequate irrigation water to cotton when needed and in accordance with recognized good farming practices for the area, (2) failure to provide adequate casing or properly to adjust the pumping equipment in the event of a lowering of the water level in pump wells when such adjustments can be made without deepening the well, (3) failure properly to apply irrigation water to cotton in proportion to the need of the crop and the amount of water available for all irrigated crops, and (4) shortage of irrigation water on any farm where the Corporation determines that the total acreage of all irrigated crops on the farm is in excess of that which could be irrigated properly with the facilities available and with the supply of irrigation water which could be reasonably expected.

32. Date table. For each year of the contract the maturity date, the end of the insurance period and the cancellation date are as follows:

FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION,
By ----------
State Crop Insurance Director

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Insurable acreage. For each crop year of the contract, any acreage is insurable only if a coverage is established therefor for that crop year on the county actuarial table (including maps and related forms) before the applicable calendar closing date for filing applications for insurance, provided the farming practice followed on such acreage is one for which a coverage was established.

2. Responsibility of insured to report acreage and interest. (a) Promptly after planting a cotton crop each year, the insured shall submit to the Corporation, on a form entitled "Cotton Crop Insurance Acreage Report," a report over his signature, of all acreage in the county planted to cotton in which he has an interest at the time of planting. This report shall show the acreage of cotton for each insurance unit and his interest in each at the time of planting. If the insured does not have an insurable interest in cotton planted in any year, the acreage report shall nevertheless be submitted promptly after the planting of cotton is generally completed in the county. Any acreage report submitted by the insured shall be considered final and not subject to change by the insured.

(b) The Corporation may elect to determine that the insured acreage is "zero" if the insured fails to file an acreage report within 30 days after cotton planting is generally completed in the county, as determined by the Corporation.

(c) Failure of the county office to request submission of such report or to send a personal representative to obtain the report shall not relieve the insured of the responsibility to make such report.

3. Insured acreage. The insured acreage with respect to each insurance unit shall be the acreage of cotton planted as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect, except that insurance shall not attach with respect to (a) any acreage planted to cotton which is destroyed or substantially destroyed (as defined in section 15) and on which it is practical to replant to cotton, as determined by the Corporation, and such acreage is not replanted to cotton, (b) any acreage initially planted to cotton too late to expect a normal crop to be produced as determined by the Corporation, (c) new ground acreage planted to cotton the first year of cultivation, and (d) any acreage planted to cotton following in the same crop year a small grain crop which reaches the heading stage. (For irrigated acreage, see section 31.)

4. Insured interest. The insured interest in the cotton crop covered by the contract shall be the interest of the insured at the time of planting as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect. For the purpose of determining the amount of loss the insured interest shall not exceed the insured's actual interest at the time of loss or the beginning of harvest, whichever occurs first.

5. Coverage per acre. (a) The coverage per acre is progressive by stages of production and shall be that approved by the Corporation for the area in which the insured acreage is located and shall be shown by practice(s) on the county actuarial table which shall be on file in the county office. There are four stages of production as follows:

First stage. After it is too late to plant cotton but before the first cultivation.

Second stage. After the first cultivation but before laying by;

Third stage. After laying by but before harvest; and Fourth stage. After harvest and to the end of the insurance period.

(b) If the cotton crop on any acreage is destroyed or substantially destroyed, as defined in section 15, the coverage applicable thereto shall be that established for the area in which the acreage is located and for the stage of production reached by the crop at the time of destruction or substantial destruction.

6. Predetermined price. In determining any loss under the contract, production shall be evaluated at a predetermined price per pound which the Corporation shall establish annually for the applicable crop year. The predetermined price for the 1949 crop year shall be $0.27 per pound. For any subsequent crop year, notice of any change in the predetermined price from the prior crop year shall be mailed by the Corporation to the insured not later than December 15 preceding the crop year for which it applies.

7. Insurance period. Insurance with respect to any insured acreage shall attach at the time the cotton is planted. Insurance shall cease with respect to any portion of the cotton crop covered by the contract upon removal from the field, upon being housed, or upon disposal of the unharvested crop or transfer of interest in unharvested cotton after harvest has commenced, but in no event shall the insurance remain in effect later than the applicable date set forth as the end of the insurance period in section 32, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation.

8. Life of contract, cancellation thereof. (a) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section, the contract shall be in effect for the 1949 crop year and shall continue in effect for each succeeding crop year until either party gives to the other party, on or before December 31 of any year, written notice of cancelation, effective at the beginning of the next succeeding crop year after the calendar year in which notice is given. Any notice of cancelation given by the insured to the Corporation shall be submitted in writing to the county office.

(b) If the insured cancels the contract, he shall not be eligible for cotton crop insurance for the next succeeding crop year unless he subsequently files an application for insurance on or before December 31 preceding such crop year.

(c) If for two consecutive crop years no cotton in which the insured has an insurable interest is planted in the county, the contract shall terminate.

(d) If the minimum participation requirement as established by the Corporation is not met for any year, the contract shall continue in force only to the end of the crop year for which such requirement is not met, except that if the minimum participation requirement is met on or before the next succeeding applicable closing date the contract shall continue to be in force.

9. Changes in contract. The Corporation reserves the right to change the premium rate(s), insurance coverage(s) and other terms and provisions of the contract from year to year. Notice of such changes shall be mailed to the insured on or before December 15 preceding the crop year for which such changes are to become effective. Failure of the insured to cancel the contract as provided in section 8 shall constitute his acceptance of any such changes. If no notice is mailed to the insured, the terms and provisions of the contract for the prior year shall continue in force.

10. Causes of loss not insured against. The contract shall not cover loss of production caused by: (a) failure to follow recognized good farming practices; (b) poor farming practices, including but not limited to the use of defective or unadapted seed, failure to plant a sufficient quantity of seed, failure properly to prepare the land for planting, or properly to plant, care for or harvest (including unreasonable delay thereof) the insured crop; (c) following different fertilizer or farming practices than those considered in establishing the coverage; (d) planting cotton on land which is generally considered incapable of producing a cotton crop comparable to that produced on the land considered in establishing the coverage; (e) planting cotton on land following peanuts harvested for nuts; (f) planting a variety of cotton which differs materially in yield from the variety considered in establishing the coverage for the land; (g) planting excessive acreage under abnormal conditions; (h) planting another crop (except winter legumes) in the growing cotton crop; (i) planting cotton under conditions of immediate hazard; (j) inability to obtain labor, seed, fertilizer, machinery, repairs or insect poison; (k) break-down of machinery or failure of equipment due to mechanical defects; (l) neglect or malfeasance of the insured or of any person in his household or employment or connected with the farm as tenant, sharecropper, or wage hand; (m) domestic animals; (n) action of any person, or State, county, or municipal government, in the use of chemicals for the control of noxious weeds; or (o) theft.

11. Partial insurance protection. If the accepted application provides for partial insurance protection, the premium and any indemnity shall be one-half of the amount otherwise computed in accordance with the contract.

12. Amount of annual premium. The premium rate per acre will be the applicable number of dollars established by the Corporation for the coverage and rate area in which the insured acreage is located and will be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office. The annual premium for each insurance unit under the contract will be based upon (a) the insured acreage of cotton, (b) the applicable premium rate(s) and (c) the insured interest in the crop at the time of planting. However, the amount of the premium so determined for an insurance unit shall not exceed 50 percent of the result obtained by multiplying (a) the insured acreage by (b) the applicable coverage per acre and by (c) the insured interest in the crop.

There will be a reduction in the annual premium for each insurance unit of two percent in cases where the insured acreage on the insurance unit is as much as 50 acres and does not exceed 99.9 acres, and an additional two percent reduction for each additional 50 acres or fraction thereof on the insurance unit. However, the total reduction shall not exceed 20 percent. The annual premium for the contract shall be the total of the premiums computed for the insured for all insurance units covered by the contract. The annual premium with respect to any insured acreage shall be regarded as earned when the cotton crop on such acreage is planted.

13. Manner of payment of premium. (a) The applicant executes a premium note by signing the application for cotton crop insurance. This note represents a promise to pay to the Corporation annually during the life of the contract, on or before the applicable maturity date shown in section 32 the premium for all insurance units covered by the contract.

(b) Any premium note not paid at maturity shall bear interest computed not on a per annum basis but as follows: Three percent on the principal amount not paid on or before December 31 following the maturity date, and an additional three percent on the principal amount unpaid at the end of each six-month period thereafter.

(c) Payment on any annual premium shall be made by means of cash or by check, money order, postal note, or bank draft payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks and drafts will be accepted subject to collection and payments tendered shall not be regarded as paid unless collection is made.

(d) Any unpaid amount of any annual premium note plus any interest due may be deducted (either before or after the date of maturity) from any indemnity payable by the Corporation, from the proceeds of any commodity loan to the insured, and from any payment made to the insured under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, or any other act of Congress or program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. There shall be no refund of any annual premium overpayment of less than $1.00 unless written request for such refund is received by the Corporation within one year after the payment thereof.

14. Notice of loss or damage. (a) Unless otherwise provided by the Corporation, if a loss under the contract is probable, notice in writing shall be given the Corporation at the county office immediately after any material damage to the insured crop. The crop shall not be harvested, removed, or any other use made of it until it has been inspected by the Corporation.

(b) Unless otherwise provided by the Corporation, if, at the completion of harvest of the insured cotton crop, or at the end of the insurance period, whichever is earlier, a loss under the contract has been sustained, or is probable, notice in writing shall be given immediately to the Corporation at the county office. If such notice is not given within 15 days after harvest is completed, or by the end of the insurance period, whichever is earlier, the Corporation reserves the right to reject any claim for indemnity. This notice is in addition to any notice required by paragraph (a) of this section.

15. Released acreage and released crop. (a) Any insured acreage on which the cotton crop has been destroyed or substantially destroyed may be released by the Corporation. The cotton crop shall be deemed to have been substantially destroyed if the Corporation determines that it has been so badly damaged that farmers generally in the area where the land is located and on whose farms similar damage occurred would not further care for the crop or harvest any portion thereof. No insured acreage may be planted to a substitute crop or put to another use until the Corporation releases such acreage. On any acreage where the cotton has been partially destroyed but not released by the Corporation, proper measures shall be taken to protect the crop from further damage. There shall be no abandonment of any crop or portion thereof to the Corporation. All acreage of cotton on the insurance unit, which is not released earlier, shall be deemed to be released upon the signing of a statement in proof of loss for such unit by the insured and the local representative of the Corporation.

(b) At the end of the insurance period and as a basis for determining the amount of loss, if any, under the contract the cotton crop on any insured acreage may be released by the Corporation subject to an appraisal by the Corporation of the yield that would be realized if the crop were harvested.

16. Time of loss. Any loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the end of the insurance period, unless the entire cotton crop on the insurance unit was destroyed or substantially destroyed earlier, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of such damage, as determined by the Corporation.

17. Proof of loss. If a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation a form entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss," containing such information regarding the manner and extent of the loss as may be required by the Corporation. The statement in proof of loss shall be submitted not later than sixty days after the time of loss, unless the time for submitting the claim is extended in writing by the Corporation. It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the contract that the insured establish the actual production of cotton on the insurance unit, the amount of any loss for which claim is made, and that such loss has been directly caused by one or more of the hazards insured against by the contract during the insurance period for the crop year for which the loss is claimed, and that the insured further establish that the loss has not arisen from or been caused by, either directly or indirectly, any of the causes of loss not insured against by the contract. The cotton stalks on any acreage with respect to which a loss is claimed, shall not be destroyed until the Corporation makes an inspection.

18. Insurance unit. Losses shall be determined separately for each insurance unit except as provided in section 19 (b). An insurance unit consists of all insurable acreage in the county (a) in which the insured has 100 percent interest, plus any acreage owned by him and worked for him by sharecroppers, or (b) which is owned by the insured and rented to one tenant, or (c) which is owned by one person and operated by the insured as a tenant, or (d) which is owned by one person and worked by the insured as a sharecropper. Land rented for cash or for a fixed commodity payment shall be considered as owned by the lessee. For any crop year of the contract, acreage shall be considered to be located in the county if a coverage is shown therefor on the county actuarial table.

19. Amount of loss. (a) The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by multiplying the planted acreage for such unit (exclusive of any acreage to which insurance did not attach) by the applicable coverage per acre and subtracting therefrom the total production for the planted acreage and multiplying the remainder by the insured interest. However, if the planted acreage on the insurance unit exceeds the insured acreage on the insurance unit, the amount of loss so determined shall be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the insured acreage to the planted acreage, or if the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report is less than the premium computed for the planted acreage the amount of loss determined for the planted acreage may be reduced on the basis of the ratio of the premium computed for the acreage and interest shown on the acreage report to the premium computed for the planted acreage, if the Corporation so elects. The total production for an insurance unit shall include:

(1) All harvested cotton (not subsequently destroyed by a cause insured against before being housed or removed from the field);

(2) For any acreage of cotton released by the Corporation because of damage occurring in the second stage of production, the amount by which the appraised production of lint cotton exceeds the number of pounds of lint cotton determined by dividing (i) the amount of coverage for such acreage by (ii) the predetermined price.

(3) The appraised production of lint cotton for any acreage which is released by the Corporation because of damage occurring in the third stage of production, as determined by the Corporation, and the appraised production of lint cotton for any other acreage which is not harvested, except acreage which is released because of damage occurring in the first or second stage of production;

(4) The appraised unharvested production of lint cotton on acreage which reaches the fourth stage of production;

(5) The appraised production of lint cotton for any portion of the insured cotton acreage that is put to another use without the consent of the Corporation but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the pounds equivalent of the coverage per acre for such acreage in the fourth stage of production determined on the basis of the predetermined price.

(6) The appraised number of pounds of lint cotton by which production on any acreage has been reduced solely because of any cause not insured against, but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the pounds equivalent of the coverage per acre for such acreage in the fourth stage of production determined on the basis of the predetermined price, minus any quantity of cotton harvested from such acreage; and

(7) The appraised number of pounds of lint cotton by which production on any acreage has been reduced because of any cause not insured against where damage on such acreage has resulted from a cause insured against and a cause not insured against.

(b) If the production from two or more insurance units is commingled and the insured fails to establish and maintain records satisfactory to the Corporation of acreage or the production from each, the insurance with respect to such units may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured. However, if all the acreage from which production is commingled is insured, the total coverage for the insurance units from which the production is commingled may be considered as the total coverage for the combination, if the Corporation so elects, in which case any loss for such combination shall be determined as outlined in paragraph (a) of this section. Where the insured fails to establish and maintain separate records, satisfactory to the Corporation, of uninsured acreage and production therefrom and for one or more insurance units or portions thereof, any production from such acreage which is commingled with production from the insured acreage shall be considered to have been produced on the insured acreage, or the insurance with respect to such unit(s) under the contract may be voided by the Corporation for the crop year and the premium forfeited by the insured.

20. Payment of indemnity. (a) Indemnities shall be paid only by check. The amount of indemnity for which the Corporation may be liable will be payable within thirty days after satisfactory proof of loss is approved by the Corporation, but if payment is delayed for any reason, the Corporation shall not be liable for interest or damages on account of such delay.

(b) Indemnities shall be subject to all provisions of the contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any indemnity the unpaid amount of any earned premium plus any interest due or any other obligation of the insured to the Corporation.

(c) Any indemnity payable under the contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits under the provisions of the contract, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy, directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order, or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(d) If a check issued in payment of an indemnity is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the payee, and if such payee or other person entitled to the indemnity makes no claim for payment within two years after the issuance of the check, such claim shall not thereafter be payable, except with the consent of the Corporation.

21. Payment to transferee. (a) If the insured transfers all or a part of his insured interest in a cotton crop before the beginning of harvest or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, he shall immediately notify the Corporation thereof in writing at the county office. The transferee under such a transfer will be entitled to the benefits of the contract with respect to the interest so transferred, provided the transferee immediately following the transfer makes suitable arrangements with the Corporation for the payment of any premium with respect to the interest so transferred, whereupon the transferee and the transferor shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of such premium. Any transfer shall be subject to any collateral assignment made by the original insured in accordance with section 25. However, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than would have been paid if the transfer had not taken place.

(b) An involuntary transfer of an insured interest in a cotton crop solely because of the existence of a debt, lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy, or other process shall not entitle any holder of any such interest to any benefits under the contract.

(c) Any deduction to be made from an indemnity payable to the transferee shall not exceed the annual premium plus any interest due on the land involved in the transfer for the crop year in which the transfer is made, plus the unpaid amount of any other obligation of the transferee to the Corporation.

(d) If, as a result of any transfer, diverse interests appear with respect to any insurance unit, any indemnity payable with respect to such unit may be paid jointly to all persons having the insured interest in the crop at the time harvest is commenced or the time of loss, whichever occurs first, or to one of such persons on behalf of all such persons, and payment in any such manner shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's liability with respect to such unit under the contract.

(e) If a transfer is effected in accordance with paragraph (a) above, the contract of the transferor shall cover the interest so transferred only to the end of the insurance period for the crop year during which the transfer is made.

22. Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid. In any case where the insured has transferred his interest in all or a part of the cotton crop on any insurance unit, or has ceased to act as a fiduciary, or has died, has been judicially declared incompetent or has disappeared, payment in accordance with the provisions of the contract will be made only after the facts have been established to the satisfaction of the Corporation. The determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment will be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of an indemnity under this section shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligation with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and settled and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

23. Other insurance. (a) If the insured has or acquires any other insurance against substantially all the risks that are insured against by the Corporation under the contract, regardless of whether such other insurance is valid or collectible, the liability of the Corporation shall not be greater than its share would be if the amount of its obligations were divided equally between the Corporation and such other insurer.

(b) In any case where an indemnity is paid to the insured by another Government agency because of damage to the cotton crop, the Corporation reserves the right to determine its liability under the contract taking into consideration the amount paid by such other agency.

24. Subrogation. The Corporation may require from the insured an assignment of all rights of recovery against any person(s) for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation, and the insured shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights.

25. Collateral assignment. The original insured may assign his right to an indemnity under the contract by executing a form entitled "Collateral Assignment" and upon approval thereof by the Corporation the interest of the assignee will be recognized, including the right of the assignee to submit a "Statement in Proof of Loss" if the insured refuses to submit or disappears without having submitted such statement.

26. Records and access to farm. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to determine any loss that may have occurred under the contract, the insured shall keep, or cause to be kept, for one year after the time of loss, records of the harvesting, storage, shipment, sale, or other disposition, of all cotton produced on each insurance unit covered by the contract, and on any uninsured acreage in the county in which he has an interest. Such records shall be made available for examination by the Corporation, and as often as may be reasonably required, any person(s) designated by the Corporation shall have access to the farm(s).

27. Voidance of contract. The contract may be voided and the premium forfeited to the Corporation without the Corporation's waiving any right or remedy, including its right to collect the amount of the note executed by the insured, whether before or after maturity, if (a) at any time the insured has concealed any material fact or made any false or fraudulent statements relating to the contract, the subject thereof, or his interest in the cotton crop covered thereby, or (b) the insured shall neglect to use all reasonable means to produce, care for or save the cotton crop covered thereby, whether before or after damage has occurred, or (c) the insured fails to give any notice, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract, including the note, at the time and in the manner prescribed.

28. Modification of contract. No notice to any representative of the Corporation or the knowledge possessed by any such representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or change in any part of the contract, or to estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract; nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provision or condition of the contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers thereunder or by any requirement, act, or proceeding on the part of the Corporation or of its representatives relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for.

29. General. (a) In addition to the terms and provisions in the application and policy, the Cotton Crop Insurance Regulations for Continuous Contracts For The 1949 and Succeeding Crop Years (7 CFR, Part 419, §419.1–419.17) shall govern with respect to (1) death, incompetence, or disappearance of the insured, (2) fiduciaries, (3) prohibition against assignment or transfer of claims for refunds, (4) rounding of fractional units, (5) creditors, (6) minimum participation requirements, and (7) changes from or to partial insurance protection.

(b) Copies of the regulations and forms referred to in this policy are available at the county office.

30. Meaning of terms. For the purpose of the cotton crop insurance program, the terms:

(a) "Contract" means the accepted application for insurance and this policy.

(b) "Cotton crop" means only American Upland cotton and does not include cotton planted primarily for experimental purposes.

(c) "County" means the area commonly designated as such, and includes a parish in Louisiana.

(d) "County Actuarial Table" means the form and related material (including the crop insurance maps) approved by the Corporation for listing the coverages per acre and the premium rates per acre, applicable in the county.

(e) "County Office" means the office of the County Agricultural Conservation Association in the county or other office specified by the Corporation.

(f) "Crop year" means the period beginning with the day following the applicable closing date for the filing of applications for insurance for any year and within which the cotton crop is planted and normally harvested, and shall be designated by reference to the calendar year in which the crop is planted.

(g) "First cultivation" means the first tillage of the cotton after it is up, which must be performed with an implement (other than a spike tooth or section harrow, rotary hoe, or stalk cutter) designed for use on individual cotton rows for the purpose of working the ground close to the plants.

(h) "Harvest" means the removal of seed cotton from the open cotton boll or the severance of the open cotton boll from the stalk by either manual or mechanical means. For the purpose of determining the stage of production, any acreage which has been harvested one time, as determined by the Corporation, shall be considered as harvested unless such acreage is determined by the Corporation to have been destroyed or substantially destroyed in an earlier stage.

(i) "Laying by" means the completion of the final cultivation, consistent with good farming practice, that would be necessary to carry the crop to harvest.

(j) "New ground acreage" in all states except Arizona, California and New Mexico, means acreage on which it was necessary to remove or deaden timber and remove undergrowth to carry out established cultural practices. Pasture land, other than woodland pasture, cleared of underbrush and brought into cultivation will not be considered new ground acreage. In Arizona, California and New Mexico, "new ground acreage" means any acreage which has not been planted to a crop in any one of the previous three crop years, except that acreage in tame hay or rotation pasture during the previous crop year shall not be considered new ground acreage.

(k) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity and, wherever applicable, a state, a political subdivision of a state, or any agency thereof.

(l) "Sharecropper" means a person who works a farm in whole or in part under the supervision of the operator and with workstock and equipment not furnished by himself and is entitled to receive a share of the cotton crop produced thereon or of the proceeds therefrom.

(m) "State Director" means the representative of the Corporation responsible for the executive direction of the Federal crop insurance program in the state.

(n) "Tenant" means a person other than a sharecropper who rents land from another person and works the cotton crop with workstock and equipment furnished by himself and is entitled under a written or oral lease or agreement to receive a share of the crop or proceeds therefrom produced on such land.

31. Irrigated acreage. (a) In addition to the provision of section 3, where insurance is written on an irrigated basis the following provisions shall apply:

(1) In areas where a part of the cotton is normally irrigated and a part is not normally irrigated, the acreage of cotton which shall be insured on an irrigated basis in any year shall not exceed the smaller of (i) that acreage which could be irrigated in a normal year with the facilities available or (ii) that acreage on which one preplanting irrigation of at least three acre-inches is carried out.

(2) Insurance shall not attach with respect to acreage planted to cotton the first year after being leveled.

(b) In addition to the causes of loss insured against shown on the first page of this policy the contract shall cover loss in production due to failure of the water supply from natural causes that could not be foreseen and prevented by the insured, including (1) lowering of the water level in pump wells adequate at the beginning of the growing season to the extent that either deepening the well or drilling a new well would be necessary to obtain an adequate supply of water, (2) failure of public power used for pumping or failure of an irrigation district or water company to deliver water where such failure is not within the control of the insured, and (3) the collapse of casing in wells.

(c) In addition to the causes of loss not insured against shown in section 10, the contract shall not cover loss in production caused by (1) failure properly to apply adequate irrigation water to cotton when needed and in accordance with recognized good farming practices for the area, (2) failure to provide adequate casing or properly to adjust the pumping equipment in the event of a lowering of the water level in pump wells when such adjustments can be made without deepening the well, (3) failure properly to apply irrigation water to cotton in proportion to the need of the crop and the amount of water available for all irrigated crops, and (4) shortage of irrigation water on any farm where the Corporation determines that the total acreage of all irrigated crops on the farm is in excess of that which could be irrigated properly with the facilities available and with the supply of irrigation water which could be reasonably expected.

32. Date table. For each year of the contract the maturity date, the end of the insurance period and the cancelation date are as follows:

After Form I–500 is filled out, it shall be mailed by the applicant in duplicate on or after October 1, 1948, direct to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Temporary Federal Office Building X, 19th and East Capitol Streets, NE., Washington 25, D. C. A separate application must be made for each applicant and mailed separately. An application in behalf of each child who is under the age of 14 years shall be filed by his parent or guardian.

§ 171.3 Receipt of application by Commissioner—(a) Issuance of receipt. Applications received by the Commissioner shall be serially numbered in the order of the postmark appearing on the envelope in which the application is contained. The Commissioner shall issue to each applicant a receipt bearing a number identical with the serial number placed on the application.

The applicant shall be instructed to forward to the officer in charge photostatic copies of all documents, whenever possible, and to submit the originals at the time he appears for the hearing. The officer in charge shall obtain verification of the applicant's last entry into the United States where such verification has not been furnished by the Central Office when transmitting the duplicate application. The officer in charge shall also cause an independent character investigation to be conducted covering the period of the applicant's residence in the United States. Where the applicant has resided in the United States for a period in excess of five years, the independent character investigation shall cover the last five years of such residence. The investigating officer shall make a written report of his investigation, to be included in the record as provided in § 171.5 (d) (2).

§ 171.5 Hearings—(a) Notice to appear for hearing; counsel. When the necessary entry has been verified and the documents required of the applicant and the report of the investigating officer have been submitted, the applicant shall be notified to appear for a hearing at a time and place to be designated by the officer in charge. (1) Examination of the applicant;

(2) The development of facts relating to the applicant's eligibility for adjustment of immigration status under this part;

(3) The obtaining of the personal history data required by paragraph (d) (4) of this section;

(4) Examination of witnesses; and

(5) The securing of other pertinent information not already obtained for the record, including such evidence as the applicant may desire to present in support of his application.

(d) Examination of applicant. (1) Upon the applicant's appearance, he shall be granted a hearing to establish his eligibility for adjustment of immigration status under this part. The examining officer shall apprise the applicant that the purpose of the hearing is to establish the facts as to his eligibility for adjustment of status. The examining officer shall orally review the application with the applicant, or in the case of a child under the age of 14 years with the parent or guardian, before administering the oath. Any necessary changes in the application shall be consecutively numbered and acknowledged in writing by the applicant or the parent or guardian. The applicant shall be advised of the penalty for perjury, of the penal provisions of section 14 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, and of the fact that any false answers to any of the questions in the application or at the hearing may bar him from the relief he requests. The examining officer shall then administer the oath or affirmation contained on page 4 of Form I–500 and obtain the applicant's signature in the appropriate place.

(2) At the hearing, the applicant shall produce the original documents required to be presented by § 171.4 in support of his application. The original documents shall be returned to the applicant at the conclusion of the hearing if the examining officer is satisfied as to their authenticity and photostatic or other copies thereof have been supplied by the applicant for the record which the examining officer is satisfied are true and correct. The examining officer shall enter of record, as exhibits identified by number, the copy of the application; the documents presented by the applicant; depositions, if any; certifications and affidavits submitted by the applicant; the written report of the investigation, and the reports as to record of the applicant's entry and of the entries of such other persons as may be material to the case. The examining officer shall further make sure that the record is a verbatim report of everything that is stated during the course of the hearing, including the oaths administered, the warnings given to the applicant or the witnesses, and the rulings on objections, except statements made off the record with the consent of the applicant or counsel, and arguments of counsel in support of his objections, which may be submitted in the form of a brief to accompany the record.

(3) The applicant shall then be interrogated under oath or affirmation as to his eligibility to be considered for adjustment for immigration status as a displaced person residing in the United States under the provisions of section 4 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948 and § 171.1. Eligibility of the applicant as to subparagraphs (3) and (4) of paragraph (a) of § 171.1 shall be comprehensively covered by oral interrogation of the applicant and of the witnesses presented by him, if any.

(4) The interrogation shall include the name or names of the applicant (correctly spelled); date and place of the applicant's birth; the name of the nearest town of importance to such place of birth; the province and country in which such place is located; the names and locations of schools the applicant has attended; the last address and length of residence of the applicant in his native country, in the country of which he is a citizen or subject, and in the country in which he has last resided prior to his last entry into the United States; the country in which the applicant embarked for the United States or for foreign territory contiguous to the United States; correct names and addresses and the citizenship or nationality of the applicant's nearest relatives residing in the country of his birth, in the country of which he is a citizen or subject, and in the country in which he last resided prior to his last entry into the United States; and correct names and addresses of all near relatives residing in the United States.

(e) Examination of witnesses. Witnesses, if presented by the applicant, shall be examined orally under oath or affirmation in order to obtain evidence bearing upon the applicant's qualifications for adjustment of status. The transcript of the testimony shall be sent to the officer in charge of the office where the hearing provided for in this section is being conducted.

(b) Proposed decision. (1) If, upon consideration of all the facts and circumstances of the case which shall be clearly set forth in the memorandum, the examining officer shall find that the applicant meets the eligibility requirements set forth in § 171.1, he shall so recommend to the Commissioner.

(2) If, upon consideration of all the facts and circumstances of the case, the examining officer shall find that the applicant does not meet the eligibility requirements set forth in § 171.1, he shall so recommend to the Commissioner.

(c) Service of findings of examining officer. Where the decision of the examining officer is adverse to the applicant, a copy of the examinging officer's memorandum containing his discussion of the evidence, proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law, and proposed decision shall be furnished to the applicant or his counsel by personal service, if practicable; otherwise by registered mail, and a return receipt therefor shall be obtained.

Reasonable extensions of time for the filing of exceptions or brief may be granted in the discretion of the officer in charge.

§ 171.8 Reopening of hearing. At any time prior to the forwarding of the record of hearing to the Commissioner, the officer in charge of a district or suboffice may direct that a case be reopened for proper cause. The Commissioner may direct a reopening of the record of hearing for proper cause at any time. Requests by applicants or their representatives for a reopening of a hearing prior to entry of a final order shall be in writing, state the new facts to be proved, and be supported by affidavits or other evidentiary material. All requests for reopening must be filed with the appropriate officer in charge of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. If the record of hearing has been forwarded to the Commissioner, the request for reopening shall be forwarded by the officer in charge to the Commissioner. The Commissioner shall grant or deny the request if the case is pending before him.

§ 171.9 Forwarding of record to Commissioner. Upon receipt of exceptions and brief, if any, of the applicant or his counsel, or upon the expiration of the time allowed for the submission of exceptions or brief, the entire record, the examining officer's memorandum of proposed findings, conclusions, and decision, with exceptions and brief, shall be forwarded to the Commissioner.

§ 171.10 Action where applicant found eligible. If the Commissioner is satisfied from the record, the accompanying documents, and the circumstances of the case that the applicant meets the eligibility requirements set forth in § 171.1, he shall report to the Congress all of the pertinent facts in the case. If during the session of the Congress at which the case is reported, or prior to the end of the session of the Congress next following the session at which the case is reported, the Congress passes a concurrent resolution stating in substance that it favors the granting of the status of permanent residence to such applicant, the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization shall, upon receipt of a fee of $18 (which shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States to the account of miscellaneous receipts), record the admission of the applicant for permanent residence as of the date of the applicant's last entry into the United States and shall issue a certificate on Form I–151 showing the facts of such record of admission for permanent residence.

§ 171.11 Action where applicant found ineligible. If the Commissioner is not satisfied from the record and the accompanying documents that the applicant meets the eligibility requirements set forth in § 171.1, an order to that effect will be entered and such further action

If the applicant does not have counsel or a representative, the order shall be served upon him by the appropriate field office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service; otherwise, the order shall be served by the Commissioner on the applicant's counsel or representative.

The Assistant Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Adjudications Division, is hereby authorized to perform any function that the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization is authorized or required to perform by this order.

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) as to notice of proposed rule making is found to be contrary to the public interest because Public Law 774, 80th Congress, which is implemented by these rules, became effective on June 25, 1948, and the execution of functions of the Immigration and Naturalization Service under that statute would be unduly impeded by such notice. For the same reason it is found that the provisions of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act providing for delayed effective date are inapplicable.

PEYTON FORD,
Acting Attorney General.

Recommended: August 12, 1948.

WATSON B. MILLER,
Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

TITLE 12—BANKS AND BANKING

Chapter II—Federal Reserve System

Subchapter A—Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

[Regulation D]

PART 204—RESERVES OF MEMBER BANKS

1. Effective September 16, 1948, paragraph (a) of § 204.2 is amended by striking out the words "the sixth paragraph of" in the last sentence thereof.

2. Effective September 16, 1948, footnote numbered 16 appended to paragraph (a) of § 204.2 is amended to read as follows:

[16] The amount of the reserves required to be maintained by any such member bank as a result of any such change may not be less than the amount of the reserves specified above nor more than twice such amount, except that through June 30, 1949, the required reserves for time deposits may be not more than 7½ percent and those for demand deposits of banks in central reserve cities, reserve cities, and other places may be not more than 30 percent, 24 percent, and 18 percent, respectively.

3. Effective September 16, 1948, paragraph (b) of § 204.2 is amended by striking out the following in the first sentence thereof: "and, until six months after the cessation of hostilities in the present war as determined by proclamation of the President or concurrent resolution of the Congress, no deposit payable to the United States by any member bank arising solely as the result of subscriptions made by or through such member bank for United States Government securities issued under authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, shall be included in net demand deposits or in time deposits which are subject to reserve requirements."

4. Effective as to member banks not in reserve and central reserve cities at the opening of business on September 16, 1948, and as to member banks in reserve and central reserve cities at the opening of business on September 24, 1948, § 204.5 (Supplement to Regulation D) is amended to read as follows:

§ 204.5 Supplement: Reserves required to be maintained by member banks with Federal Reserve Banks. Pursuant to the provisions of section 19 of the Federal Reserve Act and § 204.2 (a), the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System hereby prescribes the following reserve balances which each member bank of the Federal Reserve System is required to maintain on deposit with the Federal Reserve Bank of its district:

7½ percent of its time deposits plus—
16 percent of its net demand deposits if not in a reserve or central reserve city;
22 percent of its net demand deposits if in a reserve city, except as to any bank located in an outlying district of a reserve city or in territory added to such city by the extension of the city's corporate limits, which, by the affirmative vote of five members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, is permitted to maintain 16 percent reserves against its net demand deposits;
26 percent of its net demand deposits if located in a central reserve city, except as to any bank located in an outlying district of a central reserve city or in territory added to such city by the extension of the city's corporate limits, which, by the affirmative vote of five members of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, is permitted to maintain 16 percent or 22 percent reserves against its net demand deposits.

5. These amendments are issued pursuant to the authority granted to the Board of Governors by section 19 of the Federal Reserve Act in the light of existing economic conditions and the present inflationary credit situation. The notice and public procedure described in sections 4 (a) and 4 (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act, and the prior publication described in section 4 (c) of such act, are impracticable, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest in connection with these amendments for the reasons and good cause found as stated in § 262.2 (e) of the Board's rules of procedure, and especially because such notice, procedure and prior publication would prevent the action from becoming effective as promptly as necessary, would unreasonably interfere with necessary efforts to prevent injurious credit expansion, and would serve no useful purpose.

(Sec. 11 (c), (e), (i), 38 Stat. 262, sec. 10, 40 Stat. 239, sec. 4, 40 Stat. 970, sec. 207, 49 Stat. 708, sec. 324, 49 Stat. 714, sec. 2, 56 Stat. 648, Pub. Law 905, 80th Cong.; 12 U. S. C. 248 (c), (e), (i), 462, 466, 12 U. S. C. Sup. 462b, 461, 462a1, 465)

Approved this 8th day of September, 1948.

[SEAL] MERRITT SHERMAN,
Assistant Secretary.

PART 16—LIQUIDATION OF DUTIES

Section 16.23 (a) is amended by deleting "August 24, 1934, as amended by the supplementary trade agreement with that country concluded on December 18, 1939,[17]" and substituting therefor "October 30, 1947,[17]".

Note 17 appended to § 16.23 (a) is amended to read as follows:

[17] The operation of the Convention of Commercial Reciprocity between the United States and Cuba signed December 11, 1902 (T. D. 24836), and the operation of the trade agreement with Cuba of August 24, 1934 (T. D. 47232), as amended by the supplementary trade agreements of December 18, 1939 (T. D. 50050), and of December 23, 1941 (T. D. 50541), are suspended for such time as the United States and Cuba are both contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade concluded at Geneva on October 30, 1947.

Section 16.23 (b) is amended by deleting "of article I or III" from the third sentence.

A new section is added to the end of the part to read as follows:

§ 16.26 Philippine trade. (a) The free entry of "Philippine articles"[18] entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption before July 4, 1954, and the total or partial exemptions for the period after July 4, 1954, which are authorized by the Philippine Trade Act of 1946 and the exclusive trade agreement between the United States and the Republic of the Philippines, effective January 2, 1947, apply to "Philippine articles" imported from any foreign country.

(b) No evidence of origin shall be required for any Philippine merchandise which is unconditionally free of duty.

(c) When any total or partial exemption from duty is claimed on the ground that an importation consists of "Philippine articles," the claim shall be allowed only if it is established to the satisfaction of the collector of customs concerned. The collector may accept as satisfactory evidence that an article is "Philippine article" a certificate in the appropriate form specified in paragraph (d) of this section, subject to any verification he may deem necessary, or he may satisfy himself of such fact by other reasonable ways and means if, taking into consideration the kind and value of the goods and the circumstances of importation, he deems a certificate unnecessary.

(d) (1) When no material which is not the growth, product, or manufacture of the Philippines or of the United States was used at any stage in the production of the imported article, a certificate in the following form may be accepted as evidence that the commodity is a "Philippine article":

The product covered by the _____
annexed or appended to this certificate of Philippine origin at the time it was subscribed and sworn to before the notary public, or other officer authorized to administer oaths, whose signature appears below, is the growth, product, or manufacture of the Philippines. No foreign materials (other than those which are of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States) were used at any stage in the production of this product, i. e., either in its immediate production or in the production of any intermediate product used at any stage in the chain of production in the Philippines which resulted in this product.

(2) When any material which is not the growth, product, or manufacture of the Philippines or of the United States was used at any stage in the manufacture of the imported article, a certificate in the following form may be accepted as evidence that the commodity is nevertheless a "Philippine article":

The product covered by the _____
(Describe above the invoice, bill of lading, or other document or statement identifying the shipment)
annexed or appended to this certificate of Philippine origin at the time it was subscribed and sworn to before the notary public, or other officer authorized to administer oaths, whose signature appears below, is the product of the Philippines. There were used in its production in the Philippines _____ (Number of units and description) of foreign materials (other than those which are of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States), valued by the Philippine customs officers for the purpose of the Philippine customs laws at _____ (Official Philippine customs value at the time of importation into the Philippines, in terms of pounds, yards, or other applicable unit) plus, if not included in such unit value, _____, the cost per unit of bringing such foreign materials to the Philippines.

(3) If the collector shall be satisfied that the revenue will be protected adequately thereby, he may accept in lieu of the certificate specified in subdivision (2) a certificate in the following form:

The product covered by the _____
(Describe above the invoice, bill of lading, or other document or statement identifying the shipment)
annexed or appended to this certificate of Philippine origin at the time it was subscribed and sworn to before the notary public, or other officer authorized to administer oaths, whose signature appears below, is the product of the Philippines. There were or may have been used in its production in the Philippines foreign materials (other than those which are of the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States).

It is impracticable to ascertain the exact number of units of foreign material, if any, used in its production or the customs valuation of such material, but to the best of (my) (our) (its) knowledge and belief such foreign materials as were or may have been used would not exceed 20 per centum of the selling price or invoice value of the product covered by this certificate.

(4) If more than one kind of article is covered by a certificate provided for in (1), (2), or (3) above, the required information shall be shown with respect to each kind. When more than one kind of material of other than Philippine or United States origin is used in the production of an article covered by such a certificate, the certificate shall state the number of units, description, and Philippine customs valuation per unit of each such kind of material.

(5) A certificate conforming to (1), (2), or (3) above shall be accepted as evidence of the facts alleged therein only if (i) there is annexed thereto a copy of the commercial invoice or bill of lading covering the articles or other documentary matter which identifies the articles to which the certificate pertains, (ii) the certificate is signed by the manufacturer or producer of the articles to which it pertains, or by the person who exported the articles from the Philippines, and is sworn to by him before a person authorized to administer oaths, and (iii) it clearly appears that such copy or other documentary matter was annexed to the certificate when it was signed and sworn to. (R. S. 251, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, secs. 2, 201–5, 214, 60 Stat. 141, 143, 144, 146; 19 U. S. C. 66, 1624, 22 U. S. C. 1251–1255, 1264, 1360)

[18] The term "Philippine articles" means articles which are products of the Philippines, but does not include any article produced with the use of materials imported into the Philippines which are products of any country other than the Philippines or the United States if the aggregate value of such imported materials when landed at the Philippine port of entry, exclusive of any landing cost and Philippine duty, was more than 20 per centum of the appraised customs value of the article imported into the United States. (22 U. S. C. 1269 (a) (4).)

(R. S. 251, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, 60 Stat. 1352; 19 U. S. C. 66, 1624, Proc. 2695, 11 F. R. 7517)

§ 22.2 Canal Zone and Guantanamo Bay. The Panama Canal Zone and Guantanamo Bay Naval Station shall be considered foreign territory for drawback purposes.' Secs. 313, 624, 46 Stat. 693, 759; 19 U. S. C. 1313, 1624)

Section 22.4 (b) is amended by deleting "(or shipped to the Philippine Islands)" from the last clause.

Section 22.6 (b) is amended by deleting "(or shipment to the Philippine Islands)" from the introductory part of the paragraph.

APPLICATION AND COMMITMENT

§ 585.1 Mortgagee approved under section 203 (b) or section 603 (b) of the National Housing Act approved as lenders to file application. Application for the insurance of loans under section 609 of the National Housing Act, which are eligible as hereinafter provided, may be filed by any lender which is approved as a mortgagee under sections 203 (b) or 603 (b) of the National Housing Act, and by any other chartered institution or permanent organization having succession upon its approval by the Commissioner for a particular transaction.

§ 585.2 Form of application. The application must be made upon a standard form prescribed by the Commissioner and forwarded to the Federal Housing Administration, Washington 25, D. C.

Prior to the filing of the formal application, the proposed borrower or the proposed lender may submit to the Federal Housing Administration a request for a preliminary analysis with respect to specific questions of eligibility upon a standard form to be prescribed by the Commissioner, which request should be forwarded to Washington headquarters.

§ 585.3 Fee to accompany application. The application must be accompanied by the lender's check for a sum computed at the rate of three dollars ($3) per thousand dollars ($1,000) of the original principal amount of the loan applied for. If the application is refused without an estimate of the necessary current cost of manufacturing the houses, the fee paid will be returned to the applicant. If agreements are entered into between the borrower and the lender, with the approval of the Commissioner for the substitution of the security for an insured loan, the Commissioner may charge a further fee payable at the time of the request for substitution, in such amount as may be determined by the Commissioner, but, in no event, shall such additional fee exceed one dollar and a half ($1.50) per thousand dollars ($1,000) of the loan value of the substituted security as determined by the Commissioner.

§ 585.4 Approval of application. Upon approval of an application, acceptance of the loan for insurance will be evidenced by the issuance of a commitment setting forth, upon a form prescribed by the Commissioner, the terms and conditions under which the insurance will be granted.

MANUFACTURER'S LOAN

§ 585.5 Manufacturer's loan, eligibility requirements. To be eligible for insurance:

(a) Use of proceeds. The proceeds of the loan shall be used for the purpose of financing the cost of manufacturing houses meeting such requirements of sound quality, durability, livability, and safety as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

(b) Maximum amount of loan. The loan shall involve a principal obligation not in excess of ninety per centum (90%) of the amount which the Commissioner estimates will be the necessary current cost of manufacturing such houses, exclusive of profit, less such amounts as may have been paid by a purchaser prior to the assignment of the purchase contracts as security for the loan.

(c) Execution of binding purchase contracts. The manufacturer shall establish that binding purchase contracts have been executed satisfactory to the Commissioner providing for the purchase and delivery of the houses to be manufactured, which contracts shall provide for the payment of the purchase price at such time as may be agreed to by the parties thereto, but, in no event, shall the purchase price be payable on a date in excess of thirty (30) days after the date of delivery of such houses, unless not less than twenty per centum (20%) of such purchase price is paid on or before the date of delivery and the lender has accepted and discounted or has agreed to accept and discount, a promissory note or notes, executed by the purchaser, representing the unpaid portion of such purchase price pursuant to § 585.6. All purchase contracts providing for the payment of the purchase price after delivery of the house or houses shall, by their terms, require the purchaser at or prior to delivery to execute a note or notes representing the unpaid portion of the purchase price of such house or houses.

(d) Security, agreements and undertakings. The loan shall be secured by an assignment of the purchase contracts specified in the next preceding paragraph and of all sums payable under such purchase contracts on or after the date of such assignment, with the right in the assignee to proceed against such security in the case of default as provided in the assignment, which assignment shall be in such form and contain such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Commissioner; and the Commissioner may require such other agreements and undertakings to further secure the loan as he may determine, including the right, in the case of default or at any time necessary to protect the lender, to compel delivery to the lender of any houses manufactured with the proceeds of the loan and then owned and in the possession of the manufacturer.

(e) Requirements with respect to plant facilities, capital funds, and experience and credit standing. The manufacturer shall establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has or will have (1) adequate plant facilities, (2) sufficient capital funds, taking into account the loan applied for, and (3) the experience necessary to achieve the required production schedule. The manufacturer must have a general credit standing satisfactory to the Commissioner.

(f) Maturity. The loan shall have a maturity satisfactory to the Commissioner but not in excess of one year from the date of the note.

(g) Rate of interest. The loan may bear interest at such rate as may be agreed upon between the borrower and the lender, but in no case shall such interest rate be in excess of four per centum (4%) per annum on the amount of the principal obligation outstanding at any time.

(h) Loan agreement, matters required therein. The manufacturer and the lender shall, prior to the insurance of the loan, enter into a written loan agreement, containing such terms and conditions and undertakings with respect to the loan transaction as may be approved by the Commissioner, including provisions with respect to the manner and conditions under which advances, if any, during the process of manufacture are to be made by the lender and approved for insurance by the Commissioner, and provisions under which substitutions of security may be made from time to time. Such loan agreement may also contain the conditions under which the lender may agree to accept or discount promissory notes executed by purchasers under purchase contracts assigned as security for the loan, which promissory notes the lender intends to report for insurance, pursuant to § 585.6 and section 609 (i) of the National Housing Act.

(i) Form and contents of note. The note evidencing the indebtedness shall be in such form and contain such provisions as the Commissioner may determine, including a provision for acceleration of maturity, at the option of the holder, in the event of default in the payment of any sums due thereunder or failure to perform any undertaking or agreement contained in the note or any collateral document executed in connection with the loan transaction.

(j) Inspections of books, records and operations of manufacturer. The books, records, contracts, documents, papers, property equipment, buildings and machinery used in connection with and pertaining to the manufacture of the houses shall be subject to inspection and examination by the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent at all reasonable times. The manufacturer shall furnish, at the request of the Commissioner, his employees or attorneys, specific answers to questions upon which information is desired from time to time relative to the income, assets, liabilities, contracts, operations, including all papers and documents relating to cost of manufacturing of such houses, and any other information with respect to any matters concerned with the manufacturing of such houses which may reasonably be required by the lender and the Commissioner. The above enumeration of specific items shall not be deemed in any manner to limit the generality of the preceding sentence. In case the manufacturer is in default either under the provisions of the loan, or has failed to meet any applicable requirements of this section, or is in default with respect to any agreement or undertaking between the manufacturer and the lender or any agreement or undertaking to which the Commissioner is a party, the Commissioner may require the manufacturer to furnish at its expense a complete audit of the manufacturer's books of accounts, duly certified by a public accountant satisfactory to the Commissioner.

(k) Fees and charges collectible from manufacturer. The lender may charge and collect from the manufacturer the amounts payable by the lender to the Commissioner on account of insurance premiums under the insurance contract, application and appraisal fees, and inspection charges, and, in addition, any amounts payable by the lender to the Commissioner in connection with the insurance of purchasers' notes pursuant to § 585.6. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as prohibiting the lender from charging the manufacturer an initial service charge, to reimburse itself for the cost of closing the transaction or an additional charge for handling substitutions of security, all such charges to be in amounts as may be agreed upon between the parties.

PURCHASER'S LOAN

§ 585.6 Requirements of eligibility and conditions of insurance of purchaser's loan. If in connection with a manufacturer's loan insured under section 609 (b) of the National Housing Act, eligible for insurance as provided in

§ 585.5, the purchase contract or contracts assigned to secure such manufacturer's loan, provide for the payment of not less than twenty per centum (20%) of such purchase price on or before the date of delivery of such houses, with the balance of the purchase price being evidenced by a promissory note or notes to be executed by the purchaser, and the lender has accepted and discounted or has agreed to accept or discount such promissory note or notes, any amounts advanced to the manufacturer or to its account in connection with the loan to the manufacturer, representing the proceeds of such promissory note or notes executed by the purchaser, will be considered a loan to the purchaser and the lender shall be insured against loss on account of any such loans as provided in the contract of insurance to be executed by the lender and the Commissioner in connection with the manufacturer's loan, provided such purchaser's loan or loans meet the conditions set forth in the contract of insurance and the following:

(a) Maximum amount of loan. Involve a principal obligation not in excess of eighty per centum (80%) of the purchase price of the manufactured house or houses delivered or to be delivered pursuant to the purchase contract or contracts assigned to secure the manufacturer's loan, and in connection with which the purchaser has paid to the manufacturer or to the lender for the account of the manufacturer on or before the date of delivery of any such houses, the balance of the purchase price in cash, which amount shall in no event be less than twenty per centum (20%) of the purchase price.

(b) Maturity. Have a maturity satisfactory to the Commissioner but not in excess of one hundred and eighty (180) days from the date of the note or notes and bear interest at a rate not to exceed four per centum (4%) per annum.

(c) Form of note. The note or notes shall be executed on a form satisfactory to the Commissioner, shall bear the genuine signature of the purchaser as maker, and shall be valid and enforceable against the maker or makers.

(d) Credit standing of purchaser. The purchaser must have a general credit standing satisfactory to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may specify in the contract of insurance with the lender the conditions under which additional notes may be accepted and discounted by the lender.

(e) No past due loan. Except with the prior approval of the Commissioner, no promissory note shall be eligible for insurance under this section if, at the time the note is discounted or accepted, the lender has knowledge that the purchaser is past due with respect to any note, purchase contract or other obligation created in connection with or incidental to the manufacturer's loan.

(f) Limitation of aggregate amount of loans. The Commissioner may prescribe in the commitment or in the contract of insurance the aggregate amount of purchaser loans which may be reported for insurance under this section with respect to any separate manufacturer's loan, and, in addition, may prescribe the aggregate amount of such purchaser loans which may be reported for insurance with respect to any individual purchaser.

(g) Report of loan. All purchaser loans accepted or discounted pursuant to this section shall be reported for insurance to the Commissioner on a form approved by him within thirty (30) days from the date accepted or discounted by the lender.

§ 586.2 Definitions. As used in the regulations in this part the term:

(a) "Commissioner" means the Federal Housing Commissioner.

(b) "Act" means the National Housing Act, as amended.

(c) "Contract of Insurance" means the written instrument duly executed by the Commissioner and the lender setting forth the terms, conditions, and provisions of insurance.

(d) "Lender" means a financial institution which is eligible to obtain the insurance of loans made pursuant to section 609 of the act and includes the original lender, its successors and such of its assigns as are approved by the Commissioner.

§ 586.3 Insurance premiums—(a) Manufacturer's loan. With respect to a manufacturer's loan, the lender shall pay to the Commissioner an insurance charge, equal to one per centum (1%) of the original principal of the loan specified in the commitment to insure and such premium charge shall be paid on the date the Contract of Insurance becomes effective. Such premium charge shall be construed as fully earned when paid and shall be computed without regard to the amount of the loan actually advanced or outstanding.

(b) Purchaser's loan. With respect to a purchaser's loan, the lender shall pay to the Commissioner an insurance charge, equal to one-half of one per centum (½ of 1%) of the original face amount of any such loan. Such charge shall be paid at the time the loan is reported for insurance.

The Commissioner and the lender shall thereafter be bound by the contract of insurance, subject to the provisions of the regulations in this part which shall form a part of each such contract.

The contract of insurance shall contain such provisions as the Commissioner may prescribe with respect to the servicing of the loan, submission of reports and notices regarding the loan transaction and other duties of the lender in the handling of the loan transaction prior or subsequent to default, consistent with the provisions of section 609 of the act and the Administrative rules and regulations thereunder.

§ 586.5 Default and rights of lender under insurance contract with respect to manufacturer's loan — (a) Default and filing claim. If the manufacturer fails to make any payment due under or provided to be paid by the terms of the loan or fails to perform any other covenant or obligation contained in any assignment, agreement or undertaking executed by the borrower in connection with such loan, because of which the lender has declared the full amount due and payable under the acceleration clause contained therein, and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days, the loan shall be considered in default and the lender shall within thirty (30) days thereafter give notice in writing to the Commissioner of such default. At any time within thirty (30) days after the date of such notice, or within such further period as may be agreed upon by the Commissioner in writing, the lender shall, in such manner as the Commissioner may require, assign, transfer, and deliver to the Commissioner the original credit instrument without recourse or warranty, except that the note bears the genuine signature of the manufacturer as borrower, is valid and enforceable in the jurisdiction in which it is issued, the amount stated in the instrument of assignment is actually due and owing, there are no offsets or counterclaims thereto, and that the lender has a good right to assign the note and other items enumerated below:

(1) All rights and interest arising with respect to the loan so in default;

(2) Such debentures shall be registered as to principal and interest and all or any such debentures may be redeemed at the option of the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury at par and accrued interest on any interest payment day on three months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Commissioner shall prescribe. Such debentures shall be issued in multiples of fifty dollars ($50) and any difference not in excess of fifty dollars ($50) between the amount of debentures to which the lender is otherwise entitled hereunder and the aggregate face value of the debentures issued shall be paid in cash by the Commissioner to the lender.

(1) All rights and interest arising with respect to the loan so in default;

(2) All claims of the lender against the borrower or others, including any property or security of whatever nature, arising out of the loan transaction, except such claims as may have been released with the approval of the Commissioner; and

(2) Such debentures shall be registered as to principal and interest and all or any such debentures may be redeemed at the option of the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury at par and accrued interest on any interest payment day on three (3) months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Commissioner shall prescribe. Such debentures shall be issued in multiples of fifty dollars ($50) and any difference not in excess of fifty dollars ($50) between the amount of debentures to which the lender is otherwise entitled hereunder and the aggregate face value of the debentures issued shall be paid in cash by the Commissioner to the lender.

Upon such approval and transfer and the assumption by the transferee of all obligations under the contract of insurance, the transfer shall be released from its obligations under the contract of insurance.

(b) Purchaser's loans. Purchaser loans insured under the regulations in this part may be transferred with the approval of the Commissioner: Provided, That no such approval will be given except in connection with an assignment of the manufacturer's loan.

§ 586.8 Amendments. The regulations in this part may be amended by the Commissioner at any time and from time to time, in whole or in part, but such amendment shall not affect the contract of insurance on any loan already insured, or any loan on which the Commissioner has made a commitment to insure.

§ 586.9 Effective date. The regulations in this part are effective as to all loans on which a commitment to insure under section 609 is issued to an approved lender on or after September 3, 1948.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter Q—Alaska Commercial Fisheries

PART 208—KODIAK AREA FISHERIES

HERRING CATCH LIMITATION; EXCEPTION

Basis and purposes. As a result of investigations by field biologists of the Fish and Wildlife Service, it has been determined that the take of herring in the Kodiak Island region indicates a population of older fish than had been anticipated. It has been determined that this population can yield an additional 60,000 barrels of herring to the commercial fishery without injury to the stock. Accordingly, to increase the herring catch quota in the Kodiak region, § 208.25 is amended as follows:

Section 208.25 Herring catch limitation; exceptions, is hereby amended by deleting therefrom "300,000 barrels" and substituting in lieu thereof "360,000 barrels".

Since the present quota of 300,000 barrels is almost filled, any delay in the effective date of this amendment would unnecessarily disrupt the industry. Accordingly, this amendment to the regulations shall become effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 975]

HANDLING OF MILK IN CLEVELAND, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR., Supps., 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), a public hearing was held at Cleveland, Ohio, on March 18 and 19, 1948, after the issuance of a notice on March 12, 1948, (13 F. R. 1326).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on July 26, 1948, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of filing of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 4395, 4551).

Exceptions were filed on behalf of the Milk Market Survey Committee, representing a large majority of the handlers, and by the Pet Milk Company. These exceptions have been considered and appropriate revisions made. To the extent to which the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision as hereinafter modified, are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled. Counsel for the Milk Market Survey Committee requested a ruling as to whether the modified proposal submitted for proposal No. 5 of the Milk Producers Federation of Cleveland set forth in the notice of hearing may be properly considered as being within the scope of such notice. This request was renewed in connection with the exceptions filed. It is hereby determined that such modified proposal was within the scope of the notice of hearing.

The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision (F. R. Doc. 48-6856; 13 F. R. 4395, 4551) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein subject to the following amendments:

1. Delete the first two sentences of the second paragraph beginning in column 2, 13 F. R. 4396 (F. R. Doc. 48-6856), and substitute therefor the following:

The extent of the need for milk in the short production season of October through January indicates that the minimum delivery requirements applicable to plants already qualified as pool plants also should be raised in order that adequate milk supplies may be assured in these months. On the other hand once a plant has attained pool plant status it is felt that such plant should not be disqualified on the basis of failure to meet the more stringent standard for one month. It is provided, therefore, that a pool plant will not be disqualified if it delivers more than 10 percent but fails to deliver 50 percent of its dairy farm supply in one of the months of October, November, December, and January.

2. Delete the third paragraph beginning in column 3, 13 F. R. 4396 (F. R. Doc. 6856) in its entirety and substitute therefor the following:

The problem of pricing skim milk (from producer milk) used to produce bulk condensed skim milk appears to involve primarily its ultimate use value in the manufacture of ice cream and ice cream mix by handlers. Handlers emphasized that bulk condensed skim milk and nonfat dry milk solids from outside sources may be substituted readily for bulk condensed skim milk made from producer milk in the manufacture of ice cream to be sold locally. It was contended further that the price of skim milk for bulk condensed skim milk should be related closely to the market price for nonfat dry milk solids. It was also stated, however, that the use of producer milk in making ice cream offers some advantage from the standpoint of the quality of product marketed.

Normally there is a price differential between the market prices of bulk condensed skim milk and nonfat dry milk solids. The prices for nonfat solids in bulk condensed skim milk usually run higher than the prices of nonfat dry milk solids made by either spray or roller process. Data contained in the record relative to the open market prices of plain condensed skim milk in bulk delivered at Cleveland from outside plants and the open market prices of nonfat dry milk solids provide a reasonable basis for estimating the value of skim milk from producer milk used in the manfacture of condensed skim milk in relation to the prices of nonfat dry milk solids, taking into account a somewhat unusual condition of price relationships in 1947. This relationship may be expressed, for convenience, in terms of a differential over the price of skim milk used to produce roller process nonfat dry milk solids as determined by a formula already contained in the order. Allowing for the fact that the latter formula uses roller process nonfat dry milk solids quotations f. o. b. manufacturing points in the Chicago area, whereas prices on bulk condensed skim milk submitted were quoted on a "delivered at Cleveland" basis, and considering that the ultimate use of a large percentage of the skim milk being priced will be in the form of Class II milk items, an appropriate differential under present circumstances would be the equivalent of approximately 25 cents per hundredweight of skim milk. A differential of 25 cents per hundredweight over the price for skim milk in roller process nonfat dry milk solids has been provided, therefore, in the formula for pricing skim milk in bulk condensed skim milk and cottage cheese to reflect a reasonable price level for such skim milk.

3. Delete the last two sentences of the first paragraph beginning in column 1, 13 F. R. 4397 (F. R. Doc. 48-6856), and substitute therefor the following:

The proposal submitted by producers does not satisfy the need for a new formula for this purpose. However, such proposal may be used, with modification, as an appropriate basis for pricing skim milk utilized in the manufacture of evaporated or condensed milk (or skim milk) in hermetically sealed cans. The current average price of the 18 plants named in § 975.6 (a) (1) is used as the basis for the formula offered by the producers. However, over a period of time this price runs somewhat higher than the average price at representative Ohio condensary plants, as shown by the record. A downward adjustment of 8 cents per hundredweight in the current average price of the 18 plants named in § 975.6 (a) (1) should compensate for this price difference.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, Marketing Area," and "Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure covering proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

Determination of representative period. The month of February, 1948, is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of an order amending the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, milk marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached amending order is approved or favored by producers who during such period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order, as amended.

It is hereby ordered that all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order which will be published with the decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of September 1948.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order,[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, Marketing Area

§ 975.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary to and in addition to the findings and determinations made in connection with the issuance of this order and of each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth in this section.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure covering the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, milk marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to Sections 2 and 8c of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Cleveland, Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended; and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Delete § 975.3 (a) (2) (ii) and substitute therefor the following:

(ii) A plant which either was a pool plant on August 31, 1948, or has become a pool plant pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

2. Delete § 975.3 (a) (3) and substitute therefor the following:

(3) A plant having approval of the appropriate health authority in the marketing area to do so which has, within the delivery period of January, February, or March and within each of the five consecutive preceding delivery periods, furnished milk to a pool plant described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph in an amount equal to 50 percent or more of its entire receipts of milk from dairy farmers during each such delivery period.

3. Delete § 975.3 (c) and substitute therefor the following:

(c) Disqualification. A plant shall be disqualified as a pool plant under either of the following circumstances:

(1) Upon prior written request for disqualification made by the plant operator; such disqualification to be effective at the beginning of the first delivery period (following the market administrator's receipt of such request) within which no milk was furnished by such plant to a pool plant described in paragraph (a) (1) of this section; or

4. Delete § 975.5 (b) (1) (ii) and substitute therefor the following:

(ii) Transferred as any item included in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph from a pool plant to the plant of a producer-handler, or transferred as any such item, except cream, to a nonpool plant located more than 265 miles from the Public Square in Cleveland, Ohio, by shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator;

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

5. Delete § 975.5 (g) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) For the delivery periods of October, November, December, and January, subtract from the pounds of butterfat in Class I milk, the smaller of the following:

(i) The pounds, if any, by which the butterfat in milk received from producers and pool plants is less than 110 percent of the pounds of butterfat in such handler's milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk and flavored milk drink classified as Class I milk (exclusive of any reconstituted skim milk) pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) (i) of this section, not including such Class I milk transferred to pool plants or to nonpool plants; or

(ii) The pounds of butterfat in other source milk received.

6. Delete § 975.6 (b) (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(2) The price of butterfat shall be the amount obtained in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, multiplied by 20: Provided, That in no event shall (i) the price of butterfat pursuant to this subparagraph for sweet or sour cream, or of any mixture of cream and milk (or skim milk), be less than the price computed pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) of this section, or (ii) the price of butterfat for the remaining items of Class I milk be less than the price of butterfat computed pursuant to paragraph (c) (2) of this section plus $3.00.

7. Delete § 975.6 (c) (3) and substitute therefor the following:

(3) The price of skim milk shall be that computed pursuant to the first proviso in paragraph (d) (2) of this section.

8. Delete subparagraphs (2) and (3) of § 975.6 (d) and substitute therefor the following:

(i) Multiply by 0.035 the price of butterfat computed pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph prior to the proviso therein;

(ii) Subtract such amount from the price computed for the next succeeding delivery period pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section minus 8 cents;

(iii) Divide this result by 0.965, and round off to the nearest full cent.

9. At the end of § 975.7 (a) replace the period (.) with a colon (:) and add the following proviso:

And provided also, That such handler shall be credited at the difference between the applicable Class I prices for skim milk and butterfat and the highest of the Class III prices for skim milk and butterfat, respectively, with respect to any item specified in § 975.5 (b) (1) (i) disposed of during April, May, June or July to a manufacturer of soup, candy, or bakery products for use in such manufacturing operations.

HANDLING OF MILK IN NASHVILLE, TENN., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at Nashville, Tennessee, on June 15, 1948, pursuant to a notice issued on June 7, 1948 (13 F. R. 3130).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on July 23, 1948, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of filing of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 28, 1948 (13 F. R. 4324).

The material issues presented on the record of the hearing were whether:

(1) The definition of "other source milk" should be revised to exclude nonfluid milk products received and disposed of in the same form.

(2) The allocation provisions should be revised to provide for the prorating of other source skim milk whenever receipts of producer skim milk are less than 105 percent of the skim milk used in Class I, Class II, and cottage cheese.

(3) The provisions with respect to the computation of the uniform price to producers should be revised to provide for the adoption of a fall premium payment plan whereby a specified amount per hundredweight would be deducted in computing the uniform price for producer milk received during the delivery periods of April, May, and June and paid to the market administrator to be held in escrow for payment to producers during the subsequent delivery periods of September, October, and November.

Rulings on exceptions. Exceptions to the recommended decision were filed on behalf of the handlers who would be subject to the proposed marketing agreement and to the proposed order amending the order. In arriving at the findings and conclusions decided upon in this decision each of the exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings and conclusions decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions pertaining thereto such exceptions are overruled.

Findings and conclusions. The proposed findings and conclusions with respect to the aforementioned material issues, all of which are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof are as follows:

(1) The definition of "other source milk" should be revised to exclude all nonfluid milk products (Class III products) which are received and disposed of in the same form. The present provisions of the order require that a handler report the receipts of and pay administrative assessment on all producer milk and other source milk received at a fluid milk plant. The record shows that the elimination of the requirement that handlers report the receipt of nonfluid milk products received and disposed of in the same form would not affect the type or detail of records required to be kept by handlers to enable the market administrator to verify or audit handler receipts and utilization of milk. It would, however, relieve both the market administrator and handlers of the paper work necessitated by the present provision in the reporting and classification of such nonfluid milk products. The proposed change would not affect the price producers receive for milk but would slightly reduce the cost which some handlers are required to pay for the administration of the order. No objections were made to this proposal.

(2) The allocation provisions should be revised to provide for the prorating between Class I and Class II of the receipts of other source skim milk which are in excess of skim milk in Class III, less allowable shrinkage, whenever receipts of skim milk from producers and from other handlers are less than 105 percent of the amount of Class I and Class II skim milk disposed of by the handler to any person other than by transfer or diversion pursuant to § 978.4 (d). The present provisions of the order provide that other source skim milk be assigned in the lowest-priced available utilization after subtracting allowable shrinkage from Class III.

The record indicates that there has been sufficient producer butterfat to supply the market with products required to be made from graded supplies during virtually all months since the inception of the order. There has been, however, insufficient skim milk to meet minimum needs in all periods except the flush months of production. Because of the day-to-day fluctuations in receipts and sales, it is necessary in the Nashville market at this time that the amount of milk delivered by producers be at least 5 percent in excess of the actual amount used in products required to be made from graded supplies if the market is to be adequately supplied. Producers expressed a feeling of some responsibility in supplying the market requirements for graded milk.

It was proposed that the 105 percent rule apply to milk used in Class I, Class II, and cottage cheese. However, the record shows that cottage cheese is not required by the health department to be made from Grade A milk. For this reason, it is not necessary to provide Grade A milk for the production of cottage cheese and consequently the inclusion of cottage cheese in the proposed 105 percent rule is not indicated.

Both handlers and producers originally proposed that the allocation of other source skim milk be based on the combined utilization of all handlers in the market. The record shows the impracticability of administering the proposal on other than an individual-handler basis as well as the inequities which could arise between handlers with sufficient supplies of producer skim milk and those who were required to purchase additional supplies from approved sources.

(3) The uniform price provisions should be revised to include a fall premium payment plan which would provide for the deduction of 45 cents per hundredweight in computing the uniform price to producers for the delivery periods of April, May, and June; such amount to be paid by each handler, for each hundredweight of producer milk received by him, to the market administrator and held in escrow for distribution to producers through the producer-settlement fund during subsequent delivery periods of September, October, and November.

Seasonal pricing under the present order provisions is limited to the seasonal pattern of manufactured milk prices as reflected in the basic formula and to the effect on the blend price of the greater volume of milk in Class III during the months of flush production. Producers and handlers argued that such seasonal changes in prices are insufficient to shift production to the pattern needed to adequately supply market requirements throughout the year. Both contended that a differential of $1.50 per hundredweight between spring and fall prices was needed to produce the desired pattern and that to reflect such a difference in the class price differentials paid by handlers would produce an undesirable and adverse pattern of retail prices. Producers proposed to withhold 40 cents per hundredweight from the uniform price during the months of April, May, and June while handlers contended that 50 cents per hundredweight was necessary to provide the $1.50 differential between spring and fall prices.

The problem of maintaining an adequate fluid milk supply at all seasons of the year is acute in the Nashville market. The record shows that for each year since 1945 receipts of producer milk during the shortest month of production have been less than 60 percent of such receipts during the months of highest production. Thus, an appropriate approach to the problem is to induce producers to shift part of their flush production to the short production season of September, October, and November.

The so-called "fall premium payment plan" of leveling milk production is a simple and expedient method of providing a monetary incentive to producers to make a shift in their production pattern by withholding from the uniform price a specified amount per hundredweight of milk delivered during the months of April, May, and June and by subsequently distributing to the producers through the producer-settlement fund during each of the months of September, October, and November, one-third of the amount of money so deducted. The plan does not change the use-class price of milk to handlers and does not affect a control of production since it does not establish a maximum or minimum quantity of milk that producers either individually or collectively may ship to the market. Under the plan all producers receive the same price per hundredweight of milk of similar test delivered during any particular delivery period. Each producer is free to determine his own yearly production pattern. This plan has the support of both producers and handlers. It is concluded to be a logical and effective means of influencing a more even production pattern in the Nashville market.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order as hereby proposed to be amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the market supply of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order as hereby proposed to be amended are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed marketing agreement and the order as hereby proposed to be amended will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in the marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area," and "Order amending the order regulating the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, covering proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered that all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the order, as amended by the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of September 1948.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Order[1] Amending the Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, Marketing Area

§ 978.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary to and in addition to the findings and determinations made in connection with the issuance of this order; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act"), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, covering the formulation of marketing agreements and orders (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held June 15, 1948, upon a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, milk marketing area. The recommended decision (13 F. R. 4324) was made by the Assistant Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration on July 23, 1948. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to secs. 2 and 8e of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supplies of and demand for such milk, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity, specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, That on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Nashville, Tennessee, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order as hereby amended; and the aforesaid order is hereby amended as follows:

1. Delete § 978.1 (m) and substitute therefor the following:

(m) "Other source milk" means all skim milk and butterfat received in any form from a producer-handler or from a source other than producers or other handlers, except any nonfluid milk product which is received and disposed of in the same form.

2. Delete the semicolon (;) at the end of § 978.4 (f) (1) (ii) and add the following:

[File No. 70-1915]

NORTH AMERICAN CO.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of September 1948.

The North American Company ("North American"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration pursuant to the provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") and the General Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder, regarding a proposal to distribute, on November 1, 1948, in partial liquidation, to its holders of Common Stock of record as of October 4, 1948, one share of Common Stock of Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("Pacific") for each 80 shares of Common Stock of North American held. No certificates will be issued for fractions of shares of stock of Pacific; in lieu thereof, cash will be paid with respect to such numbers of shares as would be entitled to less than a full share of Pacific at the rate of $35 per share of Pacific (the approximate market price of such stock at the close of the market on July 29, 1948); such payment being the equivalent of 43¾ cents per share of Common Stock of North American entitled to be paid such cash. North American estimates that the proposed transactions will involve the distribution of approximately 89,136 shares (of a total of 166,667 shares held) of Common Stock of Pacific and approximately $630,764 in cash in lieu of fractions of such stock.

In connection with the proposed distribution, North American proposes to charge to Capital Surplus an amount (approximately $2,732,766) aggregating the carrying value of the shares of Pacific Common Stock to be distributed and the cash (approximately $630,764) to be paid in lieu of fractional shares, together with the expenses of such distribution. North American proposes that sufficient Capital Surplus for this purpose be provided by transferring from Earned Surplus to Capital Surplus an equivalent amount.

Of its estimated remaining 77,531 shares of Pacific Common Stock, North American represents that it intends to file subsequently with the Commission an appropriate notification or application with respect to the sale of 75,000 shares prior to November 1, 1948. The remaining balance of 2,531 shares is to be held until the number of shares required for the proposed distribution to stockholders on November 1, 1948, is finally ascertained; thereafter, as soon as practicable, after the issuance by the Commission of a supplemental order conforming to the requirements of Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, North American proposes to sell such residual shares on the New York Stock Exchange.

The declaration having been filed on August 3, 1948, and Notice of Filing having been duly given in the manner and form prescribed by Rule U-23 under said act and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said declaration within the period specified in such notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

North American having requested that the Commission's order conform to the requirements of Supplement R of Chapter 1 and section 1808 (f) of Chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and

The Commission finding with respect to said declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, and that no adverse findings are necessary thereunder, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors to permit said declaration to become effective:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that said declaration be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

It is further ordered and recited and the Commission finds, That the proposed distribution on November 1, 1948 of the shares of Pacific Common Stock (out of Certificates Nos. NF-217604, NF-217605, NF-363382, NF-217667 to NF-217693, inclusive, NF-217695 to NF-217720, inclusive, NC-112675 to NC-112789, inclusive, NC-138261, NF-217606, F-494281, C-53990, NF-317250 and B-731) by North American through the transfer and distribution of such shares to its stockholders, all as authorized or permitted by this order, is necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system of which North American is a member and is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

By the Commission.

(1) The inspector who issued the inspection certificate on which the appeal covering the processed product is requested; or

(2) The inspector in charge of the office of inspection at or nearest the place where the processed product is located.

(b) The application for appeal inspection shall state the location of the lot of processed products and the reasons for the appeal; and date and serial number of the certificate covering inspection of the processed product on which the appeal is requested, and such application may be accompanied by a copy of the previous inspection certificate and any other information that may facilitate inspection. Such application may be made orally (in person or by telephone), in writing, or by telegraph. If made orally, written confirmation shall be made promptly.

§ 52.25 When an application for an appeal inspection may be withdrawn. An application for appeal inspection may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the appeal inspection is performed: Provided, That, the applicant shall pay any travel expenses, telephone, telegraph, or other expenses which have been incurred by the inspection service in connection with such application.

§ 52.26 When appeal inspection may be refused. An application for an appeal inspection may be refused if (a) the reasons for the appeal inspection are frivolous or not substantial; (b) the quality or condition of the processed product has undergone a material change since the inspection covering the processed product on which the appeal inspection is requested; (c) the lot in question is not, or cannot be made accessible for the selection of officially drawn samples; (d) the lot relative to which appeal inspection is requested cannot be positively identified by the inspector as the lot from which officially drawn samples were previously inspected; or (e) there is noncompliance with the regulations in this part. Such applicant shall be notified promptly of the reason for such refusal.

§ 52.27 Who shall perform appeal inspection. An appeal inspection shall be performed by an inspector or inspectors (other than the one from whose inspection the appeal is requested) authorized for this purpose by the Administrator and, whenever practical, such appeal inspection shall be conducted jointly by two such inspectors: Provided, That, the inspector who made the inspection on which the appeal is requested may be authorized to draw the samples when another inspector or licensed sampler is not available in the area where the product is located.

§ 52.28 Appeal inspection certificate. After an appeal inspection has been completed, an appeal inspection certificate shall be issued showing the results of such appeal inspection; and such certificate shall supersede the inspection certificate previously issued for the processed product involved. Each appeal inspection certificate shall clearly identify the number and date of the inspection certificate which it supersedes. The superseded certificate shall become null and void upon the issuance of the appeal inspection certificate and shall no longer represent the quality or condition of the processed product described therein. The inspector or inspectors issuing an appeal inspection certificate shall forward notice of such issuance to such persons as he considers necessary to prevent misuse of the superseded certificate if the original and all copies of such superseded certificate have not previously been delivered to the inspector or inspectors issuing the appeal inspection certificate.. The provisions in the regulations in this part concerning forms of certificates, issuance of certificates, and disposition of certificates shall apply to appeal inspection certificates, except that copies of such appeal inspection certificates shall be furnished all interested parties who received copies of the superseded certificate.

LICENSING OF SAMPLERS AND INSPECTORS

§ 52.29 Who may become licensed sampler. Any person possessing qualifications as determined by an examination for competency, given by the Administrator, may be licensed as a licensed sampler to draw samples for the purpose of inspection under the regulations in this part. Such a license shall bear the printed signature of the Secretary and shall be countersigned by an authorized employee of the Department. Licensed samplers shall have no authority to inspect processed products under the regulations in this part except as to condition of the containers in a lot. A licensed sampler shall perform his duties pursuant to these regulations as directed by the Administrator.

§ 52.30 Application to become a licensed sampler. Application to become a licensed sampler shall be made to the Administrator on forms furnished for that purpose. Each such application shall be executed and signed by the applicant in his own handwriting, and the information contained therein shall be verified by him under oath or affirmation administered by a notary public, and the application shall contain or be accompanied by:

(a) Satisfactory evidence that he has passed his twenty-first birthday;

(b) A statement showing his present and previous occupations, together with names of all employers for whom he has worked with periods of service during the last ten years previous to the date of his application;

(c) A statement that, in his capacity as a licensed sampler, he will not draw samples from any lot of processed products with respect to which he or his employer is an interested party;

(d) A statement by the applicant that he agrees to comply with all terms and conditions of the regulations in this part relating to duties of licensed samplers; and

(e) Such other information as may be required by the aforesaid Administrator.

§ 52.31 Inspectors. Inspections will ordinarily be performed by employees under the Administrator who are employed as Federal Government employees for that purpose. However, any person employed under any joint Federal-State inspection service arrangement may be licensed, if otherwise qualified, by the Secretary to make inspections in accordance with this part on such processed products as may be specified in his license. Such license shall be issued only in a case where the Administrator is satisfied that the particular person is qualified to perform adequately the inspection service for which such person is to be licensed. Each such license shall bear the printed signature of the Secretary and shall be countersigned by an authorized employee of the Department. An inspector shall perform his duties pursuant to the regulations in this part as directed by the Administrator.

§ 52.32 Suspension or revocation of license of licensed sampler or licensed inspector. Pending final action by the Secretary, the Administrator may, whenever he deems such action necessary, suspend the license of any licensed sampler, or licensed inspector, issued pursuant to the regulations in this part, by giving notice of such suspension to the respective licensee, accompanied by a statement of the reasons therefor. Within seven days after the receipt of the aforesaid notice and statement of reasons by such licensee, he may file an appeal, in writing, with the Secretary supported by any argument or evidence that he may wish to offer as to why his license should not be suspended or revoked. After the expiration of the aforesaid seven days period and consideration of such argument and evidence, the Secretary shall take such action as he deems appropriate with respect to such suspension or revocation.

§ 52.33 Surrender of license. Upon termination of his services as a licensed sampler or licensed inspector, or suspension or revocation of his license, such licensee shall surrender his license immediately to the office of inspection serving the area in which he is located. These same provisions shall apply in a case of an expired license.

SAMPLING

§ 52.34 How samples are drawn by inspectors or licensed samplers. An inspector or a licensed sampler shall select samples, upon request, from designated lots of processed products which are so placed as to permit thorough and proper sampling in accordance with the regulations in this part. Such person shall, unless otherwise directed by the Administrator, select samples of such products at random, and from various locations in each lot in such manner and number, not inconsistent with the regulations in this part, as to secure representative samples of the lot. Samples drawn for inspection shall be furnished by the applicant at no cost to the Department.

§ 52.35 Accessibility for sampling. Each applicant shall cause the processed products for which inspection is requested to be made accessible for proper sampling. Failure to make any lot accessible for proper sampling shall be sufficient cause for postponing inspection service until such time as such lot is made accessible for proper sampling.

§ 52.36 How officially drawn samples are to be identified. Officially drawn samples shall be marked by the inspector or licensed sampler so such samples can be properly identified for inspection.

§ 52.37 How samples are to be shipped. Unless otherwise directed by the Administrator, samples which are to be shipped to any office of inspection shall be forwarded to the office of inspection serving the area in which the processed products from which the samples were drawn is located. Such samples shall be shipped in a manner to avoid, if possible, any material change in the quality or condition of the sample of the processed product. All transportation charges in connection with such shipments of samples shall be at the expense of the applicant and wherever practicable, such charges shall be prepaid by him.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 52.53 Fraud or misrepresentation. Any wilful misrepresentation or any deceptive or fradulent practice found to be made or committed by any person in connection with:

(a) The making or filing of an application for any inspection service;

(b) The submission of samples for inspection;

(c) The use of any inspection report or any inspection certificate, or appeal inspection certificate issued under the regulations in this part;

(d) The use of the words "Packed under continuous inspection of the U. S. Department of Agriculture," any legend signifying that the product has been officially inspected, any statement of grade or words of similar import in the labeling or advertising of any processed product;

(e) The use of a facsimile form which simulates in whole or in part any official U. S. certificate for the purpose of purporting to evidence the U. S. grade of any processed product; or

(f) Any wilful violation of the regulations in this part or supplementary rules or instructions issued by the Administrator, may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring such person from any or all benefits of the act.

§ 52.54 Political activity. All inspectors and licensed samplers are forbidden, during the period of their respective appointments or licenses, to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activities in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, are prohibited.

This applies to all appointees or licensees, including, but not being limited to, temporary and cooperative employees and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Wilful violation of this section will constitute grounds for dismissal in the case of appointees and revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

§ 52.55 Interfering with an inspector or licensed sampler. Any further benefits of the act may be denied any applicant or other interested party who either personally or through an agent or representative interferes with or obstructs, by intimidation, threats, assault, or in any other manner, an inspector or licensed sampler in the performance of his duties.

§ 52.57 Identification. Each inspector and licensed sampler shall have in his possession at all times and present upon request, while on duty, the means of identification furnished by the Department to such person.

§ 52.58 Publication. Publication under the act and in this part shall be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Department, and such other media as the Administrator may approve for the purpose.

It is hereby found and determined that it is necessary in the public interest to make this order effective not later than 12:01 a. m., e. d. s. t., September 16, 1948, to permit the prompt charging of increased fees to cover increased operational expenses resulting from the recent increase in Federal Government salaries and other cost increases. Delay in making such increases effective promptly would result in an increasing deficit in proportion to the length of delay. The public has heretofore been notified of the proposed revised regulations by way of the aforementioned notice which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 11, 1948, and no further time for preparation for coverage under these revised regulations is needed by interested parties. In these circumstances, it is impractical, unnecessary and contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of these revised regulations for thirty days after their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see sec. 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, 60 Stat. 237).

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of September 1948, to become effective on and after 12:01 a. m., e. d. s. t., September 16, 1948.

[SEAL] DILLARD B. LASSETER,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 933.396 Grapefruit Regulation 99—(a) Findings—(1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR and Supps., Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 13, 1948, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 20, 1948, no handler shall ship:

No. 2 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall each have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Grapefruit (13 F. R. 4787). (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

R. 1994), regulating the handling of potatoes grown in the Eastern South Dakota production area, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the South Dakota Potato Committee, established under said marketing agreement and order, and other available information, it is hereby found that such limitation of shipments of potatoes as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this order until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. (b) Order. (1) During the period beginning on September 15, 1948, and ending on June 30, 1949, both dates inclusive, no handler shall ship any potatoes unless such potatoes meet the requirements of the U. PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Under sections 205, 308, and 601 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, and sections 42.341, 42.342, 42.37, 60.306, and 61.752 of the Civil Air Regulations the Administrator is authorized to prescribe standard instrument approach procedures, including landing and take-off minimums.

Acting pursuant to the foregoing authority, and in accordance with sections 3 and 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act, the following amendment to Part 609 is hereby adopted. This amendment relieves restrictions, clarifies existing regulations, and imposes no additional burdens upon interested persons. It is issued without delay, in order to promote safety of the flying public. 1. Section 609.1 Introduction, paragraph (a) is amended to read:

(a) The following standard instrument approach procedures (including ceiling and visibility minimums for take-off and landing at particular airports) shall be identical for all users, with the following exceptions: The minimums for take-off and landing shall not apply to (1) military aircraft, or (2) users for whom the Administrator has specifically authorized lower minimums. The minimums for take-offs shall not apply to those users for whom the Administrator has not been authorized to prescribe take-off minimums.

2. Section 609.1 Introduction, paragraphs (c) and (d) are amended by substituting "visual contact" for "VFR" wherever the latter term appears.

3. Section 609.2 Ceiling and visibility minimums, paragraphs (a) and (b) are amended by substituting "landing" for "approach" wherever the latter term appears.

4. Section 609.2 Ceiling and visibility minimums, paragraph (e) is amended by eliminating "Procedure" and capitalizing "not."

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED FURTHER AMENDMENTS TO THE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders, as amended (7 CFR and Supps. 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at Lodi, California, beginning on April 15, 1948, pursuant to notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 1940), upon proposed amendments to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 51, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., Part 951), regulating the handling of Tokay Grapes grown in the State of California, to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 208, 707).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Acting Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on July 9, 1948, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, the recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of the filing of such recommended decision, affording opportunity to file written exceptions thereto, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 4020, 4199, 4324, 4428).

Exceptions to the recommended decision were filed on behalf of the Industry Committee, Tokay Marketing Agreement, 1515–9th Street, Sacramento, California. In arriving at the findings and conclusions decided upon in this decision each of the exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. To the extent that the findings and conclusions decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions pertaining thereto, such exceptions are overruled.

The material issues, findings and conclusions, and the general findings of the aforesaid recommended decision (13 F. R. 4020, 4199, 4428) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues, findings, and conclusions, and general findings of this decision as if set forth in full herein.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Agreement Amending the Marketing Agreement, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Tokay Grapes Grown in the State of California" and "Order Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Tokay Grapes Grown in the State of California," which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision except the annexed agreement amending the marketing agreement, as amended, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said agreement amending the marketing agreement, as amended, are identical with those contained in the annexed order amending the order, as amended, which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C. this 8th day of September 1948.

[SEAL] DILLARD B. LASSETER,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Order[1] Amending the Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Tokay Grapes Grown in the State of California

§ 951.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary to and in addition to the findings and determinations made in connection with the issuance of this order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1946 ed. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 208, 707), and the rules of practice and procedure effective thereunder (7 CFR and Supps., 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at Lodi, California, beginning on April 15, 1948, upon proposed amendments to Marketing Agreement No. 93, as amended, and Order No. 51, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 951.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of Tokay grapes grown in the State of California. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of Tokay grapes grown in the State of California in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, the marketing agreement and the proposed amendments thereto upon which hearings have been held; and

(3) There are no differences in the production and marketing of said grapes grown in the production area covered by the said order, as amended and as hereby further amended, that make necessary different terms and provisions applicable to different parts of said area.

It is, therefore, ordered, That, on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of Tokay grapes grown in the State of California shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended and as hereby further amended; and such order is hereby further amended as follows:

1. Insert the following immediately preceding the period in § 951.1 (b): "and further amended by Public Law 305, 80th Cong., approved August 1, 1947".

2. Delete § 951.1 (g) and insert, in lieu thereof, the following:

(g) "Handle" is synonymous with "ship" and means to sell, load in a conveyance for transportation, offer for transportation, transport, deliver to a refrigerated storage warehouse in the State of California, or, in any other way to place grapes in the current of commerce between the State of California and any point outside thereof, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect such commerce.

3. Delete § 951.1 (k) (1) and insert, in lieu thereof, the following:

4. Delete the third sentence from § 951.2 (a).

5. Insert the following immediately preceding the semicolon in § 951.2 (m) (3): ", and to engage in such research and service activities relating to the handling of grapes as may be approved, from time to time, by the Secretary".

6. In §§ 951.2 (m) (13), 951.2 (m) (15), and 951.2 (p) (5), delete the terms "§§ 951.4 and 951.5" and insert, in lieu thereof, the words "the provisions."

7. Delete the first sentence in § 951.3 (a) and insert, in lieu thereof, the following: "The Industry Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary may find are reasonable and are likely to be incurred by the Industry Committee during the then current season for its maintenance and functioning and for such research and service activities relating to the handling of grapes as the Secretary may determine to be appropriate."

8. In the first sentence in § 951.3 (b) delete the words after "will be" and insert, in lieu thereof, the following: "incurred, as aforesaid, by the committee during such season."

(1) The Industry Committee shall, subject to the approval of the Secretary, adopt the procedural rules to govern the issuance of exemption certificates.

(2) In the event the Secretary issues a regulation pursuant to this section, the Industry Committee shall determine for each district the percentage which the grapes produced in each such district, and permitted to be shipped under such regulation, is of the quantity of grapes produced in the respective district which would be shipped in the absence of such regulation. An exemption certificate shall thereafter be issued by the Industry Committee to any grower who furnishes proof, satisfactory to such committee, that by reason of conditions beyond his control he will be prevented, because of the regulation issued, from shipping or having shipped a percentage of his crop of grapes equal to the percentage determined as aforesaid of all grapes permitted to be shipped from his district. The certificate shall permit such grower to ship, or have shipped, a percentage of his crop of grapes equal to the percentage determined as aforesaid.

(3) In the event the Industry Committee determines that, by reason of general crop failure or other general unusual conditions within a particular district, it is not feasible or would not be equitable to issue exemption certificates to growers within such district on the basis set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, it shall issue such certificates on the basis of the average of the percentages, as determined in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, of the crops of grapes permitted to be shipped from both districts. An exemption certificate shall thereafter be issued by the Industry Committee to any grower who furnishes proof, satisfactory to such committee, that by reason of conditions beyond his control he will be prevented, because of the regulation issued, from shipping or having shipped a percentage of his crop of grapes equal to the average of the percentages determined as aforesaid. The certificate shall permit such grower to ship, or have shipped, a percentage of his crop of grapes equal to the average of the percentages determined as aforesaid.

(4) If any grower is dissatisfied with the action of the Industry Committee taken with respect to his application for an exemption certificate, such grower may appeal to the Secretary: Provided, That such appeal shall be made promptly. The Secretary may, upon an appeal made as aforesaid, modify or reverse the action of the committee. The authority of the Secretary to supervise and control the issuance of exemption certificates is unlimited and plenary; and any determination by the Secretary with respect to an exemption certificate shall be final and conclusive.

11. Renumber §§ 951.5, 951.6, and 951.7 through 951.18 to read, respectively, §§ 951.7, 951.8, and §§ 951.10 through 951.21 in proper numerical sequence.

12. In § 951.4 (d) delete the words "this section" after the words "pursuant to," and insert, in lieu thereof, the terms "§§ 951.4 and 951.5." Redesignate paragraph (d) of § 951.4 to read § 951.6.

13. Add a new § 951.5, as follows:

§ 951.5 Minimum standards of quality and maturity—(a) Recommendation. Whenever the Industry Committee deems it advisable to establish and maintain in effect during any period minimum standards of quality or maturity, or both, governing the shipment of grapes pursuant to this section, it shall so recommend to the Secretary. Each such recommendation of the committee shall be in terms of (1) freedom of the grapes from material impairment of shipping quality; (2) freedom of the grapes from material impairment of edible quality; (3) freedom of the grapes from serious damage to appearance; (4) minimum maturity requirements; or (5) any combination of the foregoing. With each such recommendation, the committee shall submit to the Secretary the information and data on which such recommendation is predicated; and the committee shall also submit to the Secretary such other information as he may request. The committee shall give prompt notice to handlers and growers of any such recommendation.

(b) Establishment. Whenever the Secretary finds, from the recommendation and information submitted by the Industry Committee, or from other available information, that to establish minimum standards of quality or material, or both, for grapes and to limit the shipment of grapes during any period to those meeting the minimum standards would be in the public interest and would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall establish such standards, designate such period, and so limit the shipment of such grapes. The Secretary shall immediately notify the Industry Committee of the issuance of such regulation, and said committee shall give such notice thereof as may be reasonably calculated to bring such regulation to the attention of the handlers and growers.

14. Add a new § 951.9 as follows:

§ 951.9 Modification, suspension, or termination. Whenever the Industry Committee deems it advisable to recommend to the Secretary the modification, suspension, or termination of any or all of the regulations established pursuant hereto, it shall so recommend to the Secretary. If the Secretary finds upon the basis of such recommendation or from other available information that to modify such regulations will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall so modify such regulations. If the Secretary finds, upon the basis of such recommendation or upon the basis of other available information that any such regulations obstruct or do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall suspend or terminate such regulations. The Secretary shall immediately notify the Industry Committee, and such committee shall promptly give adequate notice to handlers and growers, of the issuance of each order modifying, suspending, or terminating any such regulations. In like manner and upon the same basis the Secretary may terminate any such modification or suspension.

It appears to the Commission that:

(a) Connecticut River Power Company (Connecticut Company) and New England Power Company (NEPCO), subsidiaries of New England Electric System, own and operate facilities in the States of Vermont, New Hampshire, and Massachusetts, including hydroelectric projects licensed under Part 1 of the Federal Power Act and identified in the Commission's records as projects Nos. 1855, 1892 and 1904, for the generation, transmission, and sale of electric energy.

(b) The business of Connecticut Company and NEPCO is predominantly the sale of electric energy at wholesale in interstate commerce pursuant to rate schedules on file with this Commission.

(c) Connecticut Company, under rate schedules designated by the Commission as Connecticut Company's Rate Schedule FPC Nos. 1 and 6, sells all of the output of its generating plants, in excess of local load requirements, to NEPCO.

(d) Connecticut Company and NEPCO, as licensees, are subject to Parts I and III of the Federal Power Act and, as public utilities, by reason of the ownership or operation of facilities for the transmission or sale of electric energy at wholesale in interstate commerce, are subject to Parts II and III of the Federal Power Act.

(e) On the basis of data available to the Commission, the rates, charges, services, or classification for or in connection with the transmission or sale of electric energy at wholesale in interstate commerce by Connecticut Company and NEPCO may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential.

The Commission finds that:

It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Power Act, that an investigation be instituted by the Commission into and concerning any rate, charge, service or classification, demanded, observed, charged or collected by New England Power Company or Connecticut River Power Company, for or in connection with the transmission or sale of electric power and energy subject to the Commission's jurisdiction and any rule, regulation, practice, or contract affecting such rate, charge, service, or classification.

The Commission orders that:

An investigation be and it hereby is instituted for the purpose of enabling the Commission:

(A) To determine whether any rate, charge, service, or classification demanded, observed, charged, or collected by New England Power Company or Connecticut River Power Company for or in connection with the transmission or sale of electric power and energy subject to the Commission's jurisdiction or any rule, regulation, practice or contract affecting such rate, charge, service, or classification, is unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential;

(B) If, after hearing, it shall find that any such rates, charges, services, classifications, rules, regulations, practices or contracts are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, to determine and fix by appropriate order or orders, just, reasonable, non-discriminatory or non-preferential rates, charges, services, classification, rules, regulations, practices or contracts to be thereafter observed and in force.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) Canadian River Gas Company (Canadian River) owns and operates a natural-gas transmission pipeline system extending from the Panhandle gas field in Texas to a point near Clayton, New Mexico, and is engaged in the transportation and sale of natural gas for resale in interstate commerce and is a "natural-gas company" within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, as heretofore found by the commission in its order of March 18, 1942, in Docket Nos. G–118, G–121 and G–124 (3 FPC 66–68);

(b) Colorado Interstate Gas Company (Colorado Interstate) owns and operates a natural-gas transmission pipeline system extending from a point near Clayton, New Mexico, to Denver, Colorado, Colorado Interstate purchases natural gas from Canadian River at said point of commencement of its main pipeline and also at a point near Gray, Oklahoma, purchases additional natural gas from producers in the Kansas-Hugoton field, and transports and sells said natural gas for resale in interstate commerce, and is therefore a "natural-gas company" within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, as heretofore found by the Commission in its order of March 18, 1942, in Docket Nos. G–118, G–121 and G–124 (3 FPC 69–71);

(c) On the basis of data available to the Commission, the rates, charges, services or classifications for or in connection with the transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission by Canadian River and Colorado Interstate may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential.

The Commission finds that:

It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Federal Power Act, that an investigation be instituted by the Commission into and concerning any rate, charge, service or classification, demanded, observed, charged or collected by Canadian River Gas Company and Colorado Interstate Gas Company, for or in connection with the transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and any rule, regulation, practice, or contract affecting such rate, charge, service or classification.

[Docket No. G-1116]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO.

ORDER INSTITUTING RATE INVESTIGATION

SEPTEMBER 2, 1948.

It appears to the Commission that:

(a) Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company (Panhandle) owns and operates a natural-gas transmission pipeline system located in the States of Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan, and by such operations is engaged in the transportation and sale of natural gas in interstate commerce for resale for ultimate public consumption, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and is, therefore, a "natural-gas company" within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act, as heretofore found by the Commission in its order of September 23, 1942, in Docket Nos. G-200 and G-207 (3 FPC 296),

(b) By letter of June 4, 1947, the Commission advised Panhandle as follows:

The Commission has directed that an informal investigation be made of the interstate wholesale rates (including rate structure), the accounts, and the operations of Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company. This action is in accordance with the policy of the Commission to make a field examination, from time to time, of the rates, subject to its jurisdiction, of natural gas companies as defined in the Natural Gas Act.

(c) By telegram of August 22, 1947, the Commission advised Panhandle that the informal investigation would commence on September 2, 1947. The informal investigation did commence on September 2, 1947, and since then has been continuously in progress.

(d) On the basis of data presently available to the Commission as a result of such informal investigation, the rates, charges, services or classifications for or in connection with the transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission by Panhandle may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential.

The Commission finds that:

It is necessary and proper in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that a formal investigation now be instituted by the Commission into and concerning any rate, charge, service or classification, demanded, observed, charged or collected by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, for or in connection with the transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and any rule, regulation, practice or contract affecting such rate, charge, service or classification.

The Commission, on its own motion, orders that:

A formal investigation be and it hereby is instituted for the purpose of enabling the Commission:

(A) To determine whether any rate, charge, service or classification demanded, observed, charged or collected by Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company for or in connection with the transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission or any rule, regulation, practice or contract affecting such rate, charge, service, or classification, is unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential;

(B) If, after hearing, it shall find that any of such rates, charges, services, classifications, rules, regulations, practices or contracts are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, to determine and fix by appropriate order or orders, just, reasonable, non-discriminatory or non-preferential rates, charges, services, classifications, rules, regulations, practices or contracts to be thereafter observed and in force.

The Commission finds that:

It is necessary, desirable and in the public interest that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed rates or charges and that said proposed rates or charges be suspended pending such hearing and the decision thereon.

The application recites that such pipeline will be approximately 990 miles in length originating in the upper Gulf Coast gas fields of Texas, and southwest Louisiana, and extending through the States of Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, terminating in the vicinity of Danville, Virginia. The proposed project includes the installation of 12 compressor stations having a total of 87,000 horsepower, with a line capacity of approximately 215,000 Mcf per day.

The estimated cost of the proposed pipeline with compressor stations, river crossings and appurtenant facilities is $75,444,000, including an allowance for working capital. The financing of the line will be through the issuance of bonds, preferred stock, bank loans and additional common stock.

WAYNESBORO GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 7, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on August 27, 1948, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by the Waynesboro Gas Company (Applicant), a Pennsylvania corporation located in Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, for an order pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, directing the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company to establish a physical connection of its transportation facilities with proposed facilities of Applicant and sell and deliver natural gas to Applicant for distribution in the Borough of Waynesboro, Franklin County, Pennsylvania.

The application recites that the present gas manufacturing plant being operated by the Waynesboro Gas Company was constructed in 1910 and due to the increased cost of light oil, coal and labor, together with increased demand for gas service, its gas plant operating costs have increased to a point where it is impossible to maintain economical operation.

Applicant asserts that it entered into a contract with the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company on January 7, 1946, whereby Manufacturers Light and Heat Company agreed to supply certain quantities of natural gas.

It is further submitted by Applicant that it has taken all reasonable steps for the purpose of obtaining deliveries of gas in accordance with its contract with the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company but that it has been unable to obtain deliveries in accordance with its agreement.

The estimated sales and send-out of 1100 B. t. u. natural gas for the years 1949, 1950, 1951 and 1952, submitted by the Company are respectively 39,806 Mcf, 43,829 Mcf, 50,393 Mcf and 60,835 Mcf. The peak day estimates for the aforementioned years are estimated by the Applicant to be 166 Mcf, 183 Mcf, 210 Mcf and 253 Mcf.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.37) and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

4. Gas dehydration plants, metering and regulating stations, and other facilities appurtenant to the above-mentioned facilities.

Applicant proposes to obtain its supplies of natural gas from reserves in the La Gloria and Seeligson Fields in Brooks, Jim Wells, and Kleberg Counties, Texas, and in gas fields in De Soto, Lincoln, Webster, Bossier, and Claiborne Parishes, Louisiana. Applicant states that it does not propose to engage in the production or gathering of natural gas, but will purchase its supplies from owners of reserves in these fields totaling between five and six trillion cubic feet of natural gas. It is stated that such owners are willing to dedicate such reserves to this project for a period of at least twenty (20) years. According to the application, additional reserves will be obtained from other sources located along the route of the proposed line.

Applicant proposes to use the above-described facilities for the supply of natural gas to the Natural Gas Pipeline Company, which in turn supplies gas directly or indirectly to Chicago District Pipe Line Company, The Peoples Gas Light and Coke Company, Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, Western United Gas and Electric Company, and Public Service Company of Northern Indiana, in the Chicago area, and to its other utility customers in the areas served by it. The application states that the major companies presently serving the Chicago area now need in excess of 245,000 Mcf of natural gas per day to supplement their present supply of gas, and that, within approximately one year after the line is constructed, they will need in excess of 350,000 Mcf of additional gas per day.

The proposed facilities, according to Applicant, are designed to deliver initially at the northern terminus approximately 245,000 Mcf per day, and 350,000 Mcf per day ultimately.

Applicant estimates that the total overall capital cost will be $119,000,000. This is proposed to be financed by the issuance of the following securities:

Bonds, 3.5 percent, 20-year	$89,250,000
Preferred stock, 5 percent	17,850,000
Common stock	11,900,000

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.37), and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of the Gulfcoast Northern Gas Company is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.8 and 1.10, whichever is applicable, of the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10).

ORDER APPOINTING TRIAL EXAMINER AND FIXING TIME AND PLACE FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 31st day of August A. D. 1948.

In the matter of Bethany College and Divinity School, a corporation, Carl M. Kilmer and Lulu M. Kilmer, individually, and as officers of said corporation, and William Potter, Grace Sercomb, Ted Victor Vorhees, J. Frederick Doering, William Morgan Keller, Carl M. Kilmer, Jesse J. INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[No. 29721; No. 29722]

ALL-RAIL COMMODITY RATES BETWEEN CALIFORNIA, OREGON, AND WASHINGTON, AND PACIFIC COASTWISE WATER RATES

SPECIAL RULES OF PROCEDURE

SEPTEMBER 2, 1948.

These proceedings are assigned for hearing at the Assembly Room, Public Library, Civic Center, San Francisco, Calif., October 18, 1948, 10 o'clock a. m., United States standard Pacific time, before Commissioner Clyde B. Aitchison.

As this is an investigation on the Commission's own motion, petitions of intervention are unnecessary, but the parties should be prepared to comply with the requirements of Rule 73 of the general rules of practice.

In order to save time and expense it is strongly urged that persons having common interests endeavor, so far as possible, to consolidate their presentation of testimony and arrange for cross-examination by a limited number of counsel.

In the preparation of exhibits Rules 81 to 84 of the general rules of practice should be observed. If possible, all documentary evidence to be introduced by each witness should be suitably bound together in a single exhibit with pages consecutively numbered. At least 50 copies of each exhibit should be available. So far as possible exhibits should be self-explanatory to minimize the time required for oral testimony.

Witnesses who prepare their testimony in writing should comply with Rule 77 of the general rules of practice. They should have a sufficient number of copies to supply opposing counsel, the official reporter, and the presiding officer. To save time it is suggested that such written statements be prepared with a view to their being copied into the record by agreement without being read by the witness or that they be submitted as verified statements, as stated in the next paragraph.

Evidence in the form of verified statements (affidavits) without personal appearance of the affiant as a witness will be received in the absence of objection. Parties offering such statements should provide 50 copies thereof as early as possible in the hearings. Verified statements may be mailed, addressed to Commissioner Aitchison, % Bureau of Motor Carriers, Interstate Commerce Commission, Room 166, Federal Office Building, Fulton and Leavenworth Streets, Zone 2, San Francisco, so as to reach him on or prior to the date of the hearing. Notice of objection to the receipt of any such statements should be given promptly to the Commission, and to the party offering the statement. If no such notice is given, it will be assumed that objection is waived, subject to the right of any person in any appropriate manner to raise questions as to the weight of such verified statements. Such statements should conform to the general rules of practice with respect to style, mimeographing, printing, etc. They should be limited strictly to matters of fact and contain no argument; if not so limited, they may be excluded. The Commission on its own motion or objection may exclude a verified statement or any portion thereof which (a) is not material or relevant to the questions involved in these proceedings, (b) is obviously incompetent, or (c) is argumentative. All verified statements received in evidence will be part of the record upon which the Commission will base its decision.

By the Commission.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-564]

AMERICAN GENERAL CORP. ET AL.

In the matter of American General Corporation, The Morris Plan Corporation of America, National Industrial Credit Corporation, Collateral Discount Corporation and George M. Greene, File No. 812-564.

Notice is hereby given that National Industrial Credit Corporation (National), 103 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y., has filed an application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) (2) of the act, the proposed sale by National to George M. Greene, 32-33 81st Street, Jackson Heights, Long Island, New York, of 250 shares of capital stock, comprising all the stock outstanding of Collateral Discount Corporation (Collateral), 103 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y., for a cash purchase price of $25,000. George M. Greene is president and a director of Collateral.

Section 17 (a) (2) of the act makes it unlawful for an affiliated person of an affiliated person of a registered investment company, acting as principal, knowingly to purchase from any company controlled by such registered investment company, any security or other property, except securities of which the seller is the issuer.

American General Corporation, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York, N. Y., is a closed-end, non-diversified, management investment company registered under the act. American General Corporation owns approximately 61% of the common stock of the Morris Plan Corporation of America, 103 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y., the only class of stock of such company entitled to vote. The Morris Plan Corporation of America owns all the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of National. National, in turn, owns all the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Collateral. Since George M. Greene is an officer and director of Collateral, the proposed purchase by him from National of capital stock of Collateral involves the purchase by an affiliated person of an affiliated person, of a registered investment company, from a company controlled by such registered investment company, of a security of which the seller is not the issuer. The application therefore requests an order exempting the proposed transaction from the provisions of section 17 (a) (2) of the act.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted, all persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application, in whole or in part and upon such conditions as the Commission may deem necessary or appropriate, may be issued by the Commission at any time after September 24, 1948, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission, as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may, not later than September 22, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., submit to the Commission in writing his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

PEG has the right to pay, in whole or in part, at any time prior to maturity thereof, without premium, the loans made under the credit agreement. PEG will pay to the respective banks a stand-by charge at the rate of ½ of 1% per annum on the average daily unused balance under the several commitments of the banks.

PEG states that any portion of the proceeds from the proposed loans not used for property additions and improvements will be used to pay the outstanding $18,000,000 principal amount of notes of PEG due March 15, 1949, or to pay at maturity certain prior lien bonds of PEG which mature within the next ten months.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs. Amdt. 27-3]

PART 27—AIRCRAFT DISPATCHER CERTIFICATES

AIRCRAFT DISPATCHER AERONAUTICAL EXPERIENCE

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 3d day of September 1948.

Section 27.15 (f) of the Civil Air Regulations requires applicants for aircraft dispatcher certificates to have served in connection with the dispatching of air carrier aircraft under the supervision of a certificated dispatcher for at least 90 days within the 6 calendar months immediately preceding application. It does not appear that this requirement should be a prerequisite to the examination of an applicant, since prior to exercising the privileges of his certificate an aircraft dispatcher must comply with the recent experience requirements of § 27.23. Under the provisions of Part 27, in addition to required aeronautical experience, an applicant must demonstrate satisfactorily his compliance with the knowledge and skill requirements which are sufficiently stringent to assure that a successful applicant is fully competent to exercise the privileges of an aircraft dispatcher certificate.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, it may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 27 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 27, as amended) effective September 3, 1948:

1. By amending § 27.15 (e) to read as follows:

§ 27.15 Aeronautical experience.

(e) Applicant shall be a graduate of an aircraft dispatcher course approved by the Administrator.

2. By rescinding § 27.15 (f).

ORDER TERMINATING THE ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement

Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), an order (8 F. R. 9733) was issued on July 14, 1943, suspending the provisions in §§ 939.4, 939.5, and 939.6 of Order No. 39 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 939.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of the Beurre d'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Winter Nelis, Doyenne du Comice, Beurre Easter, and Beurre Clairgeau varieties of pears grown in the States of Oregon, Washington and California. Such action was taken on the basis that the aforesaid provisions did not at that time tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

On the basis of available information, it is hereby found and determined that the provisions in §§ 939.4, 939.5, and 939.6 of said Order No. 39 will, on and after September 16, 1948, tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the order (8 F. R. 9733) suspending the provisions of §§ 939.4, 939.5, and 939.6 of said Order No. 39 is hereby terminated effective September 16, 1948.

It is hereby found and determined that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this termination order until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that the shipping season for the pears covered by said Order No. 39 will commence in early September, and it is necessary that the aforesaid provisions be in effect at that time; the time intervening between the date when information upon which this termination order is based became available and the time when the aforesaid provisions must be in effect in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient; and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 903]

[Docket No. AO 10-A 12]

HANDLING OF MILK IN ST. LOUIS, MO., MILK MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR, Supps., 900.1 et seq.), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held in the Chase Hotel, at St. Louis, Missouri, beginning at 10: 30 a. m., c. d. t., on September 20, 1948, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to the proposed amendments, hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, milk marketing area. The proposals to define various types of plants, to revise the classification of milk transferred between various plants, and to adopt a market-wide pool in lieu of an individual-handler pool raise the question as to whether an adjustment should be made in the location differentials to handlers and producers. Similarly, the proposals to revise the definition of Class I milk by including skim milk, buttermilk, and flavored milk drinks; to revise the method of allocating receipts of milk, skim milk, and cream from sources other than producers and handlers in the classification of producer milk; and to provide a butterfat differential to handlers raise the question whether the adoption of any of said proposals would necessitate a change in the method of accounting and pricing of skim milk and butterfat. Evidence with respect to these questions will also be received at the hearing. These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The following amendments have been proposed:

By Sanitary Milk Producers:

1. Delete the provisions of § 903.1 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture or such other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

2. Delete the provisions of § 903.1 (e) and substitute therefor the following:

25. Amend § 903.4 (a) (2), by adding the following: Provided further, That if during the 12 months immediately preceding the delivery period the total amount of milk delivered by producers is less than 130 percent of total Class I milk reported by all the handlers as determined by the market administrator an additional 46 cents per hundredweight on ordnance products shall be added to the Class II price for the months of July through December and 23 cents per hundredweight for the months of January through March.

26. Amend § 903.4 by adding a new paragraph (c):

By handlers:

27. Amend § 903.4 (a) (1) and (2) by striking all of said paragraphs and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

(1) Class I milk: The price for Class I milk shall be the price computed under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph plus the following amount per hundredweight: $1.35 for the delivery periods of August through November; $1.10 for the delivery periods of July and December through March; and $0.90 for the delivery periods of April through June.

(2) Class II milk: The price for Class II milk shall be the price computed under subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, plus the following amount per hundredweight: 55 cents for the delivery periods of August through November; 35 cents for the delivery periods of April through June: Provided, That during any delivery period the price of milk used by such handler for evaporated milk in hermetically sealed containers are disposed of by such handler to the plant of any other person where such milk is manufactured into evaporated milk and placed in hermetically sealed containers, shall be the average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight determined for the plants listed in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

28. Amend § 903.4 (a) (3) by striking all of said paragraph before the listing of plants and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

By the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

29. Delete § 903.5 (b) and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Records and facilities. Each handler shall keep adequate records of receipts and utilization of milk and milk products and shall, during the usual hours of business, make available to the market administrator or his representative such records and facilities as will enable the market administrator to: (1) Verify the receipts and utilization of all milk and milk products and, in case of errors or omissions, ascertain the correct figures; (2) weigh, sample, and test for butterfat content all milk and milk products handled; (3) verify payments to producers; and (4) make such examinations of operations, equipment, and facilities, as the market administrator deems necessary.

By the Sanitary Milk Producers:

30. Add to § 903.6 a new paragraph to read as follows:

(b) Interest on overdue accounts. Any unpaid obligations of a handler or of the market administrator, pursuant to §§ 903.8, 903.9, or 903.10, shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of 1 percent per month, such interest to accrue on the first day of the calendar month next following the due date of such obligation and on the first day of each calendar month thereafter until paid.

By handlers:

31. Amend the order to provide for a market-wide pool by deleting § 903.7 and substituting therefor the following:

§ 903.7 Determination of uniform price—(a) Computation of value for each handler. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the value of milk of producers received by each handler by multiplying the pounds in each class by the applicable class price, adding together the resulting class values, and adding to such sum the value of any excess milk or butterfat classified pursuant to § 903.3 (d) and deducting the amount of the adjustment to be made pursuant to § 903.8 (g).

(b) Commutation of the uniform price. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of producer milk as follows:

(1) Combine into one total the values, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for all pool plant handlers who made reports prescribed by § 903.5 for such delivery period.

(2) Add the aggregate of the value of all allowable location adjustments computed at the applicable rates set forth in § 903.4 (b).

(3) Add an amount representing the cash balance in the producer-settlement fund.

(4) Divide the resulting amount by the total hundredweight of milk received from producers included in these computations; and

(5) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments or delinquencies in payments by handlers.

32. Delete § 903.8 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

§ 903.8 Payment for milk—(a) Time and method of payment. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall make payment to each producer, for the total value of milk received from such producer during such delivery period of not less than the uniform price per hundredweight subject to the following adjustment, (1) the producer butterfat differential and location adjustment, (2) marketing service deductions, (3) deductions authorized by the producer, and (4) any error in calculating payments to such producer for the past delivery periods.

(b) The producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the producer-settlement fund into which he shall deposit all payments made by the handlers pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (e) of this section, and out of which he shall make all payments pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section: Provided, That payments due to any handler shall be offset by payments due from such handler.

(c) Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 11th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator any amount by which the value of his milk, computed pursuant to § 903.7 (a), for such delivery period is greater than the amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk received by him from producers during the delivery period by the uniform price.

(d) Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 13th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler (except those in default of payments required pursuant to § 903.8 (c), for the preceding delivery periods), for payment to producers, any amount by which the total value of his milk, computed pursuant to § 903.7 (a) for such delivery period is less than the amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of milk received by him from producers during the delivery period by the uniform price. If at such time the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

(e) Adjustments of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of payments by any handler discloses errors made in payments to the producer-settlement fund pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler shall, within 15 days, make payments to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler, pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, the market administrator shall, within 15 days, make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer for milk received by such handler discloses payment of less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment not later than the time of making payment to producers next following such disclosure.

33. Renumber § 903.8 (b) and (c) to (f) and (g) respectively, and delete paragraph (d) and renumber paragraph (e) to (h).

By the Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

34. Delete the provisions of § 903.9 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 903.9 Expense of administration. As his pro rata share of the expense of administration hereof, each handler shall pay to the market administrator, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, 2½ cents per hundredweight or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to receipts, during such delivery period, of (a) milk from producers (including such handler's own production), and (b) other source milk, received at a fluid milk plant.

35. Delete the provisions of § 903.10 (a) and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Deduction for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers pursuant to § 903.8 (a), shall deduct 5 cents per hundredweight, or such lesser amount as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all milk received by such handler from producers (excluding such handler's own production) during the delivery period and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the delivery period. Such moneys shall be used by the market administrator to verify weights, samples, and tests of milk received from such producers and to provide them with market information. Such services shall be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

36. Add a new section to read as follows:

§ 903.16 Separability of provisions. If any provisions hereof, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision, and of the remaining provisions hereof, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

37. Redraft such sections, or portions thereof, necessary to effectuate any proposals which are adopted as a result of this hearing.

By handlers:

38. Make such other changes as may be required to make the order, as amended, conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

HANDLING OF MILK IN ST. LOUIS, MO., MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS THERETO WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO THE ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Supps., 900.1 et seq.), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of a recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis, Missouri, marketing area, to be made effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1844, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the 5th day after the publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. A public hearing, to consider a proposed amendment to the order, as amended, and to the tentative marketing agreement, was held at St. Louis, Missouri, on July 7–9, 1948, following receipt of a proposal filed by the Sanitary Milk Producers, St. Louis, Missouri. The notice of hearing was issued on June 18, 1948 (13 F. R. 3299, 3485).

The material issue presented on the record of the hearing was whether the Class I price differential over the basic formula price should be revised immediately.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of Sanitary Milk Producers, Square Deal Producers Association of Illinois, Co-Operative Milk Producers of Missouri, and the handlers who would be subject to the proposed marketing agreement and the order amending the order, as amended. The briefs contained statements in the nature of suggested findings of fact, conclusions, and arguments with respect to the proposals discussed at the hearing. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered, along with the evidence in the record, in making the findings and reaching the conclusions set forth herein. To the extent that any suggested findings and conclusions contained in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the requests to make such findings or to reach such conclusions are denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this decision.

Findings and conclusions. The proposal to effect an immediate amendment to the order, as amended, to provide for an increase of 46 cents in the Class I price differential for the delivery periods of July through December and 23 cents for the delivery periods of January through March, if during the 12 months immediately preceding the delivery period the total volume of milk delivered by all producers was less than 130 percent of the total Class I sales by all handlers, should not be adopted at this time.

In support of such proposal producers stated that producer receipts of 130 percent of Class I sales were necessary to supply market requirements of fluid milk, fluid cream, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, and flavored milk drinks. The definition of Class I milk includes only fluid milk, and milk not accounted for as Class II milk. Fluid cream, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, and flavored milk drinks are classified as Class II milk along with manufactured products which are not required to be made from Grade A milk. The record does not show sufficient justification for the adoption of such a proposal without a review of the related classification provisions of the order.

Proposals were also made at the hearing to revise the Class I price differential over the basic price. It is concluded that such differential would be affected by the definition of Class I milk (which it is proposed shall be considered at the forthcoming hearing) and hence no action on these proposals may appropriately be taken at this time.

Evidence with respect to the classification provisions was not considered at the hearing of July 7–9, 1948. However, a request has been received for a public hearing to consider such provisions in connection with a review of the same price proposal which was considered at the hearing of July 7–9, 1948. A notice setting the date for such public hearing is being issued simultaneously herewith.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of September 1948.

[SEAL] JOHN I. THOMPSON,
Assistant Administrator.

[Docket No. AO164-A1]

HANDLING OF ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA OR ARIZONA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ORDER AND TENTATIVELY APPROVED MARKETING AGREEMENT

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 11 F. R. 7737; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to proposed amendments to Order No. 66 (7 CFR, Cum. Supp. 966.2 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "order", and to the tentatively approved marketing agreement, hereinafter referred to as the "marketing agreement", regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, to be made effective pursuant to provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 1846, South Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 20th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed amendments to the marketing agreement and order are formulated, was initiated by the Production and Marketing Administration as a result of proposed amendments received from various individuals, and groups of growers and handlers of oranges grown in the States of California and Arizona. In accordance with the applicable provisions of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure, a notice that a public hearing would be held at Los Angeles, California, on April 6, 1948, and at Phoenix, Arizona, on April 19, 1948, to consider the proposed amendments was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 1320, 1611). The hearing was held at Los Angeles, California, on April 6–9, 1948, and April 12–15, 1948, and at Phoenix, Arizona, on April 19, 1948.

Material issues. Material issues presented on the record of the hearing pertain to amending the marketing agreement and order as follows:

(1) Delete the provisions thereof permitting regulation of the handling of oranges grown in the State of Arizona;

(2) Provide therein that allotment be issued only to handlers owning or controlling mature oranges;

(3) Delete the provisions thereof relevant to prorate districts;

(4) Delete the provisions thereof relevant to the allotment pool or modify the provisions thereof to establish therein definite mechanics whereby allotments may be equitably allocated to facilitate the handling of early maturity and short life oranges;

(5) Provide therein that the Orange Administrative Committee be increased to 11 members by the addition of 4 handler members and that grower committee representation be by districts insofar as practicable;

(6) Provide therein for regulation based on the sizes of oranges;

(7) Define therein "exports" and "diversion";

(8) Provide therein for the regulation of the handling of oranges which handling directly burdens, obstructs, or affects the handling of oranges in interstate or foreign commerce;

(9) Provide therein for the mandatory appointment of a marketing economist by the Orange Administrative Committee;

(10) Provide therein for the establishment and operation of a surplus diversion program;

(11) Provide therein adequate specifications relevant to the handling of oranges which are not subject to regulation under the program;

(12) Provide therein an adequate specification of the contents of reports to be filed by each handler with the Orange Administrative Committee;

(13) Provide therein a new method for adjusting prorate bases in accordance with changes of control of oranges.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the aforesaid material issues, all of which are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) Oranges grown in the State of Arizona compete in the market with those grown in the State of California. Oranges grown in both states are packed, in general, under the same grade and size specifications and in the same types of containers. The varieties of oranges grown in both states are identical. Most of the oranges grown in the State of Arizona are marketed by the same marketing organizations marketing the oranges grown in the State of California. Prices received by growers for Arizona oranges during the past three years under the operation of the order have been slightly higher than prices received by growers of California oranges. Oranges grown in some areas of California are marketed under conditions very similar to conditions under which oranges grown in Arizona are marketed. Eastern markets do not differentiate between Arizona oranges and California oranges. Rail freight rates to eastern markets are the same for oranges grown in California and Arizona.

Production of oranges in Arizona would be greatly accelerated if the handling of oranges grown in that State were not regulated, inasmuch as producers therein would share in the benefits of regulation of shipments of oranges grown in California without assuming any of the burden of such regulation. It would be unfair to California growers and handlers of oranges to exclude Arizona orange shipments from the burden of regulation because growers and handlers in both States receive substantially identical benefits from such regulation. Regulation for oranges grown in both States should be recommended by the same administrative committee to integrate and coordinate regulation under the marketing agreement and order to afford growers and handlers therein the maximum benefit from regulation. The present marketing agreement and order program is concerned with problems which arise in every area producing oranges in both States and should, therefore, continue to cover all of such areas within these States.

On the basis of the foregoing findings and reasons it is hereby found and concluded that the marketing agreement and order regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona should continue to regulate the handling of oranges grown in both of said States.

(2) Oranges must be mature to afford consumer satisfaction and to be shipped under statutes of the States of California and Arizona. Undue delay in affording handlers an opportunity to market mature oranges or oranges of short life results in the deterioration of such fruit and in financial losses.

Mature oranges and oranges of short life should be afforded an opportunity to be shipped to market during the normal marketing season of such oranges (subject to the ability of the market to absorb such oranges at prices declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish) regardless of the location of production of such oranges in the States of California and Arizona. Handlers of such oranges in California and Arizona should be afforded an opportunity under the marketing agreement and order to proportionately share marketing opportunities for such oranges, through proportionate allocation of allotment, so that each handler is permitted to ship that percentage of each variety of such oranges to market, during the normal life thereof, as will equal, insofar as may be practicable, the average percentage of such varieties to be shipped by all handlers of such varieties grown in said states, subject to restriction of such marketing opportunities for all oranges produced in such states to such volume of shipment as will result in obtaining prices therefor declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish.

Oranges of any one variety in any one geographical section in the States of California and Arizona do not necessarily attain maturity on the same date as other oranges of the same variety in the same geographical section. Scientific tests can definitely determine, under substantially identical statutes in California and Arizona, when oranges are mature. While a particular orange grove, or part thereof, in any part of such states does not necessarily mature on the same date in successive years, such grove, or part thereof, will mature at approximately the same relative time each year in relation to other groves of the same variety in the same geographical section, thereby supplying maturity patterns which will minimize administrative difficulties in the operation of regulations on such basis.

Oranges of any one variety grown in any one geographical section in the States of California and Arizona do not maintain their merchantable qualities for identical periods of time. The period for the maintenance of such qualities can be determined in a manner similar to that followed in establishing patterns of maturity. Once short life orange patterns are determined for such states, administrative difficulties involved in affording the handlers of such oranges a proportionate opportunity to market such oranges during the normal life thereof, subject to the same price limitation referred to in connection with maturity considerations, will be minimized.

Affording handlers an opportunity to market mature oranges wherever grown in California and Arizona when they attain maturity and during the normal marketing life thereof, subject to such proportionate limitation as will permit, insofar as possible, the total volume of all oranges grown in such states and marketed during such period to bring price returns declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish, will, to the maximum extent, eliminate inequities alleged to occur under the marketing agreement and order by virtue of issuing allotments on district bases and, therefore, such districts should be retained because they constitute an invaluable aid to the orderly administration of the marketing agreement and order.

The burden of showing maturity or short life conditions to the committee in connection with applications for the allocation of allotments should, however, remain on such applicants because they are familiar with the conditions of oranges owned or controlled by them, which should deter unsustainable applications, and a shift of such burden to the committee would result in the receipt of excessive applications for the allocation of such allotments in an attempt to acquire an inequitable share of the market, either presently or prospectively, where the oranges covered by such applications could not conceivably qualify for allotment on the basis of maturity or short life.

The administrative committee should not be required to allocate allotment to an applicant showing that he owns or controls one or a few boxes of mature oranges because the administrative details involved therein would be so extensive and expensive as to tend to defeat the purposes of the act. Although the committee should be required to consider maturity and short life factors at all times in connection with recommendations for volume regulations and with the allocation of allotments, minimum volume of mature or short life oranges requiring recommendations for volume regulations and allocation of an allotment in connection with any particular application for such allotment should not be specified for the same reason. Such determination of minimum quantities should be made on a uniform basis by the committee consistent with factual situations in all orange-producing sections of the States of California and Arizona.

The total tree crop of oranges in the States of California and Arizona is the potential supply of oranges to be marketed from such states. Therefore, the prorate base of each handler should continue to be computed on the basis of his ownership or control of a portion of such crop in relation to such total crop. Accordingly, the definition of oranges available for current shipment should not be changed. Allocation of authority to ship such owned or controlled oranges, however, should be given, insofar as possible, when such oranges are mature and at a rate and to the extent that each handler will be afforded an opportunity to obtain his fair share of the market during the normal life of such oranges as hereinbefore indicated. All oranges do not fall in the category of short life or early maturity oranges. Therefore, while all handlers in the States of California and Arizona must proportionately share the market for all oranges, subject to such limitation on total and individual shipments required to obtain prices therefor at the level established in the act as the policy of Congress therefor, individual handlers owning or controlling short life or mature oranges should be afforded an opportunity to ship such oranges when they mature and during the normal life thereof. If all handlers participated in shipping their owned or controlled oranges to market on a proportionate basis during the average life of such oranges, handlers owning or controlling early maturity or short life oranges would be deprived of a portion of their fair share of such market during the period of such average life.

Therefore, it is necessary to provide that the administrative committee be permitted, when circumstances warrant, to allocate allotments to such owners or controllers of early maturity or short life oranges at an earlier time or in addition to their normal weekly allotments, respectively. This does not mean that the recipients of such earlier or additional allotments receive an opportunity to market more than their fair share of oranges on a proportionate basis. It merely means, and the amendment provisions hereinafter set forth so provide, that such recipients shall receive, insofar as is practicable, allotments at the time their owned or controlled oranges are mature, permitting them to ship such oranges, to the extent of the proportionate average to be shipped by all of the handlers of the variety involved, during the normal life of such oranges. Under such provisions, no handler will receive an opportunity to market more than his fair share of oranges because allotments permitting shipments for such purpose will not be allocated to him after he has received sufficient allotment to ship the aforesaid proportionate average to be shipped by all handlers. After sufficient allotment has been allocated to a handler in connection with his early maturity or short life oranges of one or more varieties to permit him to ship the aforesaid proportionate average, remaining allotment otherwise issuable to him in connection with such oranges by virtue of his prorate base shall be allocated to the handlers owning or controlling oranges from whom allotment was withheld. Such provisions will not be detrimental to owners or controllers of normal maturity and life oranges because they will continue to receive allotment which should permit them to ship to market the proportionate average to be shipped by all handlers of such oranges. Such provisions should not be mandatory upon the committee because the quantity of early maturity or short life oranges in any particular area and in any particular season may be so insignificant as to be inconsequential. Such provisions should not set an arbitrary percentage ceiling on the oranges of short life or early maturity which may receive allotments thereunder because of the wide variety of circumstances which can occur from season to season and which affect short life and early maturity conditions. The only fair criterion is to allocate sufficient allotment to permit handlers of early maturity and short life oranges to ship the proportionate average of all handlers of oranges of each variety thereof.

Therefore, on the basis of the foregoing findings and reasons, it is concluded that the provisions of the marketing agreement and order relevant to the definition of oranges available for current shipments (an integral element in determining the prorate base) and prorate districts should not be amended; that the provisions of the marketing agreement and order should be amended, as hereinafter set forth, to require that the administrative committee consider maturity condition factors in making recommendations for regulations thereunder and for allocating allotment under such regulations; and that the provisions of the "Allotment Pool" should be changed to facilitate allocation of allotment in accordance with the foregoing.

(3) The committee charged with the responsibility of administering the marketing agreement and order is now composed entirely of growers of oranges produced in the States of California and Arizona, except for one member who is prohibited from being a grower, handler, or employee, agent or representative of a grower or handler (other than a charitable or educational institution which is a grower or handler). To acquire marketing information necessary for committee recommendations for regulations, the committee has obtained the views of handlers of oranges grown in such States on an informal basis. This procedure has been extremely helpful to the committee in arriving at sound recommendations for regulations of the handling of oranges grown in such States; but, in some instances, such informal information has not received appropriate emphasis in the deliberations of the committee because the handlers supplying such information were not permitted to vote on committee recommendations. The quality of information submitted to the committee by handlers will be improved, in many instances, if such handlers are required to assume responsibility as members of the committee in connection with committee recommendations for regulations based in part thereon. Handler members of the committee would not have sectional views on desirable regulations because, in most instances, handlers market oranges grown in several or all parts of the States of California and Arizona. Conversely, growers may have such sectional views as to desirable regulations and, therefore, grower representation on the committee should be, insofar as practicable, on a geographical basis to permit important subdivisions of the orange-growing sections of the States of California and Arizona to be represented on such committee. Committee representation by growers on such geographical basis will result in grower representation which will, to a large extent, tend to equalize possible sectional views of one or more grower representatives.

A committee of eleven members will be sufficiently small in number to permit it to operate in a practical and expeditious manner in administering the terms and provisions of the marketing agreement and order. At the same time, a committee of such size will be sufficiently large to permit all orange-growing sections of the States of California and Arizona to be represented thereon. Six members of the committee should continue to be growers of oranges produced in the States of California and Arizona to supply grower representation, insofar as practicable, to all segments of the said States. Such members should continue to be nominated and selected for membership on the committee as presently provided in the marketing agreement and order. Grower representation on the committee should exceed all other representation thereon because the regulatory program is designed and authorized for the benefit of growers; and grower views as to desirable regulations tending to effectuate the declared policy of the act when leavened by handler views relevant to the marketing of oranges grown in said States, should result in fair and appropriate recommendations and regulations for such purpose. Four members of the committee should be handlers because such number is deemed necessary to supply the committee with effective handler views as to the marketing situation for oranges grown in all portions of the States of California and Arizona. While independent handlers may not have exactly the same marketing views as to desirable regulations under the marketing agreement and order as the views of cooperative handlers, the legitimate divergence between such views will receive due representation and weight in committee deliberations on the representative basis hereinafter set forth. Cooperative handlers market more than three fourths of the oranges grown in the States of California and Arizona, so that cooperative handlers or representatives thereof should predominate in handler representation on the committee. On the basis of the percentage of the crop handled, there should be three cooperative handler representatives on said committee and one independent handler representative.

The eleventh member of the committee should be an impartial member thereof and accordingly, should not be a handler, a grower, or a representative of either. Such impartiality will tend to be attained if such impartial member is nominated by grower and handler members.

Alternate members with the same qualifications as members, as hereinbefore set forth, should be selected for each member to permit the committee to operate at all times with a full representative complement. Therefore, as such alternate members may and frequently do participate in committee activities in the place and stead of the members under appropriate circumstances, such alternate members should be nominated and selected on the same basis as such members. As the Secretary is responsible under the act for the administration of the marketing agreement and order, the Secretary should have authority to finally select committee members and alternates from nominations submitted as aforesaid. To provide the Secretary with some latitude for independent judgment in selecting committee members and alternates who, in his judgment, are the most competent individuals available for service on the committee, not less than two nominees should be named for each position to be filled on the committee.

The present provisions of the marketing agreement and order require that a majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum and that any action of the committee shall require four concurring votes. To maintain relatively equal requirements in connection with a committee of eleven members, the provisions of the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide that six members of the committee shall constitute a quorum and to provide that any action of the committee shall require six concurring votes. Experience with the operation of the marketing agreement and order with the aforesaid quorum and concurring vote requirements has demonstrated that such requirements are fair and equitable and that recommendations for regulations made on the basis of a concurring majority vote of the members of the committee are thereby based on a sound representative opinion of experts. There is no reason to anticipate that a proportionate change in the quorum requirements or concurring vote requirements should be desirable.

The Secretary is authorized by present provisions of the marketing agreement and order to prescribe the time and manner of nominating members and alternate members of the committee. The Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, proposed such conforming amendments to the present marketing agreement and order as might be required by amendments thereto specifically set forth in the notice of hearing and considered at the public hearing thereon. Proponents of amendments to the provisions of the marketing agreement and order applicable to the Administrative Committee stated that minor changes should be made to the "Term of Office" section thereof. Therefore, the term of office provision of the marketing agreement and order should be amended to modernize the language therein contained and to retain committee members and alternates in office for the term for which they are selected and qualified and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified, regardless of the time at which amendments to the marketing agreement and order become effective. Although such results could be attained by appropriate prescription of the Secretary in connection with the time and manner of nominating members and alternate members of the committee, it is deemed desirable to amend the marketing agreement and order in connection with such "Term of Office," so that all parties affected thereby will have prompt and timely notice of the manner in which the Administrative Committee will be expanded from seven to eleven members and prompt and timely notice of the official status of incumbent committee members and alternates.

Therefore, on the basis of the foregoing findings and reasons, it is concluded that the present provisions of the marketing agreement and order should be amended, as hereinafter set forth, to provide that the committee be composed of eleven members and eleven alternates; that grower representation thereon be, insofar as is practicable, on a geographical representation basis; that four handlers and their alternates be selected to serve on such committee; that growers and handlers duly selected and qualified for service on such committee nominate two impartial members and their alternates to serve on said committee; that one impartial member and alternate be selected by the Secretary to serve on said committee; that the term of office of committee members and alternates be for periods of two years beginning on November 1, 1944, and on the 1st of November of each even numbered year thereafter; and that a majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum, with action of the committee to require six concurring votes.

(4) The production of oranges in the States of California and Arizona is in excess of a quantity which, when marketed in their entirety, will permit farmers to obtain prices therefor at a level that will give such oranges a purchasing power with respect to articles that farmers buy, equivalent to the purchasing power of such oranges during the period August 1919–July 1929. Oranges produced in said States and diverted from fresh fruit channels to other market channels do not return to the growers thereof prices equal to price returns from oranges sold in fresh fruit channels, but such diversion will tend to increase the prices received by said growers for oranges marketed in fresh fruit channels toward the prices declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish, thereby raising the returns to growers of all oranges because the increased price returns received from oranges marketed in fresh fruit channels is not entirely offset by lower price returns from diverted oranges. Under average normal conditions, with or without regulation on the handling of oranges grown in said States, there is diversion from fresh fruit channels of that portion of such oranges which, from time to time, are deemed to be less desirable for fresh fruit channels on the basis of price returns which are obtainable therefor. This diversion is, however, based entirely on the judgments of individual handlers of such oranges, subject to some limitation when volume regulation is in effect, as to the quantity which should be diverted. Each of such judgments is predicated on the greatest good to be derived by the individual therefrom and, consequently, the composite judgment of such handlers does not always result in the diversion of a sufficiently large quantity of such oranges to attain the maximum possible benefit under the act for all growers of such oranges.

The marketing agreement and order contains no direct provisions for the regulation or control on the handling of that quantity of oranges produced in the aforesaid States in excess of the quantity necessary to supply normal demand therefor, which oranges are, therefore, surplus. Such surplus oranges are potentially available for sale in any market at all times and handlers thereof actually market a portion of such surplus oranges where possible and when such marketing potentially results in returns therefor equal to or slightly in excess of the actual cost of such marketing. This potential availability and actual marketing depress the prices growers receive for all oranges produced in the aforesaid States. Removal of such surplus from all possibility of being marketed would, therefore, tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act by increasing price returns received by growers of oranges produced in said States and marketed, thereby tending to give producers of all oranges produced in said States prices therefor declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish. No reasonable method of completely elminating all of such surplus oranges produced in the aforesaid States, or of equalizing the burden of such elimination among producers and handlers thereof, was presented at the public hearing.

There is no uniformity of opinion among producers and handlers of oranges grown in the aforesaid States as to the method which should be employed in reducing or controlling the aforesaid surplus oranges, which reduction or control would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. However, such producers and handlers generally agree that oranges of specified sizes at various times generally bring lower price returns to the producers thereof in fresh fruit marketing channels than oranges of other sizes. Elimination of such lower price return oranges from market in fresh fruit channels would free such channels from the depressing price effect of the aforesaid surplus oranges, thereby tending to effectuate the declared policy of the act, and would work no hardship on the producers of such oranges because when the average production of such sizes by any one of such producers prevents him from shipping, by virtue of size regulations, as large a proportion of each variety of his oranges as the average proportion of each such variety of oranges to be shipped by all producers in the aforesaid States or in such producer's prorate district, such producer of excess quantities of such sizes would be permitted to ship a sufficient quantity of each such variety of his oranges to equal the average to be shipped of each such variety by all producers of such variety in the aforesaid States or in such producer's prorate district.

Price returns to growers of oranges in the aforesaid States are not at an identical rate for all sizes thereof, regardless of the channel in which they are marketed, and the returns to such growers for any particular size of oranges fluctuate from day to day and week to week. Demand in fresh fruit channels, in conjunction with available supply, dictates such prices in such channels. Therefore, size regulation of such oranges can adjust the supply thereof, by sizes, available in fresh fruit marketing channels to such volume as will tend to increase grower returns therefor. Oranges eliminated from fresh fruit marketing channels by such size regulations will tend to be diverted to non-regulated channels. While all of such diversion will not afford the producers of the oranges involved therein price returns equal to price returns from oranges marketed in fresh fruit channels, the removal of such oranges from possibility of marketing in fresh fruit channels will tend to sufficiently increase prices received by growers for oranges marketed in such fresh fruit channels to more than offset relatively lower price returns to growers of oranges so diverted. Such size regulation should merely prohibit the handling of specified sizes of the aforesaid oranges in interstate or foreign commerce, or such handling thereof as will directly burden, obstruct, or affect such commerce, so that the handlers of all of such oranges will continue to have equal opportunities subject to such regulation. Regulation to eliminate or to minimize the deleterious price return aspect of the aforesaid surplus oranges should not require diversion or elimination of a percentage of oranges grown in the aforesaid States because such specification would, under certain circumstances, result, for example, in lower price returns to growers of oranges in the aforesaid States through diversion or elimination of high quality oranges of sizes commanding consumer premiums and through marketing of low quality and undesirable sized oranges.

Canada constitutes a relatively large fresh fruit market for small sized oranges grown in the aforesaid States. Small sized oranges from California and Arizona return to the growers thereof a higher price when sold in Canada than when sold in the Continental United States or Alaska. Therefore, size regulation on the handling of oranges grown in said States should facilitate preservation of such Canadian outlet by, under appropriate circumstance, permitting different sized oranges to be shipped to Canada than to other points in Contital United States or Alaska.

Size regulation will tend to minimize or eliminate undesirable sizes from market (which can not be satisfactorily accomplished under volume regulation alone), which undesirable sizes depress the entire fresh fruit market price for all oranges, including those particular sizes, grown in said States. Under other circumstances, size regulation might not be necessary at all because of the relative nonexistence of undesirable sizes. Size regulation should be used, therefore, to effectuate the declared policy of the act, with or without volume regulation, as the circumstances warrant. Such use does not alter present marketing agreement and order requirement relevant to recommendations for and issuance of volume regulation.

Size regulation on the foregoing basis will not result in the complete elimination of the surplus problem of oranges grown in the aforesaid States. Regulation on such basis will, however, tend to increase grower price returns for oranges grown in said States and marketed in fresh fruit channels by an amount in excess of lower grower returns received from oranges grown in said States and diverted to other than fresh fruit channels.

On the basis of the findings and reasons hereinbefore set forth, it is concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to permit the administrative committee to recommend size regulation of oranges grown in the States of California and Arizona when conditions warrant; that such regulation may thereafter be made effective, with or without volume regulation, upon a determination that such regulation will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act; that such regulation shall prohibit the shipment of oranges grown in said States in interstate or foreign commerce, or so as to directly burden, obstruct, or affect such commerce, of a specified size or sizes during a specified period or periods; that such regulation shall permit size limitations of shipments to Canada different from such limitations to the continental United States and Alaska, and that such regulation shall permit all growers of oranges so regulated to apply for and receive permission to ship such quantity of sizes of each variety prohibited from shipment by such regulation as may be necessary to permit them to ship the proportionate average of such variety to be shipped by all growers of such varieties in said States or all growers of such varieties in the applicant's prorate district.

(5) Any sale of oranges affects the price and supply of all other sales of oranges. Fluctuations of prices for oranges in any market result in fluctuations of prices therefor in all other markets. While prices received in California and Arizona for oranges grown in those States fluctuate in accordance with the volume of such oranges offered for sale therein, which volume is directly affected by the interstate market price received for oranges grown in said States and by the total available supply of oranges grown in such States, such California and Arizona prices have been generally lower than the prices received for such oranges in interstate fresh fruit markets, e. g., substantially lower average returns were received on an f. o. b. basis for oranges marketed within the State of California during the periods June 2 to July 31, 1947, January 2 to January 12, 1948, and January 13 to February 27, 1948, than returns for comparable oranges marketed in interstate fresh fruit markets during the same periods.

All oranges grown in the aforesaid States were, prior to regulation under the marketing agreement and order, available to satisfy all marketing requirements therefor. During such period, the surplus portion of such orange crop had a depressing effect on the prices growers received therefor from all markets. Limitation of the volume of such oranges which could be marketed in interstate fresh fruit channels under the marketing agreement and order tended to increase grower returns for the oranges so marketed. However, the continued existence of surplus oranges grown and marketed in said States free from regulation of any kind depressed the price returns to growers of oranges produced in such States and marketed in interstate fresh fruit channels because of the disposition of purchasers of oranges in interstate fresh fruit channels to restrict their purchases in anticipation of eventually being able to procure a portion of the surplus orange crop grown in such States at reduced prices. Although relatively little of the surplus orange crop grown in said States and prohibited from shipment by regulation under the marketing agreement and order reaches interstate fresh fruit marketing channels contrary to regulations applicable thereto, the aforesaid disposition continues.

In excess of 10 percent of the total sales in fresh fruit channels of oranges grown in the aforesaid States are consummated in such States for consumption therein. Such percentage will increase as the population of such States increases.

Such appreciable percentage of unregulated oranges produced and sold in said States for prices generally less than the prices received by growers for oranges produced in such States and sold in interstate fresh fruit channels, creates a psychological sales inertia in interstate fresh fruit channels merely because of the general dissemination of information relevant to such lower prevailing prices in the aforesaid States.

The price received for oranges sold within these States is very low during certain periods of the year and, during such periods, growers receive little or no return therefor. This creates confusion and lack of confidence in the interstate markets for oranges grown in such States. Also, growers must receive larger returns for the oranges marketed in interstate commerce as a result of such low prices in intrastate markets to establish the level of prices declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish. This directly burdens, obstructs, and affects interstate and foreign commerce in oranges.

While the total sales of oranges produced and sold in the aforesaid States exceed 10 percent of the total quantity of oranges produced in such States, the prices received therefor and the quantity available at any particular time are subject to wide fluctuations because the premium market for oranges produced in said States is the interstate fresh fruit market. Such wide fluctuations of price and quantity promotes disorderly marketing in such States and in interstate fresh fruit channels. Regulation of the handling of oranges grown and sold in said States should result in more orderly marketing in such States and in interstate fresh fruit markets if the quantity of oranges available therefor is restricted on a uniform basis for both of such markets, thereby resulting in relatively uniform average prices for such oranges to the producers thereof. There is no reason to anticipate that such regulation will result in other than an orderly intrastate and interstate marketing for oranges produced in said States because such regulation will tend to remove the reasons for price and volume fluctuations in each of such markets, including the depressing effect on the price of oranges produced and sold in the aforesaid States of a large potential surplus orange crop which could be marketed therein free from regulation.

The act permits regulation of all handling of oranges grown in the aforesaid States, which handling is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce, on the basis of size, volume, or both. The act prohibits the application of such regulation to a retailer of oranges in his capacity as such retailer and to a producer of such oranges in his capacity as a producer. Sales of oranges grown in said States on the trees by the producers thereof and the transportation of oranges grown in the aforesaid States to packing houses for the purpose of having such oranges prepared for market should not be subjected to regulation because it is administratively desirable and most effective to subject such oranges to regulation in the possession of handlers subsequent to such sales or transportation. As all handling of the aforesaid oranges except as indicated above and except for the handling of oranges specifically exempt from regulation by the provisions of the act or the marketing agreement and order, is in interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce, as hereinbefore found, it is concluded that the handling of all of such oranges, with the exception hereinbefore noted, should be subject to such regulation and that the marketing agreement and order should be appropriately amended to so provide.

(6) To facilitate effective enforcement of the regulation of the handling of oranges grown in the aforesaid States, it will be necessary to require more detailed reports from handlers than heretofore required, i. e., handlers should be required to report to the Administrative Committee the total disposition of all oranges handled by them in such manner that said committee will be permitted, on the basis of such reports, to verify the contents thereof. Therefore, the present report provisions of the marketing agreement and order should be amended to provide that handlers should report the total quantity of oranges handled by them, showing the destination, quantity and size by variety, and purpose for which such quantities are to be used, of each lot thereof. While all of such information will satisfactorily serve the purpose for which it is submitted to the Administrative Committee if such information is submitted on a weekly basis because allotments are issued on a weekly basis and determinations relevant to allotment violation are on a weekly basis, size information by variety and standard pack box or its equivalent should be mailed to the Administrative Committee within 24 hours after shipment of each standard packed box or its equivalent because each shipment must comply with applicable size regulations in effect at the time of shipment and delay in ascertaining the existence of violations of such regulations would unnecessarily jeopardize the effectiveness of such regulation. Therefore, report requirements of the marketing agreement and order should be amended as hereinafter set forth.

(7) The Administrative Committee of the marketing agreement and order is presently empowered to appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary, and to determine the compensation and to define the duties of each such appointee. There is no cogent reason disclosed in the hearing record to justify a specific requirement that the committee appoint a particular type of employee; the committee already has such power and, if the committee deems it desirable to appoint a marketing economist or other specialist to aid it in discharging its duties, sufficient provision is already made in the marketing agreement and order for such purpose.

(8) The hearing record does not contain substantial evidence justifying amendment of the marketing agreement and order to establish a new method for adjusting prorate bases in accordance with changes of control of oranges grown in the aforesaid States. Testimony in the record on such proposed new method shows that, for example, the adoption thereof would permit handlers to obtain allotments on the basis of all oranges controlled by them; use such allotment to ship oranges procured from producers favored by them; and, when the aforesaid shipments were consummated and unfavored producers changed handlers because of such favoritism, no appropriate adjustment would be made for the use of allotment procured on the basis of the control of oranges of such unfavored producer to ship the oranges of such favored producers. The present provisions of the marketing agreement and order contain no such manifest inequity and, accordingly, should not be amended as proposed.

(9) The proposal to define "diversion" and "export" were proposed in the hearing notice and considered at the hearing as part of the proposal to amend the marketing agreement and order to establish and operate a diversion program. As it has been hereinbefore found and concluded that the marketing agreement and order should not be amended to establish provisions therein for such diversion program, it is herewith found and concluded that amending the marketing agreement and order to define "diversion" would serve no useful purpose and that, therefore, such amendment to define "diversion" should not be made. Similarly, a definition of "export" would serve no useful purpose in connection with the aforesaid diversion program but substantial evidence in the hearing record shows that such definition in the marketing agreement and order would permit a desirable simplification of other language in the agreement and order. Therefore, it is found and concluded that the marketing agreement and order should be amended to incorporate therein a definition of "export" to simplify language therein, as hereinafter set forth.

(10) Oranges grown in the aforesaid States which are free from regulation under the marketing agreement and order, except for safeguards established by the administrative committee to prevent such oranges from being disposed of in violation of regulations, are, manifestly, not "handled" as such term is defined in said marketing agreement and order. Some individuals have, under the marketing agreement and order and despite the aforesaid safeguards, handled oranges, the handling of which should have been subject to regulation, which handling was not, in fact, regulated because of representations that such oranges were being disposed of for purposes specifically declared in the act and the marketing agreement and order to be free from regulation and because of allegations of ignorance as to the possibility of such diversion from channels free from regulation. Such diversion constitutes a real menace to effective administration of the marketing agreement and order. Therefore, it is found and concluded that the provisions of the marketing agreement and order relevant to oranges the disposition of which is free from regulation should be amended to correctly indicate that such oranges are not handled and that the aforesaid safeguards are prescribed to insure that the provisions of the marketing agreement and order are not violated, intentionally or otherwise, by the said diversions.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of Mutual Orange Distributors, California Fruit Growers Exchange, Southern Shippers Group, Independent Citrus Growers and Shippers Association, Central California Citrus Exchange and Tulare County Fruit Exchange, and Arizona Orange-Lemon Growers Association. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record, in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that such proposed findings and conclusions are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings and conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this decision.

General findings. (1) The tentatively approved marketing agreement as hereby proposed to be amended and the order as hereby proposed to be amended and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The tentatively approved marketing agreement as hereby proposed to be amended and the order as hereby proposed to be amended regulate the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona in the same manner as and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the tentatively approved marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held;

(3) The terms and provisions of the tentatively approved marketing agreement as hereby proposed to be amended and the order as hereby proposed to be amended prescribe, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different production areas, as are necessary to give due recognition to the difference in production and marketing of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona; and

(4) The tentatively approved marketing agreement as hereby proposed to be amended and the order as hereby proposed to be amended are limited in their application to the smallest regional production area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of such regional production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act.

Recommended amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and order. The following amendments to the tentatively approved marketing agreement and the order are recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out:

(1) Delete paragraph (j) of § 966.3 of the order and paragraph (j) of section 1 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and substitute therefor the following:

(j) "Handle" means to buy, sell, consign, transport, ship (except as a common carrier of oranges owned by another person), or in any other way to place oranges in fresh form in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect such commerce. The term "handle" does not include (i) the sale of oranges on the tree, or (ii) the transportation of oranges to a packing house for the purpose of having such oranges prepared for market.

(2) Add to § 966.3 of the order and to section 1 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement the following:

(o) "Export" means shipments of oranges in fresh form to points outside the continental United States, Canada and Alaska.

(3) Delete paragraph (a) of § 966.4 of the order and paragraph (a) of section 2 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Establishment and membership. There is hereby established an Orange Administrative Committee consisting of eleven members, for each of whom there shall be an alternate member who shall be nominated and selected in the same manner and who shall have the same qualifications as the member for whom each is an alternate. Six of the members and their respective alternates shall be growers who shall not be handlers or employees of handlers or employees of central marketing organizations. Four of the members and their respective alternates shall be handlers or employees of handlers or employees of central marketing organizations. One member of the committee and an alternate of such member shall be nominated as provided in (c) (6) of this section. The six members of the committee who shall be growers and who shall not be handlers or employees of handlers or employees of central marketing organizations are hereinafter referred to as "grower" members of the committee and the four members who shall be handlers or employees of handlers or employees of central marketing organizations are hereinafter referred to as "handler" members of the committee.

(4) Delete paragraph (b) of § 966.4 of the order and paragraph (b) of section 2 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Term of office. The term of office of committee members and alternate members shall be for a period of two years. The first regular term of office shall be for a period of two years. The first regular term of office shall begin on November 1, 1944, and subsequent terms shall begin on November 1 of each even numbered year thereafter: Provided, That such members and alternates shall serve in such capacities for the portion of the term of office for which they are selected and qualify and until their respective successors are selected and have qualified.

(5) Delete paragraph (c) (2) or § 966.4 of the order and paragraph (c) (2) of section 2 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and substitute therefor the following:

(1) Each week during the marketing season for each variety of oranges the committee shall recommend to the Secretary the total quantity of each such variety of oranges which it deems advisable to be handled during the next succeeding week. The committee shall give due consideration to the maturity of oranges in making such recommendations. If prorate districts are established pursuant to § 966.7, the committee shall recommend to the Secretary the total quantity of each such variety of oranges grown in each such prorate district which it deems advisable to be handled during each such week, and such recommendation shall include the quantity of oranges to be handled during such week in each such prorate district whenever the committee determines that maturity conditions in such district make it advisable to so recommend. If, for any reason, the committee fails to recommend to the Secretary the total quantity of each variety of oranges which it deems advisable to be handled during each week, as required hereby, reports representing the respective views of the committee members with respect to its failure to act shall be submitted promptly to the Secretary.

(k) Early maturity and short life allotments. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the committee may withhold from the allotment of handlers for a variety of oranges, at a uniform rate for all handlers, an amount sufficient to permit handlers controlling oranges of such variety of early maturity of short life to handle during the normal marketing period of such early maturity or short life oranges as large a proportion of such variety as the average of such variety which will be handled by all handlers thereof. Handlers controlling oranges of early maturity or short life may apply for such withheld allotment, and such application shall be made on forms supplied by the committee and shall be accompanied by information necessary to permit the committee to determine the validity of such applicant's claim to such withheld allotment. The committee shall determine, on the basis of all available information, the extent to which a handler needs allotment under the provisions hereof and, pursuant to such determination, shall allocate such allotment to such handler at a uniform weekly rate, insofar as practicable, during the normal marketing period of his controlled oranges of early maturity or short life. Such determination and allotment issued pursuant thereto shall not permit a handler to receive more allotment proportionately for any one variety of oranges than the average allotment to be issued to all handlers of such variety. After a handler of early maturity and short life oranges of a variety has received allotment therefor hereunder sufficient to make the total allotment issued to him equal proportionately to the average allotment issued to all handlers of such variety, allotment thereafter due such handler of early maturity and short life oranges in connection with such oranges, on the basis of his prorate base and control of such oranges, shall be allocated to handlers from whom allotment has been withheld hereunder. Allocation of allotment hereunder may only be effected in connection with oranges of early maturity or short life. The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, adopt procedural rules and regulations to effectuate the provisions hereof. If prorate districts are established pursuant to section 5, allotments withheld, issued, and allocated, and averages computed hereunder shall be on a prorate district basis.

(17) Delete paragraph (k) of section 4 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and substitute therefor the following:

(18) Add to § 966.6 of the order and to section 4 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement the following:

(n) Recommendations for size regulation. (1) Whenever the committee finds that the supply and demand conditions for sizes of each variety of oranges make it advisable to regulate the handling of particular sizes of each such variety of oranges during any period, it shall recommend the particular sizes thereof deemed advisable to be handled during said period; and any such recommendation may include a proposal that the handling of oranges shipped to Canada shall be subject to size regulation different from the proposed size regulation applicable to the handling of other shipments of oranges. If prorate districts are established, the committee shall recommend to the Secretary the sizes of each such variety of oranges grown in each such prorate district which it deems advisable to be handled during any period. The committee shall promptly submit such findings and recommendations, together with supporting information, to the Secretary.

(2) In making its recommendations the committee shall give due consideration to the factors referred to in paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

(o) Issuance of size regulations. Whenever the Secretary shall find, from the findings, recommendations, and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that to limit the handling of each variety of oranges to particular sizes would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall so limit the shipment of oranges during the specified period; and any such regulation may provide that the handling of oranges shipped to Canada shall be subject to size regulation different from the size regulation applicable to the handling of other shipments of oranges. If prorate districts are established, the Secretary, upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted to the committee, or from other available information, shall fix the sizes of each variety of oranges grown in each such prorate district which may be handled during any period. The committee shall be informed immediately of any such regulation issued by the Secretary, and the committee shall promptly give adequate notice thereof to all handlers.

(19) Add to § 966.6 of the order the following:

(p) Exemptions from size regulation. In the event any variety of oranges is regulated pursuant to paragraph (o) of this section, the committee may issue one or more exemption certificates to any producer who furnishes adequate evidence to the said committe that he will be prevented by reason of such regulation from having as large a proportion of such variety of oranges handled as the average proportion of such variety which will be handled by all other producers. If prorate districts are established pursuant to § 966.7, such average proportions shall be computed on a prorate district basis. The committee shall adopt, with the approval of the Secretary, procedural rules by which such exemption certificates will be issued to producers. Such exemption certificates may be transferred to handlers.

(20) Add to section 4 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement the following:

(p) Exemptions from size regulation. In the event any variety of oranges is regulated pursuant to paragraph (o) of this section, the committee may issue one or more exemption certificates to any producer who furnishes adequate evidence to the said committee that he will be prevented by reason of such regulation from having as large a proportion of such variety of oranges handled as the average proportion of such variety which will be handled by all other producers. If prorate districts are established pursuant to section 5, such average proportions shall be computed on a prorate district basis. The committee shall adopt, with the approval of the Secretary, procedural rules by which such exemption certificates will be issued to producers. Such exemption certificates may be transferred to handlers.

(21) Add to § 966.6 of the order and to section 4 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement the following:

(q) The Secretary, the committee, or both, may investigate compliance with respect to the regulation of the handling of oranges pursuant to this section.

(22) Delete § 966.8 of the order and substitute therefor the following:

§ 966.8 Oranges not subject to regulation. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize any limitation of the right of any person to handle oranges (a) for consumption by charitable institutions or for distribution by relief agencies; (b) for conversion into by-products; (c) for export; (d) for shipment by parcel post or by railway express in less than carload lots; or (e) for distribution as a gratuity in units of five boxes or less. No assessment shall be levied pursuant to § 966.5 on oranges disposed of for the purposes specified in this section. The committee shall prescribe, with the approval of the Secretary, adequate safeguards to insure that the provisions of this order are not violated, intentionally or otherwise, by the entry into commercial fresh fruit channels of trade of oranges disposed of for the purposes designated in this section.

(23) Delete section 6 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and substitute therefor the following:

SEC. 6. Oranges not subject to regulation. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to authorize any limitation of the right of any person to handle oranges (a) for consumption by charitable institutions or for distribution by relief agencies; (b) for conversion into by-products; (c) for exports; (d) for shipment by parcel post or by railway express in less than carload lots; or (e) for distribution as a gratuity in units of five boxes or less. No assessments shall be levied pursuant to section 3 on oranges disposed of for the purposes specified in this section. The committee shall prescribe, with the approval of the Secretary, adequate safeguards to insure that the provisions of this order are not violated, intentionally or otherwise, by the entry into commercial fresh fruit channels of trade of oranges disposed of for the purposes designated in this section.

(24) Delete paragraph (a) of § 966.9 of the order and paragraph (a) of section 7 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Weekly report. On or before such day of each week as may be designated by the committee, each handler shall report to the committee, in such manner as may be designated and on forms made available by it, the following information with respect to each variety of oranges disposed of by each such handler during the immediately preceding week: (1) The total quantity handled, showing the destination and quantity of each lot constituting said total quantity handled; (2) the total quantity disposed of for manufacture into by-products, showing the identity of each by-products processor involved and the quantity to each; (3) the total quantity disposed of for export, showing the destination and quantity of each such disposition; (4) the total quantity shipped for disposition to persons on relief, including quantity donated for charitable purposes, showing the destination and quantity of each such shipment; and (5) the total quantity disposed of otherwise, showing manner and quantity of each such disposition. As to each such handler, the total of all these five categories shall be the total of all oranges of each variety disposed of by said handler.

(25) Insert after paragraph (a) of § 966.9 of the order and after paragraph (a) of section 7 of the tentatively approved marketing agreement the following paragraph (b), and redesignate the present paragraph (b) thereof as paragraph (c):

(b) Manifest report. Each handler shall furnish to the committee information regarding the variety and size of oranges in each standard packed box or its equivalent handled by such handler and shall mail or deliver such information to said committee or its duly authorized representative within 24 hours after shipment is made in such manner as the committee shall prescribe and upon forms prepared by it.

WOOLEN AND WORSTED INDUSTRY

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PREVAILING MINIMUM WAGE

The Textile Workers Union of America has petitioned the Secretary of Labor for the issuance of a determination pursuant to the provisions of the act of June 30, 1936, (49 Stat. 2036; U. S. C., title 41, secs. 35-45; otherwise known as the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act) establishing the prevailing minimum wage for persons employed in the performance of contracts with agencies of the United States Government subject to the provisions of the Act for the manufacture or furnishing of the products of the Woolen and Worsted Industry at $1.05 an hour or $42 for a week of 40 hours, arrived at either upon a time or piecework basis.

The said Union has submitted lists of companies in the Industry which now have a minimum wage of $1.05 or more per hour and has proposed a definition of the Industry, which definition is identical with that adopted by the Administrator of the Wage and Hour Division in Administrative Order No. 126 dated September 5, 1941 as the definition of the Woolen Industry in a wage order issued under date of November 24, 1941 pursuant to section 8 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1064; 29 U. S. C. 208), and which definition (29 CFR, Cum. Supp. 612.4) is as follows:

(a) The manufacturing or processing of all yarns (other than carpet yarns) spun entirely from wool or animal fiber (other than silk); and all processes preparatory thereto.

(b) The manufacturing, dyeing or other finishing of fabrics and blankets (other than carpets, rugs and pile fabrics) woven from yarns spun entirely of wool or animal fiber (other than silk).

(c) The manufacturing, dyeing, or other finishing of fulled suitings, coatings, topcoatings, and overcoatings knit from yarns spun entirely of wool or animal fiber (other than silk).

(d) The picking of rags and clips made entirely from wool or animal fiber (other than silk), and the garnetting of wool or animal fiber (other than silk) from rags, clips, or mill waste; and other processes related thereto.

(e) The manufacturing of batting, wadding, or filling made entirely of wool or animal fiber (other than silk).

(f) The manufacturing or processing of all yarns (other than carpet yarns) spun from wool or animal fiber (other than silk) in combination with cotton, silk, flax, jute or any synthetic fiber; except the manufacturing or processing on systems other than the woolen system of yarns containing not more than 45 per cent by weight of wool or animal fiber (other than silk) in combination with cotton, silk, flax, jute or any synthetic fiber.

Pursuant to Article 1102 of Regulations 504 (41 CFR, Cum. Supp., 201.1102) as amended (41 CFR, 1944 Supp., 201.1102), workers whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury may, in accordance with the procedure set forth therein, be employed on all contracts subject to minimum wage determinations issued pursuant to the Public Contracts Act at wages lower than the prevailing minimum wage specified in such determinations.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given: That a public hearing will be held on Thursday, October 14, 1948 at 10:00 a. m. in Conference Room "A," Interdepartmental Auditorium, Constitution Avenue between 12th and 14th Streets NW., Washington, D. C., before the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions or a representative designated to preside in his place, at which hearing all interested persons may appear and offer testimony: (1) Either for or against the proposal of the Textile Workers Union of America as hereinbefore set forth, (2) as to whether the determination should include provision for the employment of apprentices at rates lower than the minimum hereinbefore described provided their employment conforms with the standards of the Federal Committee on Apprenticeship, and (3) as to whether the determination should include provision for the employment of learners at a rate lower than the minimum hereinbefore described, and if so, in what occupations, at what subminimum rates, and with what limitations as to length of the learning period and the number or proportion of learners.

Any interested person may appear at the hearing to offer evidence, provided that not later than October 7, 1948, such person shall file with the Administrator of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, United States Department of Labor, Fourteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C., a notice of intention to appear containing the following information:

1. The name and address of the person appearing;

2. If he is appearing in a representative capacity, the names and addresses of the persons or organizations which he is representing; and

3. The purpose for which he is appearing.

Such notice may be mailed to the Administrator and shall be considered filed upon receipt.

Written statements in lieu of personal appearance may be mailed to the Administrator at any time prior to the date of the hearing, or may be filed with the presiding officer at the hearing. An original and four copies of any such statement must be filed.

A limited number of copies of the lists prepared by the Textile Workers Union of America showing the companies now paying the proposed minimum wage or more will be available for distribution on or before the date of the hearing. CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR, Parts 41, 42]

PROVISIONS FOR THE ISSUANCE OF AIR CARRIER OPERATING CERTIFICATES FOR ALASKAN AIR CARRIERS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Pursuant to authority delegated by the Civil Aeronautics Board to the Bureau of Safety Regulation, notice is hereby given that the Bureau will propose to the Board an amendment of Part 41 of the Civil Air Regulations as hereinafter set forth.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted to the Civil Aeronautics Board, attention Bureau of Safety Regulation, Washington 25, D. C. All communications received within 15 days after the date of this publication will be considered by the Board before taking further action on the proposed rule.

Considerable study has been given to the alleviation of the operational problems which confront the scheduled air carriers operating wholly within the Territory of Alaska. At one time it was believed that this problem could only be solved by the promulgation of a new part of the Civil Air Regulations for operations in Alaska. However, it now appears that substantially all of the major provisions which would have been included in such a new part are now included in the proposed revision of Part 42 of the Civil Air Regulations.

Many certificated air carrier operations conducted in Alaska are of an irregular nature, and the conditions under which these operations are carried on are such that the carriers cannot comply with the requirements of Part 41. It appears that some Alaskan air carrier operations could be governed by the operating rules of Part 42 without adversely affecting safety, since the general safety standards of the proposed revision of Part 42, especially with respect to the use of the larger aircraft, are comparable to those of Part 41.

It is proposed to amend § 41.000 of the Civil Air Regulations to read as follows:

§ 41.000 Alaskan air carriers. An Alaskan air carrier may be issued an air carrier operating certificate and may be required to conduct all or any part of its operations under the provisions of Part 42 of this chapter whenever, upon investigation, the Administrator finds that because of the nature of a particular operation or class of operations the air carrier is unable to comply with the requirements of this part and that such operation or class of operations can be conducted safely under the provisions of Part 42 of this chapter.

This amendment is proposed under the authority of Title VI of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended.

(Secs. 205 (a), 601-610, 52 Stat. 984, 1007-1012; 49 U. S. C. 425 (a), 551-560)

Dated: September 9, 1948.

By the Bureau of Safety Regulation.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR, Part 13]

[Docket No. 8481]

OPERATOR LICENSES FOR BROADCAST SERVICE

REPORT AND FINAL ORDER

In the matter of amendment of the Commission's rules and regulations to provide for three new classes of operator licenses for the broadcast service. (Formerly captioned: In the matter of amendments of §§ 13.2, 13.21, 13.22, and 13.61.

In the above entitled matter, a general public hearing before the Commission en banc was held in Washington, D. C. on May 10, 1948. Those appearing at the hearing were Byron Rea, Jr., on behalf of National Association of Broadcast Engineers and Technicians; L. Wimberly, on behalf of National Headquarters, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; S. L. Hicks, on behalf of Local No. 1229, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; Raymond A. Wood, on behalf of Local No. 1212, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; and Lester W. Spillane and George MacClain, on behalf of the Federal Communications Commission.

Since the end of the war, and in view of the development of new and advanced radio techniques, the Commission has been considering what revisions, if any, should be made in its operator license requirements for the operation of stations in the broadcast service. Particular attention has been given to the question of the desirability of establishing a graded system of operator licenses valid for specified operations in cases where under the present system only the first class radiotelephone operator license is valid. On August 1, 1947, a notice of proposed rule making was issued, proposing the establishment of a new lower class license valid for the limited operation of certain categories of broadcast stations of 1,000 watts or less authorized power. Written comments were received from many interested parties. On the basis of these comments and a series of informal conferences which were held, a further notice of proposed rule making was issued on March 25, 1948, incorporating some portions of the earlier notice but also proposing two additional classes of operator licenses for the broadcast service, and a general public hearing was scheduled on the matter of this proposed revision of operator requirements. The hearing was held on May 10, 1948, at which the above-named persons and organizations appeared and presented evidence.

On the basis of the entire record in this proceeding, the Commission has concluded that no substantial need or justification exists for the proposed rules, or for any substantial change in the present structure of operator licenses for the broadcast service: Provided, That the qualifying examinations for the licenses are kept up to date in relation to developments in the broadcast radio art through appropriate periodic revisions in the qualifying examinations which underlie the license system.

Some time ago the Commission commenced the systematic revision of its operator license examinations. Work in this respect has recently been completed in regard to the examinations for the radiotelephone first and second class operator licenses and these revised examinations have been placed in effect.

In view of the foregoing, the Commission has concluded that it will be in the public interest to dismiss the proceedings herein, and they are, accordingly, hereby ordered dismissed.

Adopted: September 8, 1948.

Released: September 9, 1948.

T. J. SLOWIE,

PROPOSED DISCONTINUANCE OF SHIP SHOAL RADIOBEACON

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to 36 Stat. 538 (33 U. S. C. 720) and Public Law 786, 80th Congress, the United States Coast Guard is considering the discontinuance of the radiobeacon at Ship Shoal Light Station as hereinafter proposed.

The structure of Ship Shoal Light Station is about 90 years old; because of its condition it is considered unsafe for continued use as an attended aid to navigation. Further, repair of the structure is not feasible due to a general condition of corrosion throughout all structural members.

It is proposed, therefore, to convert the light to automatic operation at an intensity of 4,000 candlepower, and to discontinue the radiobeacon, relocating it at Point au Fer Reef Light Station if considered necessary.

Pursuant to 60 Stat. 238 (5 U. S. C. 1001 et. seq.) public hearings will be held on the following dates at the times and places indicated for the purpose of affording marine interests, and the public generally, an opportunity to present their views with respect to the above proposal.

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

SEPTEMBER 9, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on August 30, 1948, Southern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Birmingham, Alabama, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to construct and operate certain natural-gas transmission facilities described as follows:

(a) Approximately 6.9 miles of 8⅝-inch loop pipeline paralleling all of Applicant's present 8⅝-inch lateral line known as the Montgomery Lateral Line extending from Mile Post 116.919 on Applicant's Montgomery Branch Line to Applicant's city gate meter and regulator station serving the City of Montgomery, Alabama.

(b) Approximately 2.7 miles of 8⅝-inch loop pipeline paralleling part of Applicant's present 10¾-inch lateral line, known as the Columbus Lateral Line, which extends 3 miles from Applicant's regulator station at the end of Applicant's Montgomery Branch Line at Mile Post 197.233 (immediately south of Phenix City, Alabama) to Applicant's meter station in the City of Columbus, Georgia. Said new loop pipeline will extend from said regulator station to a point in Phenix City, Alabama, at the western end of the bridge over the Chattahoochee River which connects Phenix City, Alabama, with Columbus, Georgia.

The application recites that the proposed construction will increase the capacity of Applicant's Montgomery Lateral Line from 19,000 Mcf per day to 38,000 Mcf per day, and will increase the capacity of Applicant's Columbus Lateral Line from 20,430 Mcf per day to 29,800 Mcf per day. It is further stated that the proposed facilities will enable Applicant to supply the capacity to meet anticipated peak day and peak hour requirements of Applicant's customers during the winter of 1948-49 in the cities of Montgomery, Alabama, and Columbus, Georgia. On peak days during the winter of 1948-49, Applicant intends to supply propane-air gas to the extent of approximately 30% of the gas volumes for Columbus from its propane plant located close to and downstream from its regulator station at the end of its Montgomery branch line.

The estimated total over-all capital cost of the proposed facilities is $196,206, which will be financed out of Applicant's current funds.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.37) and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of Southern Natural Gas Company is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.8 or 1.10, whichever is applicable, of the rules of practice and procedure (as amended on June 16, 1947) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10).

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 9, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on August 30, 1948, Southern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Birmingham, Alabama, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to construct and operate certain natural-gas transmission facilities described as follows:

Approximately 2.2 miles of 4-inch lateral line extending east from Applicant's Calera Branch Line at a point approximately 28.8 miles south of the point of connection of said branch line with Applicant's main line, to the plant of Dixie Lime and Rock Wool Company in Shelby County, Alabama, including a branch approximately 50 feet in length to that portion of said plant to be operated by Southern Lime Company, and the construction and operation of facilities for the measurement of gas.

The application recites that the proposed lateral line will be owned by Dixie Lime and Rock Wool Company, but will be constructed by Applicant for the Dixie Lime and Rock Wool Company at that company's expense. The proposed lateral will, however, be operated by Applicant at Applicant's expense.

The application further recites that the proposed lateral pipeline will be used for the direct sale of gas to said lime companies pursuant to the contracts to be entered into between Applicant and said companies. It is stated that the proposed contracts will provide, subject to the terms and conditions therein stated, for the sale by Applicant of natural gas to said lime companies on an interruptible basis for the gas requirements of their plants, estimated in the case of Southern Lime Company to be 275 Mcf per day on full load, and in the case of Dixie Lime and Rock Wool Company to be 88 Mcf per day on full load. The requirements of the latter company may, however, approximate 198 Mcf per day, if certain experiments in the direct firing of gas on a slag-melting cupola are successful.

The estimated total over-all capital cost of the proposed facilities to be owned by Applicant is $7,000, which will be financed out of its own funds. The construction of the proposed lateral line, estimated total over-all cost of which is $16,500 will be at the expense of Dixie Lime and Rock Wool Company, which company will retain title thereto.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of § 1.37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.37) and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of Southern Natural Gas Company is on file with the Commission and is open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of §§ 1.8 or 1.10, whichever is applicable, of the rules of procedure (as amended on June 16, 1947) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10).

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9998

RULES OF PRECEDENCE RELATING TO OFFICERS OF THE FOREIGN SERVICE AND OTHER OFFICERS OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 1752 of the Revised Statutes (22 U. S. C. 132), and as President of the United States, and in the interest of the orderly conduct abroad of the foreign-affairs functions of the United States, I hereby prescribe the following rules governing precedence among officers of the Foreign Service and officers or accredited representatives of other Government agencies:

1. In the country to which he is accredited, the chief of the diplomatic mission shall take precedence over all officers or accredited representatives of other Executive departments or establishments.

2. In the absence of the titular head of the mission, the chargé d'affaires ad interim shall take precedence over all officers or accredited representatives of other Executive departments or establishments.

3. At a diplomatic mission the officer who takes charge in the absence of the chief of mission shall always take precedence next in succession to the chief of mission: Provided, That unless the chief of mission is absent, such officer shall, consonant with the last sentence of section 109 (a) of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1948 (Public Law 472, 80th Congress), and during the continuance in force of such Act, take precedence after the chief of special mission.

4. Military, naval, and air attachés shall take precedence next in succession after the counselors of embassy or legation or, at a post where the Department of State has deemed it unnecessary to assign a counselor, after the senior secretary. Military, naval, and air attachés shall take precedence among themselves according to their respective grades and seniority therein.

5. Attachés who are not officers of the Foreign Service and who are not covered by section 4 shall take precedence with but after military, naval, and air attachés.

6. Officers of the Foreign Service below the rank of counselor shall take precedence among themselves as the Secretary of State may direct; but they shall take precedence after military, naval, and air attachés and attachés who are not officers of the Foreign Service, except when the provisions of section 11 hereof are applicable and such officers of the Foreign Service are also assigned as diplomatic officers.

7. Assistant military, naval, and air attachés shall take precedence next after the lowest ranking second secretary. At a post to which there is no second secretary assigned, assistant military, naval, and air attachés shall take precedence as a group among the officers of the Foreign Service of rank equivalent to second secretaries as the chief of mission may direct. Assistant military, naval, and air attachés shall take precedence among themselves according to their respective grades and seniority therein.

8. Assistant attachés who are not officers of the Foreign Service and who are not covered by section 7 shall take precedence with but after assistant military, naval, and air attachés.

9. Except as provided herein no extra precedence shall be conferred upon an Army, Naval, Marine, or Air Force officer because of his duties as attaché to a diplomatic mission.

10. At ceremonies and receptions where the members of the mission take individual position, and in the lists furnished foreign governments for inclusion in their diplomatic lists, precedence shall follow the ranking indicated in the preceding sections.

11. At ceremonies and receptions where the personnel of diplomatic missions are present as a body, the chief of mission, or chargé d'affaires ad interim, accompanied by all officers of the Foreign Service included in the diplomatic list, shall be followed next by the military, naval, and air attachés and assistant attachés, and other attachés and assistant attachés who are not officers of the Foreign Service, formed as distinct groups in the order determined by their respective grades and seniority.

12. In international conferences at which the American delegates possess plenipotentiary powers, the senior counselor of embassy or legation attached to the delegation shall take precedence immediately after the delegates, unless otherwise instructed by the Secretary of State.

13. In the districts to which they are assigned, consuls general shall take precedence with but after brigadier generals in the Army, Air Force, and Marine Corps and commodores in the Navy; consuls shall take precedence with but after colonels in the Army, Air Force, and Marine Corps and captains in the Navy; officers of the Foreign Service commissioned as vice consuls shall take precedence with but after captains in the Army, Air Force, and Marine Corps and lieutenants in the Navy.

14. Officers of the Foreign Service with the title of consul general, consul, or vice consul shall take precedence with respect to medical officers of the Public Health Service assigned to duty in American consular offices as follows: consul general before medical director; consul with but after medical director; vice consul with but after senior assistant surgeon: Provided, That this regulation shall not operate to give precedence to any medical officer above that of the consular officer in charge.

15. This order supersedes Executive Orders No. 8356 of March 2, 1940, and No. 8377 of March 18, 1940 (3 CFR Cum. Supp. 624, 632).

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 2 of the Civil Functions Appropriation Act, 1949 (Public Law 782, 80th Congress), section 103 of the Department of the Navy Appropriation Act, 1949 (Public Law 753, 80th Congress), and section 4 of the Military Functions Appropriation Act, 1949 (Public Law 766, 80th Congress), relating to certain kinds of employment in the Canal Zone, and deeming such course to be in the public interest, I hereby suspend, from and including the effective dates of the said Acts, compliance with the provisions of the said sections during the continuance of the present national emergency.

Finding such action necessary because of a shortage of housing, I hereby suspend for the fiscal year 1949 the application of those portions of the cited sections of the respective Acts which require the employment of citizens of the Republic of Panama or of the United States in skilled, technical, clerical, administrative, executive, or supervisory positions.

[B. E. P. Q. 573]

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

MEXICAN FRUITFLY QUARANTINE; ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS; LIFTING PERMIT AND STERILIZATION REQUIREMENTS

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine by § 301.64-3 (a) and § 301.64-4 of the regulations supplemental to the Mexican fruitfly quarantine (7 CFR 1945 Supp., §§ 301.64-1 through 301.64-7), the following administrative instructions are hereby adopted:

§ 301.64-3h Administrative instructions lifting permit and sterilization requirements for interstate movement of citrus fruits until further notice. The Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, having determined that natural conditions exist, with respect to the area regulated by Notice of Quarantine No. 64 on account of the Mexican fruitfly (7 CFR 1945 Supp., 301.64 to 301.64-7, incl.), which eliminate the risk of Mexican fruitfly infestations in regulated citrus fruits during the extended 1947-48 harvesting season as designated in B. E. P. Q. 568, supplement No. 2, effective July 31, 1948 (7 CFR § 301.64-5e, 13 F. R. 4567), and during the overlapping early part of the 1948-49 shipping season, hereby waives the permit requirements for interstate movement of such fruits from such regulated area, effective September 11, 1948, and until due notice of their resumption shall have been given. Further, administrative instructions contained in B. E. P. Q. 569 (7 CFR § 301.64-4f, 13 F. R. 2193), requiring that effective 12:01 a. m., April 24, 1948, and continuing throughout the 1947-48 harvesting season, all grapefruit, as a condition of certification for interstate movement from the Texas counties of Cameron, Hidalgo, and Willacy, shall be sterilized in accordance with the methods authorized in B. E. P. Q. 472, revised effective September 25, 1941, are hereby revoked, effective September 11, 1948.

These administrative instructions also cancel and supersede B. E. P. Q. 567, effective February 9, 1948 (7 CFR § 301.64-3f, 13 F. R. 611) and B. E. P. Q. 565, effective March 6, 1948 (7 CFR § 301.64-3g, 13 F. R. 1303). (Sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161; 7 CFR 1945 Supp., 301.64-3 (a), 301.64-4)

The purpose of this action is to discontinue until further notice all permit and sterilization requirements now prescribed as a condition for the interstate movement of regulated citrus fruits from the area regulated on account of the Mexican fruitfly. A trapping survey conducted in the regulated area during the last several weeks indicates that the abovementioned counties have entered upon the period during which they are seasonally free from the Mexican fruitfly. It is therefore feasible to discontinue temporarily the precautions now in effect. Such action relieves citrus growers in the affected area of requirements that have been in effect during most of the present calendar year. In order to be of maximum benefit to the affected growers, the relief from these requirements must be effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238), it is found, upon good cause, that notice and public procedure on this order are unnecessary, impractical, and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for the issuance of this order effective less than 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 9th day of September 1948.

Acting Chief, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

(b) Each term used in the marketing agreement and order shall, when used herein, have the same meaning applicable to such term in the marketing agreement and order.

§ 939.101 Communications. Unless otherwise prescribed herein or in the marketing agreement and order, or required by the Control Committee, all reports, applications, submittals, requests, inspection certificates, and communications in connection with the marketing agreement and order shall be forwarded as follows:

Winter Pear Control Committee, 519 Northwest Park Avenue, Portland 9, Oregon.

§ 939.104 Limitation of shipments—(a) Exemption certificates; procedural rules. Application for an exemption certificate authorizing the shipment during a particular marketing season of any variety of pears shall be filed with the secretary of the Control Committee not later than November 15 of such marketing season. Each such application duly mailed to and duly received by the secretary of the Control Committee shall be deemed to have been filed with the secretary as of the date of such mailing. Each application shall contain the following information on Form E-1 "Grower Application for Exemption Certificate":

(1) The name and address of the applicant;

(2) The location of the orchard (by district and distance from the nearest town) from which the fruit is to be shipped pursuant to the exemption certificate;

(3) The number and age of the trees producing the particular variety for which exemption is requested;

(4) The quantity of such variety which could be shipped by the applicant in the absence of the grade and size regulations in effect at the time the application is filed;

(5) The quantity of such variety which meets the requirements of the aforesaid effective grade and size regulations;

(6) The total crop of the particular variety of pears and the quantity shipped during the preceding marketing season;

(7) The names of the shippers who shipped all or any portion of the applicant's aforesaid crop during the preceding marketing season;

(8) The reasons why the quantity of the particular variety of pears, for which exemption is requested, does not meet the aforesaid effective grade and size regulations; and

(9) The name of the shipper or shippers who will ship the exempted pears if the exemption certificate is issued.

(b) Exemption committee. The members and alternate members of the Control Committee residing in the district in which the applicant grower's orchard is located shall act as an exemption committee for that district and shall make or cause to be made such investigation as may be necessary to determine whether and to what extent such applicant will be prevented, because of the aforesaid grade and size regulation in effect, from shipping as large a percentage of the particular variety of his pears as the percentage of all pears of that particular variety permitted to be shipped from his district as determined by the Control Committee. In the event any member or alternate member of the Control Committee shall himself apply for an exemption certificate he shall be disqualified to serve as a member of the exemption committee to act upon the application.

(c) Issuance of exemption certificate. In the event such exemption committee finds and determines from proof satisfactory to the committee that the applicant is entitled to an exemption certificate, such exemption certificate shall be issued so as to permit the applicant to ship or have shipped the requisite quantity of his pears. Each exemption certificate shall be signed by the secretary or assistant secretary of the Control Committee and one copy thereof shall be delivered to the grower, one copy shall be delivered to each shipper designated by the grower to receive a copy, and one copy shall be retained in the files of the Control Committee. In the event the secretary of the Control Committee has reason to believe that any such finding or determination by an exemption committee is improper or not in accordance with the facts, he may disapprove the same, and shall make or cause to be made such further investigation as he may determine to be necessary or advisable, and may request or obtain such information as he may deem necessary to enable him to determine whether or not and to what extent an applicant is entitled to an exemption certificate.

(d) Appeal to Control Committee. Any grower, whose application is denied in whole or in part by the appropriate exemption committee or by the secretary of the Control Committee, may file a written appeal with the Control Committee within fifteen (15) days after the date of the notice to such grower of the decision involved. Upon receipt of such appeal, the secretary of the Control Committee shall submit the same, together with all applicable information and data, including the report of the exemption committee on that grower's application to the members of the Control Committee, who thereafter shall review the same and shall determine whether and to what extent the applicant is entitled to an exemption certificate. Thereupon the secretary of the Control Committee shall issue to that grower such exemption certificate as the Control Committee shall determine to be proper.

(e) Appeal to Secretary. Any grower who is dissatisfied with the Control Committee's determination with respect to any appeal by that grower from a decision by an exemption committee or by the secretary of the Control Committee with respect to that grower's application for an exemption certificate, may appeal from such determination by the Control Committee to the Secretary of Agriculture. Any such appeal shall be made by filing with the secretary of the Control Committee a written notice of appeal within fifteen (15) days after notice to that grower of the Control Committee's action on that grower's application for an exemption certificate. Promptly upon receipt of notice of an appeal signed by the applicant, the secretary of the Control Committee shall forward to the Secretary of Agriculture, or to his designated representative, a true and correct copy of all information pertaining to that grower's application for an exemption certificate and the action taken thereon by the Control Committee, together with such written information and proof as was submitted to or obtained by the Control Committee with regard to said application, and a true copy of the appellant grower's notice of appeal.

§ 939.106 Pears for by-product, charitable, or gift purposes. (a) Pears which do not meet the requirements of any effective grade or size regulation shall not be shipped or handled for consumption by any charitable institution or for distribution by any relief agency or for conversion into any by-product, unless there first shall have been delivered to the manager of the Control Committee a certificate executed by the intended receiver and user of said pears, showing, to the manager's satisfaction, that said pears actually will be used for one or more of the aforesaid purposes.

(b) There are exempted from the provisions of the marketing agreement and order any and all pears which, in individual gift packages, are shipped directly to, or which are shipped for distribution without resale to, an individual person as the consumer thereof, and any and all pears which, in individual gift packages are shipped directly to, or are shipped for distribution without resale to, a purchaser who will use these pears solely for gift purposes and not for sale.

§ 939.107 Reports. (a) Each shipper handling pears covered by an exemption certificate shall keep an accurate record, in the manner provided on such certificate, of all shipments of such pears. Such shipper, after having shipped as many pears as authorized by the particular exemption certificate, shall promptly mail to the secretary of the Control Committee, such handler's copy of the exemption certificate containing an accurate record of such shipments.

(b) Each handler shall furnish to the Control Committee as of the 1st day and the 15th day, respectively, of each calendar month a report containing the following information on Form 1 "Handler's Statement of Pear Shipments":

(1) The number of standard western pear boxes (two half boxes shall be counted as one box) of each variety of pears shipped by that handler during the preceding half month;

(2) The date of each shipment;

(3) The car numbers or truck license numbers, as the case may be, of all cars or trucks in which such shipments were made;

(4) The ultimate destination, by city and State; and

(5) The name and address of such handler.

(c) Each handler shall furnish to the Control Committee, as of October 15 of each season and as of the fifteenth and last days of each month thereafter, a report containing the following information on Form 4R, "Handlers' Packout Report":

(1) The total of the packout of each variety;

(2) The quantity of each variety loose in storage;

(3) The volume of each variety sold, unsold, stored East and West, and in transit; and

(4) The name and address of such handler.

(d) Each handler who has pears inspected and certificated in lots larger than carload lots and who wishes to rely on such lot inspections in lieu of inspection certificates for individual carlot shipments shall deliver to the manager within 10 days after shipment of any such pears a written report showing the quantity, variety, grade, and size of the pears so shipped and the date of shipment thereof, and said report shall identify such pears with the lot-inspection certificate covering the same, and shall further show what portion of that lot remains unshipped, and where located; such reports shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, the semi-monthly handler's reports of shipments required under paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(e) Each handler shall specify on each bill of lading covering each shipment the variety, and number of boxes thereof, of all pears included in that shipment.

The rules and regulations contained in §§ 939.100, 939.101, 939.104, 939.106, and 939.107 of this part shall become effective September 16, 1948. It is hereby found that it is impractical and contrary to the public interest to postpone the effective date of these rules and regulations until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that the shipping season for the pears covered by the aforesaid marketing agreement and order will commence in early September, regulation of shipments of such pears will be effective on and after September 16, 1948, and it is essential that the aforesaid rules and regulations be in effect at that time in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended; and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of September 1948.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[File No. 21-335]

PART 178—BABY CHICK INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES AS AMENDED AND EXTENDED

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of September 1948.

Due proceedings having been had for amending and extending the rules for this industry under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the act of Congress approved September 26, 1914, as amended (Federal Trade Commission Act), and other provisions of law administered by the Commission;

It is now ordered, That the trade practice rules, in the amended and extended form, hereinafter set forth and appearing under Group I and Group II, be and the same are hereby approved and received, respectively; and that said rules, including all amendments and extensions, be promulgated as of September 15, 1948.

Statement by the Commission. Revised and extended trade practice rules for the Baby Chick Industry are promulgated by the Federal Trade Commission as hereinafter set forth.

Members of the industry are the persons, firms, corporations, and organizations engaged in the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of baby chicks as the term "baby chicks" is defined in the rules.

The rules are directed to the maintenance of free and fair competition in the industry and the elimination and prevention of unfair methods of competition, deceptive practices, and trade abuses. To this end various unfair and deceptive practices are defined and proscribed.

These rules constitute a revision and extension of those promulgated for the industry on December 31, 1938. Important new provisions which have been included are definitions of "crossbred", "inbred", "inbred line", "in-crossbred", and inhibitions respecting misuse of such terms. Also, provisions have been included prohibiting deceptive use of the word "hybrid", and requirements for the use of the word "farm" in corporate and trade names have been made more specific. Numerous other changes are embodied which further clarify applicable requirements of laws administered by the Commission.

Proceedings for revision and extension of the trade practice rules for the industry were instituted upon application made by industry members, and included the holding of an industry-wide trade practice conference under Commission auspices in St. Louis, Missouri, and public hearings on proposed rules at Cleveland, Ohio, and Washington, D. C. Thereafter and upon full consideration, final action was taken by the Commission whereby it has approved and received, respectively, the Group I and Group II rules as hereinafter set forth.

These revised and extended rules become operative thirty (30) days from date of promulgation, with the exception of §§ 178.19, 178.27 and 178.28 (Rules 19, 27, and 28), which become operative January 1, 1949. Upon becoming operative they supersede those promulgated for the industry December 31, 1938.

The rules. These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote the maintenance of fair competitive conditions in the interest of protecting industry, trade, and the public. It is to this end, and to the exclusion of any act or practice which suppresses competition, restrains trade, fixes or controls price through combination or agreement, or which otherwise injures, destroys, or prevents competition, that the rules are to be applied.

GROUP I

§ 178.0 General statement. The unfair trade practices embraced in §§ 178.1 to 178.40, inclusive, are considered to be unfair methods of competition, unfair or deceptive acts or practices, or other illegal practices, prohibited under laws administered by the Federal Trade Commission; and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use, by any person, partnership, corporation, or other organization subject to its jurisdiction, of such unlawful practices in commerce.

§ 178.00 Definitions—(a) Type of business affected and scope of "industry products." The rules in §§ 178.0 to 178.40, inclusive, apply to the business of producing and selling, or marketing, of products of the industry which consist of baby chicks, turkey poults, goslings, ducklings, and other live poultry, to be raised or maintained for breeding purposes or for the production of eggs, broilers, fryers, or other poultry products. Hatching eggs are also included as industry products.

(b) Definition of "baby chicks" (or "chicks") in application of §§ 178.0 to 178.40, inclusive. The term "baby chicks" or "chicks" as used in §§ 178.0 to 178.40, inclusive, and except where otherwise clearly required, shall be understood to include not only baby chicks of all kinds and hatching eggs, but also all other products of the industry, namely, turkey poults, goslings, ducklings, and other live poultry, to be raised or maintained for breeding purposes or for the production of eggs, broilers, fryers, or other poultry products.

§ 178.1 Misrepresentation of products. It is an unfair trade practice to make or publish or cause to be made or published, directly or indirectly, any statement or representation which is false, misleading, or deceptive in any respect (whether it be in the form of advertisement, trade promotional literature, mark, stamp, brand, label, radio broadcast, oral or written communication, or other form of representation however disseminated or published):

(a) Concerning the grade, quantity, breed, strain, pedigree, type, sex, sexing, culling, quick maturity, uniform development, livability, health, testing (blood testing, pullorum testing, or other testing), strength, character, nature, origin, weight, color, size, or egg-producing or other qualities, of any baby chicks; or

(b) Concerning the production, sale, distribution, or delivery of any baby chicks; or

(c) Concerning the supervision, endorsement, or approval of any poultry breeding, hatching, or other operation by Federal, State, or other authority, or concerning any official connection with such Federal, State, or other authority; or

(d) Concerning any other matter relating to the baby chick business, its products, or any part thereof. [Rule 1]

§ 178.2 Deceptive concealment of material facts. In advertising, offering for sale, or selling baby chicks, it is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to conceal or fail or refuse to disclose any material facts with the capacity and tendency or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers, as for example:

(a) Filling baby chick orders with cockerels which have been obtained from sexed chicks or from other sources without having disclosed to the purchaser at the time of sale the fact that the baby chicks delivered are cockerels.

(b) Adding surplus cockerel chicks or surplus pullets to so-called "straight-run" chicks and offering for sale, selling, or delivering same to customers without informing the respective purchasers of the fact that such surplus or added cockerels or pullets have been included and without obtaining such purchasers' consent thereto.

(c) Advertising or offering chicks for sale as being "chicks of buyer's own choice," or making similar representations, whether under a so-called "free" offer or otherwise, without disclosing prior to delivery the fact that the chicks to be shipped will be cockerels of one sort or another or other undesirable types or breeds when such is the case, or will be of different breed or breeds of chicken than the circumstances would indicate, or that such chicks will be shipped upon dates later or different from those ordinarily to be expected.

(d) Representing that flocks contain certain types of males or females, but concealing the fact that only part of such flocks contain such males or females; or representing that any flock contains certain types of males or females, but concealing the fact that such flock also contains other males or females.

(e) Claiming to own or operate a hatchery, poultry farm, or the like, but concealing the fact that the chicks distributed therefrom or advertised or offered for sale as being therefrom were not, either in whole or in part, produced by such hatchery, poultry farm, or the like.

NOTE: The above examples are but a few illustrations of the scope of this section. For other rules touching concealment and nondisclosure, see §§ 178.5 (c), 178.7 (d), 178.9–178.11, 178.14, 178.25; see also § 178.19 on "hatchery," "Poultry farm," etc.

§ 178.3 Misuse of terminology of the National Poultry Improvement Plan or the National Turkey Improvement Plan, etc. In connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of baby chicks, it is an unfair trade practice to use, directly or indirectly, in advertising or trade promotional literature, on labels, or through any other medium, any terminology of the National Poultry Improvement Plan or the National Turkey Improvement Plan, or to make representations with respect thereto, when such terminology is not truthfully and fully applicable to such chicks or products, or to their production, origin, or sale, or when such terminology or representations are otherwise used under circumstances or in a manner having the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers.

(a) Under this section it is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to use said terminology or any other representations indicating, purporting, or implying that such member is a qualified participant in the National Poultry Improvement Plan or the National Turkey Improvement Plan, or that baby chicks advertised or offered for sale have been produced by participants in either plan as the case may be, when such is not the fact.

(b) It is likewise an unfair trade practice to mislead or deceive in any other manner or respect, or tend to cause confusion or deception of purchasers or prospective purchasers, in relation to the National Poultry Improvement Plan, the National Turkey Improvement Plan, or any other matter in respect thereto.

NOTE: In order to avoid deception or confusion of purchasers or prospective purchasers of industry products, all persons or concerns severing connection with the National Poultry Improvement Plan or the National Turkey Improvement Plan should immediately remove and discontinue the use of all signs, promotional literature, labels, and other representations or visible indications that they are still participating in the plan in question.

§ 178.4 Guarantees, warranties, etc. (a) In connection with the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of baby chicks, it is an unfair trade practice to use the word "guaranteed," or any other word, expression, or representation of similar import, without conjunctive disclosure of the conditions or limitations applicable to such guarantee, or to use, or cause to be used, any guarantee or purported guarantee which is false, misleading, or deceptive in any respect.

(b) Without in any way limiting the foregoing provision of this section, guarantees of the following type or character shall not be used:

(1) Guarantees issued or directly or indirectly caused to be used by any member of the industry under which the guarantor fails or refuses scrupulously to observe his obligation or fails or refuses to make good on claims coming reasonably within the terms of the guarantee; or

(2) Guarantees which are so used or are of such form, text, or character as to import, imply, or represent that the guarantee is broader than is in fact true, or will afford more protection to purchasers than is in fact true; or

(3) Guarantees in which any condition, qualification, or contingency applied by the guarantor thereto is not fully and nondeceptively stated therein, or is stated in such manner or form as to be deceptively minimized, obscured, or concealed, wholly or in part; or

(4) Guarantees which are stated, phrased, or set forth in such manner that although the words used are literally and technically true, the whole is misleading in that purchasers or users are not made sufficiently aware of certain contingencies or conditions which are applicable to such guarantees and which materially lessen the value thereof as a guarantee to purchasers; or

(5) Guarantees containing statements, representations, or assertions which have the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any respect; or

(6) Guarantees which, either in themselves or in the manner of their use, are otherwise false, misleading, or deceptive.

(c) This section shall be applicable not only to guarantees but also to warranties, to purported guarantees and warranties, and to any promise or representation in the nature of or purporting to be a guarantee or warranty. [Rule 4]

NOTE: See also §§ 178.5 and 178.8.

§ 178.5 Misuse of words "guaranteed to live," and use of deceptive guarantees as to livability of baby chicks and percentage of live arrivals, or offers and contracts against mortality and disease, etc.—(a) Misuse of words "guaranteed to live," etc. It is an unfair trade practice to advertise, describe, or otherwise represent that baby chicks sold or offered for sale are "guaranteed to live," or to make similar statements or representations, with the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers into the erroneous belief that the said baby chicks possess extraordinary stamina or other qualities which prevent disease or death, or into any other erroneous belief.

[Rule 14]

§ 178.15 Misrepresenting chicks as from stock entered in egg-laying contests or poultry shows, etc. It is an unfair trade practice to advertise, describe, or otherwise represent that baby chicks sold or offered for sale are the progeny of, or are descended from, or have the strain of, or are closely related to, stock entered in egg-laying contests or poultry shows, prize-winning or championship or high-performance stock or poultry, or the like, when such is not the fact. [Rule 15]

§ 178.16 Misuse of terms "trapped," "trap nest," "trap-nested stock," "from trap-nested stock," etc. It is an unfair trade practice to represent, through advertising or otherwise, by the use of such words or expressions as "trapped," "trap nest," "trap-nested stock," "from trap-nested stock," or other words or expressions of similar import, that baby chicks sold or offered for sale have been produced by trap-nested stock, unless and until all of the eggs from which such chicks are hatched are produced by trap-nesting methods and the egg-laying records of the females producing such eggs have been definitely established by trap-nesting for a recognized adequate period of time. (c) To use the terms or representations specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, or other terms or representations of similar import, in any other false, misleading, or deceptive manner.

NOTE: Under this section, and in order to avoid misunderstanding, confusion, or deception of purchasers, the terms "farm," "poultry farm," "breeding farm," or other representations of similar import, should not be used in the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of baby chicks when the industry member making such representations does not own and actually operate, or does not occupy (or have possession of) and absolutely control the operation of, such a farm producing the baby chicks.

Where such representations are made and the industry member produces on a farm so owned and operated or occupied and controlled by him only a portion of the chicks, specific disclosure of the facts should be made to purchasers to the extent necessary to fully prevent their being misled or deceived into the erroneous belief, either that all the chicks so offered for sale or sold are produced on such farm of the industry member, or that none of the chicks so offered for sale or sold come from outside sources; that is, from sources or farms not so owned and operated or occupied and controlled by such industry member.

Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed as prohibiting an industry member who actually owns and operates a farm primarily devoted to the production of baby chicks from selling, offering for sale, or distributing, under a trade, corporate, or other name containing the word "farm," baby chicks produced from flocks of cooperating farms along with chicks produced on such member's own farm, if and when the industry member has had and exercised direct supervision and control over all operations and conditions material to the quality, health, and vigor of all said chicks, including selection of the breeding stock of which such baby chicks are the progeny, and all breeding and disease control practices.

§ 178.20 Deceptive depictions or illustrations. It is an unfair trade practice to use photographs, cuts, engravings, illustrations, or pictorial or other depictions or devices, in catalogues, sales literature or advertisements, or otherwise, in such manner as to have the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers as to the size, importance, or location of the premises occupied by a member of the industry, as to such member's equipment, as to his poultry or baby chicks, his breeding flocks or poultry products, or as to any other matter relating to his business or products. [Rule 20]

§ 178.21 Deception as to transportation or c. o. d. charges. (a) It is an unfair trade practice to sell or offer to sell baby chicks, through advertising or otherwise, in such manner as to have the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers into the belief that the prices quoted for such baby chicks are the prepaid or delivered prices when such is not the fact.

(b) It is an unfair trade practice, by failing correctly to inform customers or by other deception, to cause purchasers to believe that transportation costs will not be charged against them in c. o. d. charges or otherwise, when such is not true in fact. [Rule 21]

§ 178.22 Misrepresenting offer as limited to time, etc. It is an unfair trade practice to represent an offer of baby chicks to be limited as to time or otherwise when such is not the fact. [Rule 22]

§ 178.23 Deceptive representations as to earnings, etc. It is an unfair trade practice to make false, misleading, or deceptive statements or representations regarding opportunities for making money or actual or probable earnings of agents or dealers handling hatching eggs, baby chicks, or other poultry, or of purchasers raising baby chicks or other poultry. [Rule 23]

§ 178.24 Misuse of the word "free," etc. Use of the word "free," or words of similar import, in advertising to designate or describe any industry product which is not in truth and in fact a gift or gratuity, or is not given to the recipient thereof without cost or without requiring the purchase of other merchandise or requiring the performance of some service inuring directly or indirectly to the benefit of the industry member using such word, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 24]

(c) It is an unfair trade practice, by use of the word "hatchery" or other words, or by the display of incubators or the token or purported operation of incubators, or by signs, advertising matter, or through other means, to cause or tend to cause purchasers to believe that baby chicks sold at or shipped or delivered from a certain store, branch, or place of business have been or are actually hatched at such store, branch, or place of business, when such is not the fact. [Rule 25]

§ 178.26 Misrepresentation respecting new breed of poultry. It is an unfair trade practice to offer for sale, sell, or directly or by implication to advertise, describe, or represent, any baby chicks or other poultry as being a new breed or as being the progeny of a new breed, when such is not the fact.

This section shall not be construed as preventing baby chicks or other poultry from being described as a new breed if and when they meet the following definition or specification for a new breed as proposed by the industry, and no deception is practiced in relation to such designation or description:

New breed. A group of birds which are of similar size, shape, and skin color and differ from existing breeds in these characters or in the combination of these characters, and the varieties within the breed have similar plumage color and pattern, comb type, and other distinguishing physical characteristics, all of the characteristics of the breed and variety being demonstrated as having been reproduced with a high degree of uniformity.

[Rule 26]

§ 178.27 Misuse of terms "crossbred," "inbred," "inbred line," "in-crossbred," etc. In the sale, offering for sale, or distribution of baby chicks, it is an unfair trade practice to use the terms "crossbred," "inbred," "inbred line," "in-crossbred," or similar designations or representations as descriptive of baby chicks when such terms, designations, or representations are not fully and truthfully applicable to such baby chicks or are otherwise used in a false, misleading, or deceptive manner.

For the purpose of §§ 178.0 to 178.40, inclusive, and in their application, use of the terms mentioned in this section in accordance with the following definitions, respectively, is acceptable.

(a) "Crossbred." The first generation baby chicks produced:

(1) By crossing two different breeds or varieties; or

(2) By crossing first generation poultry resulting from the combination of two different breeds or varieties with another and different breed or variety; or

(3) By crossing the first generation poultry resulting from the combination of two different breeds or varieties with the first generation poultry resulting from the combination of two other different breeds or varieties.

(b) "Inbred." The first generation baby chicks produced by a mating of poultry of known relationship, related to the degree of first cousins or closer.

(c) "Inbred line." A group of inbred baby chicks resulting from at least four generations of inbreeding. The poultry constituting the line must be individually identified as to origin and so interrelated that the mating of any pair within the line would result in progeny with an amount of inbreeding exceeding that resulting from three successive generations of full brother-sister matings (coefficient of more than 50%).

(d) "In-crossbred". The first generation baby chicks produced:

(1) By crossing two inbred lines of different breeds or varieties; or

(2) By crossing first generation poultry resulting from the combination of two inbred lines of different breeds or varieties with another inbred line of different breed or variety; or

(3) By crossing the first generation poultry resulting from the combination of two inbred lines with the first generation poultry resulting from the combination of two other inbred lines when each line used is of different breed or variety than any other used. [Rule 27]

§ 178.28 Deceptive use of term "hybrid" prohibited. It is an unfair trade practice to use the word "hybrid," alone or in conjunction with other words or representations, as descriptive of baby chicks offered for sale, sold, or distributed, when such use of the term or the conditions under which it is applied are such as to have the capacity and tendency or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers in any material respect as to the breeding, inbreeding, crossing, production, or generation of such chicks or in any other material respect.

NOTE: It appears there is a substantial and growing number of farmers and other buyers of baby chicks who understand that the term "hybrid," as applied to baby chicks, denotes and implies that such chicks have been produced by combining different breeds or varieties in which there has been a substantial amount of selective inbreeding.

Four generations of inbreeding in parental lines is accepted hereunder as being substantial; and this section is not to be construed as prohibiting the non-deceptive use of the term "hybrid" as descriptive of baby chicks resulting from the combination of inbred lines and conforming to the specifications for "in-crossbred" set forth in § 178.27.

The term "hybrid" should not be used as descriptive of chicks which are not "crossbred" (see definition in § 178.27); nor should such term "hybrid" be used as descriptive of chicks which (although "crossbred") do not qualify for the term "in-crossbred" when in immediate conjunction therewith, conspicuous disclosure of the facts as to the inbreeding or the absence of inbreeding in the production of the chicks is not made to the extent necessary to adequately prevent confusion, misunderstanding and deception of purchasers.

[Rule 28]

§ 178.29 False or misleading price quotations, etc. The publishing or circulating by any member of the industry of false or misleading price quotations, price lists, or terms or conditions of sale, with the capacity and tendency or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 29]

§ 178.30 Use of lottery schemes. The offering or giving of prizes, premiums, or gifts, in connection with the sale of industry products, or as an inducement thereto, by any method which involves lottery or scheme of chance, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 30]

§ 178.31 Defamation of competitors or disparagement of their products. The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the products of competitors in any respect, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, or services, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 31]

NOTE: See also § 178.10.

§ 178.33 Inducing breach of contract. Inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing lawful contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, or interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their business, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 33]

§ 178.34 Enticing away employees of competitors. It is an unfair trade practice for any industry member to willfully entice away the employees of competitors with the intent and effect of unduly hampering, injuring, or prejudicing competitors in their business: Provided, That nothing in this rule shall be construed as prohibiting employees from seeking more favorable employment. [Rule 34]

§ 178.35 Procurement of competitors' confidential information by unfair means and wrongful use thereof. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to obtain information concerning the business of a competitor by bribery of any employee or agent of such competitor, by false or misleading statements or representations, by the impersonation of one in authority, or by any other unfair means, and to use the information so obtained in such manner as to injure said competitor in his business or to suppress competition or unreasonably restrain trade. [Rule 35]

§ 178.36 Coercing purchase of one product as a prerequisite to the purchase of other products. The practice of coercing the purchase of one or more products as a prerequisite to the purchase of one or more other products where the effect may be to substantially lessen competition, tend to create a monopoly, or to unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice. [Rule 36]

§ 178.37 Consignment distribution. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to employ the practice of shipping industry products on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging or closing trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their products to consumers through regular channels of distribution, thereby injuring, destroying, or preventing competition or tending to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade. Nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting or preventing consignment shipping or marketing of industry products in good faith where suppression of competition, restraint of trade, or undue interference with competitors' use of the usual channels of distribution, is not effected. [Rule 37]

§ 178.38 Selling below cost. The practice of selling or offering to sell industry products below the seller's cost with the intent and with the effect of injuring a competitor and where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably restrain trade is an unfair trade practice. All elements recognized by good accounting practice as proper elements of such cost shall be included in determining cost under this section. The costs, however, which are referred to in this section, are actual costs of the respective seller and not some other figure or average costs in the industry determined by an industry cost survey or otherwise.

This section is not to be construed as prohibiting all sales below cost, but only such selling below the seller's cost as is resorted to and pursued as a monopolistic practice with the intent referred to and coupled with the effect of substantially lessening competition, tending to create a monopoly, or unreasonably restraining trade. [Rule 38]

§ 178.39 Discrimination—(a) Prohibited discriminatory prices, or rebates, refunds, discounts, credits, etc., which effect unlawful price discrimination. It is unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, where such rebate, refund, discount, credit, or other form of price differential, effects a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality, where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce,[1] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce,[1] or to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination, or with customers of either of them: Provided, however:

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption, or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares, or merchandise in commerce[1] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (i) the market for the goods concerned, or (ii) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited brokerage and commissions. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited advertising or promotional allowances, etc. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotional allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited discriminatory services or facilities. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Inducing or receiving an illegal discrimination in price. It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] in the course of such commerce, knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by the foregoing provisions of this section.

(f) Purchases by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit. The foregoing provisions of this section relate to practices within the purview of the Robinson-Patman Antidiscrimination Act, which act and the application thereunder of this section are subject to the limitations expressed in the amendment to such Robinson-Patman Antidiscrimination Act, which amendment was approved May 26, 1938, and reads as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That nothing in the Act approved June 19, 1936 (Public, Numbered 692, Seventy-fourth Congress, second session), known as the Robinson-Patman Antidiscrimination Act, shall apply to purchases of their supplies for their own use by schools, colleges, universities, public libraries, churches, hospitals, and charitable institutions not operated for profit. (52 Stat. 446; United States Code, 1940 edition, Title 15, sec. 13c)

§ 178.40 Aiding or abetting use of unfair trade practices. It is an unfair trade practice for any person, firm, or corporation to aid, abet, coerce, or induce another, directly or indirectly, to use or promote the use of any unfair trade practice specified in §§ 178.0 to 178.40, inclusive. [Rule 40]

GROUP II

§ 178.100 General statement. Compliance with trade practice provisions embraced in §§ 178.101 to 178.105, inclusive, is considered to be conducive to sound business methods and is to be encouraged and promoted individually or through voluntary cooperation exercised in accordance with existing law. Nonobservance of such sections does not per se constitute violation of law. Where, however, the practice of not complying with §§ 178.101 to 178.105, inclusive, is followed in such manner as to result in unfair methods of competition, or unfair or deceptive acts or practices, corrective proceedings may be instituted by the Commission as in the case of violation of §§ 178.1 to 178.40, inclusive.

§ 178.101 Shipping chicks to fictitious consignees, etc. The industry condemns the practice of disposing of baby chicks by shipping them to fictitious consignees or without an order from, or consent of, the consignee, necessitating the sale of such undeliverable shipments at public auction by agents of the common carrier in order to secure payment for transportation costs. Such practice is deemed by the industry to be harmful to the chicks and to facilitate the spread of disease. Moreover, it should be noted that the use of such methods in a manner which is contrary to the provisions of § 178.14 is an unfair trade practice. [Rule A]

§ 178.102 Failure to give notice of change in shipping schedule. The industry condemns the practice of sellers of baby chicks failing to give proper notice to their customers of any change in shipping schedule thereby causing inconvenience and loss to purchasers. The practice of any deception in this respect is inhibited by the provisions of § 178.1. [Rule B]

§ 178.103 Failure to ship chicks as promptly as agreed upon. The industry condemns the practice of failing to ship baby chicks to customers as promptly as has been agreed upon, which practice frequently results in injury to the chicks and inconvenience and loss to customers. The practice of any deception in this respect is inhibited by the provisions of § 178.1. [Rule C]

§ 178.104 Arbitration. The industry approves the practice of handling business disputes between members of the industry and their customers in a fair and reasonable manner, coupled with a spirit of moderation and good will, and every effort should be made by the disputants themselves to compose their differences. If unable to do so they should, if possible, submit these disputes to arbitration. [Rule D]

§ 178.105 Repudiation of contracts. Lawful contracts are business obligations which should be performed in letter and in spirit. The repudiation of contracts by sellers on a rising market or by buyers on a declining market is condemned by the industry. [Rule E]

A Committee on Trade Practices is hereby created by the industry to cooperate with the Federal Trade Commission and to perform such acts as may be legal and proper in the application of these rules.

Promulgated and issued by the Federal Trade Commission September 15, 1948.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Section 6.3 Landing requirements, of Title 19, Code of Federal Regulations, also designated as § 116.3 of Title 8 and § 71.503 of Title 42, is amended by redesignating paragraph (d) as paragraph (f), and inserting two new paragraphs (d) and (e) reading as follows:

(d) Monthly and annual requests for overtime services and licenses to unlade and lade. A special license on customs Form 3851 running for any period up to 1 month and in multiples of months thereafter but not to exceed 1 year nor longer than the period of the supporting bond may be granted to a scheduled air line to unlade merchandise, passengers, or baggage, or to lade merchandise or baggage in the case of any or all of its planes at night or on a Sunday or holiday when customs supervision is required. The application for such a special license shall be on customs Form 3851 supplemented by a request on customs Form 3853 (modified) for overtime services of customs officers. Such request for overtime services must show the exact times when overtime services will be needed unless arrangements are made so that the proper customs officer will be notified during official hours in advance of the services requested as to the exact times that the services will be needed. The special license shall not be granted until the required bond on customs Form 3587, 7567, or 7569 shall have been filed.

(e) Monthly and annual permits to unlade and lade. The collector may also issue a permit running for any period up to 1 month, and in multiples of months thereafter but not to exceed 1 year, to unlade or lade during official hours any or all of the planes of a scheduled air line. Customs Form 3851 shall be used for such purpose.

2. Paragraph (a) of § 6.4, of Title 19, Code of Federal Regulations, such section being also designated as § 116.4 of Title 8 and § 71.504 of Title 42, is amended to read as follows:

§ 6.4 Entry and clearance. (a) Aircraft coming into any area from any place outside the United States shall be entered in such area if landing is made therein and if carrying passengers for hire or merchandise (see § 6.8). Aircraft coming into any area from another area shall be entered in such area if landing is made therein and if carrying residue cargo or passengers other than those departing from the mainland (see §6.9 (e)). Aircraft not required to enter under this paragraph are subject to other customs or applicable immigration and quarantine requirements (see § 6.3).

3. Section 6.8, Documents for entry, of Title 19 of the Code of Federal Regulations, such section being also designated as § 116.8 of Title 8 and § 71.508 of Title 42, is amended by redesignating subparagraphs (4) and (5) of paragraph (b) as subparagraphs (5) and (6), and inserting a new subparagraph (4) reading as follows:

(4) In the case of aircraft arriving in the United States on a trip which started in contiguous foreign territory, the total number of pieces of accompanied checked baggage on board shall be shown on the air cargo manifest, unless the number of pieces of baggage belonging to each passenger appears opposite the name of each passenger on any air passenger manifest required under these regulations. In the case of aircraft arriving in the United States on a trip which started in noncontiguous foreign territory, the number of pieces of accompanied checked baggage belonging to each passenger shall be shown opposite the name of the passenger on the air passenger manifest or, if an air passenger manifest is not required, on a separate baggage list. Such baggage lists shall contain, in addition to the information mentioned in the preceding sentence, information identifying the flight as specified in the heading of the form of air passenger manifest and that form, appropriately modified, may be used for this purpose. Unaccompanied baggage arriving in the United States under a check number from any foreign country by air shall be shown on the air cargo manifest under the following headings:

Check No.	Description of package	Where from	Destination

On the right of the foregoing information, two blank columns, one headed "Name of Examining Officer" and on the right thereof another column headed "Disposition" shall be provided on the air cargo manifest for use of customs officers. Unaccompanied unchecked baggage arriving as air express or air freight shall be manifested as other air express or freight.

4. The said § 6.8 of Title 19, Code of Federal Regulations, also designated as § 116.8 of Title 8 and § 71.508 of Title 42, is also amended by adding a new paragraph desginated (e) reading as follows:

(e) The provisions of section 446, Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U. S. C. 1446), relating to supplies and stores retained on board, shall be applicable to aircraft arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place.

5. The title and first sentence of paragraph (d) of § 6.10a Residue cargo; customs, of Title 19, Code of Federal Regulations, such section being also designated as § 116.11 of Title 8 and § 71.511 of Title 42, are amended to read as follows:

(d) Cargo destined beyond port of first entry. Aircraft arriving in the United States with cargo on board shown by the manifest to be destined to other ports in the same or in other areas of the United States or outside the United States may be permitted to proceed with such cargo from port to port in the United States or to a foreign country for the unlading thereof under the procedure prescribed in paragraph (e) of this section, upon the giving of a bond on customs Form 7567 or 7569.

6. Paragraph (e) of § 6.10a of Title 19, Code of Federal Regulations, such section being also designated as § 116.11 of Title 8 and § 71.511 of Title 42, is amended to read as follows:

(e) Documents. When applying for clearance from the airport or place of first entry in the United States the aircraft commander shall present to the collector an air commander's general declaration and air cargo manifests in duplicate covering all the foreign cargo retained on board for discharge at other domestic or foreign ports, together with one copy of the complete general declaration and air cargo manifest filed on entry at such port. If clearance is in order one of the duplicate general declarations shall bear a stamped, mimeographed, or printed certificate signed by the appropriate customs officer to show that permission is granted to the aircraft to proceed to another port of landing. This certificate shall be substantially in the form shown below:

3. These amendments are designed to simplify the procedure relating to the production, removal, bottling, storage, and exportation of fermented malt liquor.

§ 192.7 Brewery buildings. Brewery buildings must be securely constructed of substantial, solid materials. If there are buildings used in the conduct of another business (except as hereinbefore authorized) adjoining the building on the brewery premises, such other buildings must be entirely separated from the brewery buildings by substantial, solid, and unbroken walls from the ground to the roof in a direct vertical line. If beer is conveyed from the brewery to the bottling house by pipe line, the brewery premises must be adjacent or contiguous to the bottling house premises. If the brewery and the bottling house are adjoining, there shall be no interior communication between the two premises and such premises must be separated by solid and unbroken walls, except for authorized conduits, tunnels, and pipe lines. (Secs. 3157, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.13 Other pipe lines. If it is necessary that pipe lines for refrigeration, for heating purposes, or hot water for washing tanks, bottles, etc., pass from the brewery to the bottling house, such pipes must be installed in such a manner that they cannot be used for conveying fermented malt liquor to the bottling house. (Secs. 3157, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.16 Tanks and vats. Each stationary tank, vat, cask, or other container used, or intended for use, as a receptacle for wort or beer, in connection with the operation of the brewery, shall be located in the brewery building and be constructed of suitable materials. Each such tank, vat, cask, or other container shall be permanently marked to show its designated use, such as "Fermenting Tank," "Storage Tank," "Settling Tank," etc., and its serial number and capacity in barrels of 31 gallons. Tanks that are used for a dual purpose, such as fermenting and storage, will be designated to indicate both usages. All such tanks or other containers shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device so that the actual contents thereof may be determined, except that in lieu of equipping each tank or container with an individual measuring device, the brewer may use meters, portable gauge glasses, or other suitable measuring device, whereby the contents of the tank or other container may be correctly ascertained. (Secs. 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.22 Location and installation. The meters will be located on the brewery premises: Provided, That the district supervisor may approve the location of the bottling meters on the bottling house premises upon establishment by the brewer of a good and sufficient reason therefor and the supervisor is satisfied that the structural arrangement of the pipe lines and meter will permit an accurate measurement of the fermented malt liquor transferred for bottling. Each bottling meter must be installed in such manner that all beer transferred to the bottling house will pass through the meter. The beer line from the brewery to the bottling house must be brazed, sweated, or welded to a companion flange which shall be fitted to the inlet flange of the meter when the meter is located on the bottling house premises, and to the outlet flange of the meter when the meter is located on the brewery premises. These connecting flanges will be bolted and sealed with Government cap seals. Meters must be provided for racking and each meter installed as near as possible to the racker tank in such manner that all beer moving into the racking machine will pass through the meter. The beer line from the meter to the racker tank must be brazed, sweated, or welded to flanges which are fitted to the meter and also to the outlet side of the meter and the racker tank at the point of entrance. These connecting flanges at the meter and the racker tank will be bolted and sealed with Government cap seals. (Secs. 2829, 3157, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.25 Inspection of meter. Upon notice from the brewer that the meter has been received, the supervisor shall assign an inspector, or inspectors, to supervise its installation. When the inspector is satisfied that the meter is properly installed and pipe connections made in accordance with the requirements of the regulations, he shall test the meter by the use of a master meter, and determine that it is operating within the tolerance prescribed by the "meter specifications." The inspector will report to the supervisor in writing, which shall be accompanied by the inspector's report of the master meter test. The meter must not be used until such test has been made. (Secs. 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.26 Repairs and adjustment. When necessary in the opinion of the supervisor, or upon request of the brewer, the supervisor will detail an inspector to supervise the dismantling and reassembling of the meter for the purpose of cleaning or repair. If the meter cannot be repaired or a replacement meter installed without delay, the inspector will, upon removal of the meter, cause the open beer line to be closed by locking the cut-off valve with a Slaight seal lock or affixing a Government cap seal. When the repairs are completed or a new meter installed, the inspector will test the repaired or newly installed meter with a master meter. Minor repairs to the counter mechanism such as cleaning to facilitate reading will not necessitate a master meter check. The officer will report on the record referred to in § 192.24, the removal and use of cap seals. The inspector will destroy all removed cap seals in a manner sufficient to prevent their further use. A report will be made in triplicate on Form 138 of any master meter check occasioned by repairs and adjustment. One copy will be given to the brewer, one filed in Government cabinet at the brewery and one copy forwarded to the district supervisor. The use of any meter must be discontinued whenever it appears that the revenue will be jeopardized by the continued use of such meter. (Secs. 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.27 Facilities for meter test. The brewer will provide adequate facilities for master meter tests of all regularly installed meters. The pipe lines to all meters will contain removable sections or other facilities, properly secured, to permit the installation of the master meter close to, and in series with, the brewer's meter. The pipe lines will also contain an arrangement of valves and by-pass lines for inserting the Government meter and making the test without interfering with pumping operations, unless the brewer elects to stop operations for the meter tests in lieu of making such installations. All such installations must conform with the requirements of § 192.22. (Secs. 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.31 Description of premises. The lot or tract of land on which the brewery is situated, and the lot or tract of land on which the brewery bottling house is situated, must be separately described on Form 27–C by courses, and distances, in feet and inches, with the particularity required in conveyances of real estate. The continuity of the brewery premises and the bottling house premises must be unbroken, except that the continuity will not be considered as broken where the premises are divided by a public street or highway, if the parts of the premises so divided abut on such street or highway opposite each other. The same is true where the premises are so divided by a railroad right of way, if the railroad is a common carrier. In such cases, each tract of land constituting the brewery and the bottling house premises shall be described separately on the form. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the separation of the brewery bottling house into two or more parts or sections for bottling, or storage of beer bottled in the brewery bottling house, provided the bottling house premises conform with the requirements of § 192.7. (Secs. 3155 (a), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.33 Description of apparatus and equipment. The brew kettles, mash tubs, fermenting tanks, storage tanks, and other major equipment used in the production of fermented malt liquor will be described separately as to use, serial number, and capacity, in barrels of 31 gallons, as specifically required by the Form 27–C and the instructions thereon. All tanks, bottling apparatus and other major equipment in the bottling house used for bottling fermented malt liquor, must be described in the notice, separately, as to use, serial number, and, in the case of tanks, capacity in barrels of 31 gallons. (Secs. 3155 (a), 3176, I. R. C.)

(a) Bottling under trade name. Where a brewer intends to bottle beer under a trade name, or names, other than the name under which the brewery or bottling house is qualified to operate, he must include such trade name in Form 27–C for that purpose, furnish the trade name certificate, or statement in lieu thereof required by this section, and obtain appropriate certificates of label approval or certificates of exemption from label approval in any case where Regulations No. 7, issued under the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, is applicable. (Secs. 3155 (a), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.46 Penal sum. The penal sum of a brewer's bond to cover the manufacture of fermented malt liquors, must be equal to the amount of the tax as prescribed by law, which, in the opinion of the district supervisor of the district in which the brewery is located, the brewer will be liable to pay during any one month; that is to say, the maximum quantity of fermented liquors that, in his opinion, will actually be tax-paid at said brewery during any one month: Provided, That the penal sum of any such bond shall not exceed $100,000 nor be less than $1,000. (Secs. 3155 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.76 Preparation. Every plat and plan shall be drawn to scale and each sheet thereof shall bear a distinctive title, enabling ready identification, and shall show the cardinal points of the compass. The minimum scale of any plat will be not less than 1/50 inch per foot. Each sheet of the plat and plans shall be numbered, the first sheet being designated number 1 and the other sheets numbered in consecutive order. Plats and plans shall be submitted on sheets of tracing cloth or sensitized linen. The dimensions of plats and plans shall be 15 by 20 inches outside measurement, with a clear margin of at least 1 inch on each side of the drawing, lettering and writing. Plats and plans may be original drawings, or reproductions made by the "ditto process," or by blue or brown line lithoprint, if such reproductions are clear and distinct. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.77 Description of brewery and bottling house premises. Plats must show separately the outer boundaries of the brewery and bottling house premises by courses and distances, in feet and inches, and the point of beginning with respect to its distance and bearings from some near and well-known landmark, and must contain an accurate depiction of the building, or buildings, comprising the premises and any driveway, public highway, or railroad right-of-way adjacent thereto or connecting therewith. The brewery and bottling house premises must be shown in contrasting colors or by a legend such as cross hatching, a broken line, etc. If the premises are separated by a public highway, or a railroad right-of-way, and the tracts of land comprising the premises, or parts thereof, abut on such highway, or right-of-way, opposite each other, the different tracts will be described separately by courses and distances, in feet and inches. If two or more buildings are used, the designated name of each will be indicated and all passage ways and other openings, if any, and all connecting pipe lines used for the conveyance of fermented malt liquor between the same depicted. All pipe lines and other connections between the brewery premises and other premises must be indicated on the plat and identified as to use. Where two or more buildings are used for the same purpose, the name of each building shall include an alphabetical designation, beginning with "A," and they shall be so shown on the plat. All first floor doors of each building on the premises will be shown on the plat. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.78 Plans. Plans will include a floor plan of each floor of each building actually used in connection with the manufacture, packaging and bottling of fermented malt liquor or other authorized activity, indicating the general dimensions of the rooms and floors. The location of doors, windows, and other openings will be shown. The approximate location and serial numbers of brew kettles, mash tubs, fermenting tanks, settling tanks, storage tanks, and other major apparatus and equipment used in the production of fermented malt liquor must be shown or indicated on the plan by drawing or wording. For example, where a number of tanks are located in a room, the approximate location of each tank may be shown on the plan by circle or square, and the kind and serial number of the tank indicated within the circle or square, or elsewhere on the plan, or the fact that the tanks are located within the room may be indicated by wording, giving the kinds and serial numbers of the tanks. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.80 Certificate of accuracy. The plat and plans shall bear a certificate of accuracy in the lower right hand corner of each sheet signed by the brewer, the draftsman and the district supervisor substantially in the following form:

§ 192.87 Changes in stockholders, officers, and directors of corporation. The sale or transfer of the capital stock of a corporation operating a brewery does not constitute a change in the proprietorship of the brewery. However, where the sale or transfer of capital stock results in a change in the control or management of the business, or where there is any change in the officers or directors, the brewer must give notice thereof, in triplicate, to the district supervisor within 5 days of such change. Mere changes in stockholders of corporations not constituting a change in control need not be so reported. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

(a) Special tax. Where there has been a change in location, the brewer must, within 30 days after such change is made, file with the collector of internal revenue an amended return on Form 11 covering the new location of the premises; otherwise, new special tax stamps must be purchased. The special tax stamp, or stamps, must be forwarded to the collector for endorsement of the change in location. (Secs. 3176, 3250, 3278, 3280, I. R. C.)

§ 192.94 Changes in construction and use. Where a change is to be made in the construction or use of a room, or building, that will affect the accuracy of Form 27–C and plat or plans, the brewer shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes. Upon completion of the changes, the brewer will comply with the provisions of § 192.96. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.95 Changes in equipment. Where changes are to be made in brewery equipment that affect the accuracy of Form 27–C and plat or plans, the brewer shall first secure approval thereof by the district supervisor pursuant to application, in triplicate, setting forth specifically the proposed changes: Provided, That emergency repairs coming under this category of changes may be made without prior approval of the district supervisor. Where such emergency repairs are made, the brewer will file immediately a report thereof, in triplicate, with the district supervisor. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.96 Amended notice and plats or plans. Where changes have occurred under §§ 192.94 or 192.95, amended notice and plat or plans will be filed on or before May 1 to reflect the changes made during the preceding calendar year. The district supervisor may require the immediate filing of such documents upon completion of changes that materially affect the accuracy of the existing Form 27–C and plat or plans. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.107 Disposition of qualifying documents. Where the bond or consent of surety is approved by the district supervisor, he will forward the original copy of the bond, and the original copy of the notice, plat, plan, and other qualifying documents, together with a copy of all inspection reports, to the Commissioner, one copy of the bond, notice, plat, plans, and other qualifying documents to the brewer and will retain one copy of such qualifying documents for the file of such brewer, and will authorize the brewer to commence operations. The documents returned to the brewer will be filed in proper order and made available for inspection during ordinary business hours. If the bond or consent of surety is disapproved by the district supervisor, all copies thereof shall be returned to the principal, and the surety or sureties shall be notified of such action. The district supervisor will promptly advise the Commissioner fully respecting the disapproval of any bond by him. If the bond or consent of surety has been disapproved, the district supervisor will return all copies of other qualifying documents to the applicant, or brewer. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.111 Review of documents. The Commissioner will review the qualifying documents, and determine that they are properly executed, and in conformity with the requirements of law and regulations concerning construction and establishment. If such documents are not in conformity with the above requirements, the Commissioner will return all copies to the district supervisor, with the necessary instructions for correction. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.118 Special tax. Brewers are required to pay, within the calendar month in which they commence operations, the special tax required by section 3250 (c), Internal Revenue Code. Special taxes shall become due on the 1st day of July in each year, or on commencing any trade or business on which such tax is imposed. In the former case the tax is reckoned for one year; and in the latter it is reckoned proportionately from the 1st day of the month in which the liability to special tax commenced to and including the 30th day of June following. (Secs. 3176, 3250 (c) (1), 3271 (b), I. R. C.)

§ 192.125 Beer tax rate. All beer, lager beer, ale, porter, and other similar fermented liquors, containing one-half of 1 per centum, or more, of alcohol by volume, brewed or manufactured and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, by whatever name such liquors may be called, are subject to the tax prescribed by section 3150 (a), Internal Revenue Code, for every barrel containing not more than 31 gallons, and at a like rate for any other quantity or for the fractional parts of a barrel authorized and defined by law, to be collected under the provisions of existing law. (Secs. 3150 (a), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.127 Method of tax payment. The tax on fermented liquor is required by law to be paid by the owner, agent, or superintendent of the brewery or premises in which it is made, and must be paid by stamp and at the time and in the manner specified by the regulations in this part. (Secs. 3150 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.129 More than one brewery owned by the same person. Where two or more breweries are owned and operated by the same person, firm, or corporation, barrels or kegs with the name of the brewer and the location of one or more of such breweries branded or embossed thereon or indented therein may be used for the removal of tax-paid fermented malt liquor from the premises of all such breweries, provided, whenever a barrel or keg so branded is filled with tax-paid fermented malt liquor for removal, a label, showing the location (city and state) of the brewery at which the fermented malt liquor was produced, is securely affixed thereon. If more than one such brewery is located in the same city, such label shall show the location by street number, city, and state. (Secs. 3155 (f), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.130 Rebranded barrels. No wooden barrel or keg which has been rebranded across the staves and no wooden barrel or keg which has the name of more than one manufacturer branded thereon may be used by a brewer as a container for fermented liquor: Provided, That the removal and replacement of one or more staves by the brewer whose name and address was originally so branded on a barrel or keg shall not be deemed to be a rebranding: And provided further, That where wooden barrels or kegs are sold by one brewer to another, or are sold under court order, the brands on such barrels or kegs may, upon application to, and approval of, the district supervisor, be scraped and the barrels or kegs rebranded by the purchasing brewer, and in the case of metal barrels or kegs the original marks may be covered by a metal plate so welded into the barrel as to become an integral part thereof. Where a brewer has discontinued business, the successor may comply with the provisions of this section by placing additional marks and brands on the barrels and kegs, in accordance with § 192.128, which indicate the successorship, without removing the marks and brands of the predecessor. (Secs. 3155 (f), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.146 Beer transferred to bottling house by pipe line. Sufficient stamps to cover the taxpayment of all fermented malt liquor to be transferred to the bottling house each day must be on hand at the brewery. The brewer will make a daily report on Form 139, in triplicate, of all beer run through the meter for bottling. The daily report will be prepared before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Report of meter readings will be made from the continuous counter. At the time of making his report on Form 139 the brewer will cancel the number of beer stamps corresponding to the quantity of beer metered for tax payment, in the manner prescribed for the cancellation of stamps for barrels or kegs of fermented malt liquor. The set-back counter may be used by the brewer for checking continuous counter readings, and upon completion of the day's run for bottling, it must be set at zero. The brewer will attach the canceled stamps to one copy of Form 139, to be delivered to the inspector who visits the brewery and takes the meter reading. One copy of each Form 139 will be attached to Form 103 by the brewer, and will be transmitted by him to the district supervisor. The third copy will be retained by the brewer as a part of his Government record, to be kept available for inspection by officers of this Bureau. The inspector, having satisfied himself by an inspection of the stamps that they are sufficient to cover the tax due on the beer passed through the meter for taxpayment as indicated by Form 139, and that they have been properly canceled by the brewer, will, in the presence of the brewer, further cancel and deface the stamps so delivered, by driving through them a die or punch, in such manner as to cut from the center of each stamp a piece thereof not less than one-half inch square, and will sign the receipt on the three copies of Form 139. The meter will be read, and Forms 139, with canceled stamps attached, will be collected from the brewer by any inspector visiting the brewery to make a master meter check, or any special inspection, or on monthly inspection. (Secs. 3157 (a), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.149 Containers and records. Brewer's yeast, in liquid or solid form containing not less than 10 percent solids (as determined by the methods of analysis of the American Society of Brewing Chemists), may be removed from the brewery in barrels, tank wagons, or other suitable containers, or by pipe line. If removed in containers, the containers must bear labels giving the name and location of the brewery, and the words "Brewer's Yeast." If removed by pipe line, the pipe line will be indicated on the plat and described in the Form 27–C, and the premises receiving the product will be subject to inspection by Government officers during ordinary business hours. The brewer must keep records open for inspection by Government officers showing the quantity and date of removal, and the name and address of the consignee. Brewer's yeast may be removed for sale to other brewers for use in the manufacture of beer and to other concerns (including off-premise plants of brewers) for the preparation of stock foods and medicinal products or for any other legitimate purposes. (Secs. 3158, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.150 Malt sirup. Records shall be kept by the brewer of all malt and malt sirup removed from the brewery. Such records must show the quantity of each lot removed, together with the name and address of the person to whom shipped or delivered. The records must be available for inspection by Government officers. (Secs. 3158, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.175 Temporary storage. All undelivered beer returned to a brewery may be held in temporary storage. Returned beer held in temporary storage must be kept completely segregated from all other beer, identified as returned beer, and stored in such manner as to be immediately accessible to Government officers. The stamps on barrels of returned beer must remain intact while in temporary storage. Such beer must be removed from the brewery prior to the removal of other beer of the same kind or type, except that for the purpose of refrigeration the removal of such returned beer may be postponed for a period not exceeding 5 days, after the first delivery of beer of the same kind or type, such period to be exclusive of Sunday and holidays. Unless so removed, the beer will no longer be considered as being in temporary storage and must be returned to general brewery stock, in which event the stamps on the barrels must be destroyed and new stamps affixed when the beer is again removed from the brewery. Refund or credit for such stamps destroyed cannot be allowed. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.184 Examination of beer. The inspector will examine the beer to determine (a) its condition, (b) that it is unsalable, and (c) the apparent reason for its having become unsalable. He will verify the quantity to be destroyed or returned to the brewery. The inspector will take samples of the unsalable beer, selected at random from several of the lots accumulated and determine the per cent of alcohol by volume. Samples of beer similar to that which is being destroyed or returned to the brewery, will be selected from the brewery storage vats and the alcoholic content determined for comparison with the tests of samples of unsalable beer. Any other tests of the unsalable beer will be made by the inspector that will aid in verifying the statements in the brewer's affidavit. (Secs. 3153, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.185 Requirements for accumulation in tanks. Brewers may accumulate in calibrated tanks provided especially for that purpose, any fermented malt liquor which has not been removed from the bottling house and which is unsalable by reason of its condition. A record will be kept of the quantity of fermented malt liquor deposited in the tanks each day, and a record of the bottling from which the unsalable beer was accumulated. The daily record will show the balling, alcoholic content by volume, and amount of each type bottled, and will be submitted in support of the affidavit made under § 192.181. The brewer will ascertain the balling and alcoholic content of the accumulated beer to be offered for inspection, and will make appropriate computations by comparison with the average balling and alcoholic content of the beer bottled daily during the collection period to determine the actual amount of unsalable beer collected, upon which refund may be claimed, and the amount of water that may have been incidentally introduced into the tank, for which refund is not allowable. The inspector will take appropriate samples of the fermented malt liquor for use in determining the balling and percent of alcohol and whether the beer is unsalable. He will also make such examination of the brewing and bottling records as may be necessary to verify the brewer's affidavit and supporting data. (Secs. 3154, 3176, I. R. C.)

panied by a statement setting forth the district supervisor's views as to the propriety of allowing the claim for refund of the tax paid on the unsalable beer. (Secs. 3154, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.191 Claims for refund. Claims for refund of tax on fermented malt liquor destroyed in the bottling house or returned to the brewery because of the fermented malt liquor being unsalable, will be filed on Form 843, in duplicate. Claims must be filed with the district supervisor of the district where the brewery is located within 90 days after the close of the month within which such destruction of the fermented malt liquor, or the return thereof to the brewery for use as brewing material, occurred. A claim shall be deemed to have been "filed" when it is delivered to, and received by, the office of the proper district supervisor. The district supervisor will certify the claim as to the total amount of tax paid on the fermented malt liquor in question, and will forward the claim to the Commissioner with the papers referred to in § 192.187. (Secs. 3154, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.196 Form 1626. Record will be kept by the brewer on Form 1626 of all fermented malt liquor bottled for export. Entries must be made in this record before the close of business of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. The brewer will attach one copy of Form 1626 to each copy of Form 103 rendered by him to the supervisor, and one copy to the Form 103 retained by him at the brewery. (Secs. 3153 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.207 Examination by inspector. Upon receipt of Forms 1689 from the supervisor, the inspector will verify the quantity of fermented malt liquor to be exported. In verifying the contents of the containers of fermented malt liquor, the inspector will examine a representative number of such containers or will use any other method of inspection which will reasonably disclose that the contents of the containers are as represented by the Form 1689 and that the containers are properly marked and labeled. (Secs. 3153 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.209 Change of consignee. Where, after inspection of an export shipment, but before removal, the brewer, for good and sufficient reasons, desires to change the name and address of the consignee, he will forward the two copies of Form 1689, left with him by the inspector, with a letter to the district supervisor, for correction, indorsement, and return. Where a change of consignee is desired after removal of the fermented malt liquor, the district supervisor may authorize such change and notify the appropriate collector of customs. (Secs. 3153 (b), 3176, I. R. C.)

(a) Name of the brewer.

(b) The location of the brewery by city and state, or street number, city, and state, if the brewer operates more than one brewery in the same city.

(c) Distinctive name of the beverage, if any.

(d) "Non-taxable as Fermented Liquor Under Federal Law." The label may contain other statements desired by the brewer if they are not inconsistent with the requirements of this section. (Sec. 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 192.259 Form 103. Each brewer shall keep Form 103, "Monthly Record of Transactions at Brewery," or its equivalent in book form, reporting thereon the quantity of each kind of material received and used in the production of fermented malt liquor, the amount of fermented malt liquor produced therefrom, the amount of fermented malt liquor removed from the brewery premises and other information required by the regulations in this part, and by the lines and instructions on the form. The materials brewed each day and the fermented liquor produced therefrom, shall be reported on such record as of the calendar day during which the brews were started. There shall also be reported as a special debit in the "Summary of Fermented Malt Liquor" of Form 103, the quantity of water, if any, used in adjusting the balling or alcoholic content of the fermented malt liquor after removal from the settling tanks. The entries shall be made before the close of the business day next succeeding the day on which the transactions occur. Monthly returns of the operations of such plants on Form 103 shall be made not later than the 10th day of each month for the preceding month. Such returns shall be made in triplicate. Each copy shall be duly sworn to or affirmed. Two copies shall be forwarded to the supervisor, who shall forward one to the Commissioner in accordance with instructions on the form. The remaining copy will be retained by the brewer and filed as a permanent record, so as to be available for inspection at any time within the succeeding four years. (Secs. 3155 (c), 3171 (a), 3176, I. R. C.)

4. Sections 192.197, 192.205, 192.206, 192.208, 192.214 to 192.218, inclusive, 192.221 to 192.223, inclusive, and 192.258 (b) are amended by striking out "Form 550" wherever it appears therein, and substituting therefor "Form 1689."

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army

PART 206—FISHING AND HUNTING REGULATIONS

CHESAPEAKE BAY, MD., AND VA., AND ITS TRIBUTARIES

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 of the River and Harbor Act of March 3, 1899 (30 Stat. 1151; 33 U. S. C. 403), § 206.50 governing the placing and maintenance of fishing structures in Chesapeake Bay, Maryland and Virginia, and its navigable tributaries, is hereby superseded by the following:

§ 206.50 Chesapeake Bay, Md. and Va., and its navigable tributaries; fishing structures—(a) Authority. (1) Fishermen, oystermen, and crabbers who desire to operate in Chesapeake Bay, Maryland and Virginia, and its navigable tributaries, are hereby authorized to construct and maintain fishing structures, to make oyster bottoms, and to place and mark crab pots, subject to the regulations in this section.

(2) This authority shall not be interpreted as setting aside exclusively for fisheries any area of navigable water. It does not give any property rights either in real estate or material, or any exclusive privileges, and does not authorize any injury to private property or invasion of private rights, or any infringement of Federal, State, or local laws or regulations, nor does it obviate the necessity of obtaining State assent to the work authorized.

(3) If at any time it shall be made apparent to the Secretary of the Army that any fishing structure placed under this authority causes unreasonable obstruction to free navigation, the owner will be required, upon due notice from the Secretary of the Army, to remove or alter such structure so as to render navigation reasonably free, easy, and unobstructed.

(4) The United States shall in no case be liable for any damage or injury to fishing structures placed or work done under this authority which may be caused by or result from future operations undertaken by the Government for the conservation or improvement of navigation, or for other purposes, and no claim or right to compensation shall accrue from any such damage.

(b) Supervision. General supervision of the location, construction, and manner of maintenance of all fishing structures shall be exercised by the District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, having jurisdiction over the waters in which the structures are placed.

(c) Fishing structures. (1) The term "fishing structures" shall include lines of fish net, settings, stakes, leads, traps, pounds, gill or fyke nets, heads, hedging, oyster bottom and crab pot markers, and similar appurtenances. The types of structures permitted shall conform to the laws of the State within which the structures are placed.

(2) No single fishing structures shall have a length greater than that prescribed by the laws of the State within which it is placed. The distance between adjacent lines of fishing structures shall be that prescribed by the laws of the respective States of Maryland and Virginia. In localities not covered by the laws of these States, the distance between lines of fishing structures shall be a least 400 yards. Fishing structures shall be construed as being in the same line when the distance between adjacent structures, measured along a line generally perpendicular to the structures, is not more than 200 feet. When adjacent structures are judged to be in the same line, the distance between them, measured along a line generally parallel to the structures, shall be at least 200 feet. The required openings between adacent structures shall be maintained clear and unobstructed. A clear fairway at least 200 feet wide shall be maintained from navigable channels to established boat landings. All stakes shall project at least three feet above the surface of the water at all ordinary high stages of the tide. Fyke and other submerged fishing structures shall be marked by stakes set at intervals not greater than 50 feet. Marker stakes left in place between fishing seasons for subsequent reestablishment of the fishing structure shall project at least eight feet above the surface of the water at all ordinary high stages of the tide and be marked as provided in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph. Stakes not in compliance with the above conditions shall be spliced or withdrawn.

(3) Both ends of each fishing structure shall be marked plainly by a bush or other suitable and readily discernible day mark.

(4) The name and address of the owner of each fishing structure shall be displayed in black letters not less than two inches in height, upon a white background, on a stake at the outer end of the structure, at such height and in such position that it may be easily read. The identification mark must be displayed from the setting of the first stake until removal of the last stake.

(5) Fishing structures, with the exception of markers on oyster bottom leaseholds and crab pots, shall be lighted between sunset and sunrise, by and at the expense of the owner, for the safety of navigation. A white light shall be displayed at the outer end of the structure. The light shall have a capacity to burn for at least eight days unattended and be visible in clear night weather at least one mile. The light shall be securely placed on piles or stakes at an elevation of at least eight feet above mean low water and be visible from all points of the compass and from the air. It shall be subject to inspection and approval of the District Engineer before use, and at any time during use, and the owner shall make provision, by watchman or otherwise, for its proper attendance, so that it shall be in effective condition and properly lighted at all times between sunset and sunrise. In case of removal of the fishing structure, the light prescribed above shall be maintained until the removal of the last pile or stake.

(6) There shall be installed and maintained on the structure by and at the expense of the owner, such additional lights and signals, if any, as may be prescribed by the United States Coast Guard.

(7) Fishing structures from which the nets have been temporarily removed will not be considered as abandoned if the structures are otherwise in a state of good repair and are provided with the necessary lights, name and address plates, and day markers.

(8) Crab pot stake markers shall be located shoreward of approved fish stake limit lines and where no limit lines are prescribed shall conform to the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section. The diameter of the stake shall not exceed two inches at the water surface, shall project at least six feet above the surface of the water at all ordinary high stages of the tide, and shall be marked with the name and address of the owner and a day marker consisting of a bush or other suitable and readily discernible object.

(9) Markers on oyster ground leaseholds shall be of such size and type, and shall have such markings, as may be prescribed by the laws of the respective States of Maryland and Virginia. They may be placed channelward of approved fishing limits under such conditions as may be prescribed by the District Engineer in charge of the locality.

(10) The owner of a fishing structure shall be responsible for properly locating, constructing, and repairing such structure and for maintaining such lights and markers as are required by the regulations in this section. Structures shall be considered as abandoned at such time as any or all of these requirements are not fully complied with and the owner or owners shall promptly remove all stakes from an improperly located or abandoned structure or be subject to prosecution. Improperly located or abandoned fishing structures may be summarily removed, sold, or otherwise disposed of by the District Engineer charged with general supervision of the locality.

(d) Limits. (1) The approved limits of the areas within which fishing structures may be placed, described in paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) of this section, are shown on United States Coast and Geodetic Survey charts printed subsequent to the date of approval or revision of this section and which bear a note referring to such date or dates. Copies of these charts may be examined in the offices of the respective District Engineers. Regular aids to navigation are used where possible to mark the limits of the areas, and special fishing structure buoys have been established where additional markers are necessary. These special buoys are designated in paragraphs (e) (f), and (g) of this section as S "1B", S "1W", and S "1N" for the Baltimore, Washington, and Norfolk Districts, respectively.

(2) The approach to the mouth of any navigable tributary or to the mouth of any navigable branch of any tributary shall be left free and unobstructed by fishing structures. Where limit lines are not prescribed, the free and unobstructed approach shall lie along the channel usually followed by boats and shall have a width of not less than one-third of the width of the mouth of the tributary or branch.

(4) No fishing structures shall be placed within 500 feet of any buoy or other aid to navigation (fishing structure buoys excepted) placed or maintained by the United States Coast Guard.

(5) No fishing structures shall be placed within 200 feet of the edges of dredged channels.

(6) Nothing in the regulations in this section shall supersede any danger zone regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Army for Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries. (See Part 204 of this chapter. Copies of these regulations can be secured from the District Engineer in charge of the locality or from the commanding officer of the using agency.)

(7) In paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) of this section the geographic positions of a sufficient number of control points to describe the approved fishing limits accurately are given. Positions of intermediate fishing structure buoys and aids to navigation marking the approved fishing limits which are not given may be located by referring to the charts. The control points listed are connected by straight lines unless otherwise indicated. Aids to navigation used as control points may be renumbered or shifted by the United States Coast Guard. In such cases the fishing limits do not change and the location of the control point remains fixed at the geographic position given.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 3—ADJUDICATION; DISALLOWANCE AND AWARDS

APPLICATION FOR INCREASE BASED UPON CHANGED PHYSICAL CONDITION

1. In § 3.1216, paragraphs (b) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.1216 Application for increase based upon changed physical condition. * * *

(b) Statement by private physician. A statement by a private physician showing increased disability submitted by or on behalf of a veteran for the purpose of obtaining increased benefits may be accepted as an informal claim and payments awarded from the date of receipt of the evidence, if otherwise in order: Provided, That the findings contained therein are subsequently verified by an official Veterans' Administration examination.

(c) Physical examination reports, clinical records and transcripts of records received from State, county, municipal and recognized private institutions and contract hospitals. Generally, physical examination reports, clinical records and transcripts of records from State, county, municipal and recognized private institutions and contract hospitals relative to veterans undergoing treatment or domiciled therein, whether by the Veterans' Administration or otherwise, will be accorded the same consideration for the purpose of rating claims for compensation or pension as though the records were received from a Veterans' Administration field station. These records, however, must present the essentials upon which ratings are to be founded, that is the disabling conditions must be adequately identified; sufficient findings must be reported to permit proper evaluation of the condition, and they must be certified by chief medical officers or their physician designates. As to private institutions, the hospitals listed in the hospital number of "The Journal" of The American Medical Association (usually published in April of each year) and followed by the symbol consisting of a shaded triangle are recognized. This symbol indicates that the hospital has been approved by The American College of Surgeons as meeting unconditionally its minimum requirements for general standardization. If the name of the private hospital at which the veteran was examined or treated does not appear on the approved list, the chief medical officer or his physician designate will be requested to advise whether the hospital meets the minimum requirements for the care and treatment of Veterans' Administration patients and for hospital facilities as prescribed in current directives of the Department of Medicine and Surgery. Depending upon the advice of the chief medical officer or his physician designate, the report will be accepted or corroborative examination by the Veterans' Administration requested. It is to be understood that such records, in those instances where maintenance is not at the expense of the Veterans' Administration, should not be accepted as claims for increase if they are routinely submitted, but only where there is an indication that they are being submitted for the purpose of claiming increased benefits.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 9; 38 U. S. C. 704)

Executive Administrator of Veterans' Affairs.

§ 72.24 Shellfish. A person shall not offer for transportation, or transport, in interstate traffic any shellfish handled or stored in such an insanitary manner, or grown in an area so contaminated, as to render such shellfish likely to become agents in, and their transportation likely to contribute to, the spread of communicable disease from one State or possession to another.

3. Paragraph (a) of § 72.164 is amended to read as follows:

4. Paragraph (f) of § 72.165 is amended to read as follows:

§ 72.165 Milk, milk products, and shellfish. * * *

(Sec. 361, 58 Stat. 703; 42 U. S. C. 264)

The foregoing amendments, further implementing the provisions of section 361 of the Public Health Service Act, 58 Stat. 703; 42 U. S. C. 264, are issued principally for the purpose of preventing the spread of communicable disease from one State or possession to another insofar as the danger of such spread arises from the sanitary conditions under which shellfish are grown, handled, or stored. Notice of proposed rule-making in connection with these amendments was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 4, 1948 (13 F. R. 4483), and the hearing referred to therein was held at the announced time and place.

Effective date. The foregoing amendments shall become effective thirty days after their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SEC. 2. Limit of acreage for which entry may be made or water secured. The public lands covered by this notice have been divided into farm units. Each of the farm units represents the acreage which, in the opinion of the Secretary of the Interior, may reasonably be required for the support of a family upon such land. The areas in the different units are fixed at the amounts shown upon the farm unit plats referred to in section 1 of this notice. The maximum acreage of land in private ownership for which application for delivery of water may be made is 160 acres of irrigable land for each landowner.

PREFERENCE RIGHTS OF VETERANS OF WORLD WAR II

SEC. 3. Nature of preference. The law provides that when public lands are opened to entry, preference shall be given to applications which are made by veterans of World War II (and in some cases by their wives or husbands or guardians of minor children) and which are filed within 90 days after the opening of the lands. The five classes of persons who are entitled to this veterans' preference are set forth in section 4 of this notice.

Therefore, applications for farm units on lands covered by this notice which are made by persons coming within one of the five classes listed in section 4 of this notice will be given first consideration if submitted before December 20, 1948.

In order to be eligible to receive farm units, all applicants, whether or not entitled to veterans' preference, must possess the necessary qualifications as to industry, experience, character, capital, and physical fitness (see section 8 of this notice) and (except for duly appointed guardians) must be qualified to make entry under the homestead laws.

SEC. 4. Persons entitled to veterans' preference. The classes of persons who are entitled to the veterans' preference described in section 3 of this notice are as follows:

(a) Persons, including those under 21 years of age, who have served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States for a period of at least 90 days at any time on or after September 16, 1940, and prior to the termination of World War II, and have been honorably discharged.

(b) Persons, including those under 21 years of age, who have served in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard during the period described in subsection (a) of this section, regardless of length of service, and who have been discharged on account of wounds received or disability incurred during such period in the line of duty, or, subsequent to a regular discharge, have been furnished hospitalization or awarded compensation by the government on account of such wounds or disability.

(c) The spouse of any person in either of the first two classes listed in this section, if the spouse has the consent of such person to exercise his or her preference right. (See section 11 of this notice regarding provision that a married woman must be head of a family.)

(d) The surviving spouse of any person in either of the first two classes listed in this section, or in the case of the death or marriage of such spouse, the minor child or children of such person, by a guardian duly appointed and officially accredited at the Department of the Interior.

(e) The surviving spouse of any person whose death has resulted from wounds received or disability incurred in line of duty while serving in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard during the period described in subsection (a) of this section, or in the case of the death or marriage of such spouse, the minor child or children of such person, by a guardian duly appointed and officially accredited at the Department of the Interior.

SEC. 5. Definition of honorable discharge. An honorable discharge means:

(a) Separation from the service by means of an honorable discharge or a discharge under honorable conditions;

(b) Transfer with honorable service from such service to a reserve or retired status prior to the termination of the war; or

(c) Ending of the period of war service by reason of the termination of the war, even though the veteran remains in the military or naval service of the United States.

SEC. 6. Submission of proof of veterans' status. All applicants for farm units who claim veterans' preference must attach to their applications a photostatic, certified or authenticated complete copy (both sides) of an official document of the respective branch of the service which shows clearly an honorable discharge, as defined in section 5 of this notice, or constitutes evidence of other facts on which the claim for preference is based, and which clearly shows the period of service.

If the preference is claimed by a surviving spouse or on behalf of the minor child or children of a deceased veteran, proof of the relationship asserted and of the veteran's service and death must be attached to the application. If the preference is claimed by the spouse of a living veteran, proof of such relationship and of the veteran's service and written consent to the exercise of the preference right must be attached to the application.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED BY THE RECLAMATION AND HOMESTEAD LAWS

SEC. 7. Examining Board. An examining board of five members, including the District Operations Superintendent of the Klamath District, Bureau of Reclamation, who will act as secretary of the board, has been approved by the Commissioner of Reclamation to determine the qualifications and fitness of applicants to undertake the development and operation of a farm on the Klamath Project. The board will make careful investigations to verify the statements made by applicants. Any false statement may constitute grounds for rejection of an application, cancelation of award or cancelation of an entry.

SEC. 8. Minimum qualifications. This section sets forth the minimum qualifications which are necessary to give reasonable assurance of success of an entryman or entrywoman on a reclamation farm unit. Applicants must, in the judgment of the examining board, meet these qualifications in order to be considered for entry. Failure to meet them in any single respect will be sufficient cause for rejection of an application. No credit will be given for qualifications in excess of the required minimum.

The minimum qualifications are as follows:

(a) Character and industry. An applicant must be possessed of honesty, temperate habits, thrift, industry, seriousness of purpose, record of good moral conduct, and a bona fide intent to engage in farming as an occupation.

(b) Farm experience. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, an applicant must have had a minimum of two years (24 months) full-time farm experience, which shall consist of participation in actual farming operations, after attaining the age of 15 years. Time spent in agricultural courses in an accredited agricultural college or time spent in work closely associated with farming, such as teaching vocational agriculture, agricultural extension work, or field work in the production or marketing of farm products, which, in the opinion of the board, will be of value to an applicant in operating a farm, may be substituted for full-time farm experience. Such substitution shall be on the basis of one year (academic year of at least nine months) of agricultural college courses or one year (twelve months) of work closely associated with farming for six months of full-time farm experience. Not more than one year of full-time farm experience of this type will be allowed. A farm youth who actually resided and worked on a farm after attaining the age of 15 and while attending school may credit such experience as full-time experience.

Applicants who have acquired their experience on an irrigated farm will not be given preference over those whose experience was acquired on a non-irrigated farm, but all applicants must have had farm experience of such a nature as, in the judgment of the examining board, will qualify the applicant to undertake the development and operation of an irrigated farm by modern methods.

(c) Health. An applicant must be in such physical condition as will enable him to engage in normal farm labor. Any person who is physically handicapped or afflicted with any condition which makes such ability questionable must attach to his or her application the detailed statement of an examining physician which defines the limitation upon such ability and its causes.

(d) Capital. An applicant must possess at least $2,000, consisting of cash or assets readily convertible into cash, or assets such as livestock, farm machinery and equipment, which, in the opinion of the board, will be useful in the development and operation of a new, irrigated farm. In considering the practical value of property which will be useful in the development of a farm, the board will not value household goods at more than $500 or a passenger car at more than $500. If the applicant proposes to convert items into cash, total cash value should be shown with a full explanation.

An applicant shall furnish in section 10 of the farm application blank a financial statement listing all of his assets and all of his liabilities. Prior to the issuance of a certificate of qualification, and not later than at the time of the personal interview, the applicant will be required to corroborate his statement of net worth by the statement of an officer of a bank or other responsible and reputable credit agency or by other proof satisfactory to the board.

SEC. 9. References. (a) An applicant shall list in section 12 of the farm application blank the names, occupations, positions or titles and complete, current addresses of five persons who are qualified and willing to give their frank opinions as to the applicant's personal qualifications and farm experience. Persons named as references must be responsible citizens who are permanent residents in their communities.

At least one of these five persons must be an agricultural leader who now holds one or more of the following positions: County Agent; Farmers Home Administration County Supervisor; Production and Marketing Administration County Committeeman; Soil Conservationist; Vocational Agriculture Teacher; manager or agricultural representative of an agricultural marketing or processing association or institution; loan officer or agricultural representative of a credit agency or institution in an agricultural community, or an officer of any recognized farm organization.

The other four persons named as references may be successful farmers who own and operate their own farms and are well known in the community where the farm experience was acquired.

Persons in occupations other than those listed in this subsection and relatives of the applicant are not acceptable.

(b) The applicant shall also be responsible for furnishing to at least three of the five persons listed in section 12 of the farm application blank the reference forms provided with this notice and for the return by these persons to the board of three complete, signed statements. At least one of these three statements must be prepared and signed by one of the agricultural leaders listed in subsection (a) of this section.

SEC. 10. Restriction on ownership of project lands. Applicants for farm units must not hold or own, within any Federal reclamation project, irrigable land for which construction charges payable to the United States have not been fully paid, except that this restriction does not apply to small tracts used exclusively for residential purposes.

Prior to the issuance of a certificate of qualification and not later than the time of the personal interview, an applicant who owns lands in a Federal reclamation project must furnish satisfactory evidence that the total construction charges allocated against the land owned by the applicant have been paid in full.

SEC. 11. Principal qualifications required by homestead laws. All applicants (except guardians) must meet the requirements of the homestead laws. The homestead laws require that an entryman or entrywoman:

(a) Must be a citizen of the United States or have declared an intention to become a citizen of the United States;

(b) Must not have exhausted the right to make homestead entry on public lands;

(c) Must not own more than 160 acres of land in the United States;

(d) Must, if a married woman, or a person under 21 years of age who is not eligible for veterans' preference, be the head of a family. The head of a family is ordinarily the husband, but a wife or a minor child who is obliged to assume major responsibility for the support of a family may be the head of the family. Any applicant who is required to be the head of a family must submit with the application evidence of such status which is satisfactory to the board. Complete information concerning qualifications for homesteading may be obtained from District Land Offices or from the Bureau of Land Management, Washington 25, D. C.

WHEN, WHERE AND HOW TO APPLY FOR A FARM UNIT

SEC. 12. Application blanks. Any person desiring to enter any of the public land farm units described in this notice must fill out the attached farm application blank. Additional application blanks may be obtained from the Bureau of Reclamation, P. O. Box 312 (Building 61, Municipal Airport), Klamath Falls, Oregon; the Regional Director, Bureau of Reclamation, P. O. Box 2511, Sacramento, California, or the Commissioner of Reclamation, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C. Full and frank answers must be made to each question on the farm application blank.

SEC. 13. The filing of application and supporting evidence. An application for a certificate of qualification for a farm unit listed in this notice must be filed with the District Manager, Bureau of Reclamation, P. O. Box 312 (Building 61, Municipal Airport), Klamath Falls, Oregon, in person or by mail. No advantage will accrue to an applicant who presents an application in person. Every application must be accompanied by:

(a) Proof of veteran's status if veteran's preference is claimed (see section 6 of this notice).

(b) Statement of examining physician, in case of disability (see subsection 8 (c) of this notice).

(c) Evidence of citizenship or of declared intention if applicant is not native-born (see subsection 11 (a) of this notice).

(d) Evidence of status as head of a family if applicant is a married woman or a non-veteran under the age of 21 (see subsection 11 (d) of this notice).

The applicant also must see that three of his references submit complete signed statements of his qualifications (see subsection 9 (b) of this notice).

SEC. 14. Applications become Department records. Each application submitted, including corroborating evidence, will become a part of the permanent records of the Department of the Interior.

and cannot be returned to the applicant. For this reason, original discharge or citizenship papers should not be submitted. In case an applicant is awarded a farm his discharge papers will be attached to his certificate of eligibility (see section 22 of this notice) for submission to the Bureau of Land Management.

SEC. 15. Importance of complete applications. It shall be the sole responsibility of an applicant to submit a complete application, including the corroborating evidence required by this notice. Failure of an applicant to provide complete answers to all questions in the farm application blank within the periods specified in this notice, or failure to provide all other information required by this notice, will subject an application to rejection.

SELECTION OF QUALIFIED APPLICANTS

SEC. 16. Priority of applications. All applications will be classified for priority purposes and considered in the following order:

(a) First priority group. All complete applications filed prior to 2:00 p. m., December 20, 1948, which are accompanied by proof sufficient, in the opinion of the examining board, to establish eligibility for veterans' preference. All such applications will be treated as simultaneously filed.

(b) Second priority group. All complete applications filed prior to 2:00 p. m., December 20, 1948, from applicants without veterans' preference or which are not accompanied by proof sufficient, in the opinion of the examining board, to establish eligibility for veterans' preference. All such applications will be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Final group. All complete applications filed after 2:00 p. m., December 20, 1948, whether or not accompanied by proof of veterans' preference. Such applications will be considered in the order in which they are filed if any farm units are available for award to applicants within this group.

SEC. 17. Preliminary examination to determine first priority group, right of appeal. Each application will be examined for the purpose of ascertaining (a) that the application is complete; (b) that all of the corroborating evidence required by this notice to be submitted in advance of the drawing has been furnished; and (c) that the applicant's right to veteran's preference has been fully established. Any incomplete application or any application not accompanied by the required corroborating evidence will be rejected. Any applicant claiming veteran's preference but failing to establish proof of eligibility for such preference shall be placed in the second priority group.

In case of rejection or placement in the second priority group, the applicant shall be notified by the board by registered mail, with return receipt requested, of such rejection or placement; the reasons therefor, and of the right to appeal in writing to the Regional Director, Bureau of Reclamation. All appeals must be received in the office of the District Manager, Bureau of Reclamation, P. O. Box 312 (Building 61, Municipal Airport), Klamath Falls, Oregon, within 15 days of the applicant's receipt of such notice, or, in any event, within 30 days from the date when the notice is mailed to the last address furnished by the applicant. The District Manager will forward the appeals promptly to the Regional Director. If an appeal is decided by the Regional Director in favor of the applicant, the application will be referred to the board for inclusion in the drawing. All decisions on appeals will be based exclusively on information obtained prior to rejection of the application or placement in the second priority group. The Regional Director's decision on all appeals shall be final.

SEC. 18. Public drawing. After the expiration of the appeal periods fixed by the above-mentioned notices and after decisions on all appeals, the board will conduct a public drawing of the names of the applicants remaining in the First Priority Group as defined in subsection 16 (a) of this notice. Applicant need not be present at the drawing in order to participate therein. The names of a sufficient number of applicants (not less than three times the number of farm units to be awarded) shall be drawn and numbered consecutively in the order drawn for the purpose of establishing the order in which the applications drawn will be further examined by the board to determine whether the applicants meet the minimum qualifications prescribed in this notice, and to establish the priority of qualified applicants for the selection of farm units. After such drawing, the board shall notify each applicant of his respective standing as a result of the drawing.

SEC. 19. Final examination. The board shall examine, in the order drawn, a sufficient number of applications to determine the applicants to whom the farm units will be awarded. This examination will determine the sufficiency, authenticity and reliability of the information and evidence submitted by the applicants. If such examination indicates that an applicant is qualified, such applicant shall be so notified and shall be required to submit the statement of a credit agency corroborating his statement relative to his net worth, described in subsection 8 (d) of this notice, and if an applicant owns land on a Federal reclamation project, satisfactory evidence that all construction charges against such land have been paid as required in section 10 of this notice.

The applicant may be required to appear for a personal interview with the board for the purpose of: (a) Affording the board any additional information it may desire relative to his qualifications; (b) affording the applicant any information desired relative to conditions in the area and the problems and obligations relative to development of a farm unit; and (c) affording the applicant an opportunity to examine the farm units.

If the board finds that an applicant's qualifications fulfill the requirements prescribed in this notice, such applicant shall be notified, in person or by registered mail, that he is a successful applicant and shall be given an opportunity to select one of the farm units then available. If the board finds that an applicant's qualifications do not meet the requirements prescribed in this notice, or if he fails to supply the corroborating evidence, the applicant shall be disqualified and shall be notified by the board, by registered mail, of such disqualification and the reasons therefor and of the right to appeal to the Regional Director as prescribed in section 17 of this notice.

SELECTION OF FARM UNITS

SEC. 20. Order of selection. The applicants who have been notified of their qualification for the award of a farm unit will successively exercise the right to select a farm unit in accordance with the priority established by the drawing. If a farm unit becomes available through failure of a successful applicant to exercise his right of selection or failure to complete his entry filing with the Bureau of Land Management, it will be offered to the next qualified applicant in accordance with the priority established by the drawing. An applicant who is considered to be disqualified as a result of the personal interview, will be permitted to exercise his right to select, notwithstanding his disqualification, unless he voluntarily surrenders this right in writing. If, on appeal, the action of the board in disqualifying an applicant as a result of the personal interview is reversed by the Regional Director, the applicant's selection shall be effective, but if such action of the board is upheld by the Regional Director, the farm unit selected by this applicant will become available for selection by successful applicants who have not exercised their right to select.

If any of the farm units listed in this notice remain unselected after all qualified applicants whose names were selected in the drawing have had an opportunity to select a farm unit, and if additional applicants remain in the First Priority Group, the board will follow the same procedure outlined in section 18 of this notice in the selection of additional applicants from this group.

If any of the farm units remain unselected after all qualified applicants in the First Priority Group have had an opportunity to select a farm unit, the board will follow the same procedure to select applicants from the Second Priority Group and they will be permitted to exercise their right to select a farm unit in the manner prescribed for the successful applicants from the First Priority Group.

Any farm units remaining unselected after all qualified applicants in the Second Priority Group have had an opportunity to select a farm unit will be offered to applicants in the Final Group in the order in which their applications were filed, subject to the determination of the board, made in accordance with the procedure prescribed herein, that such applicants meet the minimum qualifications prescribed in this notice.

SEC. 21. Failure to select. If any applicant refuses to select a farm unit or fails to do so within the time specified by the board, such applicant shall forfeit his position in his priority group and his name shall be placed last in that group.

SEC. 22. Payment of charges and filing homestead applications. After each successful applicant has advised the board of his selection of a farm unit he shall be notified by the board of the annual construction, water rental, or other charges, payment of which must be received at the office of the District Manager, Bureau of Reclamation, P. O. Box 312 (Building 61, Municipal Airport), Klamath Falls, Oregon, within 15 days of the receipt by the applicant of such notice. Upon receipt by the District Manager of such payment from the applicant before the expiration of said 15-day period, the board shall furnish each applicant, by registered mail or by delivery in person, a certificate of eligibility stating that the applicant's qualifications to enter public lands have been examined and approved by the board. Such certificate must be attached by the applicant to the homestead application, which application must be filed at the District Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Sacramento, California. Such homestead application must be filed within 15 days from the date of the receipt by the applicant of such certificate. Failure to pay the annual construction, water rental or other charges required and to make application for homestead entry within the period specified herein will render the application subject to rejection.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 23. Warning against unlawful settlement. No person shall be permitted to gain or exercise any right under any settlement or occupation of any of the public lands covered by this notice except under the terms and conditions prescribed by this notice.

SEC. 24. Charges payable by all water users. The Reclamation Law provides that except during a "development period" fixed by the Secretary of the Interior, water may not be delivered for the irrigation of lands until an organization, satisfactory in form and powers to the Secretary, has entered into a contract with the United States providing for the repayment of the project construction costs which are allocated to such irrigated lands. The lands described in section 1 of this public notice are hereby designated a development unit, and the maximum development period for the lands so designated is fixed at a period of four years from and including the first year in which water is delivered; Provided, That such period may be reduced by supplemental notice should the Secretary determine that the full four-year period is not reasonably necessary. Before the end of the development period, all lands described in section 1 must, therefore, be included within an organization of the type described and such organization must execute a joint-liability contract, satisfactory in form to the Secretary, covering the repayment of the construction costs allocated to such lands.

(a) Charges payable before execution of the repayment contract. The minimum water rental charge for the irrigation season of 1949 and thereafter until further notice shall be three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per acre for each irrigable acre of land in the farm unit, whether water is used or not, which will entitle the entryman to two and one half (2½) acre-feet of water per irrigable acre. Payment of this charge for the irrigation season of 1949 shall be made at the time of filing water rental applications.

Additional water will be furnished during the 1949 irrigation season and thereafter until further notice up to a limit of three and one half (3½) acre-feet per irrigable acre at the rate of one dollar ($1.00) per acre-foot and all further quantities at one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20) per acre-foot. Charges for the additional water are to be paid on or before December 1 of the year in which used. No water shall be delivered to the water user in subsequent years until all such charges have been paid in full.

In the event any applicant does not receive notice of the award of a farm unit until after June 15, 1949, payment shall be a minimum charge of three dollars and fifty cents ($3.50) per acre, which payment shall apply as a credit on the minimum charge for the following irrigation season.

The foregoing charges are subject to all provisions of the Federal Reclamation Law relative to collections and penalties for delinquencies. The charges will be paid at the office of the Bureau of Reclamation, Klamath Falls, Oregon. Future charges will be announced by future order or public notice.

(b) Charges payable after execution of the repayment contract—(1) Part 1, Tule Lake Division. Subsequent to the execution of the repayment contract, and in accordance with the terms thereof, water users will pay an annual charge per acre to meet operation and maintenance cost and to pay the government that portion of the construction cost allocated to Part 1, Tule Lake Division. The per acre construction charge to be included in said repayment contract shall be in an amount determined proper by the Secretary, but not to exceed a total per acre charge of $88.35, payable over a 40-year period.

(2) Part 2, Tule Lake Division. Subsequent to the execution of the repayment contract, and in accordance with the terms thereof, water users will pay an annual charge per acre to meet operation and maintenance costs and to repay to the government that portion of the construction costs allocated to Part 2, Tule Lake Division. On the date of issue of this public notice, it is impracticable to determine the total construction cost of Part 2, Tule Lake Division Distributary system, the allocation of costs to Part 2, Tule Lake Division of the Klamath Reclamation Project, and the ultimate water-service area of the Division. Accordingly, no exact statement as to the total and per acre construction charge be made against the lands opened in this public notice is practicable. When the total construction charge has been determined and allocated by the Secretary of the Interior, and a repayment contract negotiated with the irrigation district, a supplementary notice announcing the total and per acre charges will be issued.

SEC. 25. Reservation of rights-of-way for public roads. Rights-of-way are reserved for County, State, and Federal highways and access roads to the farm units shown on said plats along section lines and other lines shown in red on the farm plats.

SEC. 26. Reservation of rights-of-way for publicly owned utilities. Rights-of-way are reserved for government-owned telephone, electric transmission, water and sewer lines, and water treating and pumping plants, as now constructed, and the Secretary of the Interior reserves the right to locate such other government-owned facilities over and across the farm units above described as hereafter, in his opinion, may be necessary for the proper construction, operation, and maintenance of the said project.

SEC. 27. Waiver of mineral rights. All homestead entries for the above-described farm units will be subject to the laws of the United States governing mineral land, and all homestead applicants under this notice must waive the right to the mineral content of the land, if required to do so by the Bureau of Land Management; otherwise, the homestead applications will be rejected or the homestead entry or entries cancelled.

SEC. 28. Effects of cancellation of entry by relinquishment. In the event that any entry of public land made hereunder is cancelled by relinquishment at any time prior to full compliance with the homestead laws, the lands in the entry so relinquished shall become available to entry by the next numbered qualified applicant who will be treated as a standing applicant therefor under this notice. Such applicant shall be required to furnish such additional information as may be necessary to satisfy the board that he is still qualified under the terms of this notice.

SEC. 29. Opportunity of leasing. The farm units listed in section 1 of this notice under Part 1, Tule Lake Division, are less well developed than the other farm units listed. Accordingly, to afford the opportunity of a more adequate income during the development period of the farm unit, each entryman awarded one of the above-described farm units will be offered the right to lease, for one-year periods not to exceed a total of three years, a lease unit of approximately 75 acres in the Tule Lake reserve sump area known as lease area B–2.

SEC. 30. Flood hazard. The lands to be entered in Part 2 of the Tule Lake Division are reclaimed lands lying in the former bed of Tule Lake and may be subject to flooding and inundation during extremely wet years. The Bureau of Reclamation is now engaged in the construction of additional works which, when completed, will provide reasonable flood protection. Settlers are warned, however, that in case of extreme run-off resulting in the flooding of any of the lands, the government assumes no responsibility for damage to persons or property caused by such flooding.

Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

[Docket No. E-6162]

NEW YORK STATE ELECTRIC AND GAS CORP.

ORDER SUSPENDING RATE SCHEDULE AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 8, 1948.

It appears to the Commission that:

(a) New York State Electric and Gas Corporation (New York Company) submitted for filing on August 12, 1948[2] a supplemental agreement dated June 21, 1948, proposed to become effective May 24, 1948, with its affiliate, Pennsylvania Electric Company (Pennsylvania Electric). The supplemental agreement has been tentatively designated as Supplement No. 3 to New York Company's Rate Schedule FPC No. 10.

(b) New York Company's proposed Supplement No. 3 to Rate Schedule FPC No. 10 provides for a substantial increase in rates or charges for power and energy delivered by New York Company to Pennsylvania Electric's Bradford District.

(c) Unless suspended by order of the Commission, the rate schedule of New York Company with the tentative designation referred to in paragraph (a), above, would become effective as of September 12, 1948, pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act and the general rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(d) The change in rates or charges provided by the New York Company's tentatively designated Supplement No. 3 to Rate Schedule FPC No. 10, may result in excessive rates or charges to Pennsylvania Electric; may place an undue burden upon ultimate consumers of such electric energy; may be discriminatory; and may result in increased rates or charges which have not been shown to be justified.

(e) By letter dated August 27, 1948, the Chairman of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has requested "that operation of the supplemental agreement * * * be suspended until the staff of this Commission has had an opportunity to review the matter in conference with members of the Federal Power Commission Staff."

The Commission finds that: It is necessary, desirable and in the public interest that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the proposed rates or charges and that said proposed rates or charges be suspended pending such hearing and decision thereon.

The Commission orders that:

(A) A public hearing be held commencing November 15, 1948, at 10:00 a. m. (e. s. t.) in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the lawfulness of the rates or charges provided for in New York Company's proposed rate schedule identified in paragraph (a) above.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, the supplemental rate schedule referred to in paragraph (a) above be and the same hereby is suspended and the use of such rates or charges deferred until February 12, 1949, and thereafter such rate schedule shall go into effect in the manner prescribed by the Commission in accordance with the Federal Power Act.

(C) During the period of suspension the rates or charges heretofore in effect under the rate schedule on file with the Commission for service to Pennsylvania Electric by New York Company shall remain and continue in effect.

(D) At such hearing, the burden of proof to show that the proposed rates or charges are just and reasonable shall be upon New York Company.

(E) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by Rules 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's general rules and regulations, including rules of practice and procedure dated January 1, 1948 (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)).

Date of issuance: September 9, 1948.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Regs., Serial No. ER-132]

PART 202—ACCOUNTS, RECORDS, AND REPORTS

FORMS OF REPORTS OF FINANCIAL AND OPERATING STATISTICS; AIR FREIGHT FORWARDERS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C. on the 8th day of September 1948.

The requirements of § 202.1 are not at present applicable to air freight forwarders since that section does not expressly so provide. The proposed section would expressly require reports of certain specified data and statistics, and information on insurance by air freight forwarders.

The purpose of this amendment is to specify the details of these reporting requirements for air freight forwarders.

The amendment of § 202.1 (d) of the Economic Regulations as set forth below, requires the submission of a statistical report containing both financial data and data concerning property shipments and a statement on the amount of insurance in effect with respect to an air freight forwarder's operations.

These requirements are designed to secure information which will enable the Board to evaluate the service rendered by these carriers and thus aid in the administration of the act. Insofar as reports on insurance are concerned they will assist in the enforcement of the act.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, in connection with the Board's Draft Release No. 22 dated October 15, 1947, and full consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends § 202.1 of the Economic Regulations effective October 15, 1948, as follows:

1. By adding a paragraph § 202.1 (d) to read as follows:

§ 202.1 Reports of financial and operating statistics. • • •

(d) Air freight forwarders. (1) Air freight forwarders operating during any portion of the quarter ending December 31, 1948 and subsequent to the filing of applications for letters of registration shall file a statistical report on or before January 31, 1949 in the form and manner herein prescribed. Thereafter, air freight forwarders holding letters of registration, whether or not actually engaged in air freight forwarder operations, shall file statistical reports for each succeeding calendar quarter. Such reports shall be filed within 30 days after the termination of each calendar quarter and shall be certified to be correct by a responsible officer of the reporting air freight forwarder. Such statistical report shall contain the following data:

(i) Balance Sheet, prepared in accordance with accepted practices.

Section 202.3 does not contain any provision for the preservation of records by air freight forwarders who are being authorized to operate for the first time by virtue of the adoption of § 292.6 of Economic Regulations concurrently herewith.

It is the purpose of this amendment to require the retention and preservation of certain basic documents evidencing air freight forwarding operations in order to assist the Board in the enforcement of the new regulation.

PART 292—CLASSIFICATIONS AND EXEMPTIONS

AIR FREIGHT FORWARDERS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of September 1948.

At the present time indirect air carriers of property only (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "air freight forwarders") are prohibited from engaging in any air transportation, direct or indirect, unless there is in force a certificate issued by the Board authorizing such carriers to engage in such transportation.

The purpose of this regulation is to establish a classification of indirect air carriers to be designated "Air Freight Forwarders", and, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth, to relieve such air carriers from the prohibition above referred to and from certain other provisions of the act.

Based upon the findings set forth in the Board's opinion in the Air Freight Forwarder case (Docket No. 681) issued concurrently herewith, to which reference is hereby made and such opinion incorporated herein as though set forth in full, the Board finds that it is in the public interest to relieve such air carriers from the provisions of the act to the extent and for the periods hereinafter set out.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this regulation, and full consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 292 of the Economic Regulations by adding thereto a new § 292.6 effective October 15, 1948, reading as follows:

§ 292.6 Air freight forwarders—(a) Classification. There is hereby established a classification of air carriers who are not directly engaged in the operation of aircraft in air transportation (herein referred to as "indirect air carriers") to be designated as "air freight forwarders." An air freight forwarder shall be defined to mean any person engaging indirectly in air transportation of property only, and who, in the ordinary and usual course of his undertaking (1) assembles and consolidates or provides for assembling and consolidating of such property and performs or provides for the performance of break-bulk and distributing operations with respect to such consolidated shipments, (2) assumes responsibility for the transportation of such property from the point of receipt to point of destination, and (3) utilizes for the whole or any part of the transportation of such shipments, the services of a direct air carrier subject to the act.

(b) Exemption. Subject to the other provisions of this section, air freight forwarders are hereby relieved from the provisions of Title VI of the act and from all provisions of Title IV of the act, other than the following:

(1) Subsection 401 (1) (Compliance with labor legislation);

(2) Section 403 (Tariffs);

(3) Subsection 404 (a) (Carrier's duty to provide service, etc.), insofar as said subsection requires air carriers to provide safe service, equipment, and facilities in connection with air transportation, and to establish, observe, and endorse just and reasonable individual rates, fares and charges, and just and reasonable classifications, rules, regulations and practices relating to air transportation;

(4) Subsection 404 (b) (Discrimination);

(5) Subsection 407 (a) (Filing of reports): Provided, That no provision of any rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation prescribed pursuant to said subsection 407 (a) shall be applicable to air freight forwarders unless such rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation expressly so provides;

(6) Subsection 407 (b) (Disclosure of stock ownership);

(7) Subsection 407 (c) (Disclosure of stock ownership by officers or directors);

(8) Subsection 407 (d) (Form of accounts): Provided, That no provision of any rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation prescribed pursuant to said subsection 407 (d) shall be applicable to air freight forwarders unless such rule, regulation, term, condition, or limitation expressly so provides;

(9) Subsection 407 (e) (Inspection of accounts and property);

(10) Section 408 (Consolidation, merger, and acquisition of control);

(16) Section 414 (Legal restraints);

(17) Section 415 ((Inquiry into air carrier management); and

(18) Section 416 (Classification and exemption of carriers).

(c) Duration. The temporary authority provided by this section shall continue in effect until such time as the Board shall find that the exemption accorded herein is no longer in the public interest, but in no event longer than five years from the effective date of this regulation.

(d) Limitations—(1) Use of aircraft. In respect to operations conducted pursuant to the authority provided in this section no air freight forwarder shall ship property by air except upon aircraft operated in common carriage (i) by Small Irregular Carriers (as defined in § 292.1 of the Economic Regulations) or (ii) by air carriers whose tariffs for the transportation services thus utilized have been filed with the Board.

(2) Prohibition. No freight forwarder shall ship property as an air carrier in air transportation except between places in the continental United States.

(e) Letters of registration—(1) Necessity for letter of registration. No person shall engage in air transportation pursuant to the exemption granted by this section unless there is in force with respect to such person a letter of registration issued by the Board.

(2) Application for letter of registration. Any person other than those specified in paragraph (h) of this section desiring to engage in operations as an air freight forwarder may apply to the Board for a letter of registration authorizing the conduct of such operations. Such application shall be submitted in duplicate in letter form, shall be certified to by a responsible official of such carrier as being correct, and shall contain the following information: (i) date; (ii) name; (iii) mailing address; (iv) location of principal office; (v) if a corporation, the place of incorporation, the name and citizenship of officers and directors, and a statement that at least 75 per centum of the voting interest is owned or controlled by persons who are citizens of the United States or one of its possessions; (vi) the names of the largest stockholders, not exceeding 20, who hold, individually, 1 percent or more of the voting capital stock of the applicant; (vii) if an individual or partnership, the name and citizenship of the owner or partners, and a statement of the respective interests of each; (viii) a financial statement showing assets and liabilities as of the date of the application, and a statement showing the types and the amount of insurance, if any, which is in force for the protection of the forwarder's customers, employees, and the public and the name or names of the insurer; (ix) whether or not any of the persons required to be listed under subdivisions (v), (vi), and (vii) of this subparagraph has at any time been issued, either in his own name or some other name, any letter of registration or other license or operating authority by the Board, either as an irregular air carrier or air freight forwarder or otherwise, or is, or has been, affiliated as owner, partner, officer, director or stockholder holding a controlling interest, with any other air carrier or carriers, either certificated or noncertificated, direct or indirect, together with the names of such other air carrier or carriers; (x) a statement that the reports describing the shares of stock or other interests held by each officer and each director in any air carrier, in any person engaged in any phase of aeronautics, or in any common carrier, and in any person whose principal business, in purpose or fact, is the holding of stock in, or control of, air carriers, other persons engaged in any form of aeronautics, or common carriers, have been filed as required by § 280.1 of the Economic Regulations; and (xi) such other additional information pertinent to applicant's activities as may be requested by the Board with respect to any individual application.

(3) Issuance of letter of registration. (i) If, after the filing of an application for a letter of registration, it appears that the conduct of air freight forwarder operations by the applicant will not be inconsistent with the public interest the applicant will be notified and advised that upon the filing of a valid tariff a letter of registration will be issued to such applicant. Subject to the restrictions provided herein and upon the receipt by the Board of such a valid tariff a letter of registration shall forthwith be issued to the applicant. If it appears that the granting of such letter may not be consistent with the public interest, the Board shall notify the applicant of its findings in this respect and will inform the applicant by letter that the Board does not believe that the applicant has made a proper showing of public interest. Thereupon, applicant may file with the Board a petition for leave to withdraw the application, or may request that the application be assigned for hearing, or may submit, within such reasonable time as may be established by the Board, such additional information as applicant believes will result in a showing of public interest.

(ii) In the event additional information is submitted, the Board on its own initiative, may assign the application for hearing or without notice or hearing enter an order of approval or an order of disapproval in accordance with its determination of the public interest.

(4) Effective period. Each letter of registration shall become effective only upon the date specified therein and shall continue in effect until suspended or revoked, or during such period as the authority provided by this section shall remain in effect.

(5) Restrictions on issuance of letter of registration. No letter of registration will be issued to any freight forwarder which has, or proposes to have, as owner, partner, officer, director, or stockholder holding a controlling interest, any person who is or has been connected in any such capacity with any other air freight forwarder, irregular air carrier, or noncertificated cargo carrier, if such forwarder or carrier was subject to suspension action by the Board at the time of such connection, unless the Board finds that the public interest and applicant's intention and ability to conform to the provisions of the act and requirements thereunder are not adversely affected by such relationship or former relationship. A forwarder or carrier shall be considered to be subject to suspension action within the meaning of this provision if it conducts unauthorized operations which subsequently form the basis for Board action looking toward the revocation or suspension of its letter of registration.

(6) Conditions of a letter of registration. No air freight forwarder shall have and retain as an owner, partner, officer, director or stockholder holding a controlling interest, any person who was, or is, affiliated in any of said capacities with any other air freight forwarder, irregular air carrier or noncertificated cargo carrier under the circumstances set forth in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph unless it has been shown to the Board by such air freight forwarder, irregular air carrier or noncertificated cargo carrier, and the Board finds, that the public interest and the carrier's intention and ability to conform to the provisions of the act and requirements thereunder will not be adversely affected thereby.

(7) Nontransferability of letter of registration. A letter of registration shall be nontransferable and shall be effective only with respect to the person named therein.

(8) Suspension of letter of registration. Letters of registration shall be subject to immediate suspension when, in the opinion of the Board, such action is required in the public interest. Letters of registration shall be further subject to suspension upon complaint, or upon motion of any person showing an interest therein, or upon the Board's own initiative, after not less than 10 days' notice to the air freight forwarder, but without hearing or further proceedings, for failure to comply with the provisions of the act or with any order, rule or regulation issued thereunder, or with any term, condition or limitation of any authority issued thereunder. Such suspension shall continue until the Board finds that such suspended air freight forwarder has complied with the provisions of the act, or with such rules, regulations, orders, terms, conditions or limitations. Failure to seek reinstatement of a letter of registration suspended pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph within a period of 60 days after the effective date of such suspension shall automatically terminate all rights under such letter of registration.

(9) Revocation of letter of registration. (i) Letters of registration shall be subject to revocation, after notice and hearing, for knowing and willful violation of any provision of the act or of any order, rule, or regulation issued under any such provision or of any term, condition, or limitation of any authority issued under said act or regulations.

(ii) A letter of registration shall be revoked without prejudice upon the filing by an air freight forwarder of a written notice with the Board indicating the discontinuance of common carrier activities, together with a tender of the letter of registration for cancellation; Provided, That the Board may refuse to accept such notice or to cancel the letter if any proceeding or action is pending in which an air freight forwarder's authority may be subject to suspension or revocation action. The failure of any air freight forwarder, for two successive periods, to file the periodic reports required by the Economic Regulations, may, for the purpose of this section, be deemed by the Board to constitute the filing of such written notice indicating the discontinuance of the common carrier activities, and in such case the tender of the letter of registration shall not be necessary.

(f) Insurance—(1) Cargo. No air freight forwarder shall engage in air transportation pursuant to this section unless the risks of loss of or damage to the property so transported by it are covered in the amounts prescribed in subparagraph (3) (i) of this paragraph by insurance, a self-insurance fund or reserve, or surety bond.

(2) Public liability and property damage. No air freight forwarder shall engage in the performance of transfer, collection, or delivery services under the provisions of this section unless risks of bodily injury or death to persons or of damage to property (other than property covered by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph), resulting from the negligent operation, maintenance, or use of motor vehicles operated by it or under its direction and control, or resulting from other acts of its agents, employees and representatives in the performance of such transfer, collection, or delivery services are covered to the extent that legal liability may ensue, in the amounts prescribed in subparagraphs (3) (ii) and (iii) of this paragraph by insurance, a self-insurance fund or reserve, or surety bond.

(3) Liability limits—(i) Cargo insurance. For loss of or damage to property while carried on or resting in any one conveyance: $2,000.

(ii) Public liability; property. For loss or damage to property occurring at any one time or place: $2,000.

(iii) Public liability; personal injury. Claims for bodily injury or death: $10,000, for one person subject to that limit per person and for all persons in any one accident: $20,000.

(g) Payment of transportation charges. Freight bills from direct air carriers for all transportation charges shall be paid by every air freight forwarder within a reasonable period after the rendering of the transportation services. A reasonable maximum period for the payment of such charges shall be 7 days after being billed therefor.

(h) Nonapplicability. This section shall not apply (1) to any air carrier authorized by a certificate of public convenience and necessity to engage in air transportation, nor (2) to any noncertificated air carrier engaged in air transportation pursuant to any special or individual exemption order granted by the Board, nor (3) to any noncertificated air carrier engaged in air transportation pursuant to any general exemption granted by any other section of the Economic Regulations.

(i) Separability. If any provision of this section or the application thereof to any air transportation, person, class of persons, or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the section and the application of such provisions to other air transportation, persons, classes of persons, or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Additionally, if, after obligation of the appropriation and before delivery of the automobile or other conveyance, the veteran's claim folder is permanently transferred to another office, the appropriation obligation will be cancelled and the suspense copy of application Form 4502 will be forwarded to the Finance Officer of such other office with a notation to the effect that the appropriation obligation has been cancelled.

As soon as the original of VA Form 4502 with Section V completed, the completed invoice in duplicate, and a copy of the Sales Agreement are received, the Finance Officer will withdraw the copy of the sales agreement from the temporary file and, after satisfying himself by comparison that VA Form 4502, the sales agreement, and the invoices are in order, he will note this fact on both copies of VA Form 4502. The duplicate copy of § 10.3105 Provision for extended term insurance. (a) After the expiration of the first policy year and upon default in the payment of a premium within the grace period, if a United States Government life insurance policy on any plan other than 5-year level premium term has not been surrendered for cash or for paid-up insurance, the policy shall be extended automatically as term insurance for an amount of insurance equal to the face value of the policy less any indebtedness for such time from the due date of the premium in default as the cash value less any indebtedness will purchase when applied as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured. For this purpose the attained age is the age on the birthday anniversary nearest to the effective date of the policy plus the number of years and months from that date to the date the extended term insurance becomes effective. The extended term insurance shall be with right to dividends, payable in cash only, and with right to total permanent disability benefits. The number of monthly installments payable upon due proof of total permanent disability or death of the insured under such extended term insurance will be the same as would then be payable under the policy. The extended term insurance shall not have a loan value, but shall have a cash value.

EXTENDED TERM INSURANCE

(b) Upon default in payment of a premium within the grace period and after the effective date of this paragraph, on any plan of United States Government life insurance other than 5-year level premium term, if the policy has been in force by payment or waiver of the premiums for not less than three months nor more than 11 months, the policy shall be extended automatically as term insurance for an amount of insurance equal to the face value of the policy less any indebtedness for such time from the due date of the premium in default as the reserve of the policy less any indebtedness will purchase when applied as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured. For this purpose the attained age is the age on the birthday anniversary nearest to the effective date of the policy plus the number of months from that date to the date extended term insurance becomes effective. The extended term insurance shall be with right to total permanent disability benefits. The number of monthly installments payable upon due proof of total permanent disability or death of the insured under such extended term insurance will be the same as would then be payable under the policy. Extended term insurance under this provision shall not have a cash or loan value. This paragraph shall be effective from and after August 2, 1948. (Secs. 5, 300, 301, 43 Stat. 608, 624, secs. 1, 2, 46 Stat. 1016; 38 U. S. C. 11, 11a, 426, 511, 512, 707)

PAID-UP INSURANCE

§ 10.3110 Provision for paid-up insurance. If a United States Government life insurance policy has not been surrendered for cash, upon default in the payment of any premium due after the expiration of the first policy year, and upon written request of the insured and complete surrender of the policy with all claims thereunder within three calendar months after the due date of the premium, the United States will issue paid-up insurance for such amount as the cash value less any indebtedness will purchase when applied as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured. For this purpose the attained age is the age on the birthday anniversary nearest to the effective date of the policy plus the number of years and months from that date to the date the paid-up insurance becomes effective. The paid-up insurance shall be with right to dividends and with right to total permanent disability benefits. The number of monthly installments payable upon due proof of total permanent disability or death of the insured under such paid-up insurance will be the same as would then be payable under the policy. The insured may at any time surrender the paid-up policy for its cash value or obtain a loan on such paid-up insurance. (Secs. 5, 300, 301, 43 Stat. 608, 624, secs. 1, 2, 46 Stat. 1016; 38 U. S. C. 11, 11a, 426, 511, 512, 707)

CASH VALUE

§ 10.3115 Cash value, other than 5-year level premium term policy. Provisions for cash value, paid-up insurance, and extended term insurance, except as provided in § 10.3105 (b), shall become effective at the completion of the first policy year on any plan of United States Government life insurance other than the 5-year level premium term plan; all values, reserves, and net single premiums being based on the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum. The cash value at the end of the first policy year and at the end of any policy year thereafter, for which premiums have been paid in full or waived, shall be the reserve together with any dividend accumulations. For each month after the first policy year, for which month a premium has been paid or waived, the reserve at the end of the preceding policy year shall be increased by one-twelfth of the increase in reserve for the current policy year. Upon written request therefor and upon complete surrender of the policy with all claims thereunder, made by the insured while the policy is in force, but not later than three calendar months from the due date of the premium in default, the United States will pay to the insured the cash value of the policy less any indebtedness: Provided, The policy has been in force by payment or waiver of the premiums for at least one year. (Secs. 5, 300, 301, 43 Stat. 608, 624, secs. 1, 2, 46 Stat. 1016; 38 U. S. C. 11, 11a, 426, 511, 512, 707)

DIVIDENDS

§ 10.3426 Dividends. A National Service Life Insurance policy shall participate in and receive such dividends from gains and savings as may be determined by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. Any such dividends shall be paid in cash except that at the written request of the insured they may be left to accumulate on deposit provided the policy is in force on a basis other than extended term insurance or level premium term insurance. Payment of dividends shall be without interest except when left to accumulate on deposit in accordance with the insured's written request. Interest on dividend accumulations will be credited annually at such rate as the Administrator may determine. Dividend accumulations and unpaid dividends shall not be available for the payment of insurance premiums except at the written request of the insured made before default in payment of a premium. Any unpaid dividend on a lapsed policy will be paid in cash to the insured, if living, otherwise to his estate. Dividend accumulations will be used in addition to the reserve on the policy for the purpose of computing the period of extended term insurance or the amount of paid-up insurance as provided in § 10.3429 (a) and § 10.3430, respectively. Upon maturity of the policy, any dividend accumulations not previously withdrawn and any unpaid dividends will be payable in cash to the person currently entitled to receive payments under the policy. (Sec. 2, Pub. Law 5, 80th Cong.) (Secs. 601–618, 54 Stat. 1008–1014, secs. 1–16, 60 Stat. 781–789; 38 U. S. C. 512d, 801–818)

§ 10.3427 Cash value; other than 5-year level premium term policy. Provisions for cash value, paid-up insurance, and extended term insurance, except as provided in § 10.3429 (b), shall become effective at the completion of the first policy year on any plan of National Service Life Insurance other than the 5-year level premium term plan; all values, reserves, and net single premiums being based on the American Experience Table of Mortality, with interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum. The cash value at the end of the first policy year and at the end of any policy year thereafter, for which premiums have been paid in full, shall be the reserve together with any dividend accumulations. For each month after the first policy year, for which month a premium has been paid or waived, the reserve at the end of the preceding policy year shall be increased by one-twelfth of the increase in reserve for the current policy year. Upon written request therefor and upon complete surrender of the policy with all claims thereunder, the United States will pay to the insured the cash value of the policy less any indebtedness: Provided, The policy has been in force by payment or waiver of the premiums for at least one year. (Sec. 2, Pub. Law 5, 80th Cong.) (Secs. 601–618, 54 Stat. 1008–1014, secs. 1–16, 60 Stat. 781–789; 38 U. S. C. 512d, 801–818)

EXTENDED TERM AND PAID-UP INSURANCE

§ 10.3429 Provision for extended term insurance; other than 5-year level premium term policies. (a) After the expiration of the first policy year and upon default in the payment of a premium within the grace period, if a National Service Life Insurance policy on any plan other than 5-year level premium term has not been surrendered for cash or for paid-up insurance, the policy shall be extended automatically as term insurance for an amount of insurance equal to the face value of the policy less any indebtedness for such time from the due date of the premium in default as the cash value less any indebtedness will purchase when applied as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured. For this purpose the attained age is the age on the birthday anniversary nearest to the effective date of the policy plus the number of years and months from that date to the date the extended term insurance becomes effective. The extended term insurance shall not have a loan value, but shall have a cash value.

(b) Upon default in payment of a premium within the grace period and after the effective date of this paragraph, on any plan of National Service Life Insurance other than 5-year level premium term, if the policy has been in force by payment or waiver of the premiums for not less than three months nor more than 11 months, the policy shall be extended automatically as term insurance for an amount of insurance equal to the face value of the policy less any indebtedness for such time from the due date of the premium in default as the reserve of the policy less any indebtedness will purchase when applied as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured. (Secs. 601–618, 54 Stat. 1008–1014, secs. 1–16, 60 Stat. 781–789; 38 U. S. C. 512d, 801–818)

§ 10.3430 Provision for paid-up insurance; other than five-year level premium term policies. If a National Service Life Insurance policy on any plan other than five-year level premium term has not been surrendered for cash, upon written request of the insured and complete surrender of the policy with all claims thereunder, after the expiration of the first policy year and while the policy is in force under premium-paying conditions, the United States will issue paid-up insurance for such amount as the cash value less any indebtedness will purchase when applied as a net single premium at the attained age of the insured. For this purpose the attained age is the age on the birthday anniversary nearest to the effective date of the policy plus the number of years and months from that date to the date the paid-up insurance becomes effective. Such paid-up insurance will be effective as of the expiration of the period for which premiums have been paid and earned; and, any premiums paid in advance for months subsequent to that in which the application for paid-up insurance is made shall be refunded to the insured. The paid-up insurance shall be with right to dividends. The insured may at any time surrender the paid-up policy for its cash value or obtain a loan on such paid-up insurance. (Secs. 601–618, 54 Stat. 1008–1014, secs. 1–16, 60 Stat. 781–789; 38 U. S. C. 512d, 801–818)

§ 10.3436 Exchange to a policy bearing the same effective date and having a lower reserve value. National Service Life Insurance may be exchanged within five years from the effective date for insurance of the same amount, bearing the same date, and based on the same age, on any plan of insurance issued by the Veterans Administration having a lower reserve value except to the 5-year level premium term plan: Provided, The applicant is in good health at the time of application and furnishes evidence thereof satisfactory to the Administrator upon such forms as the Administrator shall prescribe, or otherwise as he shall require. ing the 5-year term period as extended by Public Law 118, 79th Congress, but in all other respects conversion will be effected in accordance with the requirements of §§ 10.3433, or 10.3434, whichever may be applicable: Provided further, That any such term insurance which has lapsed or may hereafter lapse may be reinstated at any time prior to the expiration of the 5-year term period as extended, but in all other respects reinstatement will be effected in accordance with the requirements of §§ 10.3422, 10.3423, and 10.3424: And provided further, That if any such policy be not exchanged or converted to a permanent plan prior to the expiration of the 5-year term period as extended, or renewed as provided in § 10.3485, all protection thereunder shall cease. (59 Stat. 315, 38 U. S. C. 802 note, Pub. Law 838, 80th Cong.) (Secs. 601–618, 54 Stat. 1008–1014, secs. 1–16, 60 Stat. 781–789; 38 U. S. C. 512d, 801–818)

CHICAGO, ILL., MILK MARKETING AREA

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AS AMENDED, AND ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING HANDLING

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.) and in accordance with the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended (7 CFR, Supps. 900.1 et seq.; 12 F. R. 1159, 4904), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at the Hotel LaSalle, Chicago, Illinois, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. d. t., September 21, 1948, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement, as amended, and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Chicago, Illinois, milk marketing area (11 F. R. 9606, 12 F. R. 5834, 7248), which would incorporate in the agreement and order provisions to assure that milk subject to the order will be made available to the market when required by the market for Class I and II purposes.

The following amendments have been proposed as the detailed means of accomplishing such purpose. These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The following amendments have been proposed by the Associated Milk Dealers, Inc.:

1. Delete § 941.1 (e) and substitute therefor:

(e) "Approved plant" means any plant, except such plant as has been suspended as a pool plant pursuant to § 941.6 (e), which is approved by any health authority for the receiving of milk which may be disposed of as Class I milk as defined in § 941.4, in the marketing area.

2. Amend § 941.6 by adding paragraph (e) as follows:

(e) Pool plants. An approved plant receiving milk from producers which meets either of the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, shall be designated as a pool plant.

(1) Requirements. During each of the delivery periods of August, September, October and November (i) a plant must be engaged in the processing and packaging of Class I or Class II milk, part or all of which is disposed of in the marketing area, or (ii) a plant must utilize as Class I or Class II milk on its own premises, or dispose of to a plant engaged in the processing, packaging and distribution of such milk in the marketing area as herein defined, or in the marketing area as defined in U. S. D. A. Order No. 69, as amended, not less than 75 percent, or such other percentage as the Market Administrator may from time to time determine, of its total receipts of butterfat from producers as fluid milk or fluid cream. For the purpose of meeting the requirements of this subdivision a handler operating more than one plant or having contracts with other handlers' plants for the entire output of such plants may consider such plants as one.

(2) Suspension. Any plant which fails to meet either of the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be suspended as a pool plant during the delivery periods of February through July, inclusive, next following. Such suspension shall be effected by notice from the Market Administrator to the handler operating the plant whenever the Market Administrator finds on the basis of available information that the plant did not meet either of the requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Sections 941.1 through 941.14 shall not apply to any handler with respect to such of his milk which is received at a plant which is suspended as a pool plant during the period of the suspension.

(3) Publication of violations. The Market Administrator shall publicly announce (i) the ownership and location of any plant suspended pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and (ii) the ownership and location of the purchasing or receiving plant described in subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph if such plant disposes of the fluid milk or fluid cream in bulk outside the surplus milk manufacturing area.

(4) Pool Plant Committee. A committee of six members consisting of three persons selected by the Associated Milk Dealers, Inc., of Chicago, two persons selected by the Pure Milk Association of Chicago, and one person selected by the Central Dairy Sales Cooperative of Appleton, Wisconsin, shall be designated as the Pool Plant Committee. This committee shall investigate the conditions of milk supply available for the Chicago marketing area, together with the demand conditions prevailing, and shall, at such times as it deems appropriate, based upon a majority vote of the committee, recommend to the Market Administrator changes in the percentage established in subparagraph (1) (ii) of this paragraph, or suspension of all or part of the requirements described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for the succeeding delivery periods.

3. Amend § 941.6 (b) by deleting the period at the end thereof, substituting a comma in lieu thereof, and adding the words: "and that such milk was not obtained from a plant that has been suspended as a pool plant pursuant to paragraph (e) (2) of this section."

4. Make such other changes as may be necessary or helpful to effectuate the foregoing proposals.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the tentatively approved marketing agreement and order, now in effect, may be procured from the Market Administrator, 135 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, or from the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, United States Department of Agriculture, in Room 1844, South Building, Washington, D. C., or may be there inspected.

(a) General Provisions—(1) Article 1. Only such persons having paid in more than 40 Reichsmarks to the exchange agency when receiving the first installment of the quota-per-capita, shall have a legal claim to the second installment of the quota-per-capita (remaining balance) provided for under section 3.101 (b) (1) (Article VI of the Currency Law). The claim may be bequeathed, but not ceded.

(2) Article 2. In all cases where the full amount of 60 Reichsmarks has been paid in when receiving the first installment of the quota-per-capita, the remaining balance shall amount to 20 Deutsche Marks, otherwise to 1 Deutsche Mark for each Reichsmark delivered in excess of the amount of 40 Reichsmarks, up to the limit of 20 Deutsche Marks.

(b) Treatment of persons having surrendered old currency by use of Form "A" or having reported accounts—(1) Article 3. Where the holder of a Reichsmark liquidation account (section 3.101 (d) (1) (Article XIII of the Currency Law)) or a member of his family has surrendered old currency or reported an account in accordance with the provisions of the Currency Law by use of Form "A", the liquidation bank shall credit a free account with 20 Deutsche Marks for him and each member of his family listed on Form "A" (paragraph (c) (5) (iii) of this section). The Liquidation Bank is not bound to verify whether the conditions of paragraph (a) (1) of this section are complied with.

(c) Treatment of persons not having delivered Form "A"—(1) Article 4. Where neither the claimant (paragraph (a) (1) of this section) nor a member of his family (subparagraph (5) (iii) of this paragraph) has surrendered old currency or reported an account by use of Form "A", he shall be paid the remaining balance by the food ration card office as prescribed in subparagraphs (2) through (7) of this paragraph.

(2) Article 5. (i) In principle that food ration card office shall be competent for paying the remaining balance, with which the claimant is registered for food supply on ration cards during the period of payment (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph); this applies also in those cases where the claimant is temporarily absent on the ground of a travel certificate (Reiseabmeldebestaetigung) or a G-certificate (Abmeldebescheinigung "G").

(ii) The special provisions under subparagraph (8) of this paragraph shall apply to persons who possess a certificate of departure or who are issued their food ration cards against a personal travel card or a seaman's identity card Lebensmittelstammausweis fuer Binnenschiffer).

(3) Article 6. The payment of the remaining balance shall be made by the food ration card agencies during the period comprised between August 20, and September 11, 1948. If possible it shall be completed within one day. The land food offices have to appoint and advertise the days and hours of payment uniform by for their respective areas; besides, care is to be taken that the other tasks of the ration card agencies, in particular when preparing and carrying out the issue of food ration cards for September will be prejudiced as little as possible.

(4) Article 7. The ration card agencies have to verify at first whether the person for whom the payment of the remaining balance is claimed has paid in the required Reichsmark-amount under paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section. This can be ascertained:

(i) As a rule from the documentation of the ration card agency.

(ii) In cases of persons who were registered as temporarily absent at the moment when the first installment of the quota-per-capita was paid out, from the travel certificates or the G-certificate which have either been returned in the meantime or shall be produced.

(iii) In the case referred to by subparagraph (8) of this paragraph from the documents mentioned thereunder.

(iv) In cases of persons having been registered to normal food supply on ration cards after June 20, 1948 by the ration card agency, from travel certificates or certificates of departure or G-certificates issued by the ration card agency hitherto competent; in case these documents have been issued after June 20, 1948 the ration card agency has to obtain an official information from the hitherto competent ration card agency as to the amount of Reichsmarks which the applicant has paid in on receipt of the first installment of the quota-per-capita amount.

(5) Article 8. (i) Moreover, proof must be given to the ration card office in compliance with the provisions hereinafter that the remaining quota-per-capita amount will not be credited under paragraph (b) (1) of this section on a free account with a Liquidation Bank, i. e. that neither the claimant nor a member of his family (subdivision (iii) below) had surrendered or reported old currency by use of Form "A".

(a) For this purpose the claimant shall produce his identity card (in case of residents of the British Zone the blue personal card) as well as the identity cards (blue personal cards) of all members of his family (subdivision (iii) below) who are liable to carry identity cards and to whom the food ration cards are issued together by this very ration card office. The ration card office will examine whether the right top corner of the front page of one of these identity cards (blue personal cards) has been punched. In such case cash payment of the remaining balance cannot be claimed.

(b) Spouses and minor persons, who had not completed their 18th year of age on June 21, 1948, are entitled to claim the remaining balance with the ration card agency competent for them, in case it does not provide also the husband or the father (the mother) with food ration cards, only under condition they furnish proof that the husband or father and mother resp. is in captivity or missing or for other reasons (e. g. because his residence is situated outside the currency area) is not being provided with food ration cards by a ration card agency in the currency area. If this cannot be proved, the ration card office shall, when appropriate, issue to these persons a certificate setting forth names and addresses of the claimants and the remaining balance to be claimed by them and stating that, under the observations of the ration card office no reason exists for the assumption that the remaining balance due to them is credited on a free account. Based on this certificate the husband or father or mother in resp. may raise the remaining balance stated therein with his ration card office as far as he proves to the ration card office that neither he nor a member of his family supplied together with him by the same ration card office has surrendered or reported old currency on Form "A".

(c) Before payment of the remaining balance to persons aged more than 18 years, the ration card office shall have to verify whether the applicant is married or has children below the age of 18 years and whether these persons are also supplied with food ration cards by the ration card agency competent for him. For this purpose the applicant shall produce his wage tax card, his labor card or other official documents stating his family standing. If the ration card agency ascertains by checking these documents with its card index records that one or several members of the applicant's family are not supplied with food ration cards by it, the applicant shall have a claim on payment of the remaining installment due to him by the ration card office only:

(1) If he proves that the other members of his family are not supplied with food ration cards by another ration card office in the specified currency area; or

(2) If he produces for the other members of his family the certificate mentioned above under (b) of the ration card office competent for these persons.

(ii) Where persons are recorded in the ration card office as temporarily absent during the period of payment they shall also produce the travel certificate or the first copy of the G-certificate in addition to the documents mentioned under subdivision (i) (c) (1) above.

(iii) Family members within the meaning of this section are the wife (and the husband respectively) and those children of the claimant who on June 21, have not completed their 18th year, furthermore the parents and brothers and sisters of a claimant in the case when on June 21, 1948 he has not completed his 18th year.

(6) Article 9. Where the claimant, without his fault, fails to raise the remaining balance at the day of payment fixed by the food office or to produce one of the documents the submission of which is the prerequisite to the payment of the quota-per-capita amount under subparagraphs (4) and (5) of this paragraph, the remaining balance may also be paid to him later; the claim on payment of the remaining balance will lapse, however, if the documents required are not produced until 30 September 1948.

(7) Article 10. (i) The remaining balance will be paid by the ration card office, taxed on an order of payment which the official charged with the investigation of the card index records of the ration card office will issue after having entered a corresponding notice on the index card; the order of payment shall be receipted by the beneficiary. The official charged with the payment shall enter the amounts paid into lists to be closed daily and enumerated currently adding the orders of payments to them.

(ii) The head of the ration card office shall certify the lists to conform with the notices on the index cards, sign them and, by the strength of the lists, close with the food office into the amounts of money which he has received for payment of the remaining balances.

(8) Article 11. (i) All persons possessing a notice of departure, a personal travel card or a seaman's identity card (Lebensmittelstammausweis fuer Binnenschiffer), may draw the remaining balance from the food ration card office of such locality, in which they reside during the period of payment (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph).

(ii) To seamen, who are supplied with food against food purchase books (Lebensmitteleinkaufsbuch) the remaining balance will be paid by the food office (or ration card agency authorized by it) which—in the moment when the payment takes place—is competent for the food supply of the ship, to the crew of which the seaman belongs.

(iii) In such cases as set forth under subdivisions (i) and (ii) above, the food ration card office shall endorse the amount of the remaining balance paid out on the notice of departure, the personal travel card, the seaman's identity card or the food purchase book. These payments have to be entered on a special list, in which mention has to be made of the beneficiary's name and address, of the authority having issued the notice of departure, the personal travel card or the seaman's identity card, of the date of issue and registration number of these documents as well as of the amount paid out. The orders for payment receipted by the payees have to be attached to this list, which shall serve, in the same way as the lists referred to under subparagraph (7) of this paragraph, as a documentation for the accounting of the food ration card office to the food office.

(d) Provision of funds necessary for payment of the remaining balances—(1) Article 12. The Land Central Bank shall credit the giro account of the Liquidation Banks for account of the Bank deutscher Laender with the equivalent of the remaining balances, with which the Liquidation Banks have credited the free accounts of their customers according to paragraph (b) (1) of this section. The Liquidation Banks have to account to the Bank deutscher Laender, over the Land Central Banks, for the remaining balances credited by them.

(2) Article 13. The food offices have to provide the food ration card offices with the funds necessary for the payment of the remaining balances. They shall procure such funds from the Land Central Bank for the account of the Bank deutscher Laendar. For the amounts received and issued, they have to account to the Land Central Banks, by means of the lists referred to under subparagraphs (7) (i) and (8) (iii) of paragraph (c) of this section.

(3) Article 14. (i) The Bank deutscher Laender shall credit the giro accounts of the Land Central Banks with the amounts with which the latter have:

(a) Credited the Liquidation Banks as per subparagraph (1) of this paragraph,

(b) Provided the food offices as per subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, and

(c) Credited the free account of their customers as per paragraph (b) (1) of this section.

(ii) The Bank deutscher Laender shall enter the liabilities incurred pursuant to subdivision (i), above, and the remaining balances, with which it has credited the salary accounts maintained with it, according to paragraph (b) (1) of this section, on the left side of the conversion statement which it has to establish according to section 3.108 (c) (4).

(e) Final provisions—(1) Article 15. The German text of this regulation shall be the official text.

(2) Article 16. This regulation shall become effective on August 20, 1948. By order of Allied Bank Commission.

corporation, partnership, individual, or other legal entity with which the CCC has entered into a Lending Agency Agreement (Form PMA-97) or other form prescribed by CCC.

§ 248.204 Eligible producer. An eligible producer shall be any individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity producing corn in 1948, as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper.

§ 248.205 Eligible corn. Eligible corn shall be ear or shelled field corn which was produced in the Continental United States in 1948 and which meets the following requirements.

(a) The beneficial interest in such corn must be in the producer tendering the corn for a loan or purchase and must always have been in him or in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the corn was harvested; or, such corn must have been purchased by an eligible producer who will operate a different farm in 1949 from that operated in 1948 and the number of bushels being placed under loan or purchased is not in excess of the total number of bushels produced by the producer on the farm operated by him in 1948.

(b) The grade of corn being placed under loan must, except for moisture content, be No. 3 or better, or No. 4 solely on the factor of test weight but otherwise grading No. 3 or better, as defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States for Corn. The moisture content of the corn being placed under loan shall not exceed the following:

	Percent
Ear corn if tendered for a loan from time of harvest to March 31, 1949, both inclusive	20.5
Ear corn if tendered for a loan from April 1, 1949, to April 30, 1949, both inclusive	17.5
Ear corn if tendered for a loan from May 1, 1949, to June 30, 1949, both inclusive	15.5
Shelled corn if tendered for a loan from time of harvest to June 30, 1949, both inclusive	13.5

(c) The grade of corn delivered under a purchase agreement must be No. 3 or better, or No. 4 solely on the factor of test weight but otherwise grading No. 3 or better, as defined in the Official Grain Standards of the United States for Corn.

(d) Corn must be shelled before delivery is made under the loan or purchase program.

§ 248.206 Eligible storage. Under the loan program, eligible farm storage shall consist of farm bins or cribs which, as determined by the county committee, are of such substantial and permanent construction as to afford safe storage of the corn and afford protection against rodents, other animals, thieves, and weather.

The most important factor to be considered in the safe storage of corn is the crib width. Cribs having a width greater than the recommended width for the county will not be considered as safe for storage of corn offered for a loan unless the moisture content of the corn is less than the applicable permissible moisture content by at least 1 percent for each foot or fraction thereof in excess of the recommended width. In the case of round cribs with center ventilator the distance from the ventilator to the outside wall shall be used as the width, and for round cribs without center ventilator two-thirds of the diameter shall be used as the width. Maximum crib widths for the safe storage of corn are as follows:

ALL OTHER AREAS

The maximum crib width acceptable as safe storage for corn in all other areas where loans are available shall be the widths as recommended by the county committee of the respective county.

§ 248.207 Approved forms. The approved forms consist of the loan and purchase agreement documents which, together with the provisions of this bulletin, govern the rights and responsibilities of the producer. Any fraudulent representation made by a producer in obtaining a loan or purchase agreement or in executing any of the loan or purchase documents will render him subject to criminal prosecution.

Notes and chattel mortgages must have State and documentary revenue stamps affixed thereto where required by law. Loan and purchase documents executed by an administrator, executor, or trustee will be acceptable only where legally valid.

(a) Farm storage loans. Approved forms shall consist of the producer's note on CCC Commodity Form A, secured by a chattel mortgage on CCC Commodity Form AA.

(b) Purchase agreement documents. The purchase agreement documents shall consist of the Purchase Agreement (Commodity Purchase 1) and Purchase Agreement Settlement (Commodity Purchase 4) signed by the producer and approved by the county committee, and such other forms as may be prescribed by CCC.

(c) Warehouse receipts. Corn stored in eligible warehouse storage tendered under a purchase agreement must be represented by warehouse receipts which satisfy the following requirements:

(1) Warehouse receipts must be issued in the name of the producer, must be properly endorsed in blank so as to vest title in the holder, and must be issued by an approved warehouse.

(2) Each warehouse receipt must set forth in its written terms that the corn is insured for not less than market value against the hazards of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, windstorm, cyclone, and tornado, or, in lieu of this statement, it must have stamped or printed thereon the word "Insured".

(3) The warehouse receipt and the corn represented thereby may be subject to warehouse charges only from the date of the warehouse receipt or the maturity date of CCC corn loans, whichever is later.

(4) Each warehouse receipt, or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate (in duplicate) properly identified with the warehouse receipt, must show the gross weight and grade, test weight, and all special grading factors.

(5) In the case of warehouse receipts issued for corn delivered by rail or barge, CCC will accept inbound weight and inspection certificates properly identified with the corn covered thereby in lieu of the information required by subparagraph (4) of this paragraph. In areas where licensed inspectors are not available at terminal and subterminal warehouses, CCC will accept inspection certificates based on representative samples which have been forwarded to and graded by licensed grain inspectors.

§ 248.208 Determination of quantity. A bushel of ear corn shall be 2.5 cubic feet of ear corn testing not more than 15.5 percent in moisture content. An adjustment in the number of bushels of ear corn will be made for moisture content in excess of 15.5 percent in accordance with the following schedule:

Moisture content (percent)	Adjustment factor (percent)
15.6 to 16.5 both inclusive	98
16.6 to 17.5 both inclusive	96
17.6 to 18.5 both inclusive	94
18.6 to 19.5 both inclusive	92
19.6 to 20.5 both inclusive	90
Above 20.5	No loan

A bushel of shelled corn shall be 1.25 cubic feet of shelled corn testing not more than 13.5 percent in moisture content.

§ 248.209 Determination of dockage. Since dockage is not a grade factor in the case of corn, the quantity of corn will be determined without reference to dockage.

§ 248.210 Liens. The corn must be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, except for warehouse charges as provided in § 248.207 (c) (3), or, if liens or encumbrances exist on the corn, proper waivers must be obtained.

§ 248.211 Service fees—(a) Loans. The producer shall pay a service fee of one cent per bushel on the number of bushels placed under loan, or $3.00, whichever is greater. If the quantity of corn delivered in satisfaction of a loan exceeds the quantity of corn placed under loan, a service fee of one cent per bushel shall be charged the producer on the excess quantity delivered.

(b) Purchase agreements. At the time the producer signs a purchase agreement he shall pay a service fee of one-half cent per bushel on the number of bushels specified on Commodity Purchase 1 as the maximum quantity he may deliver, or $1.50, whichever is greater.

(c) No refund of service fees. No refund of service fees will be made under the loan or purchase program.

§ 248.212 Set-offs. A producer who is listed on the county debt register as indebted to any agency or corporation of the United States Department of Agriculture shall designate the agency or corporation to which he is indebted as the payee of the proceeds of the loan or purchase to the extent of such indebtedness, but not to exceed that portion of the proceeds remaining after deduction of the service fees and amounts due prior lienholders. Indebtedness owing to CCC shall be given first consideration after claims of prior lienholders.

§ 248.213 Interest rate. Loans shall bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum, and interest shall accrue from the date of disbursement of the loan, notwithstanding the printed provisions of the note.

§ 248.214 Transfer of producer's equity—(a) Loans. The right of the producer to transfer either his right to redeem the corn under loan or his remaining interest may be restricted by CCC.

(b) Purchase agreements. The producer may not assign his purchase agreement.

§ 248.215 Safeguarding of the corn. The producer obtaining a farm-storage loan is obligated to maintain the farm storage structures in good repair, and to keep the corn in good condition.

§ 248.216 Insurance. CCC will not require the producer to insure the corn placed under loan; however, if the producer does insure such corn such insurance shall inure to the benefit of CCC to the extent of its interest, after first satisfying the producer's equity in the corn involved in the loss.

§ 248.217 Loss or damage to the corn. The producer is responsible for any loss in quantity or quality of the corn placed under loan, except that uninsured physical loss or damage occurring without fault, negligence, or conversion on the part of the producer, resulting solely from an external cause other than insect infestation or vermin will be assumed by CCC: Provided, The producer has given the county committee immediate notice in writing of such loss or damage: And provided, There has been no fraudulent representation made by the producer in the loan documents or in obtaining the loan.

§ 248.218 Personal liability. The making of any fraudulent representation by the producer in the loan documents, or in obtaining the loan, or the conversion or unlawful disposition of any portion of the corn by him, shall render the producer personally liable for the amount of the loan and for any resulting expense incurred by any holder of the note.

§ 248.219 Maturity and satisfaction—(a) Loans. Loans mature on demand but not later than September 1, 1949. The producer is required to pay off his loan on or before maturity, or to deliver the mortgaged corn in accordance with the instructions of the county committee. Credit will be given for the total quantity so delivered, provided it was stored in the bin or crib in which the corn under loan was stored, at the settlement value, according to grade and/or quality as set forth in supplement 1. If the settlement value of the corn delivered exceeds the amount of the principal due on the loan, the amount of the excess shall be paid to the producer by sight draft drawn on CCC by the State PMA office. If the settlement value of the corn is less than the amount of the principal due on the loan, the amount of the deficiency, plus interest thereon, shall be paid by the producer to CCC or may be set off against any payment which would otherwise be made to the producer under any agricultural programs administered by the Secretary of Agriculture, or any other payments which are due or may become due to the producer from CCC or any other agency of the United States. In the event the farm is sold or there is a change of tenancy, the corn may be delivered before the maturity date of the loan upon prior approval by the county committee.

(b) Purchase agreements. The producer who signs a purchase agreement (Commodity Purchase 1) shall not be obligated to deliver any corn to CCC. He may deliver any amount up to but not in excess of the number of bushels shown on Commodity Purchase 1. If the producer desires to deliver corn to CCC he shall, within 30 days from September 1, 1949, the maturity date of CCC corn loans, or such earlier date as demand for payment of corn loans may be made, submit warehouse receipts representing eligible corn stored in eligible warehouse storage to the county committee for the quantity of such corn he elects to sell to CCC, but not in excess of the number of bushels on Commodity Purchase 1, or, in the case of corn stored in other than eligible warehouse storage, he shall notify the county committee of his intention to sell and request delivery instructions. The producer must then complete delivery within a 15-day period immediately following the date the county committee issues delivery instructions, unless the county committee, determines more time is needed for delivery. Corn stored in other than eligible warehouse storage will be purchased on delivery at points designated by CCC. When delivery is completed payment shall be made by a sight draft drawn on CCC by the State PMA office on the basis of approved Commodity Purchase 4. The producer shall direct on Commodity Purchase 4 to whom payment of the purchase price shall be made.

Eligible corn will be purchased on the basis of the weight, grade, and other quality factors shown on the warehouse receipts and accompanying documents, or, if such corn is delivered to a CCC bin site, on the basis of the weight, grade and quality determinations made by the county committee (in accordance with instructions for the determination of such factors under the loan program) and approved by the producer at the time of delivery.

(c) Track-loaded corn. Under the loan and purchase agreement program a loading payment of two cents per bushel will be made to the producer on corn delivered on track at a country point.

§ 248.220 Removal of the corn under loan. If the loan is not satisfied upon maturity by payment or delivery, the holder of the note may remove the corn and sell it either by separate contract or after pooling it with other lots of corn similarly held. The producer has no right of redemption after the corn is pooled, but shall share ratably in any overplus remaining upon liquidation of the pool. CCC shall have the right to treat the pooled corn as a reserve supply to be marketed under such sales policies as CCC determines will promote orderly marketing, protect the interests of producers and consumers, and not unduly impair the market for the current crop of corn, even though part or all of such pooled commodity is disposed of under such policies at prices less than the current domestic price for such commodity. Any sum due the producer as a result of the sale of the corn or of insurance proceeds thereon, or any ratable share resulting from the liquidation of a pool, shall be payable only to the producer without right of assignment by him.

§ 248.221 Release of the corn under loan. A producer may at any time obtain release of the corn under loan by paying to the holder of the note the principal amount thereof, plus interest. If the note is held by an out-of-town lending agency or by CCC, the producer may request that the note be forwarded to a local bank for collection. In such case, where CCC is the holder of the note, the local bank will be instructed to return the note if payment is not effected within 15 days. All charges in connection with the collection of the note shall be paid by the producer. Upon payment of a loan, the county committee should be requested to release the mortgage by filing an instrument of release or by a marginal release on the county records. Partial release of the corn prior to maturity may be arranged with the county committee by paying to the holder of the note the amount of the loan and accrued interest represented by the quantity of the corn to be released.

§ 248.222 Purchase of notes. CCC will purchase from approved lending agencies, notes evidencing approved loans which are secured by chattel mortgages. The purchase price to be paid by CCC will be the principal sums remaining due on such notes, plus accrued interest from the date of disbursement to the date of purchase at the rate of 1½ percent per annum. Lending agencies are required to submit a weekly report to CCC and to the county committees on CCC Commodity Form F, or such other form as CCC may prescribe, of all payments received on producers' notes held by them, and are required to remit promptly to CCC an amount equivalent to 1½ percent interest per annum, on the amount of the principal collected, from the date of disbursement to the date of payment. Lending agencies should submit notes and reports to the CCC field offices serving the area.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO BUDGET OF EXPENSES AND FIXING OF RATES OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1948–49 SEASON

Notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (13 F. R. 4395), dated July 30, 1948, that consideration was being given to proposals regarding the budget of expenses and the fixing of the rates of assessment for the 1948–49 season under the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.1 et seq.), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California. This regulatory program is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice which were submitted by the Control Committee (established pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 936.202 Budget of expenses and rates of assessment for the 1948–49 season—(a) Rate of assessment for general overhead expenses. The general overhead expenses necessary to be incurred by the Control Committee and the commodity committees, established pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, for the maintenance and functioning of the said committees for the season beginning April 1, 1948, and ending March 31, 1949, both dates inclusive, will amount to $43,960.00, and the rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who handles fruit shall be fourteen mills ($0.014) per hundred pounds of fruit handled by such handler during said season; and such rate of assessment is hereby approved as each such handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

(b) Rate of assessment for additional expenses. The additional expenses necessary to be incurred, during the aforesaid season, by the respective commodity committees in administering the regulation of shipments of fruit pursuant to sections 3 to 5, both inclusive, of the amended marketing agreement and §§ 936.3 to 936.5, both inclusive, of the amended order, will be as follows:

(1) To be incurred by the Bartlett Pear Commodity Committee: $7,005.00;

(2) To be incurred by the Plum Commodity Committee: $21,020.00;

(3) To be incurred by the Elberta Peach Commodity Committee: $630.00; and the rate of assessment for such additional expenses to be paid, in accordance with the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, by each handler who handles fruit with respect to which regulations are made effective during said season shall be six mills ($0.006) per hundred pounds of Bartlett pears, sixteen mills ($0.016) per hundred pounds of plums, and one mill ($0.001) per hundred pounds of Elberta peaches so handled; and such rate of assessment is hereby approved as each such handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

(c) Effective date. It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to postpone the effective date of this determination until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (1) the respective rates of assessment are applicable to all fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches shipped during the aforesaid season; (2) shipments of each of these fruits have already commenced; and (3) in order for the aforesaid necessary assessments to be collected, it is essential that the specification of the assessment rates be issued immediately so as to enable the said Control Committee and commodity committees to perform their duties and functions under said amended marketing agreement and order.

As used in this section, the terms "handler," "handle," "fruit," "shipped," and "shipments" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such terms in said amended marketing agreement and order. (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 7 CFR, Cum. Supp., 936.8)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of September 1948.

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Federal Security Agency

[Docket No. FDC-29 (c)]

PART 19—DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS OF IDENTITY FOR CHEESE AND CHEESE PRODUCTS

FINAL ORDER WITH RESPECT TO CREAM CHEESE, NEUFCHATEL CHEESE, AND COTTAGE CHEESE; TENTATIVE ORDER WITH RESPECT TO CREAMED COTTAGE CHEESE

In the matter of amending the definitions and standards of identity for cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, cottage cheese, and creamed cottage cheese:

By virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Security Administrator by the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (secs. 401, 701; 52 Stat. 1046, 1055; 21 U. S. C. 341, 371) and upon the basis of substantial evidence received at the hearing held pursuant to notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 3, 1948 (13 F. R. 3749), and upon consideration of proposed findings of fact filed by interested parties which are adopted in part and rejected in part as is apparent from the detailed findings made below, the following order is made:

Findings of fact.[1] 1. The quantity of milk produced in the United States varies from season to season. The highest production occurs in the spring and lowest in the late fall and winter months. During the period of high production there is sufficient milk for all purposes. During the period of low production the demand for fluid milk absorbs such a large proportion of the supply that there is not enough for the manufacture of certain milk products, particularly those utilizing skim milk. (R. 11-21, 24-26, 57, 77, 93, 131, 140-142, 168, 176, 177, 188, 193, 228)

2. The shortage of fluid skim milk has become progressively more acute for the past several years and at times has caused manufacturers of certain foods to discontinue or limit their production. Many manufacturers of cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, cottage cheese, and creamed cottage cheese have attempted to store their necessary raw materials in periods of high milk production for later use, or to utilize milk products shipped from areas of higher milk production. (R. 20, 57-58, 79, 93-94, 144, 160-161, 169-170, 177, 194, 243)

3. Cream with a high milk-fat content can be frozen and shipped or stored satisfactorily. Small amounts of cream have been dried but the dried creams have not been used in cheese making. Milk and skim milk can be concentrated or dried. Concentrated milk and concentrated skim milk are perishable and must be refrigerated, but they can be shipped and stored more economically than fluid milk or skim milk. Dried milk and nonfat dry milk solids are produced in large quantities and are available at all times. It is impracticable to store fluid milk or skim milk for long periods or to ship them for great distances. (R. 21, 58, 59, 84, 172, 177-178, 194, 208-209, 215)

4. The experience of several manufacturers has shown that it is possible to prepare satisfactory cream cheese and neufchatel cheese where nonfat dry milk solids, concentrated skim milk, or concentrated milk (each with sufficient water to reconstitute) has been used in whole or in part to replace the fluid milk and skim milk prescribed by the present definitions and standards of identity for these cheeses. It will be possible to produce cream cheese and neufchatel cheese to satisfy the demand throughout the year if the definitions and standards of identity for these cheeses are amended to permit the use of nonfat dry milk solids, concentrated skim milk, and concentrated milk, reconstituted with water when necessary. (R. 26, 27-28, 29, 96, 106-127, 188-191)

5. Cream which conforms to the definition and standard of identity for "Cream class of food" (21 CFR., Cum. Supp. 18.500) is not rendered a different food by reason of having been frozen and later thawed. No change in the present definitions and standards of identity for cream cheese and neufchatel cheese is necessary to permit the use of the so-called plastic cream and frozen cream. The evidence with respect to dried cream and dried milk was not sufficient to warrant findings that these products as now made can be used to replace cream and milk in the manufacture of cream cheese and neufchatel cheese. (R. 48, 83, 89, 127-128, 172, 184-185, 208-209, 211-213, 255-260)

6. The experience of many manufacturers of cottage cheese has shown that satisfactory cottage cheese can be prepared where nonfat dry milk solids or concentrated skim milk (reconstituted with water) has been used to replace skim milk in whole or in part. It will be possible to produce cottage cheese to satisfy the demand throughout the year if the definition and standard of identity for cottage cheese is amended to provide for the use of these ingredients. (R. 26, 28-29, 43-45, 52-54, 58, 62-63, 95, 98, 108-127, 132-134, 145-150, 153-154, 179-180, 203-208, 233-237)

7. Some witnesses suggested that the definition and standard of identity for creamed cottage cheese be amended to permit using concentrated and dried forms of milk and skim milk (reconstituted with water) in making up the "creaming" fluid used in preparing creamed cottage cheese. Witnesses so testifying either had had only limited experience with actual use of such "reconstituted cream" in preparing creamed cottage cheese or had had no such experience but saw no reason for not so reconstituting "cream" for this purpose. This testimony was not sufficiently substantial evidence to serve as the basis for an order to amend the definition and standard of identity for creamed cottage cheese. Moreover, consumers expect the fluid on creamed cottage cheese to be cream or cream with fluid milk or skim milk, and a "creaming" fluid reconstituted with concentrated or dried milk or skim milk and water would not conform to the identity expected by consumers. (R. 35-36, 45, 48-51, 53, 60, 64, 85-86, 99-102, 116, 121-122, 124-126, 136-138, 150, 157, 160, 179-182, 186, 195-196, 253, 256-259)

Conclusion. Upon consideration of the whole record and the foregoing findings of fact, it is concluded that it will promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to amend the definitions and standards of identity for cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, and cottage cheese so that after amendment they are as given below, but that it would not promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers to amend the definition and standard of identity for creamed cottage cheese.

(b) (1) Cream or a mixture of cream with one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph is pasteurized and may be homogenized. To such cream or mixture harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added, and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt; it may be heated, with or without added cream or one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph or both until it becomes fluid, and it may then be homogenized or otherwise mixed.

(2) In the preparation of cream cheese one or any mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients gum karaya, gum tragacanth, carob bean gum, gelatin, or algin may be used; but the quantity of any such ingredient or mixture is such that the total weight of the solids contained therein is not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished cream cheese when the milk or skim milk was concentrated or dried.

(3) The dairy ingredients referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are milk, skim milk, concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, and nonfat dry milk solids. If concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, or nonfat dry milk solids is used, water may be added in a quantity not in excess of that removed.

(4) For the purposes of this section, the term "milk" means sweet milk of cows, "skim milk" means milk from which the milk fat has been separated, and "concentrated skim milk" means skim milk from which a portion of the water has been removed by evaporation.

(c) When an optional ingredient listed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section is present in cream cheese, the label shall bear the statement "---------- Added" or "With Added ----------," the blank being filled in with the word or words "Vegetable Gum" or "Gelatin" or "Algin" or any combination of two or all of these, as the case may be. Wherever the name "Cream Cheese" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

§ 19.520 Neufchatel cheese; identity; label statement of optional ingredients. (a) Neufchatel cheese is the soft uncured cheese prepared by the procedure set forth in paragraph (b) of this section. The finished neufchatel cheese contains not less than 20 percent but less than 33 percent of milk fat and not more than 65 percent of moisture, as determined, respectively, by the methods prescribed under "Fat—Official" on page 302 and under "Moisture—Official" on page 301 of "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists," Fifth Edition, 1940. (These methods appear in the Sixth Edition, 1945, at pages 337 and 336.)

(b) (1) Milk or a mixture of cream with one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph or a mixture of concentrated milk with milk or with water not in excess of that removed when the milk was concentrated is pasteurized and may be homogenized. To such milk or mixture harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt; it may be heated, with or without added cream or one or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph or both until it becomes fluid, and it may then be homogenized or otherwise mixed.

(2) In the preparation of neufchatel cheese one or any mixture of two or more of the optional ingredients gum karaya, gum tragacanth, carob bean gum, gelatin, or algin may be used; but the quantity of any such ingredient or mixture is such that the total weight of the solids contained therein is not more than 0.5 percent of the weight of the finished neufchatel cheese.

(3) The dairy ingredients referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are milk, skim milk, concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, and nonfat dry milk solids. If concentrated milk, concentrated skim milk, or nonfat dry milk solids is used, water may be added in a quantity not in excess of that removed when the milk or skim milk was concentrated or dried.

(4) For the purposes of this section the term "milk" means sweet milk of cows; "skim milk" means milk from which the milk fat has been separated, and "concentrated skim milk" means skim milk from which a portion of the water has been removed by evaporation.

(c) When an optional ingredient listed in paragraph (b) (2) of this section is present in neufchatel cheese, the label shall bear the statement "---------- Added" or "With Added ----------", the blank being filled in with the word or words "Vegetable Gum" or "Gelatin" or "Algin" or any combination of two or all of these, as the case may be. Wherever the name "Neufchatel Cheese" appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the statement herein specified showing the optional ingredients present shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, without intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

(b) (1) One or more of the dairy ingredients specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph is pasteurized; calcium chloride may be added in a quantity of not more than 0.02 percent (calculated as anhydrous calcium chloride) of the weight of the mix; harmless lactic-acid-producing bacteria, with or without rennet, are added and it is held until it becomes coagulated. The coagulated mass may be cut; it may be warmed; it may be stirred; it is then drained. The curd may be washed with water and further drained; it may be pressed, chilled, worked, seasoned with salt.

(2) The dairy ingredients referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph are sweet skim milk, concentrated skim milk, and nonfat dry milk solids. If concentrated skim milk or nonfat dry milk solids is used, water may be added in a quantity not in excess of that removed when the skim milk was concentrated or dried.

(3) For the purposes of this section the term "skim milk" means the milk of cows from which the milk fat has been separated, and "concentrated skim milk" means skim milk from which a portion of the water has been removed by evaporation.

The effects of curtailed production of fluid milk will be felt by October 1, 1948, and will constitute an emergency condition insofar as the production of cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, cottage cheese, and creamed cottage cheese is concerned. In order to exercise the function of amending definitions and standards of identity for these foods in a due and timely manner, it is necessary that the order amending such standards be issued promptly. After examination of the record of hearing it is found that no controversy exists between the persons who appeared at the hearing relative to the proposals to amend the definitions and standards of identity for cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, and cottage cheese, and it will promote the purposes of the act to issue a final order without publication of a tentative order. Because of the urgent need of amending the definitions and standards of identity for such cheeses, as appears by the record, it is found that due and timely functions of the Agency, namely, promoting honesty and fair dealing in the interest of consumers, imperatively and unavoidably require the omission of the publication of a tentative order with respect to cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, and cottage cheese.

There was a controversy at the hearing with respect to the use of concentrated milk, dried milk, concentrated skim milk, or nonfat dry milk solids, with water, to be mixed with cream for use in creaming cottage cheese (finding 7). It is found that there is no urgent need for such amendment, and the publication of a tentative order on this subject is in the interest of all concerned.

Wherefore, it is ordered, That the foregoing amendments to the definitions and standards of identity for cream cheese, neufchatel cheese, and cottage cheese become effective on the fifteenth day following publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

It is further ordered, That the proposal to amend the definition and standard of identity for creamed cottage cheese be denied. Any interested person whose appearance was filed at the hearing may, within 20 days from the date of publication of this order in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file with the Hearing Clerk, Federal Security Agency, Office of the General Counsel, Room 3346, Federal Security Building, Fourth Street and Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D. C., written exceptions to finding 7, or any part thereof, and to the order refusing to amend the definition and standard of identity for creamed cottage cheese. Exceptions shall point out with particularity the alleged errors in finding 7, and in the refusal to amend the definition and standard of identity for creamed cottage cheese, and shall contain specific references to the pages of the transcript of the testimony or to the exhibits on which each exception is based. Such exceptions may be accompanied with a memorandum or brief in support thereof. Exceptions and accompanying memoranda or briefs should be submitted in quintuplicate.

CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH APPROVAL OF EXPLOSIVES IS GRANTED

Section 15.9 (b) (2), footnote 4 (a) permits certain practices until June 30, 1948, under the conditions there stated. It is now necessary and desirable that the time within which these practices are permitted should be forthwith extended retroactively and the conditions stated more explicitly. Section 15.9 (b) (2), footnote 4 (a) is amended to read:

PART 501—EMPLOYMENT OF TROOPS IN AID OF CIVIL AUTHORITIES

Sec.
501.1 In general.
501.2 Emergency.
501.3 Command.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.1 to 501.3, inclusive, issued under R. S. 5297-5299; 50 U. S. C. 201-203.

SOURCE: AR 500-50, 17 Aug. 1948.

§ 501.1 In general. (a) The protection of life and property and the maintenance of law and order within the territorial jurisdiction of any State are the primary responsibility of State and local authorities. Intervention with Federal troops pursuant to the provisions of this part will take place only:

(1) After State and local authorities have utilized all of their own forces and are unable to control the situation, or

(2) When the situation is beyond the capabilities of State or local authorities, or

(3) When State and local authorities will not take appropriate action, or

(4) Under the provisions of certain statutes.

(b) Except in cases of imminent necessity falling within the provisions of § 501.2, intervention with Federal troops will take place only when the Department of the Army has generally or specifically so ordered.

(c) The normal channel between the field and the Department of the Army on matters relating to intervention with Federal troops is through the Director of Plans and Operations, General Staff, United States Army, whose office will be open at all times for this purpose. The Director of Plans and Operations will be kept fully informed on all matters relating to such intervention or the possibility thereof.

§ 501.2 Emergency. In case of sudden and unexpected invasion, insurrection, or riot, endangering the public property of the United States, or of attempted or threatened robbery or interruption of the United States mails, or of earthquake, fire, or flood, or other public calamity disrupting the normal processes of Government, or other equivalent emergency, so imminent as to render it dangerous to await instructions from the Department of the Army requested through the speediest means of communication available, an officer of the Army in command of troops may take such action, before the receipt of instructions, as the circumstances of the case reasonably justify. Such action, without prior authorization, of necessity may be prompt and vigorous, but should be designed for the preservation of order and the protection of life and property until such time as instructions from higher authority have been received, rather than as an assumption of functions normally performed by the civilian authorities. In any event, the officer taking such action immediately will report his action and the circumstances requiring it to the Department of the Army, through the Director of Plans and Operations, General Staff, United States Army, by the speediest means of communication available, in order that appropriate instructions can be issued at the earliest possible moment.

§ 501.3 Command. (a) In the enforcement of the laws, troops are employed as a part of the military power of the United States and act under the orders of the President as Commander in Chief. When intervention with Federal troops has taken place, the duly designated military commander will act to the extent necessary to accomplish his mission. In the accomplishment of his mission, reasonable necessity is the measure of his authority.

(b) Federal troops used for intervention in aid of the civil authorities will be under the command of and directly responsible to their military superiors. They will not be placed under the command of an officer of the State Guard or of the National Guard not in the Federal service, or of any State, local, or Federal civil official; any unlawful or unauthorized act on the part of such troops would not be excusable on the ground that it was the result of an order or request received from any such officer or official.

(c) State Guard or National Guard troops not in the Federal service cannot be commanded by a United States Army officer except with the consent of the State. The commanding general of the army concerned or of the Military District of Washington is responsible to secure, whenever possible, prior undertakings or agreements by State authorities to insure full cooperation of the State Guard or National Guard troops not in the Federal service with the military commander in the affected area in the event of intervention with Federal troops. The employment by the State of its own forces must not interfere with or impede Federal functions or activities.

PART 502—RELIEF ASSISTANCE

Sec.
502.1 Authority for undertaking relief work.
502.2 Personnel, material, and supplies available for relief work.
502.3 Supplies.
502.4 Camps and cantonments.
502.10 Rules and regulations governing parcel post shipments of individual relief packages to Japan, Korea, and the Ryukyus.

AUTHORITY: §§ 502.1 to 502.10, inclusive, issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22 except as noted following section affected.

SOURCE: AR 500-60, 1 Dec. 1939, except as noted following section affected.

§ 502.1 Authority for undertaking relief work. Disaster relief will not be undertaken by the Department of the Army without specific authority of Congress unless:

(a) Overruling demands of humanity compel immediate action to prevent starvation and extreme suffering, in which event army area commanders will use personnel and supplies, as placed under their control within their discretion, and will advise The Adjutant General of action taken.

(b) Local resources are clearly inadequate to cope with the situation, in which event the relief measures to be undertaken will be such as the army area commander may deem necessary, subject to the further provisions of the regulations in this part. Local resources as here used comprise all resources available to the respective State and municipal authorities augmented by those available to the Red Cross in the affected areas.

§ 502.2 Personnel, material, and supplies available for relief work. (a) For the purposes of emergency relief, all military personnel and military supplies and equipment in the affected army area, with the exception of the National Guard and military supplies and equipment under the control of the governor of any State or Territory, and of general depots of the Department of the Army, will during the continuance of the relief work, and without the issue of formal orders to that effect, pass under the direct control of the army area commander. When a deficiency exists, request for additional personnel, supplies, and material will be submitted to The Adjutant General setting forth in detail the requirements.

(b) With a view to the fullest conservation of military supplies, it is directed that:

(1) The use of troops and the issue of supplies under the conditions set forth herein are authorized during the actual existence of the emergency. The regulations in this part are not to be construed as authorizing assistance during the period of rehabilitation which necessarily follows such catastrophes. Troops will be withdrawn and the issue of supplies stopped at the earliest practicable moment.

(2) Under the circumstances of § 502.1 (b), issue of supplies will be made normally only after the need has been confirmed by the Red Cross under the procedure set forth in the 1938 agreement with the Red Cross approved by the Secretary of the Army and the Chairman of the American National Red Cross.

§ 502.3 Supplies—(a) Not issued to employers. In no case will relief supplies of any description be issued to employers for their employees.

(b) Relief limited to those entitled to it. Care should be taken to see that aid is extended solely to those actually in need of relief, and it must be ascertained not only that the need really exists but that the needy condition is due to the flood, fire, or other catastrophe which made Government aid necessary.

(c) Reimbursement for losses not authorized. In no case will Government supplies or funds be used to reimburse sufferers for losses sustained. The Army's mission in the territory affected is to save life and prevent suffering, and not to replace losses.

(d) Sale. If the catastrophe is of such a character that no supplies are available except those in possession of the military authorities, such supplies may be sold, in the discretion of the army area commander, at cost to those who are able to pay for same, but such sales must be made under the restrictions heretofore laid down that the supplies are needed to prevent suffering directly resulting from the catastrophe. The funds received from this source will be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States in accordance with regulations. These sales are here authorized in order to meet unforeseen contingencies but should rarely be necessary.

§ 502.4 Camps and cantonments. Whenever conditions permit, sufferers will be assembled in camps, cantonments, or large buildings where proper supervision can be given to the distribution and use of supplies, sanitation, general welfare conditions, and the safeguarding of nonexpendable Government property. If a tent camp is established, it should be arranged and operated substantially as an ordinary military camp with the following modifications.

(a) Tents assigned to families with certain streets reserved for unmarried men and other streets for unmarried women, not assigned to family tents. Ordinarily four persons to a tent.

(b) Sufficient military personnel to operate the camp and enforce police, property, and sanitary regulations.

(c) Cooking arrangements preferably handled by one of the relief organizations, furnishing them, if necessary, with Government stoves and utensils.

(d) Necessary steps will be taken, by the posting of sentries around the camp or by other practicable available means, to prevent the theft of property and to enforce regulations regarding entrance or egress.

§ 502.10 Rules and regulations governing parcel post shipments of individual relief packages to Japan, Korea, and the Ryukyus—(a) Scope of section. Provided herein are rules under which the Department of the Army will pay ocean freight charges from United States ports to certain foreign ports of entry of relief packages originating in the United States (including its territories and insular possessions) and consigned by an individual by parcel post to an individual residing in Japan, Korea, or the Ryukyus Islands.

(b) Definition of relief package. A "relief package" is defined as a gift parcel, containing articles permitted by paragraph (d) of this section to be sent by an individual free of cost to the person receiving it for the personal use of himself or his immediate family.

(c) Manner of payment of ocean freight charges. The Department of the Army will reimburse the Post Office Department for the ocean freight charges on relief packages sent by parcel post by an individual on or after August 2, 1948, to the countries listed above, to the extent that the international parcel post rate paid by the sender has been reduced pursuant to regulations of the Post Office Department.

(d) Limitations of contents of relief packages. (1) The items which may be included in relief packages are those approved by the Department of the Army and published from time to time in Post Office Bulletins. These items include nonperishable food; clothing and clothes-making materials; shoes and shoe-making materials; mailable medical and health supplies; and household supplies and utensils, if permitted under existing postal regulations.

(2) The combined total domestic retail value of all soap, butter, and other edible fats and oils included in each relief package must not exceed $5.00; and the combined total domestic retail value of all streptomycin, quinine sulfate, and quinine hydrochloride included in each relief package must not exceed $5.00.

(e) Weight and size limitations. The maximum weight and dimensions of each relief package sent by parcel post must conform to the limitations established by the Post Office Department for the particular country of destination.

(f) Identification. When a relief package is presented for mailing under this section, the words "U. S. A. Gift Parcel" shall be endorsed on the addressee side of the package and also entered on the customs declaration. The use of the words "U. S. A. Gift Parcel" is a certification by the individual mailing the relief package that the provisions of this section have been met.

(g) Postal regulations. Information concerning the Post Office regulations should be obtained from the local offices of the Post Office Department with respect to size and weight limitations, customs declaration (Form 2966), dispatch note (Form 2972), and the postage rate applicable for such shipments.

(h) Import regulations. Senders of relief packages are reminded that each receiving country has import and customs regulations and that certain items may be subject to import restrictions or duties. Information regarding such import and customs regulations may be ascertained either from the proposed recipient, from the Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., or any of the district offices of the Department of Commerce.

(i) Saving clause. The Secretary of the Army and the Postmaster General may waive, withdraw, or amend at any time or from time to time any or all of the regulations contained in this section. [Regs. Aug. 2, 1948, SAOSA] (Pub. Law 793, 80th Cong.)

PART 503—ARREST AND CONFINEMENT OF PERSONS NOT SUBJECT TO MILITARY LAW

§ 503.1 Persons not subject to military law. Persons not subject to military law may be placed in arrest or confinement by members of the Military Establishment, as follows:

(a) General. All members of the Military Establishment have the ordinary right and duty of civilians to assist in the maintenance of the peace. Where, therefore, a felony or a misdemeanor amounting to a breach of the peace is being committed, it is the right and duty of every member of the military service, as of every civilian, to arrest the perpetrator no matter what his status.

(b) By members of the guard or of military police. Members of the guard or of military police may place persons not subject to military law in arrest or confinement when apprehended while in the act of committing a felony or a misdemeanor amounting to a breach of the peace within the limits of military jurisdiction.

(c) Restraint. The restraint imposed under the provisions of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section will not exceed that reasonably necessary, nor extend beyond such time as may be required to dispose of the case by orderly transfer of custody to civil authority or otherwise, under the law.

(d) Ejection. Persons not subject to military law who are found within the limits of military jurisdiction in the act of committing a breach of regulations, not amounting to a felony or a breach of the peace, may be removed therefrom upon orders from the commanding officer and ordered by him not to reenter. For penalty imposed upon reentrance after ejection see section 45, act of March 4, 1909, as amended by act of March 28, 1940 (35 Stat. 1097, 54 Stat. 80; 18 U. S. C. 97). 504.1 General.
504.2 Definition.
504.3 Responsibility for public relations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 504.1 to 504.6, inclusive, issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.
SOURCE: AR 600–700, 16 Aug. 1946.

§ 504.1 General. (a) Because of the importance of the Military Establishment in the defense and welfare of the Nation and its traditional role of a public servant, it is the responsibility of the Army to insure that the American public is fully and accurately informed concerning the purpose and activities of the Army as well as its place in the American community.

(b) The broad mission of public relations is to maintain close and friendly understanding between the Army and the public through the dissemination of information, the attainment of public recognition, and the maintenance of public confidence in the Military Establishment, to insure efficient and adequate military security for the United States.

§ 504.2 Definition. Public relations is defined as any planned program or procedure which will elicit public understanding and good will. It includes continuous dissemination of information to the public, participation in community life, and a line of conduct by uniformed personnel which will contribute to public understanding and appreciation of the military service.

§ 504.3 Responsibility for public relations. (a) The fostering of proper public relations is a responsibility of command, extending through all echelons and ranks. All members of the Army are representatives of the service before the public and share that responsibility in their conduct.

(b) Commanders of all echelons, units and military installations are charged with the conduct of public relations within their jurisdiction.

(c) The Signal Corps and the Department of the Air Force will maintain the official pictorial files of their departments appropriate to their respective activities.

(d) The Department of the Army Public Information Division is the agency designated to deal with the public on matters of concern to the Army as a whole. The United States Air Force is authorized to deal with the public in purely air matters in accordance with the broad over-all policies established by the Department of the Air Force. Subject to established policies and regulations governing the security of military information as promulgated by the Director of Intelligence, United States Army General Staff, the Public Information Division initiates policies which, upon approval, will guide the conduct of public relations with lower echelons and in the field.

§ 504.4 Public relations operations in the field. (a) A public relations officer will be appointed to the staff of each post, camp, or station and to the staffs of regiments, air force groups, and equivalent units or higher commands. Public relations officers of posts, camps, stations, and units larger than regiments will have the status of special staff officers. Wherever conditions permit this should be their principal duty. Appointments will be made by unit and installation commanders.

(b) Subject to the supervision of the commanding officer, and in consonance with approved security policy, the duties of a public relations officer include the following:

(1) Advice to the commanding officer on public relations matters, particularly on relations between the command and the nearby communities, but excluding functions of representatives of the Civil Affairs Division and other military Government agencies.

(2) Liaison with civilian groups, including the dissemination of information pertaining to the command to local information media.

(3) Review, under established policies, of material for dissemination to the public and of material for publication in unit and post newspapers.

(4) Reception of all representatives of local and national information media and assistance to them in obtaining desired material relating to the command.

(c) On posts where two or more military units or activities are situated, public relations responsibility will rest with the senior permanent commander stationed there. All public relations activities under his jurisdiction will be coordinated as he may direct.

(d) Direct communication between public relations offices regardless of command channels is authorized to expedite the exchange of information. Such communication, for the purpose of coordination and mutual assistance, in no way infringes upon the responsibility and authority of commanders.

§ 504.5 Department of the Army Public Information Division. (a) The Department of the Army Public Information Division will initiate policies to govern the conduct of public relations within lower echelons and in the field. All agencies dealing with public relations and related activities will operate under the policies laid down by the Department of the Army.

(b) The Public Information Division, consisting of the Chief, Public Information Division, and assigned personnel, will function under the supervision of the Chief of Information, Department of the Army. Policies initiated by the division will be approved by the Chief of Information prior to publication as Department of the Army policies.

(c) Material of general interest to the public emanating from the Department of the Army will be released through the Public Information Division unless other provision is made by the division.

(d) To accomplish its mission the Public Information Division must have timely knowledge of Department of the Army plans and actions. To this end each staff division, service, and major command will, as a general rule, make available all information desired by the Chief, Public Information Division. When, in the opinion of the head of the division, chief of service, or major commander, information should be withheld in the national interest, decision by higher authority will be obtained. Release of information obtained from any Department of the Army agency upon request will be released only after coordination with originating agency.

(e) Direct communication is authorized between the Public Information Division and commanders of posts, camps, stations, installations, field and oversea commands on matters pertaining to public relations.

§ 504.6 Public activities by military personnel. (a) Members of the Army of the United States usually appear before the public in an official or semiofficial capacity and so contribute to the impression formed by the public. Consequently, care will be taken to differentiate between personal ideas and opinions, and official plans and purposes. Furthermore, their military status limits the extent to which members of the Army may, with propriety, make public pronouncements on political, diplomatic, legislative, administrative measures, and on matters the treatment of which tends to prejudice discipline, to involve superior officers in controversy, to interpret official publications, or to define military procedure.

(b) Within the bounds of security and propriety the writing of articles, books, and other related material intended for publication, and the engaging in public and private discussions on appropriate occasions, by officers and enlisted men, on topics of military, professional, or general interest concerning the Army, or in the interest of the national defense, are authorized and desirable.

(c) Literary activities of military personnel not covered by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are limited only by the dictates of propriety and good taste. For additional references dealing with public activities of military personnel see § 513.1 of this chapter.

(c) Applications for information or records compiled and furnished at the request of the Department of the Army for its use in the assurance of adequate provision for the mobilization of matériel and industrial organizations essential to wartime needs will be referred to the Under Secretary of the Army, for necessary action. The service of any process or subpoena for the production of any such record will be reported immediately by the person on whom it is served to the United States attorney for the district in which the service is made and, at the same time, direct to the Under Secretary of the Army.

§ 505.6 Dissemination of classified military information. When classified military information is disseminated under the provisions of this part to persons not subject to military law, they will be informed that it affects the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act and that its transmission to an unauthorized person is prohibited.

§ 505.7 Responsibility for safeguarding technical information. (a) Chiefs of technical services engaged in the preparation of plans, research, and development work, or new design, test, production, procurement, storage, or use of classified matériel are responsible for the promulgation of such additional instructions as may be required for the safeguarding of information in the offices, establishments, laboratories, shops, or Army posts under their jurisdiction.

(b) All top secret, confidential, or restricted models, exhibits, dies, machines, and other similar items which are to be loaned, leased, or given to a commercial organization will be properly marked to indicate classification when practicable. If such marking is impracticable, the commercial organization will be specifically notified in writing of the classification of such items and of the pertinent provisions of the Espionage Act.

§ 505.8 Classification of information from commercial firms. Information obtained from civilian manufacturers concerning proprietary processes will be classified as confidential unless otherwise authorized by the firm concerned.

§ 505.9 Dissemination of classified technical information. Classified information concerning technical projects or developments may be imparted only to those individuals whose official duties require such knowledge or possession, and to accredited representatives of foreign nations in accordance with the provisions of § 505.5 (b).

§ 505.10 Invitations for bids and contracts. Prior to furnishing a prospective bidder, subbidder, contractor, or subcontractor with drawings, specifications, or other pertinent information concerning any project or projects of a top secret, secret, confidential, or restricted nature and annually thereafter so long as such documents, etc., are in his custody, clearance will be obtained in accordance with separate letter instructions and a general secrecy agreement will be signed by the individual or by a responsible officer on behalf of the firm or corporation concerned.

§ 505.11 Consultation with responsible manufacturers. The commanding officers of arsenals and depots and other officers engaged in work on Government contracts are authorized to consult with all interested manufacturers or their representatives, inventors, and other persons concerning technical matters in which they have a legitimate interest. § 505.12 Responsibility of Army representatives or inspectors. (a) The Army representatives or inspectors of the technical service are the local representatives of the Department of the Army and will take the necessary measures to insure the safeguarding of classified information or projects in the hands of the contractors or subcontractors or in process of manufacture in their plants.

(b) Army representatives or inspectors will advise contractors or subcontractors as to their responsibilities and the practical measures to be taken to safeguard top secret, secret, confidential, or restricted matters, and will act favorably, if practicable, on any suggestion or request of the company tending to preserve secrecy. If at any time conditions at any plant, or any action of a company or its employees, jeopardize the security of classified matter pertaining to the Department of the Army or violate the provisions of the Espionage Act, the Army representative or inspector will request the contractor or subcontractor to take prompt remedial action. If adequate precautionary measures are not taken immediately, he will report promptly to the chief of the technical service concerned and, if the situation requires, to the commanding general of the service command in which the item is in process of manufacture.

(c) When Army and Navy inspectors are on duty at the same plant, the Army inspector will coordinate all security measures with the Navy inspector in order to avoid conflicting demands upon contractors.

§ 505.13 Responsibility of Government contractors. (a) A private individual, firm, or corporation which enters into a contract to engage in technical work for the Department of the Army becomes responsible in matters within his or its control for the safeguarding of all top secret, secret, confidential, or restricted matters that may be disclosed or that may be developed in connection therewith. A clause to this effect will be included in such a contract, but its omission will not release the contractor from his responsibility under the Espionage Act and other pertinent laws.

(b) Contractors are responsible that all classified projects allotted to subcontractors or agents are fully protected by a similar agreement.

(c) Whenever for any reason a contract agreement or subcontract has been made which does not include a security clause but later is found to involve top secret, secret, confidential, or restricted matter, the technical service concerned will take the necessary steps to insure that the project or work is properly classified and that the contractor, agent, or subcontractor is informed of the classification and of his responsibility in the matter.

§ 505.14 Public display of classified matériel. (a) Commanding officers are responsible that all classified parts, components, or features of matériel are properly safeguarded during maneuvers, drills, parades, ceremonies, assemblages, demonstrations, or exhibitions, or exhibitions open to the general public.

§ 505.16 Classification of visitors—(a) Foreign nationals. For the purpose of §§ 505.1 to 505.21, inclusive, the term "foreign nationals" includes all persons not citizens of the United States, and citizens of the United States while a representative, official, or employee of a foreign government, firm, corporation, or individual.

Authority for admission will be in writing.

(3) Accredited reporters, photographers, and other representatives of publicity agencies may be admitted to Department of the Army installations or manufacturing establishments engaged on work for the Department of the Army, provided classified matter, projects, or processes of manufacture are not shown or discussed with them.

§ 505.18 Responsibility of commanding officer, Army representative, or inspector regarding admission of visitors. The commanding officer of a military establishment or the Army representative or inspector at a commercial establishment is the local representative of the Department of the Army in all matters regarding the admission of visitors. If, in his opinion, the situation at the time makes the admission of a visitor inadvisable, he is empowered to postpone the visit and request instructions from the office which authorized it.

§ 505.19 Responsibility of Government contractors regarding admission of persons and visitors. (a) Contractors or subcontractors engaged in work for the Department of the Army must place such restrictions on the movements of persons employed or entering their plants or offices as will give adequate security to top secret, secret, confidential, or restricted matters in their possession. In view of the wide differences in organization, arrangement, and physical makeup of individual plants, no specific rules are practicable. Therefore, local conditions at the plant and the classification of the project will determine the security measures to be adopted.

(b) The following general procedure in regard to visitors at establishments of plants engaged in classified projects for the Department of the Army is prescribed:

(1) Visitors will be accompanied during their stay at the plant by the inspector or Army representative, a member of his office, or some responsible person who is specifically informed as to the necessary limitations or restrictions, the scope of the visit, and the information which may be furnished.

§ 509.3 Embarkation. (a) Troop movements will be made so far as practicable without attracting undue attention.

(b) All persons not on official business will be excluded from the piers at all times.

(c) Members of families, relatives, or friends of personnel under oversea movement or travel orders will not be allowed in the vicinity of piers on the day of sailing.

§ 509.4 Periods of peace or following termination of hostilities—(a) Application. The provisions of this section will apply only during periods other than those of hostilities.

(b) Normal security requirements. Information or documents concerning movements of personnel or supplies will normally be unclassified.

(c) Classification requirements. Elements of information (such as destination, mission, and other elements which should be safeguarded) concerning movements of personnel or supplies, other than movements within oversea areas in which United States Army forces are stationed, will be classified secret, confidential, or restricted only when such classification is authorized by the Department of the Army.

PART 510—CHAPLAINS

§ 510.1 Ceremonial. Chaplains will conduct appropriate burial services at the interment of members of the military service, active and retired, and for members of the families of these when requested. They are authorized to perform the marriage rite, upon proper legal authorization in each case, and will administer Christian baptism and perform such other religious rites for members of the military personnel and civilians residing upon or employed in the military reservation as may be required, according to their respective creeds or conscientious practice in each case. On Memorial Day the chaplain who is on duty at a post on which a military cemetery is located will, under the direction of the commanding officer, supervise the decoration of the graves therein and will arrange for such public memorial exercises as the place and occasion may warrant. AUTHORITY: §§ 511.1 to 511.5, inclusive, issued under R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22.
SOURCE: AR 600–550, 23 June 1947.

§ 511.1 Notification to nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of emergency. (a) In case of death occurring at a decedent's regular post, camp, station, or other command within the continental United States, excluding Alaska, the commanding officer of that post, camp, station, or other command will, if possible, send notification of death by commercial telegraph to the nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of emergency. In case of death beyond the jurisdiction of the decedent's regular post, camp, station, or other command, the commanding officer of the post, camp, station, or other command nearest the place of death, who is responsible for preparation of remains under the provisions of Army regulations, will send the notification of death to the nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of emergency. Such notification will include the fact, date, place and cause of death, and will, when early shipment of the remains is practicable, request the person notified to reply by telegraph whether it is desired to have the remains shipped home, and if such shipment is desired, to designate the name and address of the funeral director to whom the remains will be consigned and the name and address of the person who will incur and be responsible for interment expenses. Under no circumstances will the notification include a statement relative to line of duty or misconduct. In view of the importance and urgency of telegraphic reports of death, a definite address, including street number when known, will be given in all cases in order that prompt and correct delivery may be made.

(b) Effective 1 July 1946, in cases of deaths occurring outside the continental limits of the United States, including Alaska, upon receipt of the report required by Army Regulations, The Adjutant General will, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, notify the nearest relative, or other person designated to be notified in case of emergency, of the fact of death, requesting the next of kin to advise The Quartermaster General by wire disposition and shipping instructions, except in cases of natives of countries concerned when Army Regulations will govern.

(c) When the person to be notified resides within the geographical limits of the theater, command, or department in which death occurs the notification of the fact of death to such person will be made in the name of the Secretary of the Army by the appropriate commander. The Adjutant General will be advised that the notification has been made.

§ 511.2 Letter of sympathy to nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of emergency. (a) When death occurs on a transport, the letter of sympathy will be prepared by:

(1) The commanding officer of the unit of which the deceased was a member;

(2) If there is no unit commander, the commanding officer of troops on board the transport;

(3) If there is no unit commander or commanding officer of troops, the master of the vessel; and will be turned over to the transportation agent to be mailed to the nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of emergency.

(b) In cases of death in oversea commands, except where the nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of an emergency resides locally, the letter of sympathy will be prepared by The Adjutant General upon receipt of the report of death. When the nearest relative or other person designated to be notified in case of an emergency resides in the country in which the death occurs the local commander will prepare the letter of sympathy. In every case of death overseas, the emergency addressee or the next of kin will be advised by air mail letter direct of the circumstances surrounding death, including specific cause and place, the grave location, information about the burial service, and all other information of a personal or sentimental nature which may be of comfort to the family.

(b) Vouchers will not be furnished to a supposed beneficiary by anyone other than the Finance Officer, U. S. Army, St. Louis, except that in oversea commands such vouchers may be furnished by the disbursing officer authorized to make payment of the gratuity.

§ 511.4 Effects—(a) Disposition of effects. Action will be taken in accordance with instructions contained in TM 10–285, as defined by 112th Article of War upon the death of any person subject to military law, as shown in the second article of war, who dies within the continental limits of the United States, excluding Alaska.

(1) Upon the death of any persons, subject to military law as defined by the 2d Article of War, who die or are reported as "missing persons" outside the continental limits of the United States, including Alaska, subsequent to January 1, 1948, disposition of their effects will be direct to the legal next of kin and not through the Army Effects Bureau.

(b) When death occurs on board a transport. (1) The effects of persons who die aboard a transport will be secured and listed and each lot will be securely boxed and crated. Three copies of the list will be prepared. One copy of the list will be inclosed with the effects in the container and one securely pasted on the outside of the container. The effects will then be turned over to the transportation agent for safekeeping and for delivery to the port transportation officer at a port in the United States for disposition in the manner prescribed in the 112th Article of War.

(2) When part of the effects are stored in the hold of the transport, or when it is impracticable for any reason to secure all the effects, the effects accessible will be secured and listed and turned over to the transportation agent, who will, upon the arrival of the transport at a port of embarkation or debarkation, secure and list all the effects, prepare the list in triplicate, and take the action indicated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The receipts for the effects will be obtained by the transportation agent from the port transportation officer and filed with the record of the transport.

(3) The transportation officer in the United States will dispose of the effects in the manner provided in the 112th Article of War, prepare the inventory in triplicate, and forward the original and first carbon thereof with the final report direct to The Adjutant General.

(c) Clothing, Government property, not part of deceased's effects. Issue clothing of deceased personnel, except authorized purchases, and other than necessary for burial, will be collected and turned in to the unit or other supply office with the individual equipment.

(d) Care against loss of effects. The greatest care will be exercised at all times against the loss of personal effects. Each package, box, or crate will be plainly marked "Effects deceased person" and will bear the full name, grade, serial number, and organization of the person to whom the effects belonged.

(e) Effects of deceased civilian employees not subject to military law. (1) Within continental limits of United States, excluding Alaska: The foregoing provisions of this section do not apply in the case of deceased civilian employees with the Army when they are not subject to military law. In such cases the officer under whom the decedent was serving or such representative of the service in which the decedent has been employed as said officer may designate, will secure the decedent's effects and deliver them to the legal heirs or their representatives. If the effects are not claimed within a reasonable period of time, said officer, or the person designated by him, will deliver the effects, with all available useful information concerning the decedent, to the person designated by the judicial officer of the local civil government having jurisdiction over the estates of deceased persons. In all cases receipts will be obtained and forwarded through chiefs of arms and services to The Adjutant General with complete report of action taken.

(2) Outside continental limits of United States, including Alaska: Outside the continental limits of the United States, including Alaska, local pertinent laws will be complied with.

(f) Stocks, bonds, bank accounts, and other commercial paper not to be converted into cash. (1) The disposal of the effects and cash belonging to the estates of persons dying while subject to military laws will be governed by the procedure set forth in the 112th Article of War.

(2) When delivery of the effects cannot be made to any of the persons named in that article of war and the effects are to be converted into cash, the summary court will not include in the sale of effects any stocks, bonds, bank accounts, or other forms of purely commercial paper, but will forward the same to The Adjutant General for transmission to the Soldiers' Home under the provisions of the act of Congress approved February 21, 1931 (46 Stat. 1203; 10 U. S. C. 1584a).

§ 511.5 Ownership of personal effects of deceased. Communication to the legal next of kin advising of the shipment of personal effects will, at all times, convey the information that shipment of the property does not in any way vest title in the recipient, but that the property is forwarded in order that distribution may be made in accordance with the laws of the State of the decedent's legal residence.

PART 512—PRISONERS

Sec.
512.1 Clemency.
512.2 Visits to prisoners.
512.3 Mail.

AUTHORITY: §§ 512.1 to 512.3, inclusive, issued under 38 Stat. 1074, 1075, 1085, 45 Stat. 988; 10 U. S. C. 1453, 1455, 1457, 1457a, 1457b.

SOURCE: AR 600-375, 6 Jan. 1948.

§ 512.1 Clemency—(a) Applications. Applications for clemency may be made by or in behalf of a general prisoner. Such an application will be in writing, will set forth the grounds upon which the appeal is based, and will be forwarded through channels, with appropriate recommendations, to the proper authorities designated in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section. Good conduct cannot form a basis for clemency, but will aid in obtaining it. After the first application, applications by prisoners will be limited to one each year, unless new and material matter is presented which justifies immediate consideration.

(b) Prisoners confined in United States disciplinary barracks or Federal institutions. The case of each general prisoner who is serving sentence in a United States disciplinary barracks or in a Federal institution will be considered in the Department of the Army for clemency at some time within the first 6 months of the period of confinement and annually thereafter. For prisoners serving sentences in a United States disciplinary barracks, including those carried as absent sick in hospital, the commandant will make appropriate recommendation to The Adjutant General. In the event recommendation is not submitted within the first 6 months and annually thereafter a report will be submitted in each instance stating the reason for such noncompliance. For those prisoners serving sentences in Federal institutions, request will be made by The Adjutant General upon the warden for report when needed.

(c) Prisoners confined at military posts and rehabilitation centers. The case of each general prisoner serving sentence of confinement of 6 months or more at a military post or rehabilitation center will be considered for clemency by the commanding officer holding general court-martial jurisdiction over the prisoner at some time within the first 6 months of the period of confinement and annually thereafter. A report will be submitted to The Adjutant General after each such consideration. In the event a prisoner is not considered for clemency within the first 6 months and annually thereafter, a report will be submitted in each instance stating the reason for such nonconsideration.

(d) Prisoners confined in general, regional, or station hospitals. The case of each general prisoner serving sentence of confinement of 6 months or more who is confined in a general, regional, or station hospital, and whose designated place of confinement is other than a disciplinary barracks, will be considered for clemency by the army commander in whose area the hospital is located at some time within the first 6 months of the period of confinement and annually thereafter. A report will be submitted to The Adjutant General after each such consideration. In the event a prisoner is not considered for clemency within the first 6 months and anually thereafter, a report will be submitted in each instance stating the reason for such nonconsideration.

§ 512.2 Visits to prisoners. Prisoners will be permitted to see relatives or friends under such restrictions as the commanding officer may impose.

§ 512.3 Mail—(a) Outgoing. Each prisoner confined in an Army confinement facility, except those in isolation or solitary confinement, will be permitted to write authorized persons a minimum of one letter each week, all letters to be submitted unsealed for inspection.

(b) Incoming. Incoming mail will, with the prisoner's consent, be opened and inspected by the prison officer. Unless the prisoner consents to inspection, incoming mail may be retained unopened until the prisoner's release, or until disposed of by judicial process. Retained mail will be marked and entered in the personal property book.

PART 513—ASSISTANCE OF CREDITOR BY DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY

§ 513.1 Sales on credit to enlisted men. A person, firm, or corporation desiring to sell merchandise on credit to an enlisted man should, prior to doing so, obtain from the commanding officer of the organization to which the enlisted man belongs approval of the transaction and of the arrangements in connection therewith. The incurring by enlisted men of financial obligations which it will be difficult for them to meet is not regarded with favor, except under most exceptional circumstances. The Department of the Army will not concern itself with the business of persons, firms, or corporations selling merchandise to enlisted men on credit, and all communications with respect to such sales, and all arrangements looking to the establishment of such business relations must be had with the commanding officers of the organizations to which the enlisted men belong. The Department of the Army will decline to assist, by answering inquiries or otherwise, in securing the payment of obligations of this character that are incurred without the previous knowledge and consent of the commanding officers of the organizations to which the debtors belong. [AR 600-10, 8 July 1944] (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22)

PART 514—RANGE REGULATIONS FOR FIRING AMMUNITION FOR TRAINING AND TARGET PRACTICE

§ 514.1 Safety precautions — (a) Safety limits. Safety limits based upon prescribed danger areas will be determined prior to firing or bombing.

(b) Trespassing on land ranges. Before firing or bombing, the danger areas of land ranges will be examined and all persons will be excluded. Livestock will also be excluded unless an agreement has been reached with the owner or owners thereof. Local newspapers will be requested in the interest of safety to publish warnings against trespassing on the range.

(c) Range guards. Range guards properly instructed as to their duties will be posted so as to cover all normal approaches to the danger area.

(d) Warning signals and signs. (1) Scarlet danger flags and, when necessary, warning signs will be displayed at appropriate points to warn persons approaching a firing or bombing area which is being used.

(2) The scarlet streamer will be displayed from a prominent point on all ranges and at all times during firing or bombing. No firing or bombing will take place unless the scarlet streamer is displayed, and will cease at once in case the streamer is hauled down during firing.

(3) At night red lights may be used in lieu of danger flags, and to supplement the scarlet streamer.

(4) Signs warning persons of the danger from bullets, shells, bombs, and duds will be posted in the vicinity of the firing or bombing area at all times.

(e) Water ranges. Prior to firing or bombing over water areas or planting or firing submarine mines in water areas which are used by shipping of any kind, the harbor defense, post, regimental, or similar commander of the firing unit will warn local naval officials and, subject to current instructions regarding secrecy, inform the public of the contemplated firings or submarine mine plantings through one or more of the following agencies: Public press, public radio, Coast Guards or interested public officials. CORRESPONDENTS

SOURCE: FM 30-26, 21 Jan. 1942.

§ 515.1 General. The Army recognizes that correspondents perform an undoubted public function in the dissemination of news concerning the operations of the Army in time of war. Correspondents accompanying troops in the field occupy a dual and delicate position, being under the necessity of truthfully disclosing to the people the facts concerning the operations of the Army, and at the same time of refraining from disclosing those things which, though true, would be disastrous to us if known to the enemy. It is apparent that this important function can only be properly performed under reasonable rules and regulations.

§ 515.2 Definition. The term "correspondent" as used in this manual includes journalists, feature writers, radio commentators, motion pitcure photographers, and still picture photographers accredited by the Department of the Army to a theater of operations or a base command within or without the territorial limits of the United States in time of war. Correspondents are classed as "accredited" and "visiting." This manual pertains principally to the former. (See § 515.18 for instructions concerning visiting correspondents.) Correspondents have the status of noncombatants.

§ 515.3 Status of correspondents. (a) Correspondents in time of war accompanying the armies of the United States, both within and without the territorial jurisdiction of the United States, although not in the military service, are subject to military law (par. (d), 2d Article of War) and are under the control of the commander of the Army force which they accompany.

(b) They are not entitled to the benefits provided by laws enacted exclusively for persons in the military service and they are subject to the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, and regulations prescribed thereunder.

(c) In the event of capture by enemy forces they are entitled to be treated as prisoners of war, provided they are in possession of a certificate from the military authorities of the armed forces which they are accompanying. (Geneva Conference, July 27, 1929, Title VII, Art. 81)

(d) Correspondents will not exercise command, be placed in a position of authority over military personnel, nor will they be armed. They are under the same restrictions as other military personnel as regards the settlement of accounts, compliance with standing orders, and the conducting of themselves with dignity and decorum.

(e) A correspondent becomes subject to military law from the time at which he commences to accompany troops or personnel who are on active service. This will generally be upon his arrival at the field force to which he is accredited, but may commence earlier if he travels to the field force via Government transportation.

§ 515.4 Privileges. (a) Correspondents will be given the same privileges as commissioned officers in the matter of accommodations, transportation, and messing facilities. All courtesies extended them in such matters must be without expense to the Government.

(b) Every reasonable facility and all possible assistance will be given correspondents to permit them to perform efficiently and intelligently their work of keeping the public informed of the activities of our forces within the limits dictated by military necessities.

(c) So far as the exigencies of the service permit, correspondents will receive, without charge, the same medical treatment as that accorded officers.

(d) Correspondents are free to converse with troops whenever they wish to do so, subject to the approval of the officer present with the troops in question. They are requested and expected, however, to refrain from conversing with troops at work or on guard, or from discussing subjects or soliciting answers to matters which are clearly secret.

§ 515.5 Application. (a) Application to accompany U. S. Army forces in the field will be submitted by the individual or by the agency concerned to the Chief, Public Information Division, Special Staff, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C.

(b) The application will state the name and address of the individual; qualifications and past experience in his field of work, including names of former agencies for which he worked; citizenship and place and date of birth; general health condition; the particular force it is desired he accompany; and any other pertinent information which will assist in the consideration of his application.

§ 515.6 Limit on number. (a) The number of correspondents which will be accredited to a particular field force will be within the quota set by the Department of the Army and based upon the recommendation of the force commander as determined by the size of the force, the distance from the usual media of news dissemination, and the availability of accommodations within the command or adjacent communities.

(b) Representation with any one field force will be limited to one correspondent each from press associations, publications, radio, news, and picture syndicates; sole exception to this ruling will be the accrediting of a two man crew in the case of news reels. The Department of the Army objective being the widest possible distribution of information to the American people, preferences in the consideration of applications will be given to agencies representing the largest possible news or picture dissemination.

(c) In view of the importance of the work of correspondents in the field, and the necessary limitations as to the numbers or correspondents accredited to the field forces in any one theater of operations, the Department of the Army will accredit only experienced newspaper men; all other conditions being equal, preference will be given to newspaper men with past military experience or past experience in the coverage of large maneuvers.

(d) No officer, enlisted man, or civilian employee of the military forces serving in the theater of operations will be permitted to be a correspondent for any publication without the written permission of the theater or base commander. Correspondents will not use military titles in signing dispatches.

§ 515.7 Agreement—(a) Accredited correspondents. Before final acceptance an accredited correspondent will be required to sign an agreement, in triplicate, as follows:

§ 515.8 Credentials. (a) When an application for appointment as a correspondent is approved, the applicant will be furnished credentials and a Correspondent's Identification Card by the Chief, Public Information Division, Special Staff, U. S. Army. The card identifies him as an accredited correspondent.

(b) Correspondents will produce their identification cards whenever called for by any officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man in the execution of his duty. Failure to do so will subject the correspondent to arrest or detention.

(c) In addition to the Department of the Army credentials, the particular field force commander may issue a pass or credentials with regulations governing their use.

§ 515.9 Uniform. (a) The proper uniform for accredited correspondents is that of an officer, but less all insignia of grade or arm or service, and without black and gold piping on field caps, officers' hat cords, or officers' insignia on the garrison cap if worn.

(b) The uniform includes the official brassard worn on the left sleeve. This is a green cloth band, 4 inches wide, with a 2-inch white block letter "C" or "P", indicating the function of the correspondent. Journalists, feature writers, and radio commentators will wear "C" brassards. Photographers operating still or motion equipment will wear "P" brassards.

(c) Articles of special clothing and equipment which are issued to officers and enlisted men in cold climates may be issued to correspondents. These articles must be turned in prior to departure from the theater of operations or base command.

(d) Accredited correspondents will not wear civilian clothing while serving with the field force.

§ 515.10 Transportation. (a) Government transportation may be given accredited correspondents with the accommodations of an officer whenever such transportation—water, troop train, air, or automobile—is available and essential military personnel is not displaced or inconvenienced.

(b) The baggage of correspondents will be moved with that of the headquarters to which attached. Its weight will be within the limits prescribed by the commander concerned.

§ 515.11 Reporting upon arrival. (a) Upon arrival in the theater of operations or base command to which accredited, correspondents will report to the intelligence officer of the command, presenting their credentials. It is the intelligence officer, or his assistant in charge of public relations, who will exercise control of correspondents in the name of the field force commander, and it is to him correspondents should turn for assistance and guidance, or to register complaints if believed justified.

(b) All correspondents are officially attached to the headquarters of the field force commander. They may, however, at their own request be placed on duty with a subordinate headquarters nearer to the scene of action. All changes of their base of operations will be done only upon the approval of the field force commander and contingent upon the availability of accommodations at the unit they wish to accompany.

§ 515.12 Filing of material. (a) All dispatches will be delivered, in duplicate, to the intelligence officer, or his assistant, for censorship prior to filing or mailing. In the process of censorship no changes will be made by the censor in dispatches except through deletion. Correspondents, unless the occasion is unusual, will be permitted to see their dispatches after being censored in the event they desire to make a revision, or to note the objectionable portions for future avoidance, or to recheck on wordage for cable charges.

(b) Copy must be submitted for censorship on all broadcast interviews or news broadcasts.

§ 515.13 Censorship of articles for publication—(a) General. In general, articles may be released for publication to the public, Provided:

(1) They are accurate in statement and implication.

(2) They do not supply military information to the enemy.

(3) They will not injure the morale of our forces, the people at home, or our allies.

(4) They will not embarrass the United States, its allies, or neutral countries.

(b) Time element. Intelligence officers charged with the censorship of articles for publication will take into consideration the time interval between the occurrence of events reported and the publication of the article concerning these events. If events are reported by cable, telegraph, or radio very shortly after their occurrence, the closest supervision will be necessary. If, on the other hand, the articles are forwarded by mail for printing in magazines or books, the time interval may be such as to render the information contained in the articles of little value to the enemy. Censorship regulations will be applied after consideration of this time element.

(c) Specific rules governing censorship of articles for publication. (1) The identity of organizations in the combat zone and in the communications zone will be announced only in official communiqués. When announced, they will never be associated with the name of a place.

(2) The name of an individual may be used whenever an article is materially helped by its use.

(3) Officers will not be quoted directly or indirectly nor anonymously on military matters except as specifically authorized by the theater commander.

(4) Within the combat zone no sector will be said to have any American troops in it until the enemy has established this as a fact.

(5) No town or village in the combat zone will be identified as holding American or allied forces except as an essential part of a story of an engagement and after the fact.

(6) No base port or communication center or other point of a line of communication will be mentioned by name or description as having anything to do with the activities of our forces.

(7) Ship or rail movements, real or possible, will not be discussed, except as authorized by official communiqués.

(8) Plans of the Army, real or possible, will not be discussed.

(9) Numbers of troops as a total or as classes will not be discussed except as authorized by official communiqués.

(10) The effect of enemy fire or bombardment will not be discussed except as authorized in official communiqués.

(11) Articles for publication in the theater of operations or in allied countries or in neutral countries contiguous to the theater will be scrutinized carefully to make sure they do not hold possibilities of danger which the same stories printed in the United States would not hold. This applies not only to military information, which would thus be in the hands of the enemy within the day of writing, but also to an emphasis on small exploits which it may be extremely desirable to print in the United States but quite undesirable in the theater.

(12) Exaggerations of our activities accomplished or contemplated are prohibited.

(13) References to numbers of our own casualties will be based on the statements in official communiqués. Individual dead or wounded may be mentioned by name only when it is reasonably certain that the facts are correct and that some definite good end, such as offering examples of heroism, will be served by printing them. Mention by name will be allowed not earlier than 24 hours after the official cablegram announcement of such individual casualties has been sent to the Department of the Army.

§ 515.14 Photographic censorship—(a) Still pictures. (1) All photographic negatives taken by official or accredited civilian photographers may be processed in the Signal Crops field laboratory or in such other laboratory installations as the theater commander may designate. Photographs will then be censored by a representative of G–2.

(2) No negatives or prints will be released except by authority of the theater commander. Such released prints or negatives will bear the censorship stamp and will be accompanied by suitable captions. A record of all such releases will be kept.

(3) Negatives and prints of accredited commercial correspondents not released by the censor will become the property of the United States Government, and will be forwarded through channels to the Intelligence Division, General Staff, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C., accompanied by full information sheet as to captions and the agency which took the photographs.

(4) Films or prints which cannot be processed locally, such as color film, will be delivered to a representative of G–2 marked, "Undeveloped film. Do not open." This will be forwarded by the fastest practicable means to the Intelligence Division, General Staff, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C.

(5) Regardless of the number of accredited correspondents any one agency has in the field, photographs from theaters of operation by newspaper photographers will be "rotoed." Photographs from theaters of operation of weekly magazine photographers will be rotoed.

(b) Motion pictures. (1) All exposed and undeveloped negative together with the dope sheets of accredited cameramen will be turned over to a representative of G–2 marked, "Unexposed film. Do not open."

(2) G–2 will forward this negative by the fastest practicable means to the Intelligence Division, General Staff, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C.

(3) In certain tropical climates where motion picture film deteriorates rapidly, it may be processed under the supervision of G–2 and the developed negative forwarded as directed in (2) above.

(4) By agreement between the Department of the Army and the newsreel companies, all newsreel film from the theaters of operation will be rotoed by the Public Information Division Special Staff, U. S. Army, Washington, D. C.

(c) Writers accredited as correspondents will not be permitted to take photographs. Photographers accredited as correspondents will not be permitted to file stories.

(d) For the privileges of "exclusive" photographs, see § 515.18.

§ 515.15 Signal and mail service. (a) The signal system will be open to correspondents' dispatches, after censoring, when such use does not interfere with military needs. Dispatches will be sent in the order of filing. The intelligence officer under whom the correspondent serves is authorized to limit the number of words or otherwise to make an equitable adjustment of the use of the signal system among the correspondents when the system is inadequate to carry the complete text of all dispatches submitted. If commercial cable or telegraph facilities are available, credit cards may be useful.

(b) All mail, including personal letters, will be through the established censorship system. The use of "blue envelopes" for the censoring of personal mail by the base censor is authorized, but these may not be used to mail photographs or dispatches for publication to avoid censoring by the immediate headquarters under which the correspondent serves.

§ 515.16 Relief from appointment. (a) An accredited correspondent will not leave the theater of operations or base command without the written permission of the commander.

(b) If serving with troops beyond the territorial limits of the United States, relief does not become effective until arrival in the United States, if the journey is made by Government transportation.

(c) Upon termination of appointment as a correspondent, either on the application of the individual or his employer, by the request of the commander concerned, or by the expiration of the period of the appointment, the individual will surrender his credentials to the Public Information Division, Special Staff, U. S. Army, and will cease wearing the official uniform of a correspondent.

§ 515.17 Discipline. (a) A correspondent will be suspended from all privileges for the distortion of his dispatches in the office of the publication which he represents, and also for the use of words or expressions conveying a hidden meaning which would tend to mislead or deceive the censor and cause the approval by him of otherwise objectionable dispatches.

(b) In the presence of the enemy he will conform to the actions of the troops, and will not jeopardize the safety of the command or compromise the scheme of maneuver in progress.

(c) He may be subject to disciplinary action because of an intentional violation of these and other regulations, either in letter or in spirit, and in extreme cases of offense, where investigation proves the circumstances warrant, the correspondent may be placed in arrest to await deportation or trial by a court martial.

§ 515.18 Visiting correspondent. (a) A visiting correspondent, as differentiated from an accredited correspondent, is one who has permission from the Commander in Chief or the Secretary of the Army to visit the field force for the purpose of securing information or photographic material for publication after return from the visit.

(b) Visiting correspondents will be limited to a specific itinerary as outlined in their letter of authorization, and will be accompanied ordinarily by a conducting officer. When not so accompanied, they will carry a letter from the intelligence officer of the field force. They are treated more in the nature of visitors than correspondents. They will comply with the regulations governing accredited correspondents, with the following modifications:

(1) They will not be required to wear the prescribed uniform but will wear the proper brassard.

(2) As a measure of protection to the accredited correspondents serving with the field forces, visiting correspondents will not be permitted to mail or file dispatches or photographs intended for publication or release during the period of their visit. So-called "spot" news will be reserved for the accredited correspondents.

(3) Visiting photographers will have exclusive right to their photographs and may not be required to "roto."

SOURCE: FM 30-27, 31 Aug. 1944.

§ 515.31 General. Sections 515.31 to 515.44, inclusive, will guide the following types of civilian personnel:

(a) Civilian personnel employed by firms engaged in manufacturing munitions and equipments of war who may be assigned by the Department of the Army to field forces of the Army as technical observers.

(b) Civilian operations analysts and scientific consultants assigned to duty with operations analysis sections or operational research sections of various headquarters of the field forces and commands within and without the territorial limits of the United States. Their function is to make such studies of the operations of the army as may be directed by the headquarters to which attached, and to make reports and recommendations to the commanding general thereof, for the purpose of improving equipment and techniques of the command. Central administration of such personnel is provided by the Department of the Army.

(c) Sections 515.31 to 515.44, inclusive, do not apply in any respect to civilian observers authorized to attend maneuvers under the control of the Army Field Forces or the U. S. Air Force. In regard to these observers, commanders of Army Field Forces units will be guided by maneuver instructions published by the Chief, Army Field Forces. Commanders of Air Force units will be guided by maneuver instructions published by the U. S. Air Force.

§ 515.32 Definition. (a) The term "technical observer" as used in §§ 515.31 to 515.44, inclusive, includes any person (employed by a civilian firm) officially accredited as such by the Department of the Army to a theater of operations or a base command for the purpose of observing and reporting upon the operation of equipment and armament under field conditions and/or assisting in the maintenance and repair of such equipment with a view of overcoming difficulties encountered both in the field and at the factories. Technical observers may also assist in the instruction of military personnel in the operation and maintenance of such equipment.

(b) The terms "operations analyst" and "scientific consultant" as used in §§ 515.31 to 515.44, inclusive, include any person officially accredited as such by the Department of the Army to a theater of operations or a command within or without the territorial limits of the United States.

§ 515.33 Number. The Department of the Army will determine the number of operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers which are to be accredited to a field force.

§ 515.34 Application—(a) Technical observers. (1) Applications for authority to accompany United States Army forces in the field will be submitted by the firm employing the technical observer to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C.

(2) The application will state the name and address of the individual; citizenship; place and date of birth; general health conditions; the particular force it is desired he accompany; and any other pertinent information which will assist in the consideration of his application.

(3) When technical observers are requested of a civilian organization by the Department of the Army the civilian organization will furnish data as indicated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(b) Operations analysts and scientific consultants will furnish the Department of the Army such personal data as may be requested.

§ 515.35 Status—(a) Assimilated rank and grade. Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers are assigned assimilated rank as provided by Article 81 of the Geneva Convention on Prisoners of War, for use only in the event of capture by the enemy.

(b) Capture. (1) In the event of capture by the enemy operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers are entitled to be treated as prisoners of war.

(2) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers, when held by the enemy as prisoners of war, are entitled to the same treatment and the same privileges as commissioned personnel of the Army of the United States of the same grade as their assimilated rank, provided they are in possession of a Noncombatant's Certificate of Identity, properly authenticated by an authorized agency of the Department of the Army (Geneva Convention on Prisoners of War, Articles 21, 22, 23, and 81). They will be cautioned that by the international rules of warfare they are required to give only their name, official position, and assimilated rank, and that they will under no circumstances furnish the enemy with information of military value.

(c) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers accompanying the armies of the United States in time of war, although not in the military service, are subject to military law and are under the control of the commander of the Army forces which they accompany.

(d) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers are not entitled to the benefits provided by laws exclusively for persons in the military service. They are subject to the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, and regulations prescribed thereunder.

(e) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will not exercise command, be placed in the position of authority over military personnel, nor will they be armed. They are under the same restrictions as military personnel regarding the settlement of accounts, compliance with standing orders, and the conducting of themselves with dignity and decorum.

(f) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers become subject to military law from the time at which they commence to accompany troops or personnel who are on active service. This will generally be upon their arrival at the field force to which they are accredited or ordered for duty but may commence earlier if they travel to the field force via Government transportation.

§ 515.36 Privileges. (a) In the matter of accommodations, transportation, and messing facilities, operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will be given the same privileges as commissioned officers of their assimilated rank. All courtesies extended to operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers in such matters must be without expense to the Government and accounted for in accordance with existing Department of the Army regulations.

(b) So far as the exigencies of the service permit, operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will receive without charge the same medical and dental treatment as that afforded commissioned officers. In the event of death occurring in a theater of operation outside the continental limits of the United States, burial should be as prescribed for military personnel and without cost to the individual.

(c) Every reasonable facility and all possible assistance will be given operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers to permit them to perform their duties efficiently and intelligently, within the limits dictated by military necessities.

(d) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers are free to converse with troops and examine equipment in connection with their duties subject to the approval of the officer present with the troops in question. They will be required, however, to refrain from conversing with troops on guard, or from discussing subjects or soliciting answers to matters which are clearly secret and not connected with their particular duties.

(e) Under no circumstances will operations analysts, scientific consultants, or technical observers assist a war correspondent.

§ 515.37 Discipline. Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will conform to all rules and regulations promulgated in the interest of good order and military discipline. In the presence of the enemy, they will conform with the actions of the troops and will not jeopardize the safety of the command or compromise the scheme of maneuver in progress. When necessary they may be placed in arrest to await deportation or trial by court martial.

§ 515.38 Credentials. (a) (1) Before final acceptance, such individuals will be required to sign an agreement in triplicate as follows:

(2) When an application for appointment as an operations analyst, scientific consultant, or a technical observer is approved, the applicant will be furnished credentials and identification card by The Adjutant General's Office. The card contains the individual's photograph, signature, fingerprints, and description. It identifies him as an accredited operations analyst, scientific consultant, or technical observer and must be carried on his person at all times. He will also be furnished with identification tags similar to that provided commissioned officers.

(b) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will produce their identification cards whenever called for by an officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man in the execution of his duty. Failure to do so will subject operations analysts, scientific consultants, or technical observers to detention or arrest.

(c) In addition to Department of the Army credentials, the particular field force commander may issue a pass or credentials with regulations covering their use by operations analysts, scientific consultants, or technical observers.

§ 515.39 Uniform. (a) The proper uniform for accredited operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers is that prescribed in Army Regulations and will be worn in accordance therewith.

(b) Articles of special clothing and personal equipment, except arms, which are issued to commissioned officers may be issued to operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers. These articles must be turned in prior to departure from the theater of operations or base command.

(c) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers may purchase articles of clothing at Army exchanges, commissaries, and other outlets used by commissioned officers.

(d) Operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will not wear civilian clothing while serving with the United States Army in a theater of operations.

§ 515.40 Indoctrination. Prior to departure on a mission operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will report to the agency concerned with their assignment for indoctrination in the special features pertinent to their assignment.

§ 515.41 Transportation. Government transportation, water, air, troop train or vehicular, may be furnished operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers without cost to the individual whenever such transportation is available, if the travel is essential to the accomplishment of their mission and the military situation permits. Weight of baggage will be within the limits prescribed by the commander concerned.

§ 515.42 Reporting upon arrival. Upon arrival in the theater of operations or command to which assigned or accredited, operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will report to the commanding officer or his representative, presenting their credentials. All operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers are officially attached to the headquarters of the field force commander who may arrange for their assignment to posts of duty within the command from which they may best accomplish their mission.

§ 515.43 Reports, correspondence, and censorship—(a) Reports. Reports of technical observers will be prepared as military letters or as inclosures to military letters. All copies of the report will be transmitted through the commander of the field force to which the technical observer is accredited to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C., attention appropriate Department of the Army agency concerned. The report will show on the last page of the letter the ultimate distribution to be made. Copies of reports will be supplied in quantities sufficient for accomplishing the distribution noted on the report. The distribution will include two copies for the chief of the technical service concerned and copies for the firm represented.

(b) Correspondence and censorship. Both reports and personal correspondence of operations analysts, scientific consultants, and technical observers will be subject to the general censorship rules prevailing within the command. The use of "blue envelopes" for the censoring of personal mail by the base censor is authorized but these may not be used to mail reports for publication to avoid censorship by the immediate headquarters under which they operate.

§ 515.44 Relief from appointment. (a) An accredited operations analyst, scientific consultant, or technical observer will not leave the theater of operations or base command without the written permission of the commander.

(b) If serving with troops beyond the territorial limits of the United States, relief does not become effective until termination of appointment in the United States.

(c) Upon termination of appointment, the individual will surrender all credentials to The Adjutant General or his designated representative, who will issue him a suitable termination letter which will allow sufficient time for the individual to resume civilian clothing, at which time he will immediately cease wearing the official uniform.

PART 516—FLAGS

§ 516.1 Service flag—(a) Definition. The term "service flag" refers to any symbol for private or public display to represent that a person (or persons) is serving or has served in the armed forces of the United States during World War II.

(b) Design of service flag. The design of the service flag is as follows:

(1) Flag for immediate family. On a white rectangular field a blue star or stars within a red border.

(i) The number of blue stars will correspond to the number of individuals from the "immediate family" who are still members of the armed forces.

(ii) The flag horizontally displayed will have the stars arranged in a horizontal line or lines with one point of each star up.

(iii) The flag vertically displayed will have the stars arranged in a vertical line or lines with one point of each star up.

(iv) If an individual is killed or dies while serving, from causes other than dishonorable, the star representing that individual will have superimposed thereon a gold star of smaller size so that the blue forms a border.

(v) For each individual who has been honorably discharged from the armed forces, the design of the lapel button in gold, outlined in blue, will be placed on the flag in lieu of the blue star.

(2) Flag for organizations. The flag for organizations will correspond to that described in subparagraph (1) above. However, instead of using a separate star or design of the lapel button for service for each member, one star or design will be used with the number of the members indicated by Arabic numerals, which will appear below the star or design. If any members are deceased as determined under the circumstances cited in subparagraph (1) (iv) above, a gold star will be placed nearest the staff or to the dexter of the blue star in the case of a flag having horizontal display, or will be placed above the blue star in the case of a flag used in a vertical display. Below this star will be the Arabic numerals. The gold stars in both cases will be smaller than the blue stars so that the blue will form a border. The numerals in all cases will be in blue.

(3) Size and relative proportions. The size of the service flag will correspond to that used in the flag of the United States, if the display is made with the flag of the United States. In all other instances the service flag will be made in the size dictated by the circumstances necessitating the display.

(c) Colors of service flag. The shades of red, white, and blue used in the service flag will correspond to those prescribed for the colors of the flag of the United States as defined by Federal Specification No. TT-C-591. However, bleached white may be used in lieu of the white prescribed above.

(d) Immediate family defined. The "immediate family" includes father, mother, wife, son, daughter, brother, sister, husband.

(e) Organizations defined. The word "organization" refers to those group organizations, such as places of business, churches, schools, colleges, fraternities, sororities, and societies, with which the individual was associated.

(f) Manufacture and sale—(1) Certificate of authority. See §§ 507.1 to 507.8, inclusive.

(2) Issue. There is no authority of law whereby the Government may manufacture, issue, or sell service flags. [AR 260-10, 25 Oct. 1944] (R. S. 161; 5 U. S. C. 22)

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 2—ADJUDICATION: VETERANS' CLAIMS

INFORMAL CLAIMS

Section 2.1027 of Part 2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 2.1027 Informal claims. Any communication from or action by a claimant or his duly authorized representative, or some person acting as next friend of a claimant who is not sui juris, which clearly indicates an intent to apply for disability or death compensation or pension may be considered an informal claim. To constitute an informal claim the communication must specifically refer to and identify the particular benefit sought. When an informal claim is received and a formal application is forwarded for execution by the claimant, such application shall be considered as evidence necessary to complete the initial application, and unless a formal application is received within one year from the date it was transmitted for execution by the claimant no award shall be made by virtue of such informal claim. If received within one year in such instances, it will be considered filed as of the date of receipt of the informal claim by the Veterans' Administration. However, a communication received from a service organization, pension attorney, or pension agent may not be accepted as an informal claim, if a power of attorney was not executed at the time the communication was written. In cases not covered by this rule, where the probability of an informal claim appears to be indicated, but the facts are too obscure or complicated for determination, the file will be referred to the director, claims service, in branch office cases, or the director of the service concerned in central office cases, for decision upon the facts in the particular case. When benefits are being resumed under § 3.1299 of this chapter, and an informal claim has been filed for a disability incurred or aggravated in the second period of service, the requirements of the third and fourth sentences of this section are not for application. Under Executive Order No. 6017, February 7, 1933, appearing in Title 22, page 161, Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America, and section 1500, Public Law 346, 78th Congress, as amended, diplomatic and consular officers of the Department of State are authorized to act as agents of the Veterans' Administration and therefore an informal claim filed in a foreign country will be considered as filed in the Veterans' Administration as of the date of receipt by the State Department representative. (Sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, secs. 1, 2, 46 Stat. 1016, sec. 7, 48 Stat. 9; 38 U. S. C. 11, 11a, 426, 707)

(49 Stat. 2036; 41 U. S. C. 35-45)

Notice is hereby given that The Middle West Corporation ("Middle West"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Kentucky Utilities Company ("Kentucky"), a public utility company, have filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"). The applicants-declarants have designated sections 6 (a), 6 (b), 9, 10, and 11 (b) (2) of the act and Rule U-43 of the general rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any person may, not later than September 23, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after September 23, 1948, said application-declaration may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rule U-20 and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Kentucky proposes to issue and sell 125,000 shares of its common stock of the par value of $10 to Middle West for a consideration of $1,250,000 payable in cash. It is stated that the net proceeds of the sale of such common stock will be used by Kentucky for additions and extensions to its electric utility plant and system.

The filing states that Middle West, whose stockholders have adopted a resolution to liquidate and dissolve the company, intends to distribute to its own stockholders its holdings of the common stock of Kentucky and that the acquisition of the additional 125,000 shares of the Kentucky common stock will facilitate this distribution by making possible a distribution on the basis of one share of Kentucky common stock for each two shares of Middle West common stock.

The proposed issue and sale have been submitted for approval to the Public Service Commission of Kentucky, the only State commission having jurisdiction over the proposed transaction.

The applicants-declarants request that the Commission's order granting the application and permitting the declaration to become effective be issued not later than October 1, 1948, and become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

ST. LAWRENCE CORP. LTD.

FINDINGS AND ORDER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of August A. D. 1948.

The New York Curb Exchange has made application under Rule X-12F-2 (b) for a determination that the First Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares, Par Value $49.00, and the Second Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, Par Value $1.00, of St. Lawrence Corporation Limited, a Canadian corporation undergoing reorganization, are substantially equivalent to the Class A 4% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, Par Value $50.00, of that company, which have been outstanding and have been admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange since May 16, 1930.

Section 12 (f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 provides that a national securities exchange, upon application to and approval of such application by the Commission, * * * (1) may continue unlisted trading privileges to which a security had been admitted on such exchange prior to March 1, 1934; or (2) may extend unlisted trading privileges to any security duly listed and registered on any other national securities exchange * * *; or (3) may extend unlisted trading privileges to any security in respect of which there is available from a registration statement and periodic reports or other data filed * * * under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or the Securities Act of 1933, information substantially equivalent to that available in respect of a security duly listed and registered on a national securities exchange.

Since the St. Lawrence Corporation Limited has no securities listed or registered on any national securities exchange, and has never filed with the Commission a registration statement pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, the New York Curb Exchange may not have unlisted trading privileges in the First Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares, Par Value $49.00, or in the Second Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, Par Value $1.00, of St. Lawrence Corporation Limited, except in the event that these be deemed securities admitted to unlisted trading privileges on this exchange prior to March 1, 1934. Under section 12 (f) of the act the Commission has adopted Rule X-12F-2 which provides for an application by an exchange to the Commission for a determination whether a security admitted to unlisted trading privileges that has been changed by an issuer is thereafter substantially equivalent to the security theretofore admitted to unlisted trading privileges.[1] If the Commission determines that the security after such change is substantially equivalent to the security theretofore admitted to unlisted trading privileges, the rule provides that the security as changed shall be deemed to be the security theretofore admitted to unlisted trading privileges.

The St. Lawrence Corporation Limited has been in the process of reorganization effected by means of a "Proposal of Compromise or Arrangement dated May 17, 1948" between the issuer and the holders of its two classes of stock heretofore outstanding, the Class A 4% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, Par Value $50.00, and the Common Stock, without par value. This proposal was approved by the holders of each class of stock on July 7, 1948.

As of June 30, 1948, the arrearages in dividends on the preferred stock amounted to $22.00 per share. In the proxy solicitation of June 8, 1948, from St. Lawrence Corporation Limited to its preferred and common stockholders, the statement of shareholders' concessions and benefits involved in the reorganization includes "paving of the way for dividends on the new common shares depending upon the future earning power and financial condition of the corporation." Under the terms of reorganization, the preexisting Class A 4% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, Par Value $50.00, are extinguished, together with all rights pertaining thereto, including the right to $22.00 accumulated arrearages in dividends (except for $2.00 presently to be disbursed in cash); and two new classes of preferred stock are created. Of the single class of preferred stock previously outstanding, there have been 264,401 shares outstanding. Upon surrender and cancellation of the certificates representing these shares, each shareholder is entitled for each share to receive

(1) Two Dollars ($2.00) in cash by way of dividend;

(2) One (1) share of new First Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares of the par value of $49.00, carrying a dividend of $2.00 per annum cumulative from July 1, 1948 and redeemable at $55.00 per share except upon any liquidation; and

(3) One (1) share of new Second Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares of the par value of $1.00, carrying a dividend of $0.75 per annum cumulative from July 1, 1948, and entitling the holder to the payment of $20.00 in the event either of redemption or of liquidation.

The former single issue of preferred stock was convertible, each share being convertible into two (2) shares of common stock. The new first preferred stock is likewise convertible upon the same terms, each share being convertible into two (2) shares of common stock. Both the old and the new first preferred stock have been entitled to one vote per share at shareholders' meetings. However, upon default in the payment of dividends on the new first preferred, its holders have the right to elect one-third of the members of the board of directors, a right which the holders of the old preferred stock did not have.

The new second preferred stock is not convertible and does not have a vote except upon default in its dividends, at which time it has the right to elect one-third of the members of the board of directors. In addition, the new second preferred stock is entitled to have set up out of net earnings a sinking fund of $125,000 quarterly, plus one-half of any remaining net earnings, to be applied to the regular redemption of outstanding second preferred shares by call. The second preferred stock enjoys the usual attributes of second preferred stock in that it is subordinate to the first preferred stock both with respect to right to receive dividends and with respect to participation in assets upon liquidation; however, its right to dividends, and to participate in distribution of assets upon liquidation, is prior to that of the common stock. Inasmuch as the Second Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares have a par value of $1.00 per share and there will be 264,401 shares outstanding, the proposed capitalization of the new company after the reorganization will show these shares at a total value of $264,401. However, since each share entitles the holder to the payment of $20.00 either in the event of redemption or of liquidation, these shares of second preferred stock represent a priority over the common stock in the amount of $5,288,020 instead of $264,401. There are 582,593 shares of common stock outstanding, which under the terms of reorganization will be changed from no par value to $1.00 par value, and in the capitalization of the company will represent the same figure as before of $582,593.

The "Proposal of Compromise or Arrangement dated the 17th day of May, 1948" provides that there will be inserted in the Letters Patent and Supplementary Letters Patent (the Canadian equivalent of a corporate charter) of St. Lawrence Corporation Limited the following provisions:

(a) No holder of any shares of this company shall be entitled as of right to purchase or subscribe for any part of any unissued or unallotted shares of the company or any additional shares of any class to be issued, or allotted, or any bonds, debentures, or other certificates convertible into shares.

(b) Any unissued or unallotted shares of the company, or securities convertible into shares, may be issued and allotted by the directors to such persons, firms, corporations or associations at such times, in such manner, for such consideration, and upon such terms and conditions as the directors in their discretion may determine, without offering any thereof to the shareholders then of record or to any class of shareholders on the same terms or on any terms.

(c) The company may grant rights or options to subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire shares of any class of its authorized share capital or its bonds, debentures or other obligations, and may issue warrants or other instruments in bearer or registered form to evidence such rights or options. Such rights or options shall be exercisable upon such terms and conditions as the directors may determine, provided that nothing in this provision shall be deemed to authorize the issuance of shares of any class having a par value for less than their par value.

(d) The company may pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or procuring subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares of the company, provided that such commission shall not exceed fifteen per cent (15%) of the amount realized by the company upon the sale of such shares.

(e) The directors may (other than in connection with dividends on preferred shares or other shares issued with special dividend conditions) from time to time capitalize any amounts which they might lawfully distribute by way of dividends in money, and in respect of the amount so capitalized they may declare stock dividends and issue therefor shares of the share capital of the company as fully paid or partially paid, or may credit the amount of such dividends on shares already issued but not fully paid, and the liability of the holders of such shares shall be reduced by the amount of such dividends.

The description that has been given of the issue of First Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares, Par Value $49.00, emanating from the reorganization shows that its rights in many respects are similar to the rights that were attached to the Class A 4% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, Par Value $50.00. To compensate for the right that has been severed from the old preferred stock to receive $22.00 arrearages in accumulated dividends before any dividends may be paid on common stock, the shareholder is given two dollars in cash and a share of a new series of preferred stock, carrying a dividend of $0.75 per annum, and entitling the holder to the payment of $20.00 in the event either of redemption or of liquidation. Shares of this new series of preferred stock would appear to be very different from shares of the preexisting single issue of preferred stock. Besides the other numerous differences that have been noted, the major difference is that this new series is subordinate both in respect to right to receive dividends and right to participate in the distribution of assets upon liquidation, to another issue of preferred stock. For these reasons, it appears that the new second preferred stock of St. Lawrence Corporation Limited is not substantially equivalent to the preferred stock of this company that has been admitted to unlisted trading privileges on applicant exchange since May 16, 1930.

Accordingly it is ordered, Pursuant to sections 12 (f) and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F-2 (b) thereunder, that the First Cumulative Convertible Redeemable Preferred Shares, Par Value $49.00, of St. Lawrence Corporation Limited are hereby determined to be substantially equivalent to the Class A 4% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, Par Value $50.00, of that company heretofore admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to sections 12 (f) and 23 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule X-12F-2 (b) thereunder, that the Second Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Shares, Par Value $1.00, of St. Lawrence Corporation Limited are hereby determined not to be substantially equivalent to the Class A 4% Cumulative Convertible Preferred Shares, Par Value $50.00, of that company heretofore admitted to unlisted trading privileges on the applicant exchange.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

(2) Persons employed locally but (a) who were originally recruited from the United States and have been in substantially continuous employment by other Federal agencies, United States firms, interests, or organizations, international organizations in which the United States Government participates, or foreign governments, and whose conditions of employment provide for their return transportation to the United States, or (b) who were at the time of employment temporarily absent from the United States for purposes of travel or formal study and maintained residence in the United States during such temporary absence. When used in a geographical sense in section 105 (b) hereof, "United States" includes the areas included within the definition of Territories as set forth in section 201 hereof.

(3) Persons who are not normally residents of the area concerned and who are discharged from the military service of the United States in such area to accept employment therein with an agency of the Federal Government.

SEC. 106. Payment of foreign post differentials. (a) The following shall govern the payment of foreign post differentials under this Part:

(1) Payments shall begin as of the date of arrival at the post on assignment, transfer, or detail and shall stop as of departure from the post for separation, transfer, or detail, except that in case of local recruitment such payments shall begin and stop as of the beginning and end of employment.

(2) Payments to persons serving on a part-time basis shall be prorated to cover only those periods of time for which such persons receive basic compensation.

(3) Payment shall be made for all periods of sick leave and annual leave taken during the period covered under item (1) above and for transit time authorized for purposes of leave so taken.

(4) Payment shall not be made for any time for which an employee does not receive basic compensation.

(b) Foreign post differentials paid under this Part shall not be included in the base used in computing overtime pay, night differential, holiday pay, and retirement or cost-of-living allowances.

SEC. 107. Persons serving under contract. Any other provision of this Part notwithstanding, any person who would otherwise be eligible to receive a foreign post differential under this Part shall, if he is serving under contract, be compensated according to the terms of such contract for the period thereof and shall, during such period, be ineligible to receive a foreign post differential.

SEC. 108. Periodic review. The Secretary of State shall periodically, but at least annually, review the places designated, the rates fixed, and the regulations prescribed pursuant to section 102 hereof, with a view to making such changes therein as will insure that the payment of additional compensation under the provisions of this Part shall continue only during the continuance of conditions justifying such payment and shall not in any instance exceed the amount justified.

SEC. 109. Additional living cost compensation. No executive department, independent establishment, or wholly owned Government corporation shall pay, pursuant to section 207 of the Act, additional compensation to any employee located in any foreign area by reason of living costs which are substantially higher than those in the District of Columbia: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to prevent any payment under section 204 of said Independent Offices Appropriation Act, 1949, or under other appropriate authority.

PART II—ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION IN TERRITORIES

SEC. 201. Definition. As used in this Part, (a) the word "Territories" means Alaska, Hawaii, the possessions of the United States, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and such additional areas located outside the continental United States as the Secretary of State shall designate as being within the scope of the provisions of this Part, and (b) the words "section 207 of the Act" have the meaning set forth in section 101 hereof.

SEC. 202. Additional compensation by reason of environment. The United States Civil Service Commission shall from time to time, subject to applicable law, (a) designate places in Territories having conditions of environment which differ substantially from conditions of environment in the United States and warrant additional compensation as a recruitment incentive, (b) fix for each such place the additional rate or rates of compensation to be paid by reason of such environment pursuant to section 207 of the Act, after giving due consideration to the degree of environmental difference, and (c) prescribe such further regulations, governing such compensation, as may be necessary. Additional compensation so fixed is hereafter in this Part referred to as "Territorial post differential."

SEC. 203. Basis for Territorial post differential. The Civil Service Commission may establish a Territorial post differential for any place in the Territories when, and only when, the place involves any one or more of the following: (a) extraordinarily difficult living conditions, (b) excessive physical hardship, or (c) notably unhealthful conditions.

SEC. 204. Persons eligible to receive Territorial post differential. (a) In order that an employee be eligible to receive a Territorial post differential under this Part, (1) he shall be a citizen or national of the United States, (2) his residence in the place to which the Territorial post differential applies, at the time of receipt thereof, shall be fairly attributable to his employment by the United States, and (3) his residence at such place over an appropriate prior period of time must not be fairly attributable to reasons other than employment by the United States or by United States firms, interests, or organizations.

(b) Subject to the provisions of section 204 (a) hereof, the classes of persons eligible to receive the Territorial post differentials fixed pursuant to section 202 hereof shall include:

(1) Persons recruited or transferred from outside the area concerned.

(2) Persons employed in the area concerned but (a) who were originally recruited from outside such area and have been in substantially continuous employment by other Federal agencies, contractors of Federal agencies, or international organizations in which the U. S. Government participates, and whose conditions of employment provide for their return transportation to places outside the area concerned, or (b) who were at the time of employment temporarily present in the area concerned for purposes of travel or formal study and maintained residence outside such area during the period so present.

(3) Persons who are not normally residents of the area concerned and who are discharged from the military service of the United States in such area to accept employment therein with an agency of the Federal Government.

SEC. 205. Additional living cost compensation. (a) The United States Civil Service Commission shall from time to time, subject to applicable law, (1) designate places in the Territories where it determines that living costs are substantially higher than in the District of Columbia, (2) fix for each place so designated an additional rate or rates of compensation to be paid by reason of such higher living costs pursuant to section 207 of the Act, and (c) prescribe such further regulations, governing such compensation, as may be necessary. Additional compensation so fixed is hereafter in this Part referred to as "Territorial cost-of-living allowance."

(b) The Civil Service Commission shall, (1) in designating places under section 205 (a) hereof, consider the relative consumer price levels in the area and in the District of Columbia, and give due consideration to the differences in goods and services available and to the manner of living of persons employed in the areas concerned in positions comparable to those of United States employees in the areas, and (2) in fixing the Territorial cost-of-living allowance pursuant to such subsection, make appropriate deductions when quarters or subsistence, commissary or other purchasing privileges are furnished at a cost substantially lower than the prevailing local cost.

SEC. 206. Coordination. The Civil Service Commission shall define the extent to which and the conditions under which an employee serving within the Territories may receive both a Territorial post differential and a Territorial cost-of-living allowance, pursuant to section 207 of the Act. In carrying out its functions under this Part the Commission may take due notice of any special allowances, other than under section 207 of the act, granted to personnel employed by the United States in Territories.

SEC. 207. Agencies covered. Subject to the provisions of section 207 of the Act and of this Part, every Executive department, independent establishment, and wholly owned Government corporation shall pay (a) a Territorial post differential fixed under section 202 hereof to each of its employees whose basic compensation is fixed by statute and who is located at the post for which that differential has been fixed, and (b) a Territorial cost-of-living allowance fixed under section 205 hereof to each of its employees whose basic compensation is fixed by statute and who is located at the post for which that allowance has been fixed.

SEC. 208. Payment of Territorial post differentials and cost-of-living allowances. (a) The following shall govern the payment of Territorial post differentials and Territorial cost-of-living allowances under this Part:

(1) Payments shall begin as of the date of arrival at the post on assignment, transfer, or detail and shall stop as of departure from the post for separation, transfer, or detail, except that in the case of local recruitment such payments shall begin and stop as of the beginning and end of employment.

(2) Payments to persons serving on a part-time basis shall be prorated to cover only those periods of time for which such persons receive basic compensation.

(3) Payment shall be made for all periods of sick leave and annual leave taken during the period covered by item (1) above and for transit time authorized for purposes of leave so taken.

(4) Payment shall not be made for any time for which an employee does not receive basic compensation.

(b) Territorial post differentials paid shall not be included in the base used in computing overtime pay, night differential, holiday pay, and retirement deduction.

SEC. 209. Persons serving under contract. Any other provision of this Part notwithstanding, any person who would otherwise be eligible to receive a Territorial post differential or a Territorial cost-of-living allowance under this Part shall, if he is serving under a contract, be compensated according to the terms of such contract for the period thereof and shall, during such period, be ineligible to receive said differential and allowance.

SEC. 210. Periodic review. The Civil Service Commission shall periodically, but at least annually, review the places designated, the rates fixed, and the regulations prescribed pursuant to this Part, with a view to making such changes therein as will insure that payment of additional compensation under the provisions of this Part shall continue only during the continuance of conditions justifying such payment and shall not in any instance exceed the amount justified.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter II—Production and Marketing Administration (Commodity Credit)

PART 281—DRIED FRUIT

STATEMENT OF POLICY

The Commodity Credit Corporation (hereinafter referred to as CCC) will purchase dried fruit during the period September 1, 1948 through June 30, 1949, up to a maximum quantity which may approximate 200,000 tons. The quantity of dried apples, apricots, figs (in whole, sliced or paste form), peaches, pears, prunes and raisins which may be purchased, will depend on the total available supply of each fruit and the extent of demand for it in commercial trade channels.

Purchases from processors will be made upon a bid and acceptance basis. Processors of certain dried fruits may be required to pay producers or industry organizations administering pools, not less than specified minimum prices for natural condition dried fruit used in processing the quantity of packed fruit delivered to CCC. Should CCC purchase natural condition fruit from producers or such pools, an announced price basis will be used.

All fruit purchased will be U. S. Grade C or better as specified in the U. S. Standards for Grades of the various processed dried fruits, except that if CCC should purchase fig paste, processed peach slabs or fruit in natural condition form, the minimum grades of these items will be determined by the Manager, CCC. The dried fruit purchased will be used as assistance to and for relief feeding in foreign countries, and for school lunch and institutional feeding in this country.

Additional program details may be obtained from the Western Marketing Field Office, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 773, Berkeley 1, California, or from the Dried Fruit Division, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders)

[Grapefruit Reg. 100]

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.397 Grapefruit Regulation 100—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR and Supps., Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective date.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 20, 1948, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., October 4, 1948, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any grapefruit of any variety, grown in the State of Florida, which grade U. S. No. 2 Russet, or lower than U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(ii) Any seeded grapefruit, other than pink grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 70 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(iii) Any pink seeded grapefruit grown in the State of Florida which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(iv) Any seedless grapefruit of any variety, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "handler" and "ship" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. No. 2 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall each have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Grapefruit (13 F. R. 4787). (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 16th day of September 1948.

Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

Statement To Accompany Amendment 37 to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 8978]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

STANDARD AND FM BROADCAST STATION PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENTS POSTPONED FOR A YEAR

In the matter of amendment of §§ 3.46 and 3.254 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

At a meeting of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of September 1948.

The Commission having under consideration amendments to §§ 3.46 and 3.254 of its rules and regulations, and

Whereas, on June 16, 1948, the Commission adopted an amendment to said § 3.46 of its rules by adding paragraph (e) thereto providing for the licensee of each standard broadcast station to make equipment performance measurements at yearly intervals, one of which had to be made during the four-month period preceding the date of filing application for renewal of station license; and

Whereas, in said order of June 16, 1948, provision was made that said amendment should be made effective August 1, 1948; and

Whereas, said tests require a frequency run on equipment to determine the fidelity characteristics and measurements of distortion and noise level; and

Whereas, such tests would involve the use of equipment not now required as part of each standard broadcast installation; and

Whereas, it appears to be doubtful whether stations could secure the equipment necessary for such measurements; and

Whereas, on June 16, 1948, the Commission also adopted an amendment to § 3.254 of its rules to become effective on August 1, 1948, providing for the licensee of each FM broadcast statoin to make equipment performance measurements at similar intervals; and

Whereas, many of the above considerations are applicable in the case of FM broadcast stations; and

It appearing, that it would be desirable to extend the effective date of said amendments from August 1, 1948 to August 1, 1949; and

It further appearing, that in view of the foregoing, it would not be in the public interest for notice of proposed rule making, in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, to be published;

It is ordered, that § 3.46 (e) of the Commission's rules and regulations be amended by adding the following footnote:

[1] In view of the fact that it is doubtful whether equipment necessary for certain of the measurements prescribed by this paragraph can be timely obtained, the effective date of this paragraph is extended from August 1, 1948 to August 1, 1949.

It is further ordered, that § 3.254 of the Commission's rules and regulations be amended by adding the following footnote:

[1] In view of the fact that is is doubtful whether equipment necessary for certain of the measurements prescribed by this paragraph can be timely obtained, the effective date of the requirement that the equipment performance measurements be made at yearly intervals is extended from August 1, 1948 to August 1, 1949.

(Secs. 303 (e), (j), 308 (b), 48 Stat. 1082, 1084, sec. 6 (b), 50 Stat. 191; 47 U. S. C. 303 (e), (j), (r), 308 (b))

POSTPONEMENT FOR ONE YEAR

SEPTEMBER 10, 1948.

The Federal Communications Commission announced today[1] that it has postponed for one year (from August 1, 1948 to August 1, 1949) the effective date of amendments to §§ 3.46 and 3.254 of its rules which require all Standard and FM broadcast stations to make certain performance measurements at least once a year.

It appears that many Standard and FM broadcast stations are not equipped to make such measurements at this time. Although FM broadcast stations are required to submit such measurements upon making application for license, except where temporarily waived, the amendment imposes a continuing requirement on these stations; it is also a new requirement for Standard broadcast stations which heretofore have not been required to check their performance except in special cases.

By postponing the effective date of the rule for one year, licensees will be afforded ample time within which to purchase the equipment necessary for the tests and for their own engineering personnel to become familiar with the necessary measuring techniques. Although the Commission rules require only one complete set of measurements per year, it should be pointed out that the measurements will probably have to be made much more frequently and that the over-all fidelity requirements of Commission rules can be met only when the numerous individual component parts meet the requirements. Where over-all requirements are not met, checks on and adjustments to the individual components will be necessary.

The Commission wishes to emphasize that there has been no change in performance requirements for either FM or Standard broadcast stations. However, licensees are expected to cooperate in corrective action where necessary and in a manner consistent with the particular circumstances involved. Where extensive modification of equipment appears necessary in order to effect compliance, licensees will be permitted a reasonable time in which to take such corrective action.

The Commission expects that by August 1, 1949, through information obtained at the recent informal engineering conference and through future discussions with the industry, it will have established quantitative standards with respect to permissible values of radio frequency harmonics and other spurious emissions.

tory or X-ray work performed previously and presented by the registrant may be given consideration by the medical advisor. It shall be the duty of the registrant to present himself to the medical advisor to the local board at the time and place designated and to submit to examination.

(b) The medical advisor to the local board shall (1) give each registrant who presents himself for medical interview such examination as he deems necessary, or (2) review each affidavit of a reputable physician or official statement of a representative of a Federal or State agency referred to him by the local board. From such examination or review, the medical advisor to the local board shall determine whether the registrant has one or more of the defects or conditions listed in Part 629 of this chapter and shall record his findings in item 20 of Section II of the Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47).

§ 628.4 Duties of local board. (a) When no medical advisor to the local board is available, the local board, to the extent that it is capable of doing so, shall make the examination, review, and finding provided for in § 628.3.

(b) When a registrant is ordered to appear for medical interview the local board shall:

(1) Prepare an original and two copies of the Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47), completing Section I and item 19 of Section II thereof, and send the original and both copies to the medical advisor to the local board for completion of item 20 of Section II after the medical interview; and

(2) Enter under "Minutes of Actions by Local Board and Appeal Board" on the Classification Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 100) the date the Notice to Registrant to Appear for Medical Interview (SSS Form No. 220) was mailed to the registrant and the date upon which he is ordered to appear.

(c) After completion of the medical interview the local board shall determine, after considering the findings and recommendations of the medical advisor to the local board, whether or not to order the registrant to report for armed forces physical examination. The local board shall enter the date of the medical interview in column 7 of the Classification Record (SSS Form No. 102).

(d) If the local board determines that the registrant has a physical or mental condition listed in Part 629 of this chapter which disqualifies him for service in the armed forces, the following action shall be taken:

(1) The local board shall file the original of the Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47) in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101) and forward the two copies of the Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47) to the State Director of Selective Service who shall forward one copy to the Surgeon General, Department of the Army, Washington, D. C., and retain one copy.

(2) The local board shall review the classification of the registrant and if it finds under the provisions of Part 622 of this chapter that he should be placed in some other class, reopen his classification and classify him anew and mail him a Notice of Classification (SSS Form No. 110).

(3) The local board shall cancel any Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) which it has mailed to the registrant and advise him in writing of such cancellation.

(4) The local board shall note in column 4 of the Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225), if the registrant's name appears thereon, the fact that he has been found disqualified for service in the armed forces and also the classification in which he has been retained or placed.

(e) If the local board determines that the registrant does not have a physical or mental condition listed in Part 629 of this chapter which disqualifies him for service in the armed forces, or if the local board has any doubt concerning the existence of any such condition, the local board shall order the registrant to report for armed forces physical examination as provided in § 628.11.

§ 628.5 Transfer for medical interview. (a) Any registrant who has received a Notice to Registrant to Appear for Medical Interview (SSS Form No. 220) and who is so far from his own local board that presenting himself to the medical advisor to his local board would be a hardship may file a written request with the local board having jurisdiction of the area in which he is at that time located for his transfer for medical interview to that local board. The local board with which the request for transfer for medical interview is filed shall forward the request to the registrant's own local board.

(b) Upon receiving such request for transfer for medical interview the registrant's own local board shall forward the original and two copies of the Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47), after completing Section I and item 19 of Section II thereof, to the local board of transfer and shall enter under "Minutes of Actions by Local Board and Appeal Board" on the Classification Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 100) the date such forms were forwarded and the designation of the local board of transfer.

(c) The local board of transfer shall arrange for the medical interview of the registrant and on completion shall return the original and both copies of the Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47) to the registrant's own local board which shall take the further action required by paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of § 628.4.

ARMED FORCES PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

§ 628.10 Who will be examined. Every registrant, before he is ordered to report for induction, shall be given an armed forces physical examination under the provisions of this part unless he is a delinquent.

§ 628.11 Order to report for armed forces physical examination. (a) In accordance with instructions of the Director of Selective Service, the State Director of Selective Service shall periodically issue to each local board in his State a directive specifying the number of registrants to be delivered for armed forces physical examination and the time and place fixed for such delivery.

(b) In complying with such directive, the local board shall mail an Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) to registrants who have been classified in Class I–A and Class I–A–O without regard to whether the registrants have requested or will request a personal appearance before the local board and without regard to whether an appeal has been or will be taken. The local board in complying with such directive shall, so far as is practicable, select and order to report for armed forces physical examination such registrants in the order of their liability for service.

(c) The local board may also mail an Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) to any registrant (1) who is classified in a class other than Class I–A or Class I–A–O if it determines that his induction may shortly occur, or (2) when directed to do so by the Director of Selective Service or the State Director of Selective Service.

(d) At the time the local board prepares the original Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223), it shall make a copy of such form and shall file the copy in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101).

§ 628.12 Postponement of armed forces physical examination. The issuance of an Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) may be delayed or the forwarding of a registrant under such an order may be postponed to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in § 632.2 of this chapter with reference to an Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252); Provided, that any such delay or postponement under the provisions of this section shall terminate whenever the local board determines that the induction of the registrant is imminent, in which event the local board shall order the registrant to report for armed forces physical examination.

§ 628.13 Preparing records for a group ordered to report for armed forces physical examination. (a) As soon as the local board has mailed orders to report for armed forces physical examination to all registrants who are to appear for such examination at a particular time and place it shall:

(1) Prepare in quintuplicate a Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225), completing thereon the entries in columns (1), (2), and (3) for each such registrant.

(2) Prepare in triplicate the Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47) by completing Section I and item 19 of Section II thereof for each such registrant for whom such form has not previously been completed.

(3) Assemble and attach to the registrant's Record of Induction (NME Form No. 47) any information in the possession of the local board which should be considered by the armed forces in determining the acceptability of the registrant for military service.

(b) Whenever a registrant referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is transferred to another local board for armed forces physical examination, a notation of such transfer shall be made in column 5 of the Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225) and all of the other records of such registrant prepared in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall be transmitted to the local board to which such registrant is transferred for armed forces physical examination in the manner and at the time provided in § 628.14.

§ 628.14 Transfer of registrants for physical examination. (a) Any registrant who has received an Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) and who is so far from his own local board that reporting to his own local board would be a hardship may, subject to the provisions of this section, be transferred for armed forces physical examination to the local board having jurisdiction of the area in which he is at that time located, present his Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223), and complete, in quadruplicate, the request portion of Transfer for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 222).

(c) The local board with which such registrant files such request shall investigate the circumstances of the registrant's absence from his own local board area. If it finds that he does not have a good reason for his absence, it shall endorse its disapproval upon his request, mail the original thereof to the registrant's own local board, mail a copy to the registrant, and file the remaining copies. Such registrant shall then be required to report in accordance with the Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) which he received from his own local board.

(d) If the local board with which the registrant files such request finds that he has a good reason for his absence from his own local board area and that he is so far from his own local board area that it would be a hardship for him to return to his own local board area for his armed forces physical examination, it shall endorse its approval upon his request, mail the original and one copy by air mail (unless ordinary mail is as expeditious) to the registrant's own local board, mail a copy to the registrant, and file the remaining copy.

(e) Immediately upon receiving the approved Transfer for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 222), the registrant's own local board shall complete on the original thereof the order transferring the registrant for armed forces physical examination. It shall then mail the original of the Transfer for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 222) to the local board to which the registrant is being transferred and shall file the copy in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101). It shall also mail to the local board to which the registrant is being transferred for armed forces physical examination, the original and two copies of the Report of Induction (NME Form No. 47), any information in the possession of the local board which should be considered by the armed forces in determining the acceptability of the registrant for military service, and any other records designated by the Director of Selective Service.

(f) The local board to which such registrant is transferred for armed forces physical examination, when it receives the papers from the registrant's own local board as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, shall prepare and mail to the registrant a new Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) and shall add the name of the registrant to its Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225) indicating in the "Remarks" column thereof that the registrant is a transfer from another local board.

(g) When the transferred registrant's examination has been completed or if he fails to report for such examination, the local board to which such registrant was transferred for armed forces physical examination shall forward all the papers with reference to such registrant to his own local board.

§ 628.15 Transfer for armed forces physical examination directed by Director of Selective Service. (a) The Director of Selective Service may direct that a particular registrant or a registrant who comes within a described group of registrants be transferred for armed forces physical examination to such local board or local boards as he shall designate.

(b) A registrant selected for armed forces physical examination shall be transferred for such examination to the local board having jurisdiction of the area in which he is at that time located whenever, from information in his file, it appears that the registrant is located in one and the registrant's own local board is located in another of the following: the continental United States, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands.

(c) To accomplish the transfer for armed forces physical examination, under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, the registrant's own local board shall complete the Transfer for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 222) in duplicate by inserting the date, name, and present address of the registrant and the words "By direction of the Director of Selective Service" on the front of such form and by completing the second endorsement on the back of such form. The copy of the Transfer for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 222) shall be filed in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101). The local board shall then forward the original of the Transfer for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 222), the original and both copies of the Report of Induction (NME Form No. 47), any information in the possession of the local board which should be considered by the armed forces in determining the acceptability of the registrant for military service, and any other records designated by the Director of Selective Service, to the State Director of Selective Service of the State in which the registrant is located. The State Director of Selective Service of the State in which the registrant is located shall check such documents and insert thereon the name and address of the local board in his State to which the registrant is transferred for armed forces physical examination and forward the documents to such local board. The local board to which the registrant is transferred shall cause the registrant to be given an armed forces physical examination and shall take the actions provided for in paragraphs (f) and (g) of § 628.14.

§ 628.16 Duty of registrant to report for and submit to armed forces physical examination. (a) When the local board mails to a registrant an Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223), it shall be the duty of the registrant to report for such examination at the time and place fixed in such order unless, after the date the Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) is mailed and prior to the time fixed therein for the registrant to report for his armed forces physical examination, the local board cancels such Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) or postpones the time when such registrant shall so report and advises the registrant in writing of such cancellation or postponement.

(b) If the time when the registrant is ordered to report for armed forces physical examination is postponed, it shall be the duty of the registrant to report for armed forces physical examination upon the termination of such postponement and he shall report for armed forces physical examination at such time and place as may be fixed by the local board. Regardless of the time when or the circumstances under which a registrant fails to report for armed forces physical examination when it is his duty to do so, it shall thereafter be his continuing duty from day to day to report for armed forces physical examination to his local board and to each local board whose area he enters or in whose area he remains.

(c) Upon reporting for armed forces physical examination, it shall be the duty of the registrant (1) to follow the instructions of a member or clerk of the local board as to the manner in which he will be transported to the location where his armed forces physical examination will take place, (2) to obey the instructions of the leader or assistant leaders appointed for the group being forwarded for armed forces physical examination, (3) to appear for and submit to such examination as the commanding officer of the induction station shall direct, and (4) to follow the instructions of a member or clerk of the local board as to the manner in which he will be transported on his return trip from the place where his armed forces physical examination takes place.

§ 628.17 Forwarding registrants for armed forces physical examination. When the registrants who are to be forwarded for armed forces physical examination have assembled, the local board shall proceed as follows:

(a) The roll shall be called, using the previously prepared Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225), and any absence shall be recorded in the "Remarks" column.

(b) As each registrant's name is called he shall be observed by a member or clerk of the local board. § 631.1 Quotas and credits. Quotas of men to be inducted for training and service in the armed forces shall be determined for each State, Territory, possession, and the District of Columbia, and for subdivisions thereof, on the basis of the actual number of registrants classified in Class I–A and Class I–A–O who have been found acceptable for service in the armed forces. In fixing such quotas, credits shall be given for residents of such subdivisions who are serving on active duty in the armed forces on the date fixed for determining the quotas. After the quotas are fixed, credits shall be given in filling such quotas for residents of such subdivisions who subsequently enter upon active duty in the armed forces. Until the actual numbers necessary for determining the quotas are known, the quotas may be based on estimates, and subsequent adjustments therein shall be made when such actual numbers are known.

§ 631.2 Determination of quotas, credits, and debits. (a) The Director of Selective Service shall determine the quotas, credits, and debits for the nation and for each State. Each State Director of Selective Service shall be required periodically to report the total number of registrants in the State and the number of registrants in the State who have been placed in Class I–A and Class I–A–O and have been found acceptable for service in the armed forces. Each State Director of Selective Service shall also periodically report the number of registrants inducted from his State on State Monthly Report of Deliveries, Inductions and Examinations (SSS Form No. 262).

(b) The armed forces will furnish to each State Director of Selective Service a Report of Home Address at Time of Last Entry into Service (NME Form No. 53) for each person who is on active duty and who reports his or her permanent residence as being located in that State. Each State Director of Selective Service will similarly receive a home address report for each person, whether a registrant or not, who is a resident of his State and who subsequently enters upon active duty in the armed forces other than by induction through a local board.

(c) When a person on active duty in the armed forces is separated from active duty status or is reported as being a deserter, the appropriate State Director of Selective Service will receive a report of separation from the armed forces for each such person.

(d) Each State Director of Selective Service shall report periodically to the Director of Selective Service on State Monthly Report of Deliveries, Inductions and Examinations (SSS Form No. 262) the number of Reports of Home Address at Time of Last Entry into Service (NME Form No. 53) and the number of reports of separation from the armed forces properly forwarded to him for crediting and debiting purposes in his State. Each State Director of Selective Service shall also compute and allocate the debits and credits for each local board in his State.

§ 631.3 Determination of local board quotas, credits, and debits. The State Director of Selective Service for each State shall determine the quotas, credits, and debits for each local board in his State. He shall from time to time call upon each local board to report the number of registrants in the local board, the number classified, and the number it has placed in Class I–A and Class I–A–O who have been found acceptable for service in the armed forces.

§ 631.4 Calls by the Secretary of Defense. The Secretary of Defense shall from time to time place with the Director of Selective Service a call or requisition for a specified number of men to be inducted into the armed forces. The Secretary of Defense shall present such calls or requisitions to the Director of Selective Service not less than 60 days prior to the period during which the delivery and induction of such men are to be accomplished.

§ 631.5 Calls by the Director of Selective Service. The Director of Selective Service shall, upon receipt of a call or requisition from the Secretary of Defense, allocate such call or requisition among the several States. The Director of Selective Service shall issue to the State Director of Selective Service of each State concerned a Notice of Call on State (SSS Form No. 200) for the number of men found acceptable for service in the armed forces allocated to each State. The Director of Selective Service shall send two copies of each such Notice of Call on State (SSS Form No. 200) to the Secretary of Defense.

§ 631.6 Calls by State Director of Selective Service. The State Director of Selective Service, upon receiving a Notice of Call on State (SSS Form No. 200) from the Director of Selective Service shall (a) allocate to the local boards concerned within his State the number of men which his State is called upon to furnish for service in the armed forces and (b) issue to each local board concerned a Notice of Call on Local Board (SSS Form No. 201) directing the local board to select and deliver for induction the number of men who have been found to be acceptable for service in the armed forces fixed in such Notice of Call on Local Board (SSS Form No. 201). The State Director of Selective Service shall send a copy of each Notice of Call on Local Board (SSS Form No. 201) to the Commanding General of the Army Area in which his State is located and a copy to the commanding officer of the joint examining and induction station to which the selected men are directed to report for induction.

Such registrants shall be selected and ordered to report for induction in the order of their dates of birth with the oldest being selected first; Provided, that any such registrant who is a delinquent shall, regardless of his age, be selected and ordered to report for induction before any other registrant. When two or more such registrants have the same date of birth they shall, as among themselves, be selected in alphabetical order. The men so selected and ordered to report for induction shall be men to whom the local board has mailed a Certificate of Acceptability (NME Form No. 62) at least 21 days before the date fixed for induction; Provided, that a registrant classified in Class I–A or Class I–A–O who is a delinquent may be selected and ordered to report for induction to fill an induction call notwithstanding the fact that he has not been mailed a Certificate of Acceptability (NME Form No. 62). Whenever the number of postponements of induction materially reduces the number of men the local board actually can deliver in response to a call, the local board shall issue orders to report for induction to such numbers of additional men as may be necessary to meet the call, taking into account the number of men to be delivered following the expiration of postponements previously granted.

(d) A postponement of induction shall not render invalid the Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252) which has been issued to the registrant but shall operate only to postpone the reporting date and the registrant shall report on the new date without having issued to him a new Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252).

§ 632.3 Postponement of induction; high school students. (a) Any person who, while satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction at a high school or similar institution of learning, is ordered to report for induction prior to his graduation from such school or institution, shall, upon the facts being presented to the local board, have his induction postponed (1) until the time of his graduation therefrom, or (2) until he attains the twentieth anniversary of his birth, or (3) until he ceases satisfactorily to pursue such course of instruction, whichever is the earliest.

TRANSFER FOR INDUCTION

§ 632.9 Certain registrants may request transfer for induction. (a) Any registrant who is so far from his own local board that reporting to his own local board for induction would be a hardship may, subject to the provisions of this section, be transferred for induction to the local board having jurisdiction of the area in which he is at that time located. Application for such transfer may be made by the registrant at the time he receives his Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252).

(b) Any such registrant desiring to be so transferred shall immediately report to the local board having jurisdiction of the area in which he is at that time located, present his Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252), and complete, in quintuplicate, the request portion of Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260).

(c) The local board with which such registrant files such request shall investigate the circumstances of the registrant's absence from his own local board area. If it finds that he does not have a good reason for his absence, it shall endorse its disapproval upon his request, mail the original thereof to the registrant's own local board, mail a copy to the registrant, and file one of the remaining copies. Such registrant shall then be required to report in accordance with the Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252) of his own local board.

(d) If the local board with which the registrant files such request finds that he has a good reason for his absence from his own local board area and that he is so far from his own local board area that it would be a hardship for him to return to his own local board area for induction, it shall endorse its approval upon his request, mail the origina. and two copies by air mail (unless ordinary mail is as expeditious) to the registrant's own local board, mail a copy to the registrant, and file the remaining copy. When necessary for the accomplishment of the early induction of the registrant, the local board with which the registrant files his request may telegraph the registrant's own local board notifying it of the approval of the registrant's application for such transfer and requesting that the necessary records of the registrant be immediately forwarded to the local board of transfer. In such instances, the local board of transfer shall confirm the telegram by immediately mailing the original and two copies of the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260), with the endorsement of approval thereon, to the registrant's own local board.

(e) When the registrant's own local board receives the approved Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260), or receives a telegraphic approval of a request for transfer as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, it shall:

(1) Immediately complete on the original of the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260) the order transferring the registrant for induction.

(2) Prepare in triplicate the Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 263) and the Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A).

(3) Mail one copy of the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260) together with one copy of the Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 263) and one copy of the Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A) to its State Director of Selective Service for his further action as provided in paragraph (i) of this section, and file the remaining copy of the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260), one copy of Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 263), and one copy of Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A) in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101).

If possible, the transferred registrant shall be delivered for induction with the next call on the local board to which he has been transferred, but if there is to be no such call at an early date, it shall deliver such transferred registrant specially whenever the joint examining and induction station is receiving men. When the local board of transfer determines to deliver such transferred registrant specially, it shall notify its State Director of Selective Service and request that the necessary arrangements be made for the time and place at which such transferred registrant may be delivered specially. The local board to which such registrant has been transferred for induction shall prepare an Order for Transferred Man to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 253), in duplicate, mail the original to the transferred registrant, and file the copy. The local board to which such registrant has been transferred for induction shall add the name of the registrant to its Delivery List (SSS Form No. 261) and shall make a notation of such transfer and the identity of the local board from which he is transferred in the "Remarks" column of the Delivery List (SSS Form No. 261).

(g) The local board to which such registrant has been transferred for induction shall not substitute the transferred registrant for one of its selected men, but shall deliver the transferred registrant in addition to any deliveries it otherwise would make to fill its own call.

(h) When the transferred registrant has been inducted or rejected or if he fails to report for induction, the local board to which such registrant was transferred for induction shall complete the Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A), detach and forward it to the State Director of Selective Service for the State in which the local board of origin is located, and forward all papers with reference to such registrant, with the exception of the Delivery List (SSS Form No. 261), to his own local board.

(i) The State Director of Selective Service for the State in which the local board of origin is located shall, upon receipt from the local board of transfer of the completed Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A), record the disposition of the transferred registrant upon his copy of Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A) and forward the original of the Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A) to the local board of origin.

(j) The transferred registrant, if inducted, shall not be credited to the local board to which he was transferred for delivery, but shall be credited to his own local board.

§ 632.10 Transfer for induction directed by Director of Selective Service. (a) The Director of Selective Service may direct that a particular registrant or a registrant who comes within a described group of registrants be transferred for induction to such local board or local boards as he shall designate.

(b) A registrant selected for induction shall be transferred for induction to the local board having jurisdiction of the area in which he is at that time located whenever, from information in his file, it appears that the registrant is located in one and the registrant's own local board is located in another of the following: The continental United States, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands of the United States.

(c) To accomplish the transfer for induction under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, the registrant's own local board shall:

(1) Prepare in triplicate the Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 263) and the Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A).

(2) Complete in duplicate the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260) by inserting the name and present address of the registrant and the words "By direction of the Director of Selective Service" and by completing the second endorsement on such form.

(3) Mail one copy of the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260) together with one copy of the Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 263) and one copy of the Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A) to its State Director of Selective Service and file one copy of the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260), one copy of the Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 263), and one copy of the Report of Delivery of Transferred Registrant (SSS Form No. 263–A) in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101).

(5) Place a notation of the transfer of the registrant in the "Remarks" column of the Classification Record (SSS Form No. 102).

(d) The State Director of Selective Service of the State in which the registrant is located shall check the documents received from the registrant's own local board and, if not already accomplished, insert thereon the name and address of the local board in his State to which the registrant is transferred for induction and forward the documents to such local board. Unless the transfer of the registrant for induction is cancelled under paragraph (e) of this section, the local board to which the registrant is transferred shall cause the registrant to be delivered for induction and shall take the other actions provided for in paragraphs (f), (g), and (h) of § 632.9, and the State Director of Selective Service for the State in which the registrant's own local board is located shall take the action provided for in paragraph (i) of § 632.9.

(e) A registrant transferred for induction under this section may within five days after the date on which the local board to which he has been so transferred has mailed to him an Order for Transferred Man to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 253), file with such local board a written request to cancel his transfer for induction. Upon such a request being filed, such local board shall determine whether grave and unusual hardship will result to the registrant if he is not permitted to report to his own local board for induction and, if it so determines, shall cancel his transfer for induction. The local board shall record such determination on the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260) and the Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 263) and shall notify the registrant of its determination by letter. If the local board determines to cancel the transfer for induction, it shall (1) cancel the Order for Transferred Man to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 253) which it mailed to the registrant, and (2) return the Request for Transfer for Delivery (SSS Form No. 260) and all other documents concerning such registrant to his local board through the State Director of Selective Service for the State in which the registrant's local board is located. Upon receipt of such documents, the registrant's own local board shall order the registrant to report to it for induction in the usual manner.

(e) The local board shall inform all registrants in the group that it is their duty to obey the instructions of the leader or assistant leaders during the time they are going to the place of induction; that they will be met by proper representatives of the armed forces at the place of induction; that while they are at the place of induction they will be subject to and must obey the orders of the representatives of the armed forces; that they must present themselves for and submit to induction; that, if they are rejected, the representatives of the armed forces will, to the extent prescribed by the regulations of the armed forces, provide transportation and subsistence for their return trip.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Reg. Serial No. SR-327]

RENUMBERING AND RESCISSION OF PARTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 14th day of September 1948.

Presently the Civil Air Regulations are numbered in accordance with a decimal system established by Part 99. In order to conform with Part 2 of the Federal Register Regulations, the Board is renumbering the Civil Air Regulations. This amendment therefore rescinds Part 99, and redesignates Parts 01, 02, 03, 04a, 04b, 06, and 09 as 1, 2, 3, 4a, 4b, 6, and 9. New or revised parts of the Civil Air Regulations will, when promulgated, use the numbering system established in Part 2 of the Federal Register Regulations (See §§ 2.31–2.44 (11 F. R. 9837–38)).

Since parts of the Civil Air Regulations as now drafted set forth applicable definitions, Part 98, which is a generally applicable definition regulation, is no longer of any useful purpose, and it is hereby rescinded.

Since this regulation is procedural in nature and imposes no additional burden on any person, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and this regulation may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates the following Special Civil Air Regulation effective September 14, 1948:

1. Parts 01, 02, 03, 04a, 04b, 06, and 09 (14 CFR Parts 01, 02, 03, 04a, 04b, 06, and 09) are hereby redesignated Parts 1, 2, 3, 4a, 4b, 6, and 9, respectively.

2. Parts 98 and 99 (14 CFR, Parts 98, 99) are hereby recinded.

(Sec. 205 (a), 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425 (a))

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] M. C. MULLIGAN,
Secretary.

(2) No vessel shall occupy for a longer period than 30 days, unless a permit is obtained from the Captain of the Port for that purpose, any anchorage for which the time of occupancy is not otherwise prescribed in this section. No vessel in a condition such that it is likely to sink or otherwise become a menace or obstruction to navigation or anchorage of other vessels shall occupy an anchorage except in an emergency, and then only for such period as may be permitted by the Captain of the Port.

(3) Whenever, in the opinion of the Captain of the Port, such action may be necessary, that officer may require any or all vessels in any designated anchorage area to moor with two or more anchors.

(4) Every vessel whose crew may be reduced to such number that it will not have sufficient men on board to weigh anchor at any time shall be anchored with two anchors, with mooring swivel put on before the crew shall be reduced or released, unless the Captain of the Port shall waive the requirement of a mooring swivel.

(5) Anchorage of all vessels must be placed well within the anchorage areas, so that no portion of the hull or rigging shall at any time extend outside the boundaries of the anchorage area.

(6) Any vessel anchoring under circumstances of great emergency outside of the anchorage areas must be placed near the edge of the channel and in such position as not to interfere with the free navigation of the channel nor obstruct the approach to any pier nor impede the movement of any boat, and shall move away immediately after the emergency ceases, or upon notification by the Captain of the Port.

(7) When applied for, a berth in an anchorage, if available, shall be assigned to any vessel by the Captain of the Port. He may grant revocable permits for habitually maintaining and using the same mooring space in an anchorage area, but no vessel shall occupy continuously a berth in an anchorage area when a vessel in regular traffic requires the berth or when navigation would be menaced or inconvenienced thereby. The Captain of the Port is authorized to issue permits for maintaining mooring buoys. The method of anchoring these buoys shall be as prescribed by the Captain of the Port. No vessel shall moor in any anchorage in such a manner as to interfere with the use of a duly authorized mooring buoy. Permit issued by the Captain of the Port is not necessary for plant engaged upon works of river and harbor improvement under the supervision of the District Engineer, but the District Engineer will notify the Captain of the Port in advance of all such proposed work.

(10) Whenever the maritime or commercial interests of the United States so require, the Captain of the Port is hereby empowered to shift the position of any vessel anchored within the anchorage areas, of any vessel anchored outside the anchorage areas, of any vessel which is so moored or anchored as to impede or obstruct vessel movements in any channel or obstruct or interfere with range lights and of any vessel which, lying at the exterior end of a pier or alongside an open bulkhead, obstructs or endangers the passage of vessels in transit by, or to or from, adjacent wharf property or impedes the movements of vessels entering or leaving adjacent slips.

(11) A vessel upon being notified to move into the anchorage limits or to shift its position on anchorage grounds, shall get under way at once or signal for a tug, and shall change position as directed, with reasonable promptness.

(12) Nothing in this section shall be construed as relieving any vessel or the owner or person in charge of any vessel from the penalties of law for obstructing navigation or for obstructing or interfering with range lights, or for not complying with the navigation laws in regard to lights, fog signals, or for otherwise violating law.

(m) Anchorages for vessels carrying explosives.—(1) Anchorage No. 49–B. On the New Jersey Flats, south of a line parallel to and 500 yards south of the National Docks (Black Tom) dredged channel; west of a line bearing 208° from the Torch, State of Liberty, and ranging through National Docks Channel Buoy 1 and New Jersey Pierhead Channel North Entrance Buoy 4; north of a line ranging through the latter buoy and New Jersey Pierhead Channel North Entrance Lighted Buoy 6; northeast of a line bearing 313° being parallel to and 500 yards north of Caven Point Pier; and east of a line bearing 40° from the twin chimneys on Constable Hook, New Jersey, through the brick pump house on the inshore end of the trestle to Caven Point Pier.

(i) Vessels shall not anchor within 800 yards of Bedloes Island, within 500 yards of any pier, or within 100 yards of the New Jersey Pierhead Channel.

(ii) No vessel using this anchorage shall carry more than 20 tons of high explosives.

(iii) No vessel carrying explosives of any kind shall anchor in this anchorage within 500 feet of any other vessel carrying high explosives; except that the Captain of the Port may authorize the placing of moorings not less than 500 feet apart within this area and the making fast thereto of not to exceed three barges at each mooring, provided the combined load of the barges at a mooring is not more than 20 tons of high exposives.

(iv) Insofar as practicable, in the use of this anchorage preference shall be given to vessels storing explosives for current consumption.

(v) In cases of great emergency and when weather conditions are such that it is impossible for barges, scows, or lighters loaded with more than 20 tons of high explosives to proceed to Gravesend Bay or Raritan Bay, or lie at anchor there, such vessels may anchor temporarily in the Jersey Flats anchorage, but in each case the Captain of the Port must be immediately notified, and such vessel will not remain so anchored without his special permission.

(2) Anchorage No. 49–C (naval and military anchorage). In Gravesend Bay, north of a line bearing 260°30′ from latitude 40°34′58″, longitude 74°01′20″, to latitude 40°34′54″, longitude 74°01′49″, and ranging through the stack on Hoffman Island; east of a line bearing 342° from the last-mentioned point to latitude 40°35′59″, longitude 74°02′17″, and ranging 250 yards due west of Fort Lafayette; south of a line bearing 96° from the last-mentioned point to latitude 40°35′56″, longitude 74°01′45″; and west of a line bearing 343° from the last-mentioned point to latitude 40°34′58″, longitude 74°01′20″, and passing through Fort Hamilton Southwest Buoy 20.

(i) The Captain of the Port may permit the anchorage of commercial vessels in the southerly part of the area south of a line bearing 252° from the flagpole in the vicinity of Bay Parkway, Brooklyn, when use of the anchorage by naval or military vessels will permit. Any commercial vessels so moored as to obstruct the use of the area for the anchorage of naval or military vessels may be required by the Captain of the Port to shift its position or clear the area when found necessary, at its own expense.

(ii) Fishing and navigation by pleasure and commercial craft are prohibited within the area at all times when vessels which are moored in the area for the purpose of loading or unloading explosives display a red flag by day or a red light by night, unless special permission is granted by the Captain of the Port.

(iii) Vessels carrying high explosives in this anchorage shall not anchor closer than 400 yards to one another, but the number of vessels which may anchor in the area at any one time shall be at the discretion of the Captain of the Port. This provision is not intended to prohibit barges or lighters from tying up alongside ships for the transfer of cargoes.

(iv) Vessels carrying high explosives shall not occupy this anchorage for a period of time longer than is necessary to receive or discharge such cargoes, or between sunset and sunrise except by special permit from the Captain of the Port in cases of great emergency.

(v) Barges and lighters loaded with explosives may anchor in the easterly portion of this area provided such barges and lighters are anchored so as not to approach one another closer than 300 feet. The Captain of the Port may authorize the placing of moorings in the easterly portion of the area and the making fast thereto of not to exceed three barges or lighters at each mooring, provided these moorings are so spaced that the vessels at one mooring shall at all times be not less than 300 feet from the vessels at an adjacent mooring.

(i) This area shall not be used by vessels which do not carry explosives except in cases of great emergency.

(4) Anchorage No. 49–F (emergency naval anchorage). That portion of Sandy Hook Bay bounded by a line bearing 170°, 3,800 yards, from a point bearing 281°30′ 2,050 yards, from Sandy Hook Light; thence 260°, 500 yards; thence 350°, 3,800 yards; thence 80°, 500 yards, to the point of beginning.

(i) This anchorage is to be used for the anchorage of naval vessels during emergencies only.

(ii) No pleasure or commercial craft shall navigate or moor within this area at any time when naval vessels which are moored in the area display a red flag by day or a red light by night.

(5) Anchorage No. 49–G (naval anchorage). That portion of Sandy Hook Bay bounded by a line bearing 208° 1,350 yards, from a point bearing 292°30′, 3,600 yards, from Sandy Hook Light; thence 298°, 620 yards; thence 2°, 1,250 yards; thence 107°, 1,150 yards, to the point of beginning.

(i) No pleasure or commercial craft shall navigate or moor within this area at any time when vessels which are moored in the area display a red flag by day or a red light by night.

(n) Regulations for explosives anchorages. (1) Anchorages Nos. 49–B, 49–C, 49–D, 49–F, and 49–G are reserved for vessels carrying explosives. All vessels carrying explosives shall be within these areas when anchored, except as provided in subparagraph (6) of this paragraph.

(2) A written permit shall be obtained from the Captain of the Port before vessels carrying explosives, or on which explosives are to be loaded, may proceed to the anchorages provided for them; and no vessel shall occupy a berth in such anchorage except by authority of such permit, which permit may be revoked at any time.

(3) Vessels used in connection with loading or unloading explosives on vessels in anchorage areas, including tugs and stevedore boats, shall carry a written permit from the Captain of the Port. Such permit shall be shown whenever required by him or by his properly authorized agents.

(4) Whenever any vessel not fitted with mechanical power anchors in the explosives anchorages while carrying explosives, the Captain of the Port may require the attendance of a tug upon such vessel when in his judgment such action is necessary.

(6) The District Engineer, Corps of Engineers, may authorize, in writing, a vessel carrying explosives for use on river and harbor works or on other work under federal permit issued by the District Engineer to anchor in or near the vicinity of such work without a permit from the Captain of the Port. The District Engineer will prescribe the quantities of such explosives allowed on such vessel and the conditions under which they are to be stored and handled, and will furnish the Captain of the Port with a copy of such safety instructions together with a copy of his written authorization.

UNITED PUBLIC SERVICE CORP.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of September A. D. 1948.

The United Public Service Corporation ("United"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of The Middle West Corporation, ("Middle West") a registered holding company, having filed an application-declaration pursuant to sections 11 and 12 (c) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-46 promulgated thereunder with respect to the following transactions:

United proposes to make two cash distributions to the holders of its capital stock as part of the process of its complete liquidation from funds to be received from cash liquidating dividends to be paid by United Public Utilities Corporation ("UPU"). The Commission has approved proposals by UPU providing, among other things, for cash distributions of $5 and $4 per share to the holders of the common stock of UPU. When the $5 per share distribution by UPU is consummated, United, the holder of 148,055 shares (39.98%) of the common stock of UPU, will receive cash in the amount of $740,275. Thereupon, United proposes to distribute in cash $2.42 per share or an aggregate of $740,501 to the holders of its outstanding capital stock. When the $4 per share distribution by UPU is made, United will receive cash in the amount of $592,220. Upon receipt of such cash, United proposes to make an additional cash distribution of $1.93 per share or an aggregate of $590,564 to the holders of its outstanding capital stock.

The application-declaration states that the proposed distributions have been approved by resolution of the stockholders of United authorizing the dissolution of the corporation. The application-declaration further states that the only remaining asset of United, other than cash, is its investment in the common stock of UPU and that the amounts received by United as cash dividends on its holdings of the common stock of UPU are not required for the conduct of United's business.

Said application-declaration having been filed on August 23, 1948, and notice of filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 under said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application-declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application-declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of the investors and consumers that said application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the said act and subject to the terms and conditions of Rule U-24, that the application-declaration be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

MADISON GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of September A. D. 1948

Madison Gas and Electric Company ("Madison"), a public utility subsidiary of American Light & Traction Company ("American Light"), a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to the provisions of section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") with respect to the following transactions:

Madison proposes to enter into a Credit Agreement, which will expire eighteen months from date of execution, with Harris Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, Illinois, and First Wisconsin National Bank of Milwaukee, Wisconsin ("the Banks"). The Credit Agreement will commit the Banks to advance to Madison a maximum of $2,000,000 at an interest rate of 2¼% per annum. All notes issued by Madison will mature eighteen months from the date of execution of the Credit Agreement. The Credit Agreement provides that a quarterly commitment fee of one-half of one per cent per annum, based upon the average daily unused balance of the commitment computed for the preceding quarter period, will be paid to the Banks. Madison will have the right to reduce the commitment of the Banks at any time with a proportionate reduction of the commitment fee, and may prepay the notes at any time without penalty.

The application states that Madison requires funds to finance the construction of additional facilities urgently needed in the operation of its business. It is also stated that the $2,000,000 to be borrowed under the proposed Credit Agreement should enable Madison to finance its construction program until the fall of 1949. In the interim Madison expects to conclude a permanent financing program which will involve the repayment of its bank borrowings and the raising of such additional funds as may be appropriate to complete its construction program through 1950.

Madison states that the Credit Agreement and the proposed issuance and sale of notes thereunder has been approved by the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin, the state commission of the state in which Madison is organized and doing business.

Such application having been duly filed and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to the application that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder are satisfied and that it is not necessary to impose any terms or conditions, and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application be granted and deeming it appropriate to grant the request of applicant that the order become effective forthwith upon issuance:

It is hereby ordered, pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24, that the application be, and the same hereby is, granted and become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), and the general rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, by Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard Gas"), a registered holding company. The declarant has designated sections 11 (b) and 12 (d) of the act and Rule U-44 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than September 23, 1948, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said declaration proposed to be controverted or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after September 23, 1948, such declaration, as filed or as amended, may become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

Standard Gas, which presently owns 750,000 shares (or 84.26%) of the outstanding Common Stock, $20 par value, of Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company ("Oklahoma"), proposes to sell to underwriters 400,000 shares of its holdings of Common Stock of Oklahoma and to apply the net proceeds toward the payment of interest and principal on its outstanding notes payable to banks, due April 10, 1949, and aggregating $20,694,384.95 as of June 30, 1948.

With the stated purpose of facilitating the proposed sale, Standard Gas proposes to stabilize the market price of Oklahoma Common Stock by purchases of such stock, if at that time deemed necessary or desirable, during the period between the effective date of this declaration and the time of the execution of its agreement with underwriters. It is proposed that the underwriters shall purchase any shares which Standard Gas may have publicly purchased pursuant to such program to stabilize, at the same price to be paid by the underwriters for the 400,000 shares of Oklahoma Common Stock.

Standard Gas requests that the Commission make the appropriate findings and tax recitals required by sections 371 (b), 371 (f), and 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Standard Gas also requests that the proposed sale be exempted from the competitive biding provisions of Rule U-50 under the act.

Standard Gas further requests that the declaration be permitted to become effective as soon as practicable, following which, it will report by amendment the negotiations undertaken and the terms of the contract proposed to be entered into with the underwriters, and request the entry of a final order by the Commission authorizing the proposed sale.

By the Commission.

Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto, which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. [SEAL] GEO. J. SCHOENEMAN, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

1. Sections 190.13, 190.14, 190.17, 190.19, 190.31, 190.49, 190.94, 190.95, 190.98, 190.99, 190.105, 190.106, 190.115, 190.118 (c), 190.119, 190.132, 190.138, 190.177, 190.262, 190.263, and 190.392 of Regulations 15 (26 CFR, Part 190), are amended; §§ 190.15, 190.16, 190.110 (a) (2), and 190.137 of such regulations are revoked; and §§ 190.41a and 190.471a are added to such regulations.

2. These amendments are designed to simplify certain requirements relating to construction, and the preparation, filing, and approval of documents in connection with the establishment and operation of rectifying plants.

§ 190.13 Within 600 feet of distillery. The district supervisor may permit the carrying on of the business of rectifying spirits or wines at a distance of less than 600 feet in a direct line from a distillery, when he is of the opinion that the revenue will not be endangered thereby. (Secs. 2819, 2832, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.14 Special application. A person desiring to establish a rectifying plant within 600 feet of a distillery shall file a special application, in triplicate, for such privilege with the district supervisor. The application shall state the location of the rectifying plant and the distillery, the distance between the premises, the name of the distiller, a description of any connecting pipe lines, the reason for locating the rectifying plant within 600 feet of the distillery, and any additional information which the district supervisor may require. The district supervisor will take action on such special application in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 190.119. (Secs. 2819, 2832, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.17 Changes requiring approval. Where there is to be a change in the distance between a rectifying plant and a distillery located within 600 feet of each other, as a result of the extension or curtailment of either premises, a new special application, in triplicate, must be filed with the district supervisor by the proprietor of the premises which are to be extended or curtailed. Where a change occurs in the proprietorship of a rectifying plant or distillery located within 600 feet of each other, the new proprietor shall file with the district supervisor a new special application, in triplicate. Unless the rectifying plant premises are extended or curtailed as the result of such change, the change may be reflected in the next amended notice, Form 27-B, and plat filed by the rectifier. Such new special application shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with § 190.119. (Secs. 2819, 2832, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.19 Building or rooms. The rectifying plant must be so constructed and equipped as to be suitable for the rectification of spirits by the process, or processes, of rectification which the rectifier proposes to use. The room or building must be securely constructed of brick, stone, wood, concrete or other substantial material, and must be completely separated from contiguous buildings or rooms by solid, unbroken partitions, or floors of substantial construction, except as hereinafter provided. Such partitions shall extend from the ground to the roof, or from the floor to the ceiling if a room is used, and if the rectifying plant is under the same roof or in the same building in which is located an internal revenue bonded warehouse or a tax-paid bottling house, the two premises must not have means of communication with each other within the building, except by approved pipe lines as herein authorized: Provided, that where a rectifying plant has heretofore been established under the same roof, or in the same building, with an internal revenue bonded warehouse or a tax-paid bottling house with interior communication between the two premises, it may continue to operate in such location if the revenue will not be jeopardized thereby. Where distilled water or tax-paid spirits are to be transferred by pipe line to, or from, the rectifying plant in accordance with these regulations, necessary openings for the passage of the required pipe lines may be permitted in the walls or partitions, and necessary openings for passage of approved water, steam, sewer, or similar lines may likewise be permitted in the walls or partitions. Where contiguous wholesale liquor dealer premises are used in lieu of a finished product room, the necessary doors or openings may be permitted in the walls or petitions for the transfer of filled cases. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.31 Weighing tanks. Where weighing tanks are used for gauging spirits, such tanks shall be constructed of metal and shall be stationary and of uniform dimensions from top to bottom, and each such tank shall be equipped with a suitable measuring device whereby the contents will be correctly indicated. If the weighing tanks are to be used for gauging rectified spirits for determining the amount of tax, or gauging tax-exempt products prior to transfer of the spirits to a bottling tank, such weighing tanks must also conform to the requirements of § 190.39. The gauging of spirits in a weighing tank connected with a bottling tank shall be deemed to meet the requirements of these regulations for gauging the spirits in a bottling tank mounted on scales: Provided, That after gauging, the spirits may be transferred to the bottling tank for immediate taxpayment if subject to the rectification tax. Each weighing tank shall be mounted on accurate scales and shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words, "Weighing Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. The beams or dials of the scales must indicate weight in 5 pound graduations for scales up to and including 25 tons capacity, in 10 pound graduations for scales exceeding 25 tons capacity but not exceeding 60 tons capacity, and in 20 pound graduations for scales having a capacity of more than 60 tons. (Secs. 2801 (e), 2829, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.41a Accumulation tanks. Where the rectifier removes distilled spirits from the bottling line which contain sediment or foreign matter, or which otherwise require refiltering or rebottling, he may install suitable accumulation tanks in the bottling room for the accumulation of such spirits. Each such tank shall have plainly and legibly painted thereon the words, "Accumulation Tank," followed by its serial number and capacity in wine gallons. If the spirits accumulated in each tank are of the same class and type, they may be returned to the bottling tank system for refiltering and bottling with the same batch of spirits. The return of the spirits to the bottling tank system must be under the supervision of the storekeeper-gauger. Unless the spirits are refiltered and bottled with the same lot of spirits from which they were originally bottled, they must be returned for rectification under an approved formula, or, in the case of spirits not subjected to taxable rectification, returned to the dumping and reducing tank for commingling with spirits without rectification within the limitation of § 190.351. In such case, appropriate notation will be made on the Form 230 or Form 237 relative to the return of the spirits. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.49 Distance from distillery or vinegar plant. If the rectifying plant premises are situated more than 600 feet in a direct line from any premises authorized to be used for distilling spirits, or from a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process, such fact shall be stated on Form 27–B. If the distance between the rectifying plant premises and the premises of a distillery is less than 600 feet in a direct line, there must be stated in the notice, Form 27–B, the name of the proprietor of the distillery, the exact distance in feet and inches between the rectifying plant and distillery, and whether the location of the rectifying plant within such distance of the distillery has been approved by the district supervisor. If such location of the rectifying plant has been approved by the district supervisor, the date of such approval shall be given. If the distance between the rectifying plant premises and a vinegar factory using the vaporizing process is less than 600 feet in a direct line, such fact shall be stated on the form, and also whether or not the vinegar factory was established and operated as such prior to March 1, 1879. (Secs. 2801 (e), 2812, 2819, 2834, 2835, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.94 Preparation. Every plat and plan shall be drawn to scale and each sheet thereof shall bear a distinctive title, enabling ready identification. The cardinal points of the compass must appear on each sheet, except the elevational plans. The minimum scale of any plat will not be less than 1/50 inch per foot. Each sheet of the original plat and plans shall be numbered, the first sheet being designated number 1, and the other sheets numbered in consecutive order. Plats and plans shall be submitted on sheets of tracing cloth, opaque cloth, or sensitized linen. The dimensions of plats and plans shall be 15 by 20 inches, outside measurement, with a clear margin of at least 1 inch on each side of the drawing, lettering, and writing. Plats and plans may be original drawings, or reproductions made by the "ditto process," or by blue or brown line lithoprint, if such reproductions are clear and distinct. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.95 Depiction of rectifying plant premises. Plats must show the outer boundaries of the rectifying plant premises, in feet and inches, in a color contrasting with those used for other drawings on the plat, and must contain an accurate depiction of the building, or buildings, comprising the premises, and any driveway, public highway, or railroad right-of-way adjacent thereto or connecting therewith. The depiction of the premises shall agree with the description in the notice, Form 27–B. If the premises are separated by a public highway or railroad right-of-way, and the tracts of land comprising the premises, or parts thereof, abut on such highway or right-of-way, opposite each other, the different tracts will be depicted separately, in feet and inches. If two or more buildings are to be used, the designated name of each shall be indicated, and all pipe lines or other connections, if any, between the same depicted. Where two or more buildings are used for the same purpose, the name of each such building shall include an alphabetical designation, beginning with "A," and they shall be so shown on the plat. All first floor doors of each building on the premises will be shown on the plat. If the rectifying plant consists of a room or a floor of a building, an entire outline of the building, the precise location and dimensions of the room or floor, and the means of ingress and egress to a public street or yard shall be shown. Except as provided in § 190.104, all pipe lines leading to or from the premises, the purpose for which used, and the points of origin and termination will be indicated on the plat. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.98 Floor plans. The plans shall include a floor plan of each building, showing the general dimensions of the rooms and floors, and the location of all doors, windows, and other openings, and how such openings are protected. If a portion of a building is used, such as a room or floor, the floor plans will include only that portion, and shall also show the means of ingress and egress to the street. All apparatus and equipment, except pipe lines, must be shown in their exact location on the floor plans and their designated use indicated. In the case of stills, tanks, and similar equipment, the serial number and capacity shall also be shown. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.99 Elevational flow diagrams. Elevational flow diagrams (plans) shall be submitted covering the flow of spirits from the time of receipt on the premises until the cased spirits are removed from the bottling room. Such diagrams or plans shall clearly depict all equipment in its relative operating sequence and elevation by floors, with all connecting pipe lines, valves, flanges, measuring devices, and attachments for Government locks. The elevation by floors on the diagrams may be indicated by horizontal lines representing floor levels. All major equipment, such as dump tanks, processing tanks, bottling tanks, filters, etc., must be identified on the plans as to number and use. The elevation flow diagram must be so drawn that all fixed pipe lines, except those indicated by § 190.104, may be readily traced from beginning to end. Other types of drawings that clearly depict the information required herein may be submitted in compliance with this section. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.105 Certificate of accuracy. The plat and plans shall bear a certificate of accuracy in the lower right hand corner of each sheet, signed by the rectifier, the draftsman, and the district supervisor, substantially in the following form:

(Name of proprietor)

Approved ---
(Date)

Accuracy certified by:

(District supervisor)

(Name and capacity—for the proprietor)

(Draftsman)

Rectifying Plant No. ---

--- 19---
(Date)

No. ---

(Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.106 Revised plats and plans. The sheets of revised plats and plans shall bear the same number as the sheets superseded, but will be given a new date. Any additional plats and plans shall be given a new number in consecutive order, or will be otherwise numbered and lettered in such manner as will permit the filing of the plats and plans in proper sequence. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.115 Changes in premises. Where the rectifying plant premises are to be extended or curtailed, the rectifier must file with the district supervisor an amended notice, Form 27–B, and an amended plat of the premises as extended or curtailed. If the plans are affected by the extension or curtailment, they must also be amended. If the rectifying plant is within 600 feet of a distillery, the rectifier must also file a special application in accordance with §§ 190.14 or 190.17, if the changes are of such nature or extent as to require a special application. The additional premises covered by an extension may not be used for rectifying purposes, and the portion of the premises to be excluded by a curtailment may not be used for other than rectifying purposes, prior to approval of the notice, Form 27–B. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

* * * * *

§ 190.119 Special application. Where a special application for permission to operate a rectifying plant within 600 feet of a distillery is submitted by the rectifier, and such special application conforms to the requirements of these regulations, the district supervisor will cause an inspection to be made to determine whether the proposed operation of the rectifying plant within 600 feet of the distillery may be permitted without jeopardy to the revenue. The inspector will ascertain whether the application accurately describes the relative location of the two premises and all pipe lines and other connections, if any, between such premises. The inspector will also observe the surroundings, including all streets, roads, and driveways connecting the two premises, and any condition which might endanger the revenue, and will describe the same in his report. If the district supervisor finds, upon consideration of the inspection report, that the rectifying plant may be operated at the designated location without danger to the revenue, he will note his approval on all copies of the special application. He will then return one copy of the approved application to the applicant, retain the original for his files, and forward the remaining copy, together with a copy of the inspection report, to the Commissioner. Approval of the special application pertains to the location of the rectifying plant only, and does not authorize the operation thereof. The rectifying plant may not be operated until the rectifier's bond, and other qualifying documents required by law and these regulations, have been filed and approved by the Commissioner. If the special application is disapproved, the district supervisor will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies of such application to the applicant, with advice as to the reasons for disapproval. (Secs. 2819, 2832, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.132 Disposition of qualifying documents. Where the rectifier's bond, Form 34, and notice, Form 27–B, are approved by the Commissioner, the district supervisor will, upon receipt of the approved copies of such documents from the Commissioner, as provided in § 190.138, forward one copy of the bond, notice, plat, plans, and other qualifying documents to the rectifier, and will retain one copy of such documents for the file. If the rectifier's bond is disapproved, the district supervisor will, upon receipt from the Commissioner of the disapproved copies of such bond and other qualifying documents submitted therewith, return all copies of the qualifying documents to the proprietor, with advice as to the reasons for such disapproval. (Secs. 2800 (e) (1), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.138 Qualifying documents. The Commissioner will review the notice, plat, plans, rectifier's bond, Form 34, and other qualifying documents, upon their receipt from the district supervisor. If the Commissioner approves the rectifying plant construction and equipment, and the plat, plans, bond, and notice, and other qualifying documents, he will assign a registry number to the rectifying plant in accordance with § 190.139, note his approval on all copies of the bond and notice, retain one copy of the bond and notice, and all copies of the other qualifying documents, and will return two copies of the approved bond and notice to the district supervisor, with advice as to his action on the qualifying documents. If the Commissioner disapproves the bond, he will note his disapproval thereon and will return all copies thereof to the district supervisor, accompanied by the other qualifying documents submitted therewith, and a statement of the reasons for disapproval of the bond. (Secs. 2815 (c) (d), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.177 Application, Form 122. When the rectifier desires to dump spirits for rectification, he will carefully gauge each package and prepare Form 122, in duplicate, giving a complete description of the packages and making application for permission to dump the same, except that where spirits are transferred to the rectifying plant, directly upon taxpayment, from a contiguous distillery or internal revenue bonded warehouse and dumped for rectification within ten days after receipt, the withdrawal gauge will be considered as satisfying the requirement that the spirits shall be gauged when dumped for rectification. Where the spirits are so dumped on the withdrawal gauge, the details of such gauge will be copied on Form 122, and, in addition thereto, if the rectifying plant is equipped with processing tanks mounted on scales, the spirits may be dumped and gauged by weight in such processing tanks. In such case, the composite proof and proof gallons determined by such gauge shall also be reported on Form 122. The difference in proof gallons between the withdrawal (taxpayment regauge) and such gauge shall also be reported on Form 122. If the spirits are to be drawn from a storage tank, the rectifier will likewise execute Form 122, giving all the information applicable. Each Form 122 will be given a serial number beginning with "1" for the 1st day of January of each year and running consecutively thereafter to December 31, inclusive. (Secs. 2801 (e) (1), 2813, 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.262 Application required for extension. Where the rectifier desires to employ a process of rectification which will extend over more than 10 days, thus necessitating the holding of the spirits in the rectifying room for such longer period, application in quadruplicate for approval of such extended process must be incorporated in the Form 27–B Supplemental, and filed with the district supervisor as provided in § 190.152. The rectifier must set forth fully on such form following the statement of process, the reason why the period of time specified for completion of the process is necessary. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.263 Inquiry by district supervisor. Upon receipt of a Form 27–B Supplemental requesting approval of a process requiring more than 10 days for completion, the district supervisor will make such inquiry as he may deem proper to determine the necessity for the extended period, and whether approval thereof will jeopardize the revenue. He will then forward all copies of the Form 27–B Supplemental to the Commissioner along with his findings and recommendation. The Form 27–B Supplemental will be disposed of in the manner prescribed by § 190.156. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.392 Shipment of stamps. Where the stamps are to be shipped, the collector will forward the stamps to the Government officer by registered mail or express. The expense of forwarding the stamps by registered mail or express will be borne by the proprietor. The collector may furnish the stamps directly to the proprietor for immediate delivery to the Government officer in accordance with § 190.391. (Secs. 2801 (e), 3176, I. R. C.)

§ 190.471a Registry on Form 26. Every person having in his possession or custody or under his control any still or distilling apparatus that is set up, must register the same on Form 26, in triplicate, with the district supervisor for the district in which it is set up. Stills to be used for the rectification of any type of distilled spirits may be registered for "Rectification of distilled spirits," and the specific type need not be shown. Thereafter, when another type of distilled spirits is to be rectified, the still need not be reregistered. The temporary suspension of a rectifying plant will not necessitate reregistration of the stills. Furthermore, the operation of a rectifying plant by alternating proprietors, where no actual change in ownership occurs, will not require reregistration of the stills by the proprietors. Where there is a change in location or use, or an actual change in ownership of a still, the still must be registered to reflect the change. The district supervisor will, upon approving the registration of a still on Form 26, retain one copy of the form, forward one copy to the Commissioner, and return the remaining copy to the rectifier. (Secs. 2801 (e), 2810, 3170, 3176, I. R. C.)

3. This Treasury decision shall be effective on the 31st day after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR, Part 240]

REGULATIONS OR LEGISLATION REGARDING THE STABILIZATION OF MARKET PRICES BY PERSONS OFFERING SECURITIES TO THE PUBLIC

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission is proposing to consider the adoption or amendment of rules and regulations or the recommendation of legislation relating to the stabilization of market prices by persons who are offering securities to the public. This notice is given pursuant to the Commission's order of March 23, 1948, instituting a public investigation in the matter of offering of common stock of Kaiser-Frazer Corporation. That order specified that it was one purpose of the investigation to aid the Commission in its functions under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of prescribing rules and regulations and securing information to serve as a basis for recommending further legislation.

Stazilization is that process whereby the market price of a security is pegged or fixed for the limited purpose of preventing or retarding a decline in contemplation of or during a public offering of securities. Section 9 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 deals generally with various manipulative practices. Section 9 (a) (2) makes it unlawful in general terms for any person, by use of the mails or any instrumentality of interstate commerce or any facility of a national security exchange,

> To effect, alone or with one or more other persons, a series of transactions in any security registered on a national securities exchange creating actual or apparent active trading in such security or raising or depressing the price of such security, for the purpose of inducing the purchase or sale of such security by others.

This general anti-manipulative provision, however, is limited by section 9 (a) (6), which outlaws stabilization only if effected in contravention of Commission rules. Section 9 (a) (6) makes it unlawful

> To effect either alone or with one or more other persons any series of transactions for the purchase and/or sale of any security registered on a national securities exchange for the purpose of pegging, fixing, or stabilizing the price of such security in contravention of such rules and regulations as the Commission may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

The Commission has in effect certain disclosure rules concerning stabilization. These rules were adopted under provisions other than section 9 (a) (6). One rule requires the filing of reports by persons effecting stabilizing transactions.[1] Another rule requires that in the case of an issue of securities registered under the Securities Act of 1933 a statement of intention to stabilize appear prominently on the first or second page of the prospectus whenever the issuer or any of the underwriters knows or has reasonable grounds to believe that it is intended to stabilize.[2] However, the only substantive regulation of stabilizing thus far adopted, and the only regulation under section 9 (a) (6), is Regulation X-9A6-1, which is limited to offerings made "at the market" instead of at a fixed price. In connection with the adoption of this regulation the Commission issued a statement, together with a separate statement by the late Commissioner Healy, discussing both the technical problems involved in the regulation of stabilizing and the fundamental questions of policy.[3] While the Commission agreed unanimously that stabilizing was manipulation, the majority considered the alternatives of prohibition, inaction and regulation, and concluded in favor of attacking the problem step-by-step through the Commission's rule-making authority. Commissioner Healy in his dissenting opinion observed that the differences between "manipulation" and "stabilization" were often difficult of perception, and he disagreed with the view that section 9 (a) (6) left the Commission with no authority to outlaw stabilization.

In the absence of any applicable rule except with respect to "market offerings" (which in recent years have been very rare) the question whether a particular course of conduct is unlawful manipulation or lawful stabilization rests at present on interpretation of section 9 (a) (2), which must of course be construed in the light of section 9 (a) (6). Sections 9 (a) (2) and 9 (a) (6) are by their terms limited to securities registered on a national securities exchange. However, the Commission has repeatedly held[4] that conduct which violates section 9 (a) (2) when it concerns a registered security violates the general anti-fraud provisions[5] when it concerns a security not registered on an exchange. Consequently, the line between fraud or manipulation and lawful stabilization with respect to unregistered securities rests similarly at present on interpretation of these general anti-fraud provisions, which like section 9 (a) (2) must be construed in the light of the fact that the Congress when it dealt specifically with stabilization determined not to outlaw the practice by statute.

There are no judicial precedents defining the difference between stabilization and other forms of manipulation. The Commission's administrative interpretation was publicly expressed on July 15, 1948, in connection with the present investigation. In ruling on a motion presented by one of the witnesses the presiding officer made the following statement on the Commission's behalf:

> It has for many years been the Commission's position, expressed both orally and by letter to any member of the public making proper inquiry, that stabilization for the sole purpose of preventing or retarding a decline, whether the stabilization is effected by an underwriter or by an issuer, does not of itself violate section 9 (a) (2) or any other section of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 so long as the stabilizing purchases are effected at whichever is the lower of two figures—(1) a bona fide independent market price for the security being stabilized or (2) the public offering price of the issue once the offering is made—and that within these restrictions there is no limit under existing statute and rules on the amount of securities which may be purchased in the stabilizing process.

The record of the present investigation indicates that Kaiser-Frazer Corporation on February 3, 1948, undertook for its own account to stabilize the market for its common stock on the New York Curb Exchange and other exchanges in advance of the proposed public offering of the stock, and during the course of the stabilization that day purchased a total of 186,200 shares. The total offering was 1,500,000 shares, 900,000 "firm" and 600,000 on a "best efforts" basis, and the registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 became effective as of 5:30 p. m. on February 3.

In the Commission's experience it is not unusual for a utility company soliciting competitive bids in connection with a proposed offering of securities to reserve the right to stabilize for a short period preceeding the opening of the bids, but it has not been customary for the issuer to stabilize in connection with negotiated underwritings. So far as the amount of stock purchased by way of stabilization is concerned, the Commission has imposed no restrictions. Frequently however the agreement among underwriters reserves to the managers the right to repurchase a fixed percentage of the amount of securities being offered, the amount not infrequently running as high as 15 percent.

The Commission desires to receive the benefit of any suggestions which issuers, underwriters or others interested in the distribution of securities as sellers or purchasers may have for changes in the present treatment of stabilization, whether through changes in existing rules or regulations or through additional legislation. If the Commission determines after receiving these suggestions that changes are necessary, a further opportunity will be afforded to comment on specific proposals prior to any substantial alteration in the Commission's rules.

Without limiting the scope of its invitation for comment, the Commission is particularly interested in the following questions:

1. Whether the Commission, by rule, should prohibit all stabilizing to facilitate offerings of securities, or whether it should prohibit specific types or aspects of stabilizing: for example, (a) stabilizing in advance of a public offering, (b) stabilizing by an issuer, (c) stabilizing of any class of securities of an issuer other than the class being offered, or (d) overallotment of the offered security.

2. Whether the Commission should impose limitations on the nature or extent of stabilizing and related activities: for example, (a) by limiting the amount of securities which may be purchased for the purpose of stabilizing to some percentage of the amount being offered to the public or some percentage of the amount of the security traded on the stock exchange (where the security is traded on an exchange), or (b) by applying to all stabilizing operations some formula for the dropping of bids comparable to that contained in the Commission's Regulation X-9A6-1, or (c) by prohibiting a stabilizer from raising his stabilizing bid under any circumstances (or, alternatively, by permitting such an increase in the bid only where an independent market has existed at a higher level for a given period of time), or (d) by prohibiting certain classes of persons having an interest in an offering of securities from effecting any purchases whatever of securities of the offered class for a period prior to and during the offering, except properly limited stabilizing purchases and purchases from the person making the offering or from other participants in the distribution.

3. Whether the right to stabilize should be conditioned on the assumption by the stabilizer of any affirmative obligations: for example, (a) an obligation to "sponsor" the market for a period after the distribution is completed, or (b) an obligation for a limited time to repurchase on demand securities sold while the market was being stabilized, or (c) an obligation to prevent or retard any rise in the market price prior to the completion of the distribution if the stabilizer has previously purchased securities to prevent or retard a decline in the market.

4. Whether there should be any added requirements for the disclosure of stabilizing either generally or in each transaction or quotation: for example, disclosure (a) on the stock-exchange ticker tape or (b) in reports of transactions or quotations in newspapers or quotation services or (c) in confirmations given to customers.

5. Whether, in order to avoid violations of law, members of stabilizing syndicates should receive from the syndicate manager more information than they do under current practices regarding the status of the distribution and the commencement and termination of stabilizing.

6. Whether it would be desirable and feasible for the Commission to prohibit attempts to profit from the price disparities which are sometimes incident to distributions of securities: for example, (a) whether the public should be prohibited from selling securities against a stabilizing bid with the intention of replacing the securities from the offered issue at a lower price, or (b) whether distributing firms should be required to make a bona fide offering at the public offering price before selling their allotments at higher prices.

7. Whether any action should be taken regarding problems arising under special circumstances: for example, where an underwriter who has a commitment to purchase stock not subscribed through warrants or rights desires to purchase warrants in the market in order to cover current sales of stock and thereby to reduce the size of his commitment.

8. Whether any other changes are appropriate in the Commission's present rules and interpretations regarding stabilizing: for example, Rule 426 under the Securities Act of 1933, Regulation X-9A6-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Rules X-15C1-8 and X-17A-2 and Form X-17A-1 under the latter statute, and the opinions regarding stabilizing in Securities Exchange Act Releases Nos. 3505 and 3506, 11 F. R. 10986 and 10987, §§ 241.3505 and 241.3506 (1943).

All interested persons may submit views and comments in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, NW., Washington 25, D. C., on or before November 1, 1948. To the extent practicable, such comments should refer by number and letter to the problems outlined above.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1123]

TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

SEPTEMBER 16, 1948.

Notice is hereby given that on September 13, 1948, an application was filed with the Federal Power Commission by Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal places of business at Memphis, Tennessee, and Owensboro, Kentucky, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of two 12¾-inch O. D. submarine pipe lines across the Mississippi River near Greenville, Mississippi, and to increase in length and size to 11,000 feet of 26-inch O. D. pipe, the 9,000 feet of 18-inch O. D. pipe extension to the main line header stations of Applicant's 14-inch river crossing, which 9,000 feet extension was authorized by the Federal Power Commission on August 18, 1948, by order issued in Docket No. G-1033.

Applicant states that it presently has in service three 10-inch submarine pipe lines across the Mississippi River to serve its two parallel 18-inch land lines, and also has one 14-inch submarine Mississippi River crossing which was broken early in 1948 and which Applicant now is repairing and relaying. It is stated that due to the changing course of the Mississippi River at the site of Applicant's three 10-inch crossings there is grave danger of one or more of these lines being lost which loss would severely peril the supply of gas to Applicant's customers, and that with all of the three 10-inch lines and one 14-inch line in service there still remains inadequate river crossing pipeline capacity at Greenville for Applicant's two 18-inch land lines.

Applicant states it is imperative that it install additional Mississippi River pipeline crossings to insure against the peril of failure during the coming winter of one or more of the 10-inch lines and also to eliminate to the greatest possible degree the pipeline pressure drop at the Mississippi River which has resulted from inadequate river crossing pipeline capacity.

Applicant requests emergency authorization for the immediate installation of the proposed facilities and as reasons therefor states:

Applicant at this time has at the river crossing site approximately 8,000 feet of 12-inch O. D. pipe which is adequate to install two submarine crossings. There also is at the site a large contracted marine fleet which Applicant brought to Greenville from St. Louis and Cape Girardeau, Missouri, and Memphis, Tennessee, to repair and relay its 14-inch submarine crossing. In addition to this fleet a pipeline contractor's crew and heavy equipment are at the site repairing and replacing the 14-inch crossing. The major cost of the marine fleet consists of the cost of moving to and from the job site, which takes several days, and Applicant therefore will save a very large amount of installation costs if the two 12-inch submarine crossing lines can be installed while the fleet and contractor's equipment are at the river crossing site. In Docket No. G-1033 a certificate of public convenience and necessity was issued to Applicant authorizing the installation of 9,000 feet of 18-inch pipe to extend its 14-inch submarine river crossing to the main line header stations. Applicant has been unable to obtain the 18-inch pipe but in lieu thereof has obtained and has at the river crossing site an adequate supply of 26-inch pipe for such extension. Also, Applicant has found it necessary to relay a substantial portion of its 14-inch river crossing, which will require a slight change in the location of the line and necessitate an extension of 11,000 feet instead of 9,000 feet to the main line header stations. A substantial saving in installation costs can be made by constructing this extension while the contractors equipment is located at the job site.

Applicant states that the service to be rendered upon completion of the proposed facilities will not be different from that now rendered, but that its customers on its Memphis Division will be insured during the coming winter against extended failure of gas supply which may occur should the changing course of the Mississippi River result in a loss of one or more of Applicant's existing 10-inch river crossing lines.

Total estimated cost of construction of the proposed facilities is $360,400 and no additional financing will be required by Applicant in order to complete such construction.

Any interested State commission is requested to notify the Federal Power Commission whether the application should be considered under the cooperative provisions of Rule 37 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.37) and, if so, to advise the Federal Power Commission as to the nature of its interest in the matter and whether it desires a conference, the creation of a board, or a joint or concurrent hearing, together with reasons for such request.

The application of Texas Gas Transmission Corporation is on file with the Commission and open to public inspection. Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to the application shall file with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a petition to intervene or protest. Such petition or protest shall conform to the requirements of Rule 8 or 10, whichever is applicable, of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10).

INDIANA SERVICE CORP. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTIONS AND GRANTING APPLICATIONS

In the matter of Indiana Service Corporation, Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, American Gas and Electric Company, File No. 70–1852; Indiana & Michigan Electric Company, File No. 70–1890.

The Commission by order dated June 30, 1948 having granted the joint application of American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, and its subsidiaries, Indiana Service Corporation ("Indiana Service"), and Indiana & Michigan Electric Company ("Indiana & Michigan") relating, among other things, to the merger of Indiana Service into Indiana & Michigan (File No. 70–1852, Holding Company Act Release No. 8325) and having reserved jurisdiction to consider the fees and expenses incurred in connection with said merger in conjunction with the fees and expenses to be incurred in connection with the proposed financing of the merged company; and

The Commission having, by order dated August 26, 1948, granted the application of Indiana & Michigan, the merged company, regarding the proposed issue and sale of $25,000,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, ------% Series, due 1978, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, (File No. 70–1890. Holding Company Act Release No. 8471); the granting of said application being subject, however, to the condition, among others, that the proposed issue and sale of bonds should not be consummated until the results of the competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 had been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order had been issued by this Commission in the light of the record so completed; and

The Commission having reserved jurisdiction over the fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the proposed issue and sale of bonds; and

A further amendment having been filed on September 15, 1948, setting forth the action taken by Indiana & Michigan to comply with the requirements of Rule U-50 and stating that pursuant to the invitation for competitive bids, the following bids for the bonds have been received:

Bidding group headed by—	Coupon rate	Price to company (percent of principal amount)	Annual cost of money (percent)
The First Boston Corp.	3	100.419	2.97878
Halsey Stuart & Co., Inc.	3	100.1599	2.99188
Harriman Ripley & Co.	3⅛	102.31	3.00757
Dillon Read & Co., Inc.	3⅛	102.1599	3.0151

Said amendment having further set forth that Indiana & Michigan has accepted the bid of the First Boston Corporation, as set out above and that such bonds will be offered for sale to the public at a price of 100.79% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest from September 1, 1948 to the date of delivery, resulting in an underwriter's spread of 0.371% of the principal amount of said bonds; and

Said amendment having also set forth the nature and extent of the legal services rendered in connection with the merger and bond financing and the fees requested in connection therewith and estimated expenses of counsel for which reimbursement is requested; and

It appearing to the Commission that such legal fees and expenses of counsel as set forth below are not unreasonable and that jurisdiction over such matters should be released:

	Merger and bond financing fees	Estimated expenses
Simpson, Thacher & Bartlett, counsel for applicants	$30,000	$950
Seebrit, Oare & Deahl, Indiana counsel for applicants	8,500	675
Other Indiana counsel for applicants	4,000	------
Burns & Hadsell, Michigan counsel for applicants	6,500	625
Winthrop, Stimson, Putnam & Roberts, counsel for successful bidders	12,000	------

The Commission having examined such amendment and having considered the record therein and finding no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to such matters:

It is ordered, that the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to the matters to be determined as a result of the competitive bidding under Rule U-50 and with respect to the fees and expenses in connection with the merger of Indiana Service into Indiana & Michigan and in connection with the issue and sale of bonds by Indiana & Michigan be, and hereby is released, and that the said applications, as amended, be, and the same hereby are, granted, effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

UNITED LIGHT & RAILWAYS CO. ET AL.

Said application-declaration having been filed as a step in the consummation of a plan filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act by American Light and the United Light and Railways Company, which plan was approved by order of the Commission dated December 30, 1947, and which provided, among other things, for (1) the divestment by American of its holdings of 1,418,125 shares of Detroit Edison common stock and the investment of not to exceed $25,000,000 of the proceeds of such sale in the common stock of Michigan-Wisconsin, a company organized in 1945 for the purpose of constructing and operating a natural gas pipe line; (2) the offer by American Light to purchase at $33 per share its outstanding 6% $25 par value non-callable stock; (3) the disposition by Railways of its non-retainable interest in American and the latter's disposition of its non-retainable interest in Madison Gas and Electric Company ("Madison"); and (4) consummation of the plan prior to December 31, 1948, except as it relates to the completion of the construction of the Michigan-Wisconsin pipe line;
